NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given to the land owners of South Fredericksburgh that the Weed Act is to be more rigidly enforced during 1929.

Farmers, therefore, are advised to exercise greater care in preparing the seed-bed, and to sow only clean seed.

Badly infested fields should not be sown to Spring grains, but should be thoroughly worked the early part of the season, and later sown to buckwheat, rape or a hoe crop; or in extreme cases, summer fallowed and worked throughout the season.

If these precautions are not taken, the Inspector may exercise his authority and have the menace removed before the weeds mature.

FRED SILLS,
Inspector.

THE RECALL

P. Hoole Jackson.
In Manchester Guardian.

I hadn't been out since 1918, and only once or twice then for joy trips with men who had shared dugouts with me before the war. I was the only smartest uniform in the army drew them from my side in the Flanders mud. I envied them for a time; they had had that navy-like life which was so unmartial, so foul and commonplace, to which I resented so often. I often watched the planes going over in the pale blue sky, when the gold of the rising sun just glinted on their wings and made them flash like magnificent birds, the hum of the engines coming down to us in the trenches like a fighting song, though often enough it was a swan-song which they sang. Sometimes I saw them brought down, falling like flaming meteors; but death must have been mercifully swift, and it was crowned by a true Viking funeral—better than choking slowly in the slimy ooze of the line. Of those who left me only Rogers remained when the Armistice came, and he had been brought down, though not in flames.

Rogers Loses His Memory.

His memory had gone when they found him wandering about just behind our line. His eyes were pale and almost expressionless, seeming to give his face the appearance of being only a mask . . . with nothing behind. The doctors gave him up one by one—a hopeless case. Then one day I heard a psychologist friend talking about places and memory, and I drew him on one side and garnered all the knowledge I could. "I wouldn't build on it, Billy," he said when I had told him all, "but it might . . . you could try."

It took three months to arrange it all. But time went fast, for I had to make all the arrangements, besides persuading Rogers' relatives that it couldn't do any harm. Then we crossed the water and crawled up to the scarcely one of those slow trains which dawdle over the branch lines of France.

The day was clear and crisp; the huts dotted round reminded me of days when huts in clusters meant decent quarters for a day or so. But Rogers took it without any sign in his pallid eyes; even when we clambered in he was like a child, and then the engine roared and we were off.

Dots swaying under us were the huts, woods, and villages spread out as if by magic, and the roar of wind rushing by was like a memory of something from old days. Below us to the east gleamed the roofs of Cambrai, right in the hills along which our line had run in the days when to have walked in the open there meant death. We rose higher and higher; the pilot had his orders and we were nearing the place. Up into the sky we hummed, the cold numbing my brain; then we flattened, swooped, and swerved, and I saw that we were above where Havrincourt village used to be.

Drastic Treatment.

I have no clear recollection of the next few moments. We began to dive downwards, and then, without warning, the pilot imitated the falling leaf. Earth, sky, woods, everything seemed mixed up, whirling about us, my mind lost consciousness, I think that I cried out, but even of that I am not sure. The earth rushed nearer, sometimes appearing to be above us; but the sensation was over before my frightened senses had time to adjust themselves. We flattened out, missed a wood by what seemed feet, slid down a slope, and bumped and rattled over a field which looked as though it couldn't have been, to an undignified standstill in the farther ditch.

Rogers was out before either the pilot or myself, running for his life, half doubled up and dodging like a hare as he ran. He dived into the first patch as we followed, almost falling over him in the remains of an old trench.

"Quick! This way," he called, running round a traverse, the sandbags of which were pale and rotten with age, but still holding together. We found him crouched in an old shelter, lighting a cigarette.

Old Scenes Restore Memory.

"Near go, that," he said. "I expected a bullet round my ears any minute. . . . Why . . . Billy . . . what luck . . . didn't know you were in this part of the line."

It was night when we left the dugout. It was hour before we dare break the thread of his words. We had brought food and drink in the plane, and we pieced out as we had done so long before. Slowly we managed to bring home to him what had happened. Only when we walked out to the plane did the full realisation of it all come fully to his mind. A peasant was working in the field. I think the sight of him did more than anything to keep Rogers sane.

"I never thought I should see that again, Billy," he said to me as we clambered into the machine. We slipped home under the stars, for we had flamed as we started the old bus. It was a wonderful journey for me . . . what it must have been for him I cannot imagine, rather like entering paradise after a spell in purgatory.

When we clambered out I thanked the pilot. "That falling-leaf stunt did the trick," I said. "It must have twisted full control . . . it was only the luck of the engine starting again that saved us."

It may have been fate playing a lone hand, it may have been luck, but the light in Rogers' eyes was restored. We didn't discuss it again, and we never told him; the shock might have been too much. As we entered the warm atmosphere of the canteen the man whose mind had returned linked arms with us.

"Do they still mix whiskies and sodas?" he asked.

They do . . . and they did.

ODESSA

Last Friday night the second of the series of euchre parties given by the Women's Institute, in the public reading room of the Library, was held, and it was a very enjoyable evening. The lunch prepared was very delicious and reflected great credit for the ladies who provided. The prizes were won by Mrs. Cunningham for ladies, and Mrs. Nelson Smith for gentlemen, were won by Mrs. Sidney Brouse and W. E. Topliff. The prizes for the first Library euchre party were donated by Mrs. J. L. Swift and D. G. Price, and the next euchre party to be held by the Library Board in the library reading room, will be held on Easter Monday, April 1st. There are fifteen tables, and the Board hopes that all may be filled, as they are badly in need of money to carry on the good work. Then in the near future they are anticipating an "At Home", which will be held in the Town Hall. All are welcome, and remember the delightful evening, a chance to win a prize, and a very fine lunch, all for 25c. — The Continuation School staged their popular play, "Pedro, a Cracker" — The Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. William Pruid last Wednesday, for a social evening, and had a large attendance.—The annual cheese meeting was held in the Town Hall last Wednesday afternoon, and the patrons were well represented.—Miss Fern Sproule is visiting friends in Cobourg.—Mr. Anson Hughes, who has been living for some time in Newburgh, has returned to his home here.—Mr. and Mrs. Hughes will be welcomed by their many friends.

Wallace's Cow Pox Ointment, containing Eucalyptol Ammoniated Mercury. Sublimed Sulphur, etc., is splendid for cow pox, sore teats, and caked bag. A full ½-lb. tin 60c., at Wallace's Drug Store.

BATH

The play put on in the Masonic Hall, on Friday evening, March 22nd, entitled "He's My Pal", under the auspices of the Young People's Society of the United Church, was a decided success.—Mrs. J. A. Tompkins and Mrs. Joseph Milligan are both seriously ill.—An elderly resident, residing a couple of miles east of the village, in the person of Mrs. James Young, died at the House of Providence, Kingston, last Sunday evening, to which she had been removed when her home was destroyed by fire, recently. — The many friends of Mr. Arthur Finkley, of Collins Bay, were sorry to learn of his death. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge here.—All regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Harvey Amey, in Kingston, as she was well known here.—Mrs. L. Kellar, of Links Mills, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Mott.—Miss Margaret Rose left yesterday for Wellington, where she will spend a few days.—Mrs. Meggs, of Boston, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Walmsley, of Detroit, were visitors at the home of C. Creighton's.—The supper held in Osborne's Ice Cream Parlor, on March 16th, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid, was a decided success.—The Women's Institute held a St. Patrick's Day party in the Masonic Hall, on March 18th, which was very successful.—Mr. H. D. Wemp, of Kingston, was home over the week end.

DEMONSTRATION CLASS IN THE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

"A needle tho it be small and slender,
Is truly both a maker and a mender.
A needle is an instrument
Of profit, pleasure and ornament."

The Napanee Branch of Women's Institutes has been enjoying for the past week the most successful demonstration course ever held in Napanee, under the able leadership of Miss M. V. Young, Toronto, Ont., departmental demonstrator. Miss Powell, on Monday, asked her class to read the Bible and pray. She found there what is needed to get the best results from fine stitchery, namely wise hearted women, knowledge and understanding, purpose or use, material or fabric, pattern, or design, colors and stitchery.

"They who bring sunshine to others Cannot keep it them from themselves"

Miss Powell not only taught beautiful stitching, planning of work in colors, suitability, fitness of purpose, pattern and design, but brought out the beauty in so called common things and the power to express our love of the aesthetic She wove into these practical things of life the beautiful thoughts of a poet and the love of expression by the color of a master painter. Her talk on the origin and beauty of colors, its usefulness in expressing our own individual thoughts, what can be found in the face of a flower and how to get the effect intended by the designer on a beautiful old tapestry, will not be forgot by those fortunate enough to hear it.

Each day the class carried away new thoughts on character building worth the effort expended on the whole week's course.

The class closed on Friday with a very fitting vote of thanks moved by Mrs. Shore Loynes, who expressed the appreciation of the class for the splendid week they had spent together with Miss Powell, seconded by Mrs. T. V. Anderson.

Then Mrs. R. S. Ham, President of the Branch, in a few well chosen words, presented Miss Powell with a gift from the class as a tangible remembrance, to which Miss Powell answered, expressing her pleasure in being with the Napanee Class.

Examinations in all the classes of the High School are being conducted this week.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Percy Gerow on the gift of twin daughters.

Rev. T. H. P. Anderson visited the Public School on Friday and addressed the L. T. Legion.

The Wesley Mission Circle visited the parsonage on Thursday evening last. Although the storm prevented many from attending, those who were present however had an enjoyable evening.

Messrs. G. Wagar and L. Fox are busy making improvements in the S. S. room of the United Church and redecorating it.

On Wednesday, April 3rd, the W. M. S. will hold their Easter Thankoffering service in the United Church. Mrs. Wesley Wagar, of Centreville, will give the address.

Plans are under way for the Y. P. L. Father and Son, Mother and Daughter banquet to be held in April.

Mrs. D. Vandervoort was called to Cobourg recently to attend the funeral of her niece.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett, of Toronto, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Denison, a few days last week, motoring down from the city.

Miss Helen Ramsay has been holidaying at Dalkeith, visiting her sister, Mrs. Sarah Ramsay.

Mrs. Ravelle, of Odessa, spent part of last week with Mrs. George Wartman.

Miss Maude Wagar, nurse-in-training at Kingston General Hospital, was with her parents on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Wartman attended a birthday party at Mrs. Bruce Finlay's on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Clarence Denison, of Napanee, spent a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Farley.

Mrs. W. A. Ramsay is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Arnold, at Roblin.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Farley were callers on the latter's father, Mr. James Farley, on Sunday.

Mrs. Allen, of Odessa, visited friends in the village during the week.

Mr. Robert Tait, an aged resident, passed away at the General Hospital after a lingering illness. The remains were brought to Newburgh and the funeral conducted by the Rev. T. H. P. Anderson, of the United Church. He leaves to mourn his loss his aged widow, who is ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tait.

Mrs. S. Shorey reached her eighty-seventh birthday on March 16th and was kindly remembered by her relatives and friends, many of whom sent flowers, while cards and letters were numerous. Mrs. Shorey enjoys good health and is one of the older residents of Newburgh. Many friends wish her continued health and happiness.

The service in the Free Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon was largely attended and a number of members added to the church. Service will be held in the church on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Miss Dunwoody, of Ebenezer, was a recent guest with Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Dunwoody.

Mr. Fred Wales, of Switzerville, called on his father, Mr. James Wales, on Saturday.

Mrs. Russel Craig called on her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Wales, on Friday.

Miss Grace King spent part of Sunday with Mrs. J. S. Yeomans.

Mr. Stone has started serving ice cream for the season.

Mrs. R. Nugent spent part of last week with her sister, Mrs. Baker.

Mrs. Gunter, of Poitierville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. Vandervoort.

Mr. James Cameron, of Michigan, has arrived in Newburgh to stay for a while with his brother, Mr. John Cameron, and his sister, Miss E. Cameron.

Mr. Joseph Tate, of Selby; Mrs. R. Bell, of Desmond, and Mrs. J. S. Galbraith, of British Columbia, attended the funeral of the late Robert Tait.

Miss Joselyn Paul visited for a few days with Mrs. W. Allen, Yarker.

Miss Laura King, of Tweed, is spending her holidays at her home here.

Mrs. McGill has returned to Centreville, after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. F. Gerow.

Mrs. J. Wartman and Mrs. G. Wagar were recent visitors at Enterprise.

Miss Edmore King is spending some time in Napanee.

Mr. and Mrs. Anson Hughes have moved to Odessa, where they will reside. Mrs. Hughes was formerly Mrs. E. Boyce, and has resided in Newburgh for a number of years. Her many friends and neighbors wish her many years of happiness in her new home.

The Young Peoples' Society of the United Church motored to Yarker on Monday evening, having been invited by the Yarker Society to enjoy a banquet with them. A short programme followed, in which Newburgh talent assisted. The Rev. Mr. McKenzie, of Yarker, was present, and Rev. Mr. Anderson, of Newburgh, were present and assisted in making the evening a profitable and enjoyable one. A number of people of Newburgh speak highly of the welcome accorded them at Yarker, and hope to have the pleasure of a return visit from the Yarker Society.

Rogers Batteryless Radio is the Year 'Round Radio

This Year Marks its 5th Year of Proven Performance

Rogers "Four-Ninety" Console with DYNAMIC SPEAKER

A superb new 1929 Model for those who want the utmost in radio reception. Single dial tuning with illuminated dial. Automatic Voltage Control, Rogers Output Filter, Phonograph "Plug-in" Jack. Genuine Walnut Cabinet by Malcolm. Price complete $395.00

RADIO without batteries, chemicals or attachments of any kind!—It's hard to realize now how revolutionary this idea was—when the first Rogers-Batteryless Models were introduced to the public, back in 1925.

Then, the accepted way to operate a radio was by means of batteries. Today, electric sets are rapidly replacing battery-operated sets wherever current is available. And among all such electric radios the Rogers-Batteryless is the standard in performance and quality.

You're missing a lot without a Rogers. For, with the remarkable development of chain broadcasting—not only of musical programs, but of practically all important public and sporting events—radio has become a year 'round source of entertainment and educations. And—as any owner will tell you—Rogers is the ideal year 'round radio.

Ask us to demonstrate this beautiful "Four-Ninety" Console with improved Dynamic Speaker—Rogers finest Receiver housed in a cabinet to grace the finest home. Any other comparable radio would cost from $50 to $100 more, and it wouldn't give you Rogers results. Terms, if desired.

CAMDEN EAST WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The March meeting of Camden East Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Acton Robinson. The meeting opened with the Ode and Creed, followed by the roll call which was responded to by "Current Events".

The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Correspondence was read and included letters of thanks for treats sent to several sick folk; a letter from the League of Nations, asking us to renew our membership; and a letter introducing a Forestry Booklet recently printed by the Ontario Forestry Branch.

The membership to the League of Nations was renewed, and Mrs. A. Robinson was elected to receive and distribute the League's literature.

A small sum of money was voted to the Prince of Wales Welch Miners' Fund.

Owing to the absence of several who were to contribute to our programme that was rather short, but that did not detract any from the numbers presented, as follows: A reading, "Aim High", by the hostess; music by Miss Isabella Robinson, and a most interesting braided rug demonstration by Mrs. Acton Robinson, who showed us some beautiful rugs and explained very clearly the method of making them. No excuse now for having bundles of cast-off or worn-out clothing hiding in the attic to attract moths when for a few cents worth of thread and some spare hours one can create such useful and artistic rugs. We all thank Mrs. Robinson for her demonstration which we thoroughly enjoyed.

The meeting ended, the members invited their visitors to the dining room, where a surprise, in the form of a delightful oyster supper, awaited them. Needless to say, this was much enjoyed by all.

During the past two weeks we have had the Home Nursing and First Aid class in Camden East. This very instructive and interesting class, conducted by Miss Petty, of Toronto, was held at the home of Mrs. Allore, to whom we are very grateful for the free use of her rooms. The class was well attended, considering the amount of illness in the community. The last day's class was followed by a social half hour, during which lunch was served, and a small gift from the members of the class was presented to Miss Petty.

Our next meeting, when we expect Odessa W. I. to visit us and provide the programme, will be held at 2 p.m. on April 8th, at the home of Mrs. G. Smedley. Roll call is to be answered by "Don'ts for the Sick Room".

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

SHADE TREES.

To the Editor of The Beaver.

Dear Sir,—I see by letters from the Ontario Forestry Department that there will be available for reforesting in this province fourteen million young trees offered gratis to the farmers of Ontario for planting on waste lands which are now absolutely worthless since all the lumber products and other wood trees have been cut or burned up by forest fires. This is a good scheme, and should meet with a ready and instant response by those of our farming community whose land has been so denuded of its natural and original wealth. Already some of the more enterprising farmers directly interested have taken advantage of the Government's offer and have set out some thousands of young trees from the Provincial nurseries, suitable for reforesting, but in a county like that of Lennox and Addington, where so much non-arable land is found in almost every concession, the proportion so utilized should be increased, year by year, until a greater part of the waste land is covered and made productive in the only way Nature allows. I hope the farmers in this old County may take advantage of the present opportunity thus found at their doors. Look at the mine of wealth twenty or thirty years coming would be on every acre of "bad land" so treated.

Another thing: I have travelled much over the Province of Ontario, and also a good deal in this and Frontenac Counties, and have noticed with regret how few farms have shade trees on the roadside adjoining. I have seen even stumps beside the fences at regular intervals showing that shade trees had once been there, but for some reason or another they had been cut down—if simply for firewood, the bad taste so manifested is appalling to me. If it is because the full grown trees shaded the fields too much, the reason is also a poor one, for such an ornament as a line of shade trees, or one on each side of the road, is a valuable asset to any farm, and as a more desirable place to live and spend one's life in, needs no argument to demonstrate. To the passerby or a tourist, how much pleasanter the outlook is. Around Napanee how bare some of the farms and farm houses look with none of Nature's ornaments there to please the eye and force admiration for the taste once shown by some owner past or present.

Napanee's beauty is greatly enhanced by its wealth of shade trees. Just imagine how improved the rural roadsides would be if along every farm lines of hard maple or elm trees were in evidence.

I have also been in rural England, and in a country like that where land is so valuable, trees line the roadside, and not only there, but each field in most cases have trees on the division line. So England is rightly called a garden and a traveller's paradise.

Yours truly,
TREE LOVER.

CAMDEN VIII. W. M. S.

The March meeting of Camden VIII. United W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. Adam Pingland. In the absence of the President, Mrs. R. J. Wilson took charge and conducted devotional period, using hymn, "How Firm a Foundation". Prayer and Scripture reading, the devotional leaflet, entitled "Budget Making", being read by Mrs. Beckstead. A paper on preparation for Easter was read by Mrs. Thos. Wilson, followed by the singing of "Jesus Shall Reign", after which all joined in a season of prayer. The minutes of February meeting were read and declared correct.

Plans were discussed for our Easter Thankoffering service, and it was decided to hold our service in the church on Sunday, April 7th, at 2.30 p.m., Mrs. George Switzer, of Napanee, having very kindly consented to give the address. A good attendance and a liberal thankoffering is earnestly hoped for at this meeting, on the first Sunday in April.

The study topic, "Work Among the Orientals in Canada", was reviewed and discussed by four speakers.

The singing of "Lord, While for all Mankind We Pray", and the Mizpah benediction brought the meeting to a close, after which a social half hour was spent. Mrs. Pingland serving a dainty lunch.

No Medicine Like Baby's Own Tablets

For Either the Newborn Babe or the Growing Child

There is no other medicine to equal Baby's Own Tablets for little ones—whether it be for the newborn babe or the growing child the Tablets always do good. They are absolutely free from opiates or other harmful drugs and the mother can always feel safe in using them.

Concerning the Tablets, Mrs. John Armour, R.R. 1, South Monaghan, Ont., says:—"We have three fine healthy children, to whom, when a medicine is needed, we have given only Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets are the best medicine you can keep in any home where there are young children."

Baby's Own Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the stomach and bowels, banish constipation and indigestion, break up colds and simple fever and make teething easy. They are sold by medicine dealers or direct by mail at 25c. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

WILTON W. M. S.

The regular monthly meeting of the Wilton Women's Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. Bernard Mills, on Wednesday afternoon, March 20th. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Bernard Davey. Mrs. Davey opened the meeting with an introductory reading on "Calvary", after which all joined in singing the hymn, "There is a Green Hill Far Away". Mrs. (Rev.) McQuade then led in prayer.

The programme was divided into two parts; the first dealing with "Calvary" and the second with "The Resurrection". Several excellent readings were given on both subjects. Our President, Mrs. A. W. Babcock, then took charge of the business. Reports were received from our Treasurer, Secretary and from our travelling basket. Various letters were also read, which had been received from our sick friends who had received fruit and flowers as tokens of love from our travelling basket. During the singing of hymn, "Saviour, Thy Dying Love", our Easter Thankoffering was received.

Mrs. Babcock and Helen then sang a duet, entitled "Bring Beautiful Lilies". Our meeting was brought to a close with prayer by Mrs. J. E. Miller.

A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, and all enjoyed the social half hour which followed.

Our next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. N. Babcock on April 17th.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Presentation and Address.

A number of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Damon Snider, Odessa, on Thursday evening, to spend a social time together before their departure to their new home at Sydenham. The following address was read by Mrs. E. Gilbert, and a purse of money presented by Mrs. Herbert Hegadorn. Following is the address:

We have been called together this evening to spend a sociable and pleasant time together, and yet it has a little sadness mingled with it. We are reminded of the fact that you are about to leave our midst, and we all regret it very much, and want to show our appreciation of your kindness in some way.

We are indeed glad that you will not be so far removed but that we may some time have the joy of a little visit in your new home, and you may always be sure of a welcome in our homes. We feel that although your removal from this your old home is a loss to us, it will be a gain to those in and near your new home. We would ask you to accept this purse, and that God will be with you till we meet again.

Signed on behalf of the community,
MRS. E. GILBERT,
MRS. H. HEGADORN.

Mr. Snider responded on behalf of Mrs. Snider and himself, and thanked the people for their gift.

A New WILLYS-KNIGHT SIX PRESENTATION

In the new-style Willys-Knight model 70-D, Willys-Overland presents the outstanding creation of today's style specialists.

The colorful, larger bodies have extra-roomy, luxurious interiors. The newly designed radiator is higher and more graceful. Full-crown fenders and smartly shaped lamps complete this de-luxe ensemble.

"Finger-Tip Control" is another remarkable feature. A single button in the centre of the steering wheel starts the motor, controls the lights and sounds the horn.

The new-style Willys-Knight is the largest and most powerful Knight-engined car ever offered at so low a price. It meets the demands of additional thousands who have always wanted the silky smoothness, surging power, freedom from carbon and valve troubles and increasing efficiency of its patented sleeve-valve engine.

Willys-Knight 70-B Sedan $1545, Coach $1420, Coupe $1420, Roadster $1420, Touring $1325. Willys-Knight 56-A Coach $1220, Sedan $1345. Prices F.O.B. Factory, Toronto, taxes extra.

The Island of the Stairs

BY CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY

my head as I spoke. There above a certain entrance I saw a rude Latin cross.

"Look!" I continued. "Some one has been here. 'Tis the sign of the cross!"

"Yes," she said, her hopes reviving and her spirits returning a little at the sight of that sacred symbol of our faith.

"Don't you remember on the map marking the position of the cave there was a little cross?"

"So there was!" I exclaimed, "although the reading did not mention it."

"No, but it is there nevertheless."

I stooped down—the entrance was scarcely three feet high, but quite broad—and made to go through.

"Wait!" She seized me in great alarm. "You can't go there and leave me here!" she cried.

"I promise you that I will not stir three feet from the entrance if you will suffer me that far," I answered.

"I must come, too, then," she urged.

"I will see what is there first, and if it is safe you shall come with me," I answered.

As I spoke I crawled through and found myself in another smaller chamber. There being no danger, I stretched out my hand to her and brought her through after me. From some distant crevice the air came to us. We could feel it blow upon us, and it was sweet; also I could hear water bubbling over rocks in the distance. It was a little damp in the cave, perhaps because of that. There was little light, however, save that cast by the lantern. I could not see the farther wall.

CHAPTER XIV.

In Which We Find the Treasure and Are Attacked.

We did not need to go further into the cave, for there before us lay a number of large wooden boxes or chests, moldy and ancient. The boxes had once been iron strapped, but the iron had rusted and the wood had rotted. I found. I stepped over to one of them, lifted the lid, which crumbled at my touch, and there was the treasure—heaps of gold and silver! Thousands of pounds lay to our hands! The old buccaneer had told the truth. The story of the parchment was not a romance; the plunder of the ancient galleon was there. For my part I would gladly have exchanged it all for a stout boat and a clear passage through the reef, with a chance for freedom.

"Well, your great-great-great-grandfather, for how many generations back I know not, was right," I said at last. "The treasure is here and we have found it. It is yours."

"Yes," she said, to whom the same thought had come, "but now that we have found it of what value or use is it?"

"None," I admitted, "that I can see."

"And what may be its value, think you?"

"It would make good ballast for a ship," I answered lightly.

"But, if we could take it hence to England!"

"Millions I can only guess."

"I will give you one-half of it for your share," she said, laughing softly.

"I want none of it," I returned seriously enough.

What possessed her to do it I know not, and she since confessed she knows not either. We stood there, looking down upon the useless treasure, when she turned to me on a sudden.

"Now that you have seen it are you still of the same mind," she said mischievously, "that you would give up your portion of the treasure—for me?"

"Great God!" I cried, moved beyond measure by her imprudent remark and thrown off my balance by her—dare I say—coquetry, "I would give up the world itself for you. Don't you know it?"

And I made a step toward her, but she put up her hand.

"Hush, hush, Master Hampdon!" she cried, affrighted at the consequences of her pleasantry, and I could swear she turned crimson in the candlelight. "'Tis not time or place now. Remember that I am alone and that I am at your mercy."

"I shall never forget that again," I said grimly. "This treasure removes you further away from me than ever."

"What mean you?"

"When you get back to England and take your place once more among your friends in that society to which your birth entitles you and which this wealth will enable you to sustain"—

"And who is to take me back to England?"

"I."

"How?"

"I know not, but I shall do it."

"And with the treasure?"

"With the treasure, too; at least a sufficiency of it for all your needs."

"And when you have done this amazing thing for me you expect to disappear from my life, Master Hampdon?"

"Aye, if need be."

She laughed and I did not understand the meaning of that laugh either.

"Let us search and see if there is anything else. Your ancestor spoke of jewels," he said.

"Yes," she said, "there should be a smaller casket. Let us look further."

There were perhaps a dozen large boxes. I opened them all. Some were quite empty, with a little pile of dust in them and a few shreds of color here and there which indicated silk had been packed in them. There were also broken barrels around which still clung a faint odor of spices. There were piles of rotted debris further on, and as I stirred one of them with my sword I struck something more solid. I brushed aside what seemed to be the decayed remains of sailcloth and canvas and finally came upon a smaller casket bound, hinged, and cornered with some kind of metal which I afterward found to be silver, for iron would have rusted away long since. The casket was about a foot long by six inches wide and six inches deep. The metal which completely covered it was curiously chased. The casket was locked. I crumbled the wood in my hands, but could not open the lock. The edge of my ax, however, proved a potent key, and at last forced it apart, and as I did so out fell a little heap of which I judged to be precious stones. There were green, red, blue and white ones, among them many pearls sadly discolored and tarnished. The stones were jetted with an almost living energy. My mistress was more familiar with these things than I, and I presented a handful to her.

"Why, they are treasure stones!" she cried in an awe struck whisper. "Look!" She held up a diamond as big as her thumb nail. It sparkled like a sun in the candlelight. "And there is an emerald," she cried, picking up one of the green stones. "This lone one is a sapphire; this a ruby. Why," she exclaimed, "here is a fortune among these jewels must be of fabulous value. The gold and silver we might leave behind, but these we can carry with us."

In my heart I was sorry to find them, but I had the grace immediately to say:

"I am glad for that. We must gather them up, but where shall we put them?"

"In the pockets of your coat for the present," she answered.

Now there were not so many of them—perhaps three or four handfuls—as to carry enough to fill the casket. I figured that it had been a jewel box with little trays or drawers and that the stones had been wrapped separately. At last we had all fallen together when the partitions rotted away. I easily found room for them in the capacious side pockets of my coat, and then we turned back to the outer room. Dreaming by the hideous altar, we gained the light. It was now late in the afternoon, we found to our surprise.

We had spent hours over the treasure and we had just time to retrace our steps and get back to the boat on the beach and partake of our evening meal when night fell. As we sat by the fire that night I made little bags out of a piece of canvas taken from a bread bag and we put the jewels into them, dividing them into equal parts. One bag she wore constantly thereafter on her person and I the other. She insisted that the rough and ready division we had made was permanent; that the bag I carried belonged to me and the bag she carried belonged to her. But I refused to have it so in spite of her argument, and there we left it.

During the next two or three days we leisurely explored the island. There was nothing else on it to see which merits any particular description. We did not again visit the central hill, nor did we enter any other cave. We did not even go near the treasure cave again. On the contrary, we kept to the open. We chose to live near the sea on the beach, which was high above all tides and which was removed from the charnel spots which made a mockery of the syiran grotto within the walls. The island was well provided with tropical fruits, many being good for food, as I knew. We caught fish in the lagoon and turtle on the sand. We lacked nothing to make us comfortable, even happy, except the means of escape.

We spent our days in trying to devise some means of getting across the reef and back home again—that is, when I was not idly lying at the feet or following the footsteps of the woman I loved. I didn't want to get away, so far as I was concerned. I didn't care whether we ever got away. I had wit enough not to let her see, not to let her suspect that for a moment, however, and I tried to convince her by my conduct toward her that my kissing her on the ship had been but

In the new-style Willys-Knight model 70-D, Willys-Overland presents the outstanding creation of today's style specialists.

The colorful, larger bodies have extra-roomy, luxurious interiors. The newly designed radiator is higher and more graceful. Full-crown fenders and smartly shaped lamps complete this de-luxe ensemble.

"Finger-Tip Control" is another remarkable feature. A single button in the centre of the steering wheel starts the motor, controls the lights and sounds the horn.

The new-style Willys-Knight is the largest and most powerful Knight-engined car ever offered at so low a price. It meets the demands of additional thousands who have always wanted the silky smoothness, surging power, freedom from carbon and valve troubles and increasing efficiency of its patented sleeve-valve engine.

Willys-Knight 70-B Sedan $1545, Coach $1420, Coupe $1420, Roadster $1420, Touring $1525, Willys-Knight 66A Coach $1220, Sedan $1345. Prices F.O.B. Factory, Toronto, taxes extra.

The Island of the Stairs

BY CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY

my head as I spoke. There above a certain entrance I saw a rude Latin cross. "Look!" I continued. "Some one has been here. 'Tis the sign of the cross!"

"Yes," she said, her hopes reviving and her spirits returning a little at the sight of that sacred symbol of our faith. "Don't you remember on the map marking the position of the cave there was a little cross?"

"So there was!" I exclaimed, "although the reading did not mention it."

"No, but it is there nevertheless."

I stooped down—the entrance was scarcely three feet high, but quite broad—and made to go through.

"Wait!" She seized me in great alarm. "You can't go there and leave me here!" she cried.

"I promise you that I will not stir three feet from the entrance if you will suffer me that far," I answered.

"I must come, too, then," she urged.

"I will see what is there first, and if it is safe you shall come with me," I answered.

As I spoke I crawled through and found myself in another smaller chamber. There being no danger, I stretched out my hand to her and brought her through after me. From some distant crevice the air came to us. We could feel it blow upon us, and it was sweet; also I could hear water babbling over rocks in the distance. It was a little damp in the cave, perhaps because of that. There was little light, however, save that cast by the lantern. I could not see the farther wall.

CHAPTER XIV.

In Which We Find the Treasure and Are Attacked.

WE did not need to go further into the cave, for there before us lay a number of large wooden boxes or chests, moldy and ancient. The boxes had once been iron strapped, but the iron had rusted and the wood had rotted. I found. I stepped over to one of them, lifted the lid, which crumbled at my touch, and there was the treasure—heaps of gold and silver! Thousands of pounds lay to our hands! The old buccaneer had told the truth. The story of the parchment was not a romance; the plunder of the ancient galleon was there. For my part I would gladly have exchanged it all for a stout boat and a clear passage through the reef, with a chance for freedom.

"Well, your great-great-great-grandfather, for how many generations back I know not, was right," I said at last. "The treasure is here and we have found it. It is yours."

"Yes," she said, to whom the same thought had come, "but now that we have found it of what value or use is it?"

"None," I admitted, "that I can see."

"And what may be its value, think you?"

"It would make good ballast for a ship," I answered lightly.

"But if we could take it hence to England!"

"Millions I can only guess."

"I will give you one-half of it for your share," she said, laughing softly.

"I want none of it," I returned seriously enough.

What possessed her to do it I know not, and she since confessed she knows not either. We stood there, looking down upon the useless treasure, when she turned to me on a sudden.

"Now that you have seen it are you still of the same mind," she said mischievously, "that you would give up your portion of the treasure—for me?"

"Great God!" I cried, moved beyond measure by her imprudent remark and thrown off my balance by her—dare I say?—coquetry, "I would give up the world itself for you. Don't you know it?"

And I made a step toward her, but she put up her hand.

"Hush, hush, Master Hampdon!" she cried, affrighted at the consequences of her pleasantry, and I could swear she turned crimson in the candlelight. "'Tis not time or place now. Remember that I am alone and that I am at your mercy."

"I shall never forget that again," I said grimly. "This treasure removes you further away from me than ever."

"What mean you?"

"When you get back to England and take your place once more among your friends in that society to which your birth entitles you and which this wealth will enable you to sustain"—

"And who is to take me back to England?"

"I."

"How?"

"I know not, but I shall do it."

"And with the treasure?"

"With the treasure, too, at least a sufficiency of it for all your needs."

"And when you have done this amazing thing for me you expect to disappear from my life, Master Hampdon?"

"Aye, if need be."

She laughed and I did not understand the meaning of that laugh either.

"Let us search and see if there is anything else. Your ancestor spoke of jewels," he said.

"Yes," she said, "there should be a smaller casket. Let us look further."

There were perhaps a dozen large boxes. I opened them all. Some were quite empty, with a little pile of dust in them and a few shreds of color here and there which indicated silk had been packed in them. There were also broken barrels around which still clung a faint odor of spices. There were piles of rotted debris further on, and as I stirred one of them with my sword I struck something more solid. I brushed aside what seemed to be the decayed remains of cordage and canvas and finally came upon a smaller casket bound, hinged, and cornered with some kind of metal which I afterward found to be silver, for iron would have rusted away long since. The casket was about a foot long by six inches wide and six inches deep. The metal which completely covered it was curiously chased. The casket was locked. I crumbled the wood in my hands, but could not open the lock. The edge of my ax, however, proved a potent key, and at last forced it apart, and I did so not feel a little heap of what I judged to be precious stones. There were green, red, blue and white ones, shining them as if pearls and gems were mixed with the stones. The stones glittered with an unusual living energy. My mistress was more familiar with these things than I and I presented a handful to her.

"Why, they are precious stones!" she cried in an awe struck whisper. "Look!" She held up a diamond as big as her thumb nail. It sparkled like a sun in the candlelight. "And there is an emerald!" she cried, picking up one of the green stones. "Come now is a carnelian; this a ruby. Why!" she exclaimed, "here is a fortune—more than enough to buy all the fabrics with me. The gold and silver we might leave behind, but these we can carry with us."

In my heart I was sorry we had found them, for I had the grave unmanliness to say:

"I am glad for that. We must gather them up, but where shall we put them?"

"In the pockets of your coat for the present," she answered.

Now there were not so many of them—perhaps three or four handfuls—not nearly enough to fill the casket. I figured that it had been a jewel box with little trays or drawers and that the stones had been wrapped separately. It had all fallen together when the partitions rotted away. I easily found room for them in the capacious side pockets of my coat and then we turned back to the outer room. Passing by the hideous altar, we gained the light. It was now late in the afternoon, we found to our surprise.

We had spent hours over the treasure and we had just time to retrace our steps and get back to the beach on the island and partake of our evening meal when night fell. As we sat by the fire that night I made little logs out of a piece of canvas taken from the stores that had been wrapped around the bales. I momentary madness, but I learned later that I failed lamentably. She says now that a baby could see that I was dying for her, and I suppose it is true, but at least I didn't say anything. After that outbreak in the cave I kept silence.

Late one afternoon we stood at the head of the stairs looking seaward. We had come from a long ramble throughout the cup of the island, and as we stood on the top our gaze as usual instinctively turned toward the sea, perhaps seeking for the sail of some rescuing ship. The water was black with great savage war canoes.

"Great God," I cried; "look yonder!"

"I see, I see!" she cried in turn. "Who can they be?"

"Dwellers from the other islands in the westward," I answered.

They could not see us yet, fortunately; but, after all, that mattered little. My little lady did not seem to be nearly as disturbed as I.

"The reef will protect us," she said at last, looking at me confidently.

"Not for a moment," I answered. "They will ride that reef in those light canoes more easily than we did."

"And you think"— she instantly began.

"Our lives are in God's hands. If I know anything these will be ferocious, bloodthirsty savages.' See! They are armed."

I pointed to one tall brown man, who stood up in the bow of the nearest canoe, flourishing a broad bladed spear.

"We must hide," she said.

"But where? They will search the island."

"In the treasure cave," she answered.

And indeed that was the most likely spot. We had brought but little with us that afternoon. I had thrust a brace of pistols in my belt, and she herself, by my advice, always carried her two small ones, and I had my sword and ax, but everything else was in the boat on the beach. For a moment I thought of running down there and getting some of our things, but as I half turned to descend the stairs she detained me, divining my purpose.

"No, no!" she urged, clasping my arm with both hands. "We must make shift with what we have. Perhaps they may not discover us, and we can hide safely until they depart. Come. Let us go."

There was sense in her remarks. It might be that after performing their awful worship these most unwelcome visitors would return as they came, and by keeping closely hid we might escape an encounter with them. They would certainly find all our goods as soon as they crossed the reef and landed. But there was no help for that now. We had to make the best of a bad situation.

We turned and ran down the path across the wall. I had thought to gather a number of cocoanuts and some other fruits as we passed. I filled my own pockets, and then she made a bag out of the skirt of her dress and carried the rest. Presently I reflected that we had no need for such haste. There would be plenty of time for us to reach the cave and conceal ourselves long before they landed, so we progressed more slowly. It was almost dusk when we reached our shelter. I uprooted a small tree just as we started to climb the pile of stones, which I used as a letter to push down the heap in every direction as we climbed, so that it would be impossible for any one else to enter the cave without piling up the stones again. We passed by the stone altar and its skeletons, crept into the inner room, flung ourselves panting upon the sand, and there we waited.

In that secret and secluded shelter I thought that we were safe for the time being. Especially was I sure that they would make no effort to find us at night, as the place had anciently been some sort of a shrine. And in the morning I did not think that they would chance upon that particular cave out of the many in the coral walls without a long search, unless they had proposed coming just there for other reasons than we gave them. Even if they did stumble upon our hiding place early in the hunt, which I felt sure would be made for us as soon as they discovered evidences of our presence on the island in the shape of the dinghy, or at least at daybreak, it would take them some time to rebuild the rock wall again; and when they did enter the outer room they would find it a matter of extreme difficulty to get into the inner chamber so long as I was there. Unfortunately we had brought no powder or ball with us. We had no means of reloading our firearms, once they had been discharged. I resolved to reserve the four pistols we had for the last emergency. For other weapons I had my ax and sword, to say nothing of stones and even of the human skulls about the altar.

I have said, I think, that the inner cave was slightly damp. The dampness arose from a spring of water which bubbled away in some dark corner which we had not cared to explore. We had what provisions we had brought with us left over from our luncheon, which I had luckily preserved instead of throwing it away, and an armful of cocoanuts and other fruit. These, however, would last us but a short while. If they couldn't come at us by force they could easily starve us out. Also they could, without too much trouble or danger, make themselves masters of the outer cave. Indeed, I scarcely thought it would be wise for me to attempt to prevent that, and in that case they could wall up the entrance and leave us there.

TO CURB WHOLESALE THEFT OF CHICKENS

All truck loads of fowl transported in Ontario will be subject to rigorous check-ups by police officials under a bill which was introduced in the legislature, in an effort to curb chicken stealing.

The bill was introduced by Hon. John S. Martin, minister of Agriculture, on the recommendation of the house committee on agriculture and colonization. Such drastic action was urged by Middlesex county officials, who contended that farmers were being robbed of their fowl in unheard of proportions by organized gangs of thieves.

Under this Bill, all persons dealing in fowl, except breeders or producers, will be obliged, under this measure, to secure from municiple officials a permit npon which must be entered the time at which any batch of fowl is purchased or otherwise received, the type of the fowl so received and the price paid for it, and the names and addresses of the persons from whom the fowl is received and to whom it is delivered.

Must Produce Permit

Transporters of fowl must produce this permit at any time on the demand of a police official. Municipal councils or police commissions will be empowered, without the enactment of a by-law to issue these permits at a fee of $1 eachn.

A fine of not less tha $50 or more than $100 will be imposed for the first offence under this act and for the second offence, a term of imprisonment not exceeding six months is prescribed. These penalties, however, are merely for offences with regard to the permits, etc., and are not to be confused with penalties prescribed elswhere in the statutes for the theft of fowl.

POTATO SEED TREATMENT QUESTIONS ANSWERED

In preparing for the spring activities in connection with treatment of seed potatoes, it is well to review some of the questions which were unanswered in the rush of affairs last year, leaving doubt and confusion as to the method used and its effectiveness. Authorities agree that seed treatment is beneficial and also, that its operation is occasionally overlooked, the satisfactoy experience of a few in so doing must not be accepted as a guide to the majority. IT IS ADVISABLE, THEREFORE, TO TREAT YOUR SEED POTATOES.

In treating seed potatoes we have any one of three chemicals from which to select for this purpose, namely, hot formalin, organic mercury compounds, and corrosive sublimate. The first named gives excellent satisfaction, when used at the rate of 1 pint of commercial formalin to 12½ gallons of water. The tubers are dipped in this solution for two minutes when the temperature is held at 118-122 degrees F. This is a convenient method where large quantities of potatoes are to be treated. An accurate dairy thermometer is essential. It is often convenient to haul the potatoes to a nearby creamery where steam is available to keep the temperature even.

Organic mercury compounds have much to recommend them as seed potato disinfectants. They are being improved each year and it is expected that their use will render seed treatment less troublesome.

The corrosive sublimate method consists in soaking the seed potatoes 1½ hours in a solution composed of 4 ounces of corrosive sublimate in 25 gallons of water. One-half an ounce of the chemical is added after each treatment of 1½ hours. Investigations extending over a period of four years at the Dominion Laboratory of Plant Pathology, Charlottetown, have demonstrated that the solution is ineffective after the third soak. The extra half ounce added after this period is wasted and would be profitably used in preparing a new solution. Furthermore, it has been learned that the strength of the solution weakens rapidly in the prese nce of broken tubers and potato juice. Therefore, this source of trouble is to be avoided if success is expected. General precautions include the following: (1) Dissolve the corrosive sublimate in not less than one gallon of very hot water. (2) Treat only tubers free from dirt. Throwing water on the pile will help to avoid this difficulty. (3) Use two clean casks alternately. Plugs made of long sticks make it easy to drain the casks after each treatment. (4) Prepare new solutions after three treatments. (5) Do not treat in bags. (6) Use soft water if possible. Hard water weakens the solution. (7) Put treated seed in a clean place to dry quickly. Do not leave them in the basement. (8) If the weather does not permit rapid drying throw several pails of water on the treated tubers.

Ontario Legislature

Residents of Ontario may look forward with confidence to still further tax reduction from the government. Premier Ferguson intimated that the administration had further reductions in mind when he addressed the House in the course of the budget debate during the week.

The Premier's speech was an exhaustive review of the administration but particular stress was laid on hydro, agricultural and liquor control act activities.

Criticising opposition members of the government for their constant hammering at the hydro project the Premier pointed out that it was only through the Conservative party that the great organization came into being. It was the rugged determination of Sir James Whitney that part of the natural resources of the province should be saved to the people that had given Sir Adam Beck the necessary support to bring his great public ownership idea to the point of being an accomplished fact.

"I say that without political bitterness," stated the Premier, "we want everyone to support hydro and I am glad that members of the Opposition are now taking that stand."

The Premier pointed out that in 1905 when hydro had its birth in the Legislature that the then Liberal leader had consistently opposed the project and that he had suggested innumerable schemes to take the place of a publicly owned utility.

"They said that hydro would never be a success," he stated, "but, now that it is just that they all want to take the credit."

Pursuing the topic of hydro in his speech the Premier again issued a warning to private interests that were seeking to undermine the hydro project in Ontario.

"This Government is determined to see that hydro grows apace," he stated. "It is prepared to advance any money necessary to carry electric energy to the remote sections of the province where it is economically possible. We do not propose to let this great project be undermined by unfair competition and this government is prepared at any time to take drastic action to protect and conserve the electric energy for our own people."

The Premier repeated his recent declaration to the House that he foresaw the time when the government, by a mandate from the people, might find it necessary to tell outside interests: "Keep your hands off. This electric energy belongs to the people and we do not propose to let you undermine and destroy puglic enterprise."

The Premier resented unfair criticism of the Liquor Control Act urging that the people give the law a fair chance to show its value. "The government is aware that the act is not perfect," he stated. "There are weaknesses but we are trying to improve it and we want the help of the Legislature and the people of this province. Surely this government is as much interested in making the law effective and satisfactory as any Opposition that sits in this House," he stated.

Touching on the topic of agriculture Premier Ferguson was free to admit that the industry was not going ahead as fast as it should. At the same time he had no sympathy for those that were always shouting "blue ruin". When a $500,000,000 wheat crop was reported for Canada there was great rejoicing stated the Premier but little attention was paid to the fact that the Ontario farm crop for 1928 was valued at the same figure.

Devoting some attention to the financial administration of the government the Premier pointed out that he had been waiting for five years for anyone to make the suggestion — or faintest shadow of suspicion — that there had been misappropriation of one penny of government funds.

"Such a suggestion has not been made and it never can be made," stated the Premier emphatically.

Economy did not mean niggardliness, stated the Premier. It meant prudent expenditure that would bring the biggest return to the province.

"At the beginning of our administration we said that we would live within our income and we have done that," he stated, "and as long as this administration is at the head of affairs in Ontario we will continue to do so. We have reduced our tax burden and in the course of a few years it will be reduced further."

Premier Ferguson has announced that the Old Age Pensions bill will make its appearance in the Legislature within the course of a day or two. The measure was held up pending the disposal of the budget in order that there would be ample time for discussion.

That he would recommend to the Ontario Hydro Electric Commission that they assume the burden of maintenance charges on rural power lines as a further aid to the farmers of Ontario in lessening the cost of hydro, was the message conveyed to the Legislature by Hon. J. R. Cooke, Hydro Commissioner and Minister without Portfolio, during the course of his contribution to the budget debate.

Mr. Cooke's suggestion formed a part of a lengthy speech which was a masterly review of the activities of the Commission in the past and their hopes for further expansion in the future.

Pointing out that the maintenance charges were about $66.00 a mile on rural line per year, or $2.00 a month to the users, Mr. Cooke felt that the time had now come when the Commission could afford to relieve the rural users of their burden. "I believe," he said, "that the commission could be asked to assume this burden which, on an investment of $8,000,000 will amount to about $240,000 a year."

While Mr. Cooke announced that he was speaking personally in this connection he intimated that the plan would receive the favorable consideration of the Commission as a whole.

Hydro Engineers have reported that it is estimated that Hydro will have reached every home in Ontario, where it is economically feasible, within the next seven years. Hon. J. R. Cooke made this announcement during the course of his speech when he replied to Progressive criticism that the work would take the Commission 50 years at the present rate of progress.

Progressive members of the Legislature came in for severe criticism at the hands of the Hydro Minister in connection with their charges that the present government was doing little or nothing to assist the farmer in securing the benefits of Hydro.

"I would like to point out that the Drury government when it was in power did not spend a cent in bonusing the construction of rural lines," stated the Minister. "A survey of Public Accounts will show that not one cent was spent by them in this connection, and that all payments have been made by the present administration."

Stating that population and industry followed cheap power, Mr. Cooke pointed to the development of the Niagara district where power was available. He pointed out that while comparatively small in area the district had more manufacturing towns than any section of the Dominion. "It seems to me," he stated, "that this would demonstrate that the Hydro Electric Power Commission's policy is a great factor in dictating the prosperity of any municipality in which it is operated."

Pointing out that his power prophecy of three years ago with regard to the situation in Eastern Ontario had been realized Mr. Cooke stated that this year the power costs on the Rideau system would be reduced by $10.00 a horse power.

"How can anyone any longer talk of hydro inactivity when in 1924 only 154 of rural line were constructed as against 1,000 miles in 1928 and an estimate of 1,200 miles for 1929," stated the Minister. "At the present time the government is making a contribution of $5,000 each day to carry on this work which is designed to aid the farmer."

One thousand eight hundred and eighty-one pupils are attending the Guelph Agricultural College at the present time Hon. John S. Martin, Minister of Agriculture informed the House. Of this number 77 came from outside of the Province of Ontario, with 36 of these from outside of Canada. Total cost of operating the institution for the fiscal year of 1928 was $486,566. Tuition fees charged to Ontario pupils during the year amounted to $21.50 for the first, second and intermediate years and $55.00 for the third and fourth years. Fees charged pupils from outside Ontario were $51.50 and $55.00 respectively; while for those outside of the British Empire the fees were $101.50 and $105.00.

Address and Presentation

On March 13th, about seventy friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Busby, before their departure for their new home in Napanee, and presented them with the following address:—

To Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Busby.

We, your friends and neighbours, have learned with regret that you are very soon to leave our midst and make your home in Napanee. So we have met here to-night to spend an evening with you before your departure, and to take this opportunity of showing in what high regard you are held by the people of this community. We need not say how sorry we are to lose you as a neighbour, but since your new home will so near we do not feel that our acquaintance with you will of necessity be severed.

Forest Mills Church will miss you. Both of you have been members of our church, and have attended when health and weather would permit. Your contributions toward the church and pastoral funds and also for social work have been greatly appreciated.

As a token of the esteem in which you are held, kindly accept these gifts, and may they ever serve to remind you of your friends at Forest Mills, so that we may be able to say

Friendship is a silken thread,
That binds our hearts together;
And if we never break that thread,
We shall be friends forever.

Signed on behalf of your neighbours,

WILBERT BUSH,
CHARLES McFARLANE.

Mr. Busby thanked them in a few well chosen words on behalf of Mrs. Busby and himself.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

"The modern girl doesn't take a broken engagement to heart," comments a writer—She generally takes it to court.".

Relieves Asthma at Little Expense. Thousands of dollars have been vainly spent upon remedies for asthma and seldom, if ever, with any relief. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy, despite its assurance of benefit, costs so little that it is within reach of all. It is the national remedy for asthma, far removed from the class of doubtful and experimental preparations. Your dealer can supply it.

Beggar (to lady of house)—"Madam, I'm not asking yer for food or clothes, not even for work."

Lady—What do you want, then?"

Beggar—"You don't happen to have an old tire for my car, do you?"

An Oil of Merit—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is not a jumble of medicinal substances thrown together and pushed by advertising, but the result of the careful investigation of the healing qualities of certain oils as applied to the human body. It is a rare combination and it won and kept public favor from the first. A trial of it will carry conviction to any who doubt its power to repair and heal.

"No," said the sunburnt farmer, "you won't do any business here, the lad. I've finished with labor-savin' machines. I don't hold with 'em."

The youthful traveler could not help but smile.

"Look here," continued the farmer, pointing to a typewriter, "take a look at that. That's a writin' machine my wife spent all her savin's on 'cos I ain't very handy wi' me pen."

"What's the matter with it?"

"Matter!" exclaimed the farmer. "Why, nobody can write their blinkin' name with it, unless they can play a church organ!"

Ready-made Medicine. — You need no physician for ordinary ills when you have at hand a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. For coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchial troubles, it is invaluable; for scalds, burns, bruises, sprains, it is unsurpassed; while for cuts, sores and the like it is an unquestionable healer. It needs no testimonial other than the use, and that will satisfy anyone as to its effectiveness.

How many are a few? At last we have a ruling on this moot point. Justice Hawke of the English Court, when a barrister sent word that he would be in court in a few minutes, asked: "And how many is that?" The messenger thought it wouldn't be over twenty.

"Twenty is more than a few," returned the judge. "I think seven minutes is the end of a few."

Many mothers can testify to the virtue of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator, because they know from experience how useful it is.

An Irishman, who had been advised by his attorney to plead guilty as a first offender, stood in the dock.

"The guilty or not guilty?" asked the judge.

"Guilty, yer Honor, and I've got witnesses to prove it."

No need to suffer with corns, or to run the risk of paring them. Holloway's Corn Remover sets them surely and painlessly with Holloway's Corn Remover.

Hostess—I've asked Miss Howles several times to sing and she has refused each time.

Host—If I were you I'd let it go at that. Some of the strangers may go away thinking they've missed something.

Health cannot be looked for in the child that is subject to worms, because worms destroy health by creating internal disturbances that retard development and cause serious weakness. Miller's Worm Powders expel worms and are so beneficial in their action that the systems of the little sufferers are restored to healthfulness, all the discomforts and dangers of worm infection are removed, and satisfactory growth is assured.

Patient—I say, doctor, don't you think it would be a good idea if I were to pack up and go to some place where the climate is warmer?"

Doctor—Good heavens! Isn't that just what I've been trying to prevent?"

"You can't see a vacuum," says Mr. H. Groves. And yet in the last ten years Americans have bought over eight million vacuum cleaners."

MARLBANK

Tapping the maple is the order of the day.—Miss Ruth Yorke, of Lindsay, is home nursing her mother, Mrs. R. Yorke, who has been seriously ill.

All hope for a speedy recovery.—The funeral of the late Mr. William Perry was held in the United Church on Sunday last.—Miss Maude Campbell is visiting at her uncle's, Mr. Frank Vanclief.—Miss Levina Whiteman is visiting at Mrs. Jessie Yorke's. — Mr. Harry Dixon spent the week end in Verona.—Mr. John Wilson, of Napanee, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Margaret Rogers.—Miss Aletha Meeks spent the week end with Miss Doris Young.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burley, of Winnipeg, were visiting friends in Marlbank and vicinity. — Mr. Dave Garrick, Miss Carrie Bush and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Bush spent Sunday at Mrs. Gertrude Benn's.

"Gerald, dear," said Gerald's aunt, who was a nervous passenger, "aren't you sometimes afraid you'll lose control of the car?"

"Constantly," replied Gerald. "I'm two instalments behind already."

Empey Hill W.M.S.

The W. M. S. of Empey Hill held their monthly meeting at the church on the 5th of February, with a good attendance. The Selby Auxiliary had charge of the meeting. The meeting was opened by singing Hymn 328, followed by the Creed in unison. A very interesting programme was then given by the Selby ladies. After the meeting lunch was served in the basement, which was much enjoyed by all. Collection of $10.75 was taken. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. T. J. Russell's, on the evening of the 2nd of April.

Steady Improvement.

The annual report of the Bell Telephone Company tells a splendid story of maintenance and service. Improvement of central office equipment and improved methods of operating resulted in a reduction of nine per cent in the number of troubles per telephone last year. For Long Distance service the company's records show steady improvement in the percentage of calls completed as well as in speed of establishing connection. These statements are even more effective when it is known that the volume of calls handled was greater than ever before. During 1928 the average daily local connections were 4,789,046, and the average daily long distance connections, 65,495.

Play at Bath.

Superb acting marked the presentation of the play, "He's My Pal" or "A Mixed-up Courtship", given by twelve young people in the Masonic Hall, Bath, on Friday evening last. The universal verdict seems to be that seldom has a play been presented here with more lively action and mirth-provoking episodes which kept the audience on the qui vive for nearly two hours and a half. The costumes were a feature; the entangling situations were happily solved, and the curtain went down after the third act amid the long-continued applause of the crowd. Musical and vaudeville skits between the acts brought roars of laughter. Notwithstanding other attractions, the epidemic just subsiding, and unfavorable roads, the proceeds were about $72.00.

Visitors are welcome. 13a

Quinte Seed Fair.

The Third Annual Quinte District Seed Fair was held at Belleville on March 14th, 15th, and 16th. Competition in all classes was exceptionally keen. The exhibits were well chosen and were a great credit to the exhibitors. The Horse Shoe Pitching Tournament attracted considerable attention, and brought out some real keen competition. The Annual Meeting was held on Friday afternoon and the delegation from Napanee presented a strong an invitation that it was decided to hold the 1930 Fair in Napanee. A banquet was put on Friday night at the Queen's Hotel by the joint executives of the Seed Fair and the Kinsmen Club of Belleville. Dr. J. B. Reynolds, ex-President of the O.A.C., was the speaker of the evening. An Auction Sale of the seeds and grains on Saturday afternoon brought to a close a very successful Fair. It is up to us to make the 1930 Fair in Napanee a still greater success.

—Services (D.V.) in St. Mark's Church, Deseronto, Holy Week, as follows: Wednesday, at 8 p.m.; Good Friday, services at 10.30 a.m., from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m., Seven Words From the Cross, and 8 p.m., at which service the Rev. Herbert Pringle will be the special preacher. Easter Day, Holy Communion at 8 a.m. and 11 a.m. Evening service at 7 o'clock.

—"Mammy's Lil Wild Rose" is to again presented in the Parish Hall, Camden East, on April 4th. When given in December last the prevailing epidemic of influenza prevented many from seeing it, but those who did pronounced it "one of the best yet". The appealing dialogue, full of dramatic situations, sparkling with wit, and subtle humour, delighted all.

SWEEPING SUCCESS AND RECORD SALES

New Whippet
FOURS SIXES

SUPERB BEAUTY MUCH Larger Bodies

As soon as you see and drive the new Whippet Four or Six, you will readily understand its sweeping success and record sales.

First, there is the supreme beauty of design that makes the new Whippets the style authorities in their classes.

Then, when you enter either car, you will be gratified with its spacious, tastefully appointed interiors. The longer wheelbase gives several inches of added leg-room. Seats are considerably wider and have form-fitting contours, assuring restful, comfortable positions for all passengers.

Now . . . a full line of Whippet Commercial Cars and Willys-Knight Trucks, ranging in price from $680 to $3460 f.o.b. factory, taxes extra.

TWIN-ULTIMATE

The greatest driving convenience since the self-starter. A single button in the centre of the steering wheel controls all functions of starting the motor, operating the lights and sounding the horn.

Impressive as the new Whippets are in beauty and size, they are also remarkable for performance. Their dependability and low consumption of gasoline and oil makes them well qualified to carry on Whippet's unsurpassed reputation for operating economy and minimum service costs. Arrange for a demonstration.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given to the land owners of South Fredericksburgh that the Canada Act is to be more rigidly enforced during 1929.

Farmers, therefore, are advised to exercise greater care in preparing the seed-bed, and to sow only clean seed.

Badly infested fields should not be sown to Spring grains, but should be thoroughly worked the early part of the season and later sown to buckwheat, rape or a hoe crop; or in extreme cases, summer fallowed and worked throughout the season.

If these precautions are not taken, the Inspector may exercise his authority and have the menace removed before the weeds mature.

FRED SILLS,
13c Inspector.

Notice is Hereby Given That The

ODESSA

Last Thursday evening about fifty persons arranged for a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers, who have recently moved into their new home purchased from Wilbur Metzler. The Sunday School and church members decided to give them a hearty welcome, and a very enjoyable evening was spent, and a very delicious lunch served.—A number of relatives and friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Damon Snider and presented them with a purse of money, a farewell gift, as they are leaving to make their home in Bydenham, where Mr. Snider has purchased a residence. —The Ontario Department of Agriculture conducted a better seed meeting in the Town Hall, last Wednesday afternoon.—The sale of farm implements and stock held by Mr. D. L. Snider, at his home, last Wednesday, was well attended by anxious buyers, and prices were very satisfactory. Their son, Stanley Snider, of Tweed, spent a couple of days with them, and Mrs. J. T. McCoy, Peterboro', sister of Mrs. Snider, has also been their guest.—Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Mabee were guests at the Bouchen-Bogart wedding, Kingston, last Saturday.—Mr. and Mrs. David Hubble, Shannonville, spent Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Smith. They were accompanied by Mrs. Mable Hubble, Plainfield, who spent the day with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Hamm.—Roy Benjamin, of Syracuse, was called home to see his mother, Mrs. George Benjamin, who is ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Benjamin.—Mr. and Mrs. David Hicks, of Morven, visited last Thursday at W. E. Topliffe's.—Mr. Fenwick Connolly, Yarker, spent the week end the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thompson.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Laidley, of Kingston, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomb and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Corkill and son, John, of Toronto, were guests at B. L. King's, last Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Robinson and children, Harry and Marion, who have been spending the winter months with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mohan and Mr. and Mrs. E. Robinson, Selby, have returned to their home in Watertown. —Master Kenneth Lawlor, who has been spending some time with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mohan, has returned to his home in Philadelphia, New York. — Steward Walker, late of Buffalo, has moved in part of Mrs. Henry Allen's home on Ferguson Avenue.

OBITUARY

William Henry Hough

The passing away of a well known and highly respected resident of St. Catharines, occurred on Monday, Mar. 18th, 1929, at the family residence, 26 Geneva St., in the person of William Henry Hough, beloved husband of Jane Emma Conger, following a short illness.

The deceased, who was in his 85th year, had been failing in health for the past three months, but had only been confined to bed for a few days. He had been a resident of this city for the past forty years during which time, for a number of years he had followed the occupation of fruit grower and was well and favourably known throughout the surrounding district by a large circle of friends who will learn of his passing with sincere regret. He was of U. E. Loyalist descent, his forefathers being some of the first settlers of this province. In religion he was a member of St. Paul Street United Church.

To mourn his demise he leaves besides his sorrowing wife, two daughters, Mrs. Chester R. Phelps, of Niagara Falls, N.Y.; Mrs. D. T. McKinnon, of Chicago, Ill., and two sons, Dr. A. H. Hough, of Warren, Ont., and E. E. Hough, of St. Catharines.

Two sisters survive, Miss Maria Hough, Napanee, and Mrs. J. A. Ronson, of Toronto.

NAPANEE HUMANE SOCIETY

Word from Toronto informs us that buttons and pledge cards are used for junior members only.

From time to time, extracts from the Criminal Code will be published in these columns to inform members just how the law reads. For example, Section 542 says :—Every one guilty of an offence and liable, on summary conviction before two Justices, to a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars, or to three months' imprisonment with or without hard labour, or to both, who—

(a) wantonly, cruelly, or unnecessarily beats, binds, ill-treats, abuses, overdrives, or tortures any cattle, poultry, dog, domestic animal, or bird, or any wild animal or bird in captivity; or

(b) While driving any cattle or animal is, by negligence or ill-usage in the driving thereof, the means whereby any mischief, damage or injury is done by any such cattle or animals.

Cases of cruelty should be reported immediately to F. W. Barrett, (Chief of Police), at —; or C. A. Shoemaker (Pres. R. H. S.) at 454; or Miss Etta Harrison (Secty. N. H. S.) at 457.

TAMWORTH

Our staff of teachers are spending the Easter holidays at their several homes.—Mrs. Ross B. Floyd spent the week end in Kingston with her daughter and friends.—Miss Hattie Reid spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Presley, Napanee.— Misses Isobel Carscallen, Hazel Moss and Aleta Hagan, Toronto, spent the week end with their parents here. — Miss Reta Drew, Kingston, spent the Easter holidays with her parents Mr. and Mrs. D. Drew. — Mr. Melville Woods, Kingston, spent the week end with friends in Tamworth. — Mrs. A. A. Carscallen spent a few days last week in Toronto.—Mr. Frank McCutcheon, Napanee, spent Wednesday evening at the home of W. G. Richmond.—We are very sorry to learn that one of our former residents, Mr. W. J. Paul, ex-M.P., is very seriously ill at his home in Ottawa. — Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Wilson and family, of Windsor, are spending the Easter holidays with friends and relatives in this vicinity.—Mr. J. Cox has purchased a new Ford touring car. — The Easter Sunday service in the United Church was very largely attended. Special music was rendered by the choir. Two anthems were sung: "He Arose for Me" and "Listen What the Lilies Say"; also a solo by Mr. Wm. Reid. Rev. Mr. Beckstead spoke very ably from the text, "But Now is Christ Risen from the Dead."—Mr. Ed. Bradshaw is improving his property by building a new roadhouse. Mr. Wm. Deline, of Roblin, is helping at the work.—The W. M. S. gave a very appropriate concert here on Good Friday night. A special feature of the programme was a short play, entitled "The Undoing of the Town," which was most suitable and appealed to the people in a very sympathetic manner, giving a wonderful object lesson to those present.—Miss Helen Beckstead, Ottawa, spent the week-end with her parents, Rev. J. N. and Mrs. Beckstead. — An instruction class for new communicants is being conducted in connection with the United Church. The class meets weekly on Saturday from 4 to 5 o'clock.—Services are announced for the United Church field to be held on Sunday next at Marlbank, Reidville, and Tamworth. The evening hour for the Tamworth service has been changed from 7 to 7.30 o'clock.

YARKER SOUTH

A sad gloom was cast over this vicinity last week when the news came of the death of Maitland Lake, of Yarker, who was well and favorably known by all the surrounding country. A large crowd attended the funeral in United Church, Yarker, on Thursday last, to pay their last respects.—Mrs. Marcellus Lake and Dorothy Huff spent Wednesday with Mrs. John Love. — Mr. and Mrs. Cassen Davey entertained on Friday last.—Mr. and Mrs. John Love spent Thursday in Napanee. — Miss Gertrude Salsbury, of Kingston, spent the week-end with her father here.— Mrs. Harold Huff and family spent Easter Sunday with her parents at Lemon Lake.—Mr. and Mrs. Cassen Davey, Mrs. Jane Davey and Ruby spent Sunday with Mrs. Archie Lemon, Narrowsmith. — Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Curl entertained on Saturday evening in honor of their 50th wedding anniversary.

CANADIAN POULTRY FOR THE ORIENT

The judging of poultry has 'during the past years been changing from a colour to a form basis, an actual performance in laying eggs. The Canadian Record of Performance is giving Canadian poultry a prominent position in the minds of poultry raisers in all parts of the world. Ever since the first Record was held in Canada in 1927, the exports of fine poultry have been increasing. Recently breeding stock but hatching eggs have been going forward over long distances. Japan took considerable stock last year and it is reported by the Poultry Division of the Live Stock Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa that the hatchings from eggs sent to Japan were well over fifty per cent. Already this year some three hundred and fifteen hens have gone to that country. One shipment in the month of February carried out last year and it is reported by the Japanese Experimental Farms system and twenty mature White Leghorn fowls for a private Japanese breeder. The birds consisted of five cockerels from dams with records of 260 eggs and upwards and fifteen hens with records of from 250 to 280 eggs each. It is announced also by the Live Stock Commissioner that an order is being filled by the British Columbia Record of Performance Breeders' Association for a shipment of eggs to a breeder in the Philippine Islands.

Issued by the Director of Pub licity, Dominion Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.)

NEWBURGH

Messrs. Russel Price and Ethelbert Ramsay made a trip to Toronto during last week.

Mr. Howard Thompson, of Napanee, visited Mr. Stewart Gandier over Sunday.

Miss Briscoe spent a few days with friends at Lindsay.

Miss McSherry is spending the holidays in Kingston.

Mr. Fred Card has returned to Toronto, after spending a few weeks with his mother, Mrs. C. Weger.

Miss Mitchell, B.A., of the High School staff, at Norwich, is spending her holidays at her home here.

Our sympathies are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Craig, in the loss they have sustained in the death of their son, who was accidently killed on Saturday last.

Miss Marguerite Wartman, teacher at Flinton, is spending the Easter recess at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wartman.

Address and Presentation

On Monday, March 18th, 1929, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Whalen a number of friends and neighbors gathered to bid them farewell before leaving for their new home, and presented them with a beautiful eighty mantel clock. The address which was read by Miss Bernadette Craigen, was as follows :

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Whalen,—We, your friends and neighbours, have gathered here this evening to express our regret at your anticipated departure from our midst. It was with deep sentiments that we heard of your contemplated removal from our vicinity. You have been with us a number of years, and it is with deep regret that we realize that we realize that by your generosity and hospitality, you have found a place in our hearts which is unsurmountable. Although your vacancy will probably be filled in one respect, we may safely assume whosoever the newcomers may be, their influence will never make recompense for you whom we love. We hope this has been sufficiently explicit to convey some knowledge of our regret at seeing you leave our locality, and we earnestly entreat you that you leave us with the heartiest wishes that in your future abode wherever it may be, prosperity and a host of friends may be yours.

Now we ask you to accept this mantel clock as a small token of remembrance from your friends of Hinch and vicinity.

Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbours.

BEATRICE BRADY.
BILLY HINCH.

Mr. and Mrs. Whalen made a suitable reply, thanking their friends and neighbours for their kindness, assuring them they will never be forgotten.

LADIES' AID BANQUET

The Ladies' Aid of the United Church gave a banquet in honour of the members of the play, "The Road Back", on Friday evening, March 22nd, in the United Church Hall, Camden East. A sumptuous menu had been prepared by the members of the Ladies' Aid Society, and promptly at 8 o'clock the assemblage, to the number of eighty, partook of the many good things that had been provided, and to which all did full justice. The tables were very tastefully decorated with potted plants and cut flowers.

During the banquet hour, excellent music was furnished by an Orchestra, including Mrs. J. Fairbairn, Misses Helen and Edith Williams and Mr. F. Brown. Our Pastor, Rev. T. H. P. Anderson, in his usual capable manner, acted as toastmaster for the occasion. Several toasts were proposed, the first being to "His Majesty King George", followed by the National Anthem. The hymn, "Gratitude", dedicated to the recent recovery of King George's illness, was sung by the audience.

The second toast was that "to the Players", which was proposed by Mrs. D. K. Saul, in which she expressed on behalf of the Ladies' Aid, their gratitude for the splendid work the players had done. The toast was responded to by Mrs. B. Yeomans, who on behalf of the members of the play, expressed her appreciation for their thoughtfulness in arranging the banquet on their behalf. Mrs. Yeomans, as President of the Society, also stressed on the keen interest manifested by the players and also their hearty co-operation.

Mrs. Joe Lewis then delighted the audience with a solo, "Sonny Boy".

The Orchestra then favoured us with a selection.

The next toast was that "to the Orchestra", which was proposed by Mrs. George Scott, and responded to by Miss Helen Williams.

A piano solo was then played by Mrs. C. Allen, which was greatly appreciated.

The next toast was that "to the Sunday School", which was proposed by Miss A. Williams, who spoke for a short time on the importance of Sunday School work. This toast was variably responded to by Rev. Mr. Anderson, who dwelt on the benefits of the Sunday School work and how the outcome of early religious training in the Sunday School prompted men to devote their lives to missionary work as two members of our church, namely, Rev. Roy McWilliams, Japan, and Mr. Richard Glover, California.

"Old Man Sunshine" was then sung by Miss Ruby Simmons.

Mrs. (Rev.) Anderson, in her usual pleasing manner, gave a reading entitled "A Life Saver". This story impressed us all with the ever urgent need of self sacrifice for others.

Another selection was then rendered by the Orchestra.

The Misses Marie Scott and Evelyn Peters then favoured us with a duett, "Carolina Moon".

The toastmaster called on several of the players, also Mr. E. Peters, for speeches, which provided the audience with rapturous merriment.

The last toast was that "to the Church", proposed by Mr. W. A. McWilliams on "Is the Church worth while?" No community can exist without a church as it is essential to every class. This toast was responded to by the toastmaster, who gave a brief address on assets of church work. Finally he paid tribute to all who had spoken at the banquet. A hearty vote of appreciation was tendered to the toastmaster, the members of the play, the Ladies' Aid, and to all who had contributed to the splendid success of the banquet.

A very delightful and profitable evening was then brought to a close by the singing of the "National Anthem".

ADAMS TO STAY WITH DETROIT

Jack Adams, the ever smiling manager of the Detroit Hockey Clubs, has been saved to the Cougars and Olympics "from now on."

Charles A. Hughes, President of the Olympia, to-day was quoted the Times. Adams would be back at the head of the Grand River icers for a long time to come.

"We think the world of Jack and he can stay here as long as he wants," said Hughes, adding "and I hope that means the next 99 years."

Under the wizardry of Happy Jack, the Cougars have been made over from a last place team into one of three to get into the playoffs for the world's championship, within two years.

With only one or two exceptions the present Cougar squad has been gotten together by Adams. All the youngsters have been garnered by the former Ottawa star.

The biggest factor in his success is his reputation for fairness. Half of the 1929 Cougars came here only with a promise of being signed if they were found capable. No mention was made of salary or conditions.

The league leading Olympics also were gathered together by Adams. He personally picked up Rockburn, Goodfellow, Gillie and six of the other 12 members of the team.

After the playoffs, which start next Tuesday, Hughes said he would discuss terms of a contract with Adams, but as each is perfectly satisfied no hitches are forseen. Adams, too, said signing of the contract was merely a formality as he had an understanding with Hughes.—Detroit Times Sports.

YARKER-COLEBROOK WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The regular meeting of the Yarker-Colebrook Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Geo. Lee, on Wednesday afternoon, March 20th, with twenty-eight members and three visitors present. The meeting opened by singing the Ode, followed by the Institute Creed. Secretary's and Treasurer's reports were read and approved.

Letters of appreciation were read from those who were remembered during their recent illness.

The business matters were then discussed, after which the roll call was well responded to by "The Work I Dislike the Most". Mrs. Chas. Amey then gave us one of her splendid readings. Mrs. R. Jackson favored us with another reading "Just Folks". Mrs. D. H. Smith gave us a very up-to-date list of current events, after which the meeting closed in due form, and a very dainty lunch was served by the hostess and lunch committee.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Geo. Curl, Yarker, on April 17th, at 2 p.m.

I Would Not Like To Be Without Them

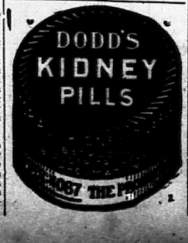
Says Ontario Man of Dodd's Kidney Pills

Mr. N. Shafer Used Them For Pains in the Back Caused by Severe Colds

Kitchener, Ont., April 2nd, (Special)—During the winter months colds and chills double the work of the kidneys. It is therefore necessary to strengthen them and safeguard yourself against serious results. Dodd's Kidney Pills are a reliable kidney medicine.

Mr. N. Shafer, 31 Irvin St., Kitchener, writes:—"I have used Dodd's Kidney Pills on different occasions and found them very effective for pains in the back caused by severe colds. I keep them on hand all the time and whenever I feel the need I take them until the pain leaves. I am past fifty and would not like to be without them."

Your health, strength and vitality depend upon the condition of your blood, for it is through the blood that every part of your body is nourished. Pure blood coursing through the body carries to the different organs the nourishment they need to keep them healthy.



OBITUARY

Mr. William Lane.

Death claimed one of the last pioneer settlers of Denbigh, in the person of Mr. William Lane, on Thursday, March 21st, 1929. Mr. Lane was born in the City of Cork, Ireland, on July 22nd, 1840, and would have been 89 years old on the 22nd of next July. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lane, with their family of three sons, James, John and Wm., and one daughter, Rosie, came to Canada about seventy years ago, and settled at Cloyne. Laterom the family, with the exceptions of Wm., moved to where the Village of Denbigh is now located. In 1862 Wm. Lane married Miss Janet Weese, later on moving from Cloyne to Mallory's Hill, some twenty-five miles farther north.

After a few years there he moved and settled near Denbigh, finally locating on the farm where he happily and successfully spent the rest of his days, about half a mile from the village. Eight children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Lane, seven daughters and one son. Two daughters died while quite young, and Mrs. Lane predeceased her husband some nineteen years ago. Mr. Lane continued to live with his son, Mr. Algernon Lane, on the old homestead until he passed away.

Wm. Lane was a public spirited citizen, having served some time as County Commissioner, and several years in succession, as Reeve of Denbigh. Abinger and Ashby Township. For upwards of thirty years Mr. Lane was a Justice of the Peace. He was one of the few men who helped to chop and clear the land where the cemetery and United Church, formerly the Methodist, are now located. He, with his father and brothers, and a few others, built the former Methodist Church, and continued to take a great interest both in the church and other public affairs where they were all highly esteemed. Mr. Lane was a life long member both of the Masonic and Orange orders. Mr. Lane was an enterprising citizen, a good neighbor, a kind father and devoted husband.

The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon in the United Church, which was filled to standing room by his host of friends and admirers.

Rev. P. A. Scott, Ph.B., minister in charge, delivered an impressive sermon from St. John 14:5-6. The remains were interred in the United Church cemetery. Mr. Lane is survived by five daughters and one son, Mrs. Joseph Youmans, Tweed; Mr. Algernon Lane, Denbigh; Mrs. Victoria Holmes, Vennachar; Mrs. James Youmans, of the Soo; Mrs. Wm. Conners, of Rimby, Alberta, and Mrs. Matilda Johnston, Toronto.

The Island of the Stairs

BY CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY

CHAPTER XV.

Wherein We Are Beleaguered In the Cave.

IT did not occur to us for a single moment that the savages had any knowledge of the treasure and that they could be after that. Not for the thousandth part of a second did I dream that the savages were led by Pimbull, Gibby and most of the other seamen of the Rose of Devon. I did not know then that the Rose of Devon had gone ashore in the terrific storm I have described, or that there had been a battle with the savages, who, sought to plunder the ship, but were prevented at frightful loss to the islanders, who were unable to contend successfully against the firearms with which the ship was abundantly provided. A means of communication between the ship and the shore had been found subsequently through one of the seamen who had sailed the south seas. The savages had been told of the treasure, of which indeed they had some dim traditions from days gone by; they also held the cave as one of their most sacred spots, scarcely less sacred than the great altar on the hillock in the center of the island, for what reason I cannot tell. Some of this I learned afterward from our assailants, and much of it I divined on reflection on our voyage homeward.

By some persuasion, I know not what, Pimbull and Gibby had won them over. Together they had organized an expedition to come and seize us and take the treasure. The Rose of Devon I guessed was not badly damaged and could easily be made seaworthy.

We sat silent in the cave for a long time. I had not lighted the lantern we had left there at our last visit, and some of the light of the dying day filtered through from the outside cave. There was nothing that we needed light for. We sat close together on the remains of one of the chests to protect us from the damp sand. I always carried with me a flask of spirits. Not that I am a drinking man; I left and still leave that practice to the gallants of the day, but I have often found it useful in some dire emergency, and as Mistress Lucy shivered in the cold, damp air I heartened her and strengthened her with a dram.

As it was summer and not far from the line, I had not brought the least cloak with us. I had not even worn my sailor jacket, but my waistcoat was heavy and warm, and I was thankful that I had it. I took it off and, despite her protestations, slipped it on her. Its girth it was big enough to encircle her twice, which was all the better for her comfort. I drew it around to cover her breast with a double fold, and with a length of line I had in my pocket I made it fast. We sat close together and talked in low whispers, and I thrilled at the contact of her sweet presence in spite of our peril.

How long we talked or how long we waited I have no means of telling. It grew dark in the cave very early, and when I ventured into the outside again after what seemed an interminable wait, I found night had fallen. I felt pretty sure that we need appear to attack that night, and yet it was necessary to keep watch, so I proposed that one of us should sleep while the other listened. Naturally she was the first to take rest. It was too damp and cold to lie down on the sand, so I wedged myself against one of the least rotted of the chests, whose shape had been kept intact by the pile of gold and silver bars, and some what hesitatingly offered her the shelter of my arms.

"Madam," I said, with all the formality I could muster, "you must have sleep. You cannot lie upon this damp sand, and it is bad enough to sit upon it, but upon my shoulder and within the support of my arms you shall have rest. I swear to you"—

"Swear not," she replied, coming closer to me. "I trust you, and if I am to sleep I know that I will be safe within your arms."

"As my sister, had I one, or as my mother, were she here, will I support you," said I.

Before she closed her eyes she made her evening prayer for herself and for me, and then she made me promise that I would awaken her when I judged it to be midnight, and, upon my promise, without more to do she nestled down and went to sleep, her head upon my shoulder.

Surely, never had man a greater compliment paid him than I by that maid that night.

I sat there motionless, my bared sword at my side, listening. I could hear nothing, no sound except her soft breathing and once in awhile the sough of the night wind through the trees outside, which penetrated faintly into the cave, and at infrequent intervals the cry of some night bird came to me, but there was no sound of humanity.

How long we sat there I know not. It was my purpose to keep awake the night through, and I think I must have kept awake the greater part thereof, but toward morning my head dropped back on the pile of ingots, and I fell asleep. Yet I did not relax my clasp upon the sleeping figure lying upon my breast. It was she who awakened me, when the dim light began to sift through the narrow opening into the little cave where we sat.

"Master Hampdon," she said, bending over me, having arisen without disturbing me, "it is morning."

I sprang to my feet instantly, as she shook me gently and grasped my sword as I did so, wherent she laughed.

"Why did you not awaken me?" she asked reproachfully.

"I don't know. I must have"-- I began in great confusion.

"You must have gone to sleep yourself," she laughed.

"I am ashamed," I replied, "that I should have failed in my duty to keep good watch. I didn't awake you when I might because you needed sleep yourself, and then, like a big animal, I went to sleep myself."

"I am glad," she said, smiling at me, and I could just see her lovely face faintly in the dark twilight of the cave, "that you did and nothing happened."

"It is just as well then," I said, smiling in turn, "we have both slept. I feel greatly refreshed."

"And I."

"Thank God!" I said fervently.

"What is to be done now?" she asked.

"First, breakfast."

I broke open a coconnut with my ax. I had become expert at it, and we had food and drink in plenty and for variety some of the hard bread which still remained which I had brought with us and other fruit. I lighted the lantern for a moment and went toward the sound of the failing water. The coconnut shell made an excellent cup, and I brought her enough clear, cool, sweet water to lave her face and hands. Save for the stiffness of the constrained position and some slight pain caused by the damp we were both fit for any adventure.

Well, we should have need of our strength. When we finished our meal and our refreshing ablutions, she looked at me inquiringly.

"Well, what next?"

"The next thing," said I, "is to see what is toward."

"You won't leave the cave," she said, catching me by the shoulder.

"I should find it difficult were I so minded," I answered, smiling and thrilling to her touch again, as always. Indeed, I have never got used to it even after all these years. As I look back at it now I do not think I have ever had happier moments in my life than those in which she clung to me and was dependent upon me.

"Why not?" she asked.

"You forget that we broke down the way last night."

"But you are a sailor; you might make shift."

"Yes; but not you," I answered.

"Without me?"

"Without you I go nowhere."

She looked at me with shining eyes.

"Come," said I, "let us go into the outer room. We may find out something."

I had wound my watch in the dark and looked at it now as we came into the light. It was three bells in the morning watch, or about half after 9. We went just the altar with its grim, bony circle of attendants and stared through the entrance. There was an open space in front of the cliff forty or fifty yards wide perhaps. After looking some time and seeing nothing I foolishly—and yet it would have made no difference in the end—stepped out upon the shelf which made a sort of platform in front of the cave, and Mistress Lucy fearlessly came with me.

We had scarcely appeared in the open to our astonished surprise we heard the report of a firearm and a heavy bullet struck the coral wall just over our heads. I had just time to mark the spot whence it came by the betraying smoke as I leaped back into the shelter, carrying my precious charge before me. I was puzzled beyond measure. I was certain that the savages in these parts of the south seas knew nothing about firearms, and I could not account for it. The shower of arrows and spears that came through the opening and fell harmlessly on the sand I could easily account for, but not that shot.

"That," said I solemnly, "was a narrow escape."

"Do these islanders have firearms?" she said, the same thought in her mind.

"I never heard of it. I cannot account for it."

"I can, though," she said. "Just before the discharge of that gun I caught the sight of a man in clothes such as you wear. Could it be possible that it was some one from the ship?"

I nodded my head.

"It is quite likely," I answered.

At this moment conversation was interrupted by a loud hail. I heard in that lonely island my own named called.

"Master Hampdon," the cry came to us, "will you respect a flag of truce? If so show yourself at the opening, and I shall do the same."

"Don't go," cried my little mistress, hearing all; "they are utterly without honor and"—

"I think it will be best for me to go," I said. "Stand clear so that if any treacherous movement be made I shall have space to leap backward, and meanwhile look to your weapons."

I examined my pistols and then calling out that I would faithfully observe the flag of truce I stepped out into the open. There below me on the edge of the glade, convenient to a tree behind which he could leap, I fear the rascal

THE QUIET, DIGNIFIED BEAUTY of the Ford Car makes it the perfect complement to its smart owner. In the fashionable residential districts across Canada you will see Ford Cars in front of handsome houses or parked in two or three car garages in company with more expensive cars. Fine performance, reliability and ease of control, together with an appearance that lacks the slightest hint of attention-seeking display, appeal to the discriminating taste of those to whom low initial cost is of slight consequence.

The Island of the Stairs

BY CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY

CHAPTER XV.

Wherein We Are Beleaguered In the Cave.

IT did not occur to us for a single moment that the savages had any knowledge of the treasure and that they could be after that. Not for the thousandth part of a second did I dream that the savages were led by Pimbalt, Gilibby and most of the other seamen of the Rose of Devon. I did not know then that the Rose of Devon had gone ashore in the terrific storm I have described, or that there had been a battle with the savages, who sought to plunder the ship, but were prevented at frightful loss to the islanders, who were unable to contend successfully against the firearms with which the ship was abundantly provided. A means of communication between the ship and the shore had been found subsequently through one of the seamen who had sailed the south seas. The savages had been told of the treasure, of which indeed they had some dim traditions from days gone by; they also held the cave as one of their most sacred spots, scarcely less sacred than the great altar on the hillock in the center of the island, for what reason I cannot tell. Some of this I learned afterward from our assailants, and much of it I divined on reflection on our voyage homeward.

By some persuasion, I know not what, Pimbalt and Gilibby had won them over. Together they had organized an expedition to come and seize us and take the treasure. The Rose of Devon I guessed was not badly damaged and could easily be made seaworthy.

We sat silent in the cave for a long time. I had not lighted the lantern we had left there at our last visit, and some of the light of the dying day filtered through from the outside cave. There was nothing that we needed light for. We sat close together on the remains of one of the chests to protect us from the damp sand. I always carried with me a flask of spirits. Not that I am a drinking man; I left and still leave that practice to the gallants of the day, but I have often found it useful in some dire emergency, and as Mistress Lucy shivered in the cold, damp air I heartened her and strengthened her with a dram.

As it was summer and not far from the line, I had not brought the boat cloak with me. I had not even worn my sailor jacket, but my waistcoat was heavy and warm, and I was thankful that I had it. I took it off and, despite her protestations, slipped it on her. In girth it was big enough to encircle her twice, which was all the better for her comfort. I drew it around to cover her breast with a double fold, and with a length of line I had in my pocket I made it taut. We sat close together and talked in low whispers, and I thrilled at the contact of her sweet presence in spite of our peril.

How long we talked or how long we waited I have no means of telling. It grew dark in the cave very early, and when I ventured into the outside room after that seemed an interminable while, I found night had fallen. I felt pretty sure that we need appear-hend no attack that night, and yet it was necessary to keep watch, so I proposed that one of us should sleep while the other listened. Naturally she was the first to take rest. It was too damp and cold to lie down on the sand, so I wedged myself against one of the least rotted of the chests, whose shape had been kept intact by the pile of gold and silver bars, and somewhat hesitatingly offered her the shelter of my arms.

"Madam," I said, with all the formality I could muster, "you must have sleep. You cannot lie upon this damp sand, and it is bad enough to sit upon it, but upon my shoulder and within the support of my arms you shall have rest. I swear to you"—

"Swear not," she replied, coming closer to me. "I trust you, and if I am to sleep I know that I will be safe within your arms."

"As my sister, had I one, or as my mother, were she here, will I support you," said I.

Before she closed her eyes she made her evening prayer for herself and for me, and then she made me promise that I would awaken her when I judged it to be midnight, and, upon my promise, without more to do she nestled down and went to sleep, her head upon my shoulder.

Surely, never had man a greater compliment paid him than I by that maid that night!

I sat there motionless, my bared sword at my side, listening. I could hear nothing, no sound except her soft breathing and once in awhile the sough of the night wind through the trees outside, which penetrated faintly into the cave, and at infrequent intervals the cry of some night bird came to me, but there was no sound of humanity.

How long we sat there I know not. It was my purpose to keep awake the night through, and I think I must have kept awake the greater part thereof, but toward morning my head dropped back on the pile of ingots, and I fell asleep. Yet I did not relax my clasp upon the sleeping figure lying upon my breast. It was she who awakened when the dim light began to sift through the narrow opening into the little cave where we sat.

"Master Hampden," she said, bending over me, having arisen without disturbing me, "it is morning."

I sprang to my feet instantly, as she shook me gently and grasped my sword as I did so, whereat she laughed.

"Why did you not awaken me?" she asked reprovingly.

"I don't know. I must have"-- I began in great confusion.

"You must have gone to sleep yourself," she laughed.

"I am ashamed," I replied, "that I should have failed in my duty to keep good watch. I didn't awake you when I might because you needed sleep yourself, and then, like a big animal, I went to sleep myself."

"I am glad," she said, smiling at me, and I could just see her lovely face faintly in the dark twilight of the cave, "that you did not nothing happened."

"It is just as well then," I said, smiling in turn, "we have both slept. I feel greatly refreshed."

"And I."

"Thank God!" I said fervently.

"What is to be done now?" she asked.

"First, breakfast."

I broke open a cocoanut with my ax. I had become expert at it, and we had food and drink in plenty and for variety some of the hard bread which still remained which I had brought with us and other fruit. I lighted the lantern for a moment and went toward the sound of the falling water. The cocoanut shell made an excellent cup, and I brought her enough clear, cool, sweet water to lave her face and hands. Save for the stiffness of the constrained position and some slight pain caused by the damp we were both fit for any adventure.

Well, we should have need of our strength. When we finished our meal and our refreshing ablutions, she looked at me inquiringly.

"Well, what next?"

"The next thing," said I, "is to see what is toward."

"You won't leave the cave," she said, catching me by the shoulder.

"I should find it difficult were I so minded," I answered, smiling and thrilling to her touch again, as always. Indeed, I have never got used to it even after all these years. As I look back at it now I do not think I have ever had happier moments in my life than those in which she clung to me and was dependent upon me.

"Why not?" she asked.

"You forget that we broke down the way last night."

"But you are a sailor, you might make shift."

"Yes, but not you," I answered.

"Without me?"

"Without you I go nowhere."

She looked at me with shining eyes.

"Come," said I, "let us go into the outer room. We may find out something."

I had wound my watch in the dark and looked at it now as we came into the light. It was three bells in the morning watch, or about half after 9. We went just at the time with its grim, bony circle of attendants and stared through the entrance. There was an open space in front of the cliff forty or fifty yards wide perhaps. Industrial Accidents

Thirty-four men were killed at work in Ontario during March, according to the monthly report of the provincial workmen's compensation board, issued yesterday.

While industrial accidents generally were fewer in March, 1929, than in March 1928, the tabulation for the first quarter of the year shows a marked increase over the list for the corresponding period of 1928. During the first quarter this year reported accidents totalled 19,019, as compared with 16,347 in January, February and March of 1928. During March, 1929, accidents numbered 6,230, as compared with 5,711 in March 1928.

Benefits paid to the end of March this year aggregated $1,026,731.29, as against $1,885,867.27 for the first three months of 1928. During March this year a total of $526,866.5 was awarded.

For Mothers of Young Children

Mothers are quick to praise anything which brings health and comfort to their little ones—any medicine that will make the baby well and keep him well will always receive hearty recommendations from the mother. That is why Baby's Own Tablets are so popular. Thousands of mothers throughout the country get only use them for their own little ones but are always delighted to be able to recommend them to other mothers. Thousands of mothers have proved Baby's Own Tablets to be without an equal in relieving their little ones of any of the many minor ailments which arise out of a derangement of the stomach and bowels. Baby's Own Tablets are the ideal laxative—easy to take but thorough in action. They banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers; expel worms and make the teething period easy. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MORVEN

Our community was greatly shocked on Saturday last when it learned of the accidental death of the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Craig. Expressions of sympathy for the bereaved family are heard on every side.—Quite a number attended the Easter service on Sunday evening and listened with interest to the message given by the pastor.—The Easter thankoffering service of the W.M.S. is postponed until next Monday evening, owing to the funeral of the late Johnnie Craig.—Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Haycock and Mr. J. Milne, Strathcona, spent Sunday at Mr. Henwood's.—Mrs. Mabney Parks, Napanee spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. G. Fretts.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rawlinson, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hall, and Miss Bessie Henwood, Oshawa, spent the holidays in our midst.—Mr. John Davey, Peterboro, one time resident of this place, accompanied the remains of his sister, the late Mrs. Hiram Davey, Syracuse, for burial. Mr. Davey is hale and hearty and enjoying the eighty-seventh year of his age.—Remember the Sugar Social in the brick church on Friday evening.

Puts An End To Bunion Pains

No Need to Suffer Another Day

There is one simple yet inexpensive way to reduce inflammation of swollen toe joints and help get them down to normal and that is to apply Moone's Emerald Oil night and morning.

Ask at Wallace's Drug Store or any first class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces lasts a long time and furthermore if one bottle of Emerald Oil does not give you complete satisfaction you can have your money refunded.

Special note: People who want to reduce swollen or varicose veins should get a bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil at once. Applied night and morning as directed they will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.

HOUSEWIVES ASKED TO SELL THEIR RECIPES

One hundred recipes are required for a new Recipe Book which is going to be published by one of Canada's oldest manufacturer of Pure Food Products.

The recipes required are those of simple, tasty and inexpensive dishes, such as are used in the average Canadian Home. To get one hundred of these recipes, the firm in question is willing to pay five dollars each for the best fifty, and three dollars each for the next best fifty recipes sent in by housewives.

There is only one condition to be complied with. Recipes must employ among their ingredients one or more of the company's products. However, this condition presents no difficulties, for all the commodities manufactured by the company are used in general cooking, pastry making, bread baking, salads and candy. Recipes for any one of these are eligible. Arrangements have been made to have the recipes tested by expert Canadian dietitians.

That our readers may have an opportunity to obtain cash for their recipes, we give the firm's name and address. The Canada Starch Company Limited, Montreal, P.Q.

BOXING TOURNAMENT

The second boxing tournament sponsored by the Frontenac Regiment was held in the Armouries last Wednesday night before a fine crowd of enthusiastic sportsmen. When, a few weeks ago, one of the members suggested that a series of boxing bouts be held, it was felt that few, if any, of the public would be interested in such entertainments, but the reception given these tournaments has been so gratifying to the promoters that they will hold another on April 10th next.

The first bout of the evening was a three round argument between the Sedore brothers, commonly known as The Snake and Sparkling Pete. These boys, very evenly matched, set about their work with a will, and the honors were very even in all three rounds. It seemed to the Judges, Messrs. Skitch and Dr. Lewis, that the blows of Sparkling Pete were the more effective, and he was given the decision.

Jimmie Tompkins next opposed Jimmie Young. These tiny warriors were also very evenly matched, and the crowd was much pleased with their exhibition. Eventually Tompkins was given a very close decision.

The third affair saw Packey McFarlane opposed to Dangerous Dennison. It was very difficult to get an opponent for McFarlane, such is his reputation as a boxer, for he has vanquished everything his size in the vicinity. However, he was willing to tackle anything that could be found to oppose him, and eventually Dennison was matched. Dennison, however, had such an advantage in height and reach that he was able to keep his heavy hitting opponent at a distance, and used straight lefts to good advantage. The handicap in size was too much for even the redoubtable Packey, and Dennison was declared the winner.

One of the most interesting bouts of the evening was when Mickey Gilbride opposed two-ton Thompson. Mickey had expressed his desire to appear some time previously, and had an opponent picked for himself, who, unfortunately was unable to appear. He was therefore sent through the crowd to find another opponent, and returned to the matchmaker's rooms presently with Thompson. It is much to two-ton's credit that he appeared at all on such short notice, and with no training. Mickey proved to be far the speedier of the two. He was able to run in, get in a couple of punches, and duck out before his ponderous opponent, who seemed to outweigh him by about 100 pounds, could get his wallop started. On a few occasions Mickey happened to run into one of the swings, and when this happened he was knocked all the way across the ring, but it happened so infrequently that the smaller boy won for his superior aggressiveness. Thompson is now going into heavy training, and there is little doubt that when he is again matched, he will make a big showing.

Brick McTaggart showed vastly improved form over his last appearance when he faced Pedley, in the next fixture. This was another case of a good big man against a good little man, and McTaggart was easily superior, although Pedley showed marked ability.

Two English boys, passing through town, Smith and Cameron, of St. Thomas, were attracted by the bout, and next offered to put on an exhibition. They have undoubtedly at some time had some expert coaching for their bout was the fastest of the evening. Smith, by far the heavier, was made to miss so often by the agile ducking of Cameron, that the honours were even until the third round ended, the referee calling it a draw.

The two feature bouts of the evening were between two Deseronto boys and two of Napanee's fastest. Connie Brant opposed Buddie Fraser in a three-round encounter. Both boys proved themselves capable of giving and receiving tremendous punishment, and both were clever leather pushers. The ultimate winner was uncertain when the end of the third round was completed, for the points were then even. At this point an unfortunate interruption took place when a Deseronto sympathizer started a fracas behind the ring. By the time it was settled, the bout had gone more than the time allotted by the rules, and it was necessary to discontinue it and call it a draw. Connie and Fraser were both pretty well used up, and the public will watch with interest another bout where these boys are featured.

The final bout was between Frankie Sedore, of Napanee, and Frankie Bardy, of Deseronto. Very much credit is due both of these boys. Before the end of the first round it was seen that the Deseronto boy had been overmatched. He was not outclassed, or outgamed, but he was not in good training, and against a battler of the type of Sedore he had no chance. Sedore, as is his habit, with the opening whistle forced the going, and his pace was so fast that Bardy could not keep up. In the second round a pretty display of sportsmanship was given by the Napanee boy. A series of heavy rights and lefts had the visitor swaying on his feet in his own corner. A well placed wallop would have finished the bout with a knockout, but Sedore deliberately backed away from his opponent to give him a chance. At this point the seconds should have tossed in the towel, but for some reason failed to do so. There was nothing left for Sedore but to continue, and as soon as another of his blows sent the Deseronto boy staggering into the ropes, the judges stopped the bout.

Deseronto has good reason to be proud of the two representatives sent here for this bout. Both proved themselves clean sportsmen, and for sheer gameness, and grit, their shows will not be equalled for many a day. They both won the hearts and the tumultuous applause of the crowd, and are anxious to have them come again, if the right opponents can be found for them.

Although the announcer was very eloquent in asking for an opponent to volunteer to meet Slugger Wells, no one was brave enough to meet the boy from the oil wells. He, it will be remembered, won by a technical knockout two weeks previously, and has been in close training ever since. An opponent who was scheduled to meet him did not make an appearance, and a plea is therefore made for some one in the neighborhood of 160 pounds to meet the Slugger at the next Tournament, April 10th.

COUNTY COUNCIL

County Council met in the Council Chamber, in the County buildings, on Tuesday afternoon. Warden Campbell presiding.

All the members present, excepting Messrs. Hitchins and Johnson.

The minutes of the last day of the January session were read and approved.

Inspector Corkill addressed the Council on Educational matters.

Mr. Corkill's report was presented to Council, read and adopted.

The judgment of His Honor Judge Deroche on the matter of school moneys, in dispute between the County and the Napanee School Board, was read.

Mr. Aylesworth, addressing the Council on the matter of the judgment of Judge Deroche, stated that he was perfectly willing to pay any school all the moneys to which they are entitled, but was not yet satisfied that the County owed the Napanee School Board anything and advised the Council that he was not in favor of paying the judgment.

Mr. Aylesworth moved, seconded by Mr. Elliott, that the judgment be filed.

Mr. Carscallen moved that Napanee receive the money called for in the judgment, and that Newburgh also receive their proportion. Mr. McLaughlin seconded Mr. Carscallen's motion. Mr. Carscallen's motion was declared carried.

Mr. Tummon moved that the matter lay on the table until Wednesday morning. Mr. Tummon's motion was seconded by Mr. Clark, and the motions of Messrs. Aylesworth and Carscallen were withdrawn.

Mr. Paxton, of the Western Assurance Co., was heard in reference to Highway insurance.

Mr. McGee, of the Globe Indemnity Co., also addressed the Council.

On motion, the matter of insurance on roads was placed in the hands of the Finance Committee.

Communications in reference to the claim of Mr. McCutcheon, were presented and filed.

Communications from the Mothers' Allowance Commission, re expenses of Scott children, were filed.

A letter from Mr. A. R. Davis, re memorial plot at Adolphustown, was read and filed.

A communication from the Children's Aid Society, re a Giddy child who will appear before the Kingston Magistrate, on Thursday. Laid on table.

A claim from Jas. M. Simmons, of Cherry Valley, for $800.00, for injuries received a year ago while working in a gravel pit at Adolphustown, was presented and filed.

On motion the delegates to the Good Roads Convention were paid $35.60 each for expenses.

A report from Mr. Pringle, re drain at Petworth, was read. Referred to Camden Township Council.

A letter from the Accountant of the Highways Department, re deduction asked for on County's share of Highway's construction, reporting the request of the County for any reduction in the amount asked, was read and filed.

A letter from Mr. W. D. Black, re setting of snares, also one from the Game and Fisheries Department, in reference to the same question. Filed.

A letter from Mr. Frank Shane, of Centreville, claiming $15.00 re damage to fields by the public, taking down his fences bordering County Road. Referred to County Roads Committee.

An estimate from Geo. Vandewater for painting Court House roof, for $160.00, was received and referred to County Property Committee.

On motion Mr. Shane was ordered paid $10.00 in settlement of his claim.

A letter from the Attorney General re County's share of County Gaol upkeep, was filed.

A notice from the Belleville Vocational School, was read and filed.

A letter from T. E. Kayser, M.P., Ottawa, re appointment of cemetery inspectors, was read and filed.

A letter from Belleville Chamber of Commerce, re Eastern Chamber of Commerce, asking for annual fee. Filed.

A list of the beneficiaries of the Mothers' Allowance Commission, was read and filed.

On motion of Mr. Johnson, seconded by Mr. Elliott, the Mothers' Allowance Board was requested to restore to Mrs. Baldwin the amount which has recently been deducted from her allowance.

A notice from the House of Providence, that Gaby Shelter had died, and asking certain information, was filed.

The annual statement of the Frontenac and North Addington Teachers' Institute, was presented and filed.

A statement of Napanee's County rate was presented to the Council, showing balance claimed from town $4,125.00.

Council adjourned.

Second Day.

The minutes of the first day were read and approved.

Council adjourned for fifteen minutes for benefit of Finance Committee.

The Finance Committee reported recommending that the insurance on County Roads be placed with the Globe Indemnity Co., for this year.

A telegram from the Highways Department, asking the County to withdraw tenders for permanent pavements was read. Also a letter in reference to the same matter. The Department is strongly in favor of hot mix asphalt instead of amiesite.

The matter was laid on the table until Mr. Smale arrives.

Mr. Carscallen moved, seconded by F. M. McLaughlin, that a by-law be presented, adopting Section 34 of the Continuation Schools Act in the payment of requisitions for Continuation Schools. Motion carried.

Mr. Carscallen moved, seconded by F. M. McLaughlin, that the Napanee Collegiate Institute be paid the amount in dispute between the Collegiate Institute and the County; also that Newburgh High School be paid its proportion upon filing a requisition for same. Motion carried.

Mr. Aylesworth asked for the yeas and nays on the above motion.

Yeas—Messrs. Both, Campbell, Carscallen, Judge, Loyst, Miller, McLaughlin, Smith and Tustin—8.

Nays—Messrs. Aylesworth, Clark, Elliott, Johnson and Tummon—5.

Mr. Rumions, representative of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, addressed the Council, reporting that the Seed Fair will be held in Napanee next March. Mr. Rumions also asked for the usual grant of $5.00 per school toward the School Fairs.

Mr. Irwin addressed the Council in reference to mulch top gravel roads.

The matter of the Geddy case in Kingston Police Court was referred to the High County Council.

On motion Mr. Smale, of the Highways Department, was asked to attend the session on Thursday.

Afternoon.

Moved by Mr. Both, seconded by Mr. Carscallen, that the Township of Denbigh receive a special grant of $300.00 to assist in building some new road.

The following accounts were ordered paid:—Jackson Press, $1.74; P. C. Martin, $25.00; Wallace's Drug Store, $11.10; Lemmon & Son, $75.00; Wm. Jones & Son, $30.00; Township of Adolphustown, $20.00.

The matter of the heating plant in the County buildings was referred to the County Property Committee.

Mr. McCormick appeared before the Council, complaining of the condition of the County road from Camden East south to the Highway.

On motion the Township of North Fredericksburgh was requested to look after a case in the Township requiring aid.

Council adjourned for benefit of Committees.

Third Day.

A By-law, adopting section 34 of the Continuation Schools Act as the basis upon which all payments by the County will be made to High and Continuation Schools, was introduced, put through its various stages and finally passed.

On motion of Messrs. Tummon and Miller, the Town of Napanee was requested to at once pay to the County the balance of the 1928 County Rate as per By-laws 512 and 513.

On motion the County Treasurer was authorized to pay the Town of Napanee its County Road grant immediatly upon receiving the balance of the County Rate.

On motion of Messrs. Tummon and Johnson, the equalization of the County was fixed at the same amounts as in 1928.

Reeve Judge and Deputy Reeve McLaughlin, of Camden, made an effort to have the County assume a portion of the expense incurred in fighting the fire at Yarker nearly a year ago.

On motion the Council will endeavor to borrow from the Provincial Government the amount of the County's share of Highway construction in 1928.

On motion the Clerk was instructed to prepare a By-law, under which the County will pass on to the various municipalities 50% of the cost of indigent patients in the hospitals. Laid on the table until June session.

Thursday Afternoon.

The Roads and Bridges Committee met Messrs. Smith, Smale and Muir, of the Highways Department, to discuss road matters and contracts.

The Roads Committee reported, recommending the acceptance of the tender of Terry & Wallace, for 2½ miles of water-bound Macadam on Road No. 9. That the contractors be asked for new tenders for all permanent pavements on a tonnage basis as requested by the Minister of Highways. That an agreement be entered into between the County and the Town of Napanee for paving the connecting links on Roads No. 2 and 4, as an extension of these roads. Grading was recommended on Road 8, 2 miles; Road 5, 1 mile; Road 6, 1 mile; Road 9, 2½ miles.

We would recommend that the following monies be provided:—

Permanent pavement	$200.00.00
Connecting links	20.000.00
Grading	8.000.00
Superintendence	5.000.00
Maintenance	50.000.00
Total	$293.000.00

Mr. R. M. Smith, Deputy Minister of Highways, addressed the Council in reference to the reason for asking the Council to withdraw the tenders for surfacing. The Department found that the tenders already received by the Department on a tonnage basis were much more favourable than the prices of bulk or mileage tenders; also that the many troubles heretofore met with in having the contracts satisfactorily completed do not occur when a tonnage basis is the contract.

Mr. Muir, of the Highways Department, also addressed the Council, giving his opinion that the programme as outlined by the Roads Committee was satisfactory to the Department, but the Department had no intention of interfering with the work of the County Committee or changing their programme.

Mr. Aylesworth moved that the resolution of January session, asking the County Roads Committee to change the programme in reference to Camden East and Newburgh roads be rescinded. The motion was seconded by Mr. Loyst, and carried.

Mr. Judge moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. McLaughlin, that the representatives of the Highways Department do choose which road shall be chosen, the Nimmo road or the Camden East road.

The amendment was declared carried.

Mr. Aylesworth asked for the yeas and nays.

Yeas—Messrs. Both, Campbell, Carscallen, Elliott, Johnston, Judge, McLaughlin, Smith, Tummon, Tustin and Miller—11.

Nays—Messrs. Aylesworth, Clark, Hitchins and Loyst—4.

Mr. Smith, Deputy Minister of Highways, recommended that the Nimmo road be first chosen for improvement, the Camden East road to be dealt with later. Mr. Muir concurred in Mr. Smith's decision.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Messrs. Smith, Muir and Smale, for their trouble in coming down to straighten out the road matters.

Mr. Tummon moved, seconded by Mr. Johnson, that the report of the Special Roads Committee be adopted, and the amount of money necessary, $293,000.00, be provided by borrowing by debentures $100,000, borrowing from the bank a temporary loan $146,500.00 to be received from the Highways Department, and the balance, $46,500.00 to be raised by taxation. Carried.

Messrs. Smith and McLaughlin moved that in view of the already large debenture debt that the road programme be reduced one half as far as construction is concerned.

Mr. Smith asked for the yeas and nays.

Yeas—Messrs. Judge, McLaughlin, and Smith—3.

Nays—Messrs. Aylesworth, Both, Campbell, Carscallen, Clark, Elliott, Hitchins, Johnson, Loyst, Miller, Tummon and Tustin—12.

A By-law, fixing the amount of money to be expended on County Highways, was introduced.

On motion the cheques deposited by tenderers for road construction, were ordered returned to them; also those of the unsuccessful tenders.

Mr. Tummon moved, seconded by Mr. Aylesworth, that the offer of the Town of Napanee to pay the money in dispute, and forgo the annual subsidy in 1929, the County to build the connecting links. Carried.

Committee services to various members of Council, amounting to $177.50, were ordered paid.

On motion the Warden was thanked for the gift to each member of a group photo of the Council and officials.

On motion the County Solicitor was granted $40.00 as services in connection with the Board of Education of Napanee dispute.

A special session of the Council to complete the County Road matters will be held in two weeks' time.

Council adjourned at the call of the Warden.

DORLAND

Despite the unpleasant weather and roads, quite a number of ladies attended the Ladies Aid meeting at the home of Mrs. T. N. Davis on Wednesday afternoon.—A rehersal of the sacred drama, to be presented on Thursday evening, was held on last Saturday afternoon.—An effort is being made to have an especially interesting service on Easter Sunday, and everyone is urged to be present.—There were a number of cases of mumps last week but all are reported to be of a light type.—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Post presented them with a shower on Friday evening.—We are glad to report Mrs. J. A. Humphrey has recovered from her recent illness, also that Misses Dorothy White and Shirley White, who were taken ill while visiting their aunt in Hamilton, the former with a severe attack of appendicitis and the latter with measles, are progressing favorably.—Messrs. Andrew Magee and Herman Jolin are engaged in erecting I. J. Bird's new house.

The ice is rapidly disappearing, the upper bay being practically clear.—The condition of the roads is much improved.

Afternoon.

Moved by Mr. Both, seconded by Mr. Carscallen, that the Township of Denbigh receive a special grant of $300.00 to assist in building some new road.

The following accounts were ordered paid:—Jackson Press, $1.79; P. C. Martin, $35.00; Wallace's Drug Store, $11.10; Lemmon & Son, $75.00; Wm. Jones & Son, $30.00; Township of Adolphustown, $30.00.

The matter of the heating plant in the County buildings was referred to the County Property Committee.

Mr. McCormick appeared before the Council, complaining of the condition of the County road from Camden East south to the Highway.

On motion the Township of North Fredericksburgh was requested to look after a case in the Township requiring aid.

Council adjourned for benefit of Committees.

Third Day.

A By-law, adopting section 34 of the Continuation Schools Act as the basis upon which all payments by the County will be made to High and Continuation Schools, was introduced, put through its various stages and finally passed.

On motion of Messrs. Tummon and Miller, the Town of Napanee was requested to at once pay to the County the balance of the 1928 County Rate as per By-laws 512 and 513.

On motion the County Treasurer was authorized to pay the Town of Napanee its County Road grant immediatly upon receiving the balance of the County Rate.

On motion of Messrs. Tummon and Johnson, the equalization of the County was fixed at the same amounts as in 1928.

Reeve Judge and Deputy Reeve McLaughlin, of Camden, made an effort to have the County assume a portion of the expense incurred in fighting the fire at Yarker nearly a year ago.

On motion the Council will endeavor to borrow from the Provincial Government the amount of the County's share of Highway construction in 1928.

On motion the Clerk was instructed to prepare a By-law, under which the County will pass on to the various municipalities 50% of the cost of indigent patients in the hospitals. Laid on the table until June session.

Thursday Afternoon.

The Roads and Bridges Committee met Messrs. Smith, Smale and Muir, of the Highways Department, to discuss road matters and contracts.

The Roads Committee reported, recommending the acceptance of the tender of Terry & Wallace, for 2¾ miles of water-bound Macadam on Road No. 9. That the contractors be asked for new tenders for all permanent pavements on a tonnage basis as requested by the Minister of Highways. That an agreement be entered into between the County and the Town of Napanee for paving the connecting links on Roads No. 2 and 4, as an extension of these roads. Grading was recommended on Road 8, 2 miles; Road 5, 1 mile; Road 6, 1 mile; Road 9, 2½ miles.

We would recommend that the following monies be provided :—

Permanent pavement	$200,00.00
Connecting links	30,000.00
Grading	8,000.00
Superintendence	5,000.00
Maintenance	50,000.00
Total	$293,000.00

Mr. R. M. Smith, Deputy Minister of Highways, addressed the Council in reference to the reason for asking the Council to withdraw the tenders for surfacing. The Department found that the tenders already received by the Department on a tonnage basis were much more favourable than the prices of bulk or mileage tenders; also that the many troubles heretofore met with in having the contracts satisfactorily completed do not occur when a tonnage basis is the contract.

Mr Muir, of the Highways Department, also addressed the Council, giving his opinion that the programme as outlined by the Roads Committee was satisfactory to the Department, but the Department had no intention of interfering with the work of the County Committee or changing their programme.

Mr. Aylesworth moved that the resolution of January session, asking the County Roads Committee to change the programme in reference to Camden East and Newburgh roads be rescinded. The motion was seconded by Mr. Loyst, and carried.

Mr. Judge moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. McLaughlin that the representatives of the Highways Department do choose which road shall be chosen, the Nimmo road or the Camden East road.

The amendment was declared carried.

Mr. Aylesworth asked for the yeas and nays.

Yeas—Messrs. Both, Campbell, Carscallen, Elliott, Johnston, Judge, McLaughlin, Smith, Tummon, Tustin and Miller—11.

Nays—Messrs. Aylesworth, Clark, Hitchins and Loyst—4.

Mr. Smith, Deputy Minister of Highways, recommended that the Nimmo route be first chosen for improvement, the Camden East road to be dealt with later. Mr. Muir concurred in Mr. Smith's decision.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Messrs. Smith, Muir and Smale, for their trouble in coming down to straighten out the road matters.

Mr. Tummon moved, seconded by Mr. Johnson, that the report of the Special Roads Committee be adopted, and the amount of money necessary, $293,000.00, be provided by borrowing by debenture the $100,000, leaving from the Bank as a temporary loan $146,500.00 to be received from the Highway Department, and the balance, $46,500.00 to be raised by taxation. Carried.

Messrs. Smith and McLaughlin moved that in view of the already large debenture debt that the road programme be reduced one half as far as construction is concerned.

Mr. Smith asked for the yeas and nays.

Yeas—Messrs. Judge, McLaughlin, and Smith—3.

Nays—Messrs. Aylesworth, Both, Campbell, Carscallen, Clark, Elliott, Hitchins, Johnson, Loyst, Miller, Tummon and Tustin—12.

A By-law, fixing the amount of money to be expended on County Highways, was introduced.

On motion the cheques deposited by tenderers for road construction, were ordered returned to them; also those of the unsuccessful tenders.

Mr. Tummon moved, seconded by Mr. Aylesworth, that the offer of the Town of Napanee to pay the money in dispute, and forgo the annual subsidy in 1929, the County to build the connecting links. Carried.

Committee services to various members of Council, amounting to $177.50, were ordered paid.

On motion the Warden was thanked for the gift to each member of a group photo of the Council and officials.

On motion the County Solicitor was granted $40.00 as services in connection with the Board of Education of Napanee dispute.

A special session of the Council to complete the County Road matters will be held in two weeks' time.

Council adjourned at the call of the Warden.

DORLAND

Despite the unpleasant weather and roads, quite a number of ladies attended the Ladies Aid meeting at the home of Mrs. T. N. Davis on Wednesday afternoon —A rehersal of the sacred drama, to be presented on Thursday evening, was held on last Saturday afternoon. — An effort is being made to have an especially interesting service on Easter Sunday, and everyone is urged to be present—There were a number of cases of mumps last week but all are reported to be of a light type.—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Prout presented them with a shower on Friday evening. — We are glad to report Mrs. J. A. Humphrey has recovered from her recent illness, also that Misses Dorothy White and Shirley White, who were taken ill while visiting their aunt in Hamilton, the former with a severe attack of appendicitis and the latter with measles, are progressing favorably. — Messrs. Andrew Magee and Herman John are engaged in erecting J. J. Bird's new house.

The ice is rapidly disappearing, the upper bay being practically clear —The condition of the roads is much improved.

No Strain on the Cords

GUM Cushioned Tire construction helps the "GP" tough tire tread to resist the grinding action of road surfaces. There's no breaking down behind the tread—live gum cushions save the cords. No chafing of one layer against another—no bruising and no trouble. These super-tires cost no more than ordinary tires. Go to Gum Cushion Tire Stations—they'll show you.

CHRYSLER MOTORS PRODUCT

PRODUCT of Chrysler engineering and craftsmanship, the Plymouth has been so named because its endurance and strength, ruggedness and freedom from limitations so accurately typify that band of British people who braved the Atlantic three hundred years ago in pursuit of new high ideals.

A car that doesn't say "Price Price Price"

FULL SIZE

every time you see it!

THE Chrysler-built Plymouth is a full-size car—roomy and comfortable—freed from all of the traditional limitations of diminutive cars so ordinarily associated with a low price.

Plymouth has easy-riding lengthiness and appealing symmetry—the dynamic grace and charm so characteristic of all Chrysler designing.

Plymouth also has the smooth power and supple quickness so typical of all Chrysler performance.

The exclusive Chrysler Silver-Dome high-compression engine, cushioned on rubber mountings—with aluminum alloy pistons, special manifold and silcrome steel exhaust valves—gives Plymouth utmost vigor, flexibility and responsiveness.

$820 Coupe Upwards F. O. B. Factory

Everything about Plymouth is full-size and dependable. Together with a sturdy chassis and rugged axles, Plymouth has the safe, sure, easy control of Chrysler full-size weatherproof internal-expanding 4-wheel hydraulic brakes.

Yet, with all its bigness and power, Plymouth can match economy with any car—not only in gas, oil and tire mileage, but also in upkeep and long life.

No longer does a small price limit anybody to owning a small car. Plymouth full-size, Plymouth power, Plymouth beauty and Plymouth economy, make Plymouth today the foremost investment in the field of lowest-priced motor cars.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

A charming woman, says the Dean of Wisconsin University, must have polish manners, diplomacy, amiability, a sense of humor, and wear the right clothes. And, above all, he forgets to add, must be another man's wife.

Conquers Asthma. To be relieved from the terrible suffocating due to asthma is a great thing, but to be safeguarded for the future is even greater. Not only does Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy bring prompt relief, but it introduces a new era of life for the afflicted. Systematic inhaling of smoke or fumes from the remedy prevents re-attacks and often effects a permanent cure.

Prospect—I wouldn't think of buying any land here. Why, you have only two or three buildings in this township of yours.

Land Salesman—Yes, but just look at the parking space.

Many children die from the assaults of worms, and the first care of mothers should be to see that their infants are free from these pests. A vermifuge that can be depended on is Miller's Worm Powders. They will not only expel worms from the system, but act as a health-giving medicine and a remedy for many of the ailments that beset infants, enfeebling them and endangering their lives.

"Women, in my opinion, are different than they used to be."

"How's that?"

"There's my daughter, for instance—she's taking up law, whereas her mother always lays it down."

Corns cripple the feet and make walking a torture, yet sure relief in the shape of Holloway's Corn Remover is within reach of all.

"Everybody," says Mr. Justice Smith, "is honest and dishonest in patches." That's as may be; but at any rate the nigger has the reputation of being dishonest in melon patches.

Mothers can easily know when their children are troubled with worms, and they lose no time in applying a reliable remedy—Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator.

Notice in a country paper—"Next Sunday at Spring Street Church, the Rev. C. W. Merrick will preach on the subject 'Hell'. As he is full of his subject, a great time is expected. Come."

An Oil That is Prized Everywhere.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil was put upon the market without any flourish over fifty years ago. It was put up to meet the wants of a small section, but as soon as its merits became known it had a whole continent for a field, and it is now known and prized throughout this continent. There is nothing equal to it.

Little Lucy (with toothache)—Oh, dear! I wish I was grandpa, or else the baby.

Mother—Why, dear?

"Grandma's teeth are all gone, and baby's haven't come yet."

An Oil For All Men.—The sailor, the soldier, the fisherman, the lumberman, the out-door laborer and all who are exposed to injury and the elements will find in Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil a true and faithful friend. To ease pain, relieve colds, dress wounds, subdue lumbago and overcome rheumatism, it is excellent. Therefore, it should have a place in all home medicines and be amongst those taken on a journey.

A girl was asked if, as it was a leap year, she had proposed to any man.

"No fear," she said. "I'm not fool enough to propose to any man who'd be fool enough to marry me. And it's no use proposing to the others.

OBITUARY

Mrs. John Manion.

Death once again has caused a widespread sorrow throughout this community, on February 9th last, his around her native country where she was born, in the person of Mrs. John Manion, formerly Miss Annie Gleason. She was of a loveable disposition, a person of rare Christian virtues, whose life was an ornament, which dignified the sacred position of a wife and mother, a holy life studded thick and fair with earthly deeds. She was a young woman, whose future life seemed to be foreshadowed with every happiness, as her home seemed to always have a ray of bright sunshine within, no matter how dark it seemed outside. She was great of soul with a keen intelligence, a generous heart, a loyal and energetic disposition, with an unshakable will, she being the kind of a mother we all love to admire.

Her kindness and strength of character endeared her not only to her family, but also to the many friends whom she always treated in a cordial manner. Her company was always agreeable and attractive, and many were the tributes heard to her womanly character and staunch faith; also messages of love and regret were heard on all sides. So we all send prayerful sympathy to her dear family, especially her mother and sisters and poor dear little children, who have ever been the object of her tender care and attention. So may her Blessed Mother console these in her tender and loving way, until time gives pleasure to the love that they all will enjoy together for all eternity.

The kindness of the neighbours is to be remembered since her death of helping hand in different ways. The same was with herself, no sacrifice was too great for her to show her good will in giving a helping hand to any one who stood in need of it.

Her funeral took place on Tuesday to St. Patrick's Church, where a solemn High Mass was sung by her Priest Father McDonald, who administered the last rites of her Church to her on her dying bed. The many spiritual offerings, numbering sixty-seven, bore testimony of the esteem in which the deceased was held.

Customer—"You say this material is the very latest fashion?"

Assistant—"The very latest, madam."

"But will it fade in the sun?"

"No! It's been in our window for two years."

Why is a wise man like a nail? Because his head prevents him from going too far.

Ontario Legislature

General downward revision of hydro rates is expected to take place throughout Ontario this summer. Hon. J. R. Cooke, Hydro Commissioner, made this announcement on the floor of the Legislature during the week when the estimates of the Hydro Commission were under consideration.

"The Commission," he said, "has adopted a policy of downward revision of rates. This has gradually brought rates down on the rural lines. We think we can make such revisions annually as we see our way clear. I think by midsummer there will be another downward revision."

* * *

Hydro estimates to the extent of $10,325,357, were passed by the Legislature during the week. These provide for the expenditure, of $5,566,407 on the Niagara system; $300,000 on the Georgian Bay system; $518,950 on the Ottawa and St. Lawrence system; $800,000 on the Thunder Bay system; $40,000 on the Central Ontario system; $2,700,000 on the proposed Northern Ontario development and $400,000 to provide for extensions of the Administration Building in Toronto.

* * *

Bill providing for the expenditure of $5,000,000 in Northern Ontario, which comes as an amendment to the Northern Development Act, has been passed by the Legislature. The money is used by the government in developing and opening up the new section of the province.

* * *

Further protection to the investing public of Ontario is ensured through an additional amendment to the Security Frauds Prevention Act presented to the Legislature by Attorney General Price.

* * *

The amendment provides for the appointment of what are to be known as "broker's auditors" who will have power to step in and audit the books of any firm operating on the Toronto or Standard exchanges. The bill also provides that the auditor shall make a survey of the books of the company at least twice a year and that the company must throw open all its books at his request.

The bill will put an end to the recent failures that have taken place in the brokerage business in Ontario.

* * *

While he informed the Liberal leader that he would be glad to furnish him with any information he might require privately, Premier Ferguson, in the Legislature, informed the Opposition parties that the government would not order the return of all contracts made by the Ontario Hydro Electric Commission. Refusing the information to the House the Premier pointed out that Hydro must be treated as a private company in the matter of its business and that it should not be forced to disclose all its business affairs for the benefit of other private power organizations.

"The government does not desire to give out any information that will aid those that seek to undermine this public enterprise", stated the Premier.

* * *

Attorney General Price's bill to amend The Constable's Act has been introduced in the Legislature. The bill will provide for the policing of the counties of the province by the Ontario Provincial Police where the counties prefer to be relieved of carrying on their own police service. The bill does not interfere with High Constables now in the service of the counties and provides that he shall hold office during the pleasure of the Council. Provision is made in the bill however that any vacancies may be filled by the government. These vacancies will be filled from members of the provincial police if provincial police service is desired by the counties.

* * *

Premier Ferguson has informed the Legislature that the government has under consideration at the present time some new policy in connection with liquor consumption in hotel rooms. The Premier intimated that some announcement would probably be made in this connection before the end of the session. It is expected, although the Premier has yet to make any definite announcement, that power will be given the Liquor Control Board to regulate drinking in hotel rooms. Hotels which desire to avoid the practice will likely be placed without the scope of the act by the Board.

The announcement followed second reading being given to slight amendments to the Liquor Control Act. The amendments merely increase penalties in some cases and allow for slight reductions in others. There was little or no discussion on the bill.

Don't be a rheumatic cripple!

"I THOUGHT I was going to be a cripple for life with neuritis and rheumatism." Mrs. Simon Rae, R.R. 2, St. Mary's, Ontario, says this in a letter. And many other women at the present moment are suffering so severely from rheumatism that they, too, feel depressed and despondent.

But Mrs. Rae found relief in the time-tested remedy, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This famous discovery of a Canadian doctor, by enriching and purifying the blood, renews vitality and attacks rheumatism at its very source.

"I suffered for four years and nothing seemed to help me," says Mrs. Rae. "After taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I am now able to do all my own work. I feel that there is nothing like them."

ANDERSON-GRETNA W.M.S.

The W. M. S. of Gretna and Anderson met at the home of Mrs. Arch Parks, on Thursday afternoon, March 14th. The meeting opened by singing "How Firm a Foundation", followed with prayer by the President, Mrs. Alkenbrack. After the business part of the meeting, the programme was in charge of Mrs. Arthur Dean. The Scripture lesson, 10th chapter of Romans, was read by Mrs. Amos Hambly. Hymn, "My Faith Looks Up To Thee" was sung. Mrs. J. Card read the devotional leaflet. Mrs. A. C. Baldwin gave the report of the Presbyterial held in Trenton. The following readings were given: "Mrs. Ritchey's Bargain Meeting", Mrs. N. Pitchett: "The Transforming Power of Christ", Mrs. J. E. Beckett; "Seeds of Grace the Crowded Ways", Mrs. R. L. Card.

On account of the absence of the Pastor, the chapter of the Study Book was given by Mrs. Will Joyce. This was followed by a reading "Contrasts", contrasting the life of an African girl to that of a Canadian girl, by Mrs. Mellow and Mrs. Dean. The closing hymn, "He Leadeth Me", was sung and the Mispah repeated in unison. Mrs. Parks served a dainty lunch. A vote of thanks was extended to the hostess.

A Good Index.
The Bell Telephone Company spent over $22,400,000 in gross additions to plant during 1928, according to a statement from their annual report which has recently been published. This exceeds the expenditure in 1927, a previous record year, by over $4,000,000. Such continuous expenditures by the Bell Company speak well for general progress in Ontario and Quebec. The demand for service may be taken as a fair gauge of conditions, and expansion such as noted above is material evidence of the country's prosperity.

Easter at St. Mary Magdalene's Church.
Easter Sunday, with its joyous message was fittingly observed in the Anglican Church of St. Mary Magdalene, Napanee. The morning service, including Matins and Holy Communion, was conducted by the Vicar, the Rev. R. J. Dumbrille, assisted by the Rev. J. A. M. Bell, B.A., of Appleby School, and a large congregation was present. Children's service in the afternoon, and evensong were well attended. The services were fully choral, and the special music was exceptionally well sung by the Choir. Particularly effective were the two singing of an Easter Carol in a gregorian setting of seventeenth century origin, and a solo by Mr. W. Owen.

Women's Missionary Society of Trinity United Church
The Easter Thank Offering meeting of the Women's Missionary Society was held in the Sunday School room on Easter Monday at 3 p.m. There was a good attendance in spite of the very boisterous and stormy weather which prevailed.
Mrs. F. Richardson and her Committee had arranged a most interesting Easter programme.
Mrs. T. H. P. Anderson, of Newburgh, was the speaker for the afternoon. She gave a very comprehensive outline and vivid description of the work being done at the numerous stations under the Board of the W. M. S. of the United Church, stressing their great need in a most sympathetic manner and inspiring in her listeners a renewed desire to reach the allotted allocation and so materially help in this great and necessary work.
A very sincere vote of thanks to Mrs. Anderson was moved by Mrs. George Switzer, and seconded by Mrs. Richardson.
Mrs. Baughan contributed a beautiful recitation in keeping with the spirit of the day, and Mrs. Pawson sang, "There is a Green Hill Far Away". The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. W. D. Pennell.
Later tea was served by Mrs. Richardson and her committee.

Boy Instantly Killed.
On Saturday last while Johnnie Craig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Craig, Morven, was in his father's barn a pole fell from the top of the barn, striking the boy on the head, killing him instantly. The funeral was held from his parents' residence on Monday afternoon to Morven cemetery.

Sugar Social.
The Anderson Young People's Union are having a Sugar Social in their Church, on Tuesday evening, April 9th, at 8 o'clock. Splendid programme given by Mrs. (Dr.) J. S. Watts, of Odessa, famous bell ringer; Rev. and Mrs. Seymour, of Morven, and other local and outside talent. Admission 40c., couple 75c., children 25c. 14a

How Telephones Increase.
A net gain in telephones, for the past year, of 45,862 as compared with 38,222 in 1927, is the statement of steady growth contained in the annual report of the Bell Telephone Company. 139,001 instruments were installed and 93,139 removed to provide this net gain. Further, the fact that over 65% of the 714,245 Bell Telephones are in service in homes gives some idea of the substantial progress of the company in providing service in spite of many changes of location.

WEDDING BELLS.

Alberston—Rhyndress
A very quiet, but pretty, Easter wedding was solemnized on Saturday afternoon, March 30th, at Grace United Church parsonage, by the Rev. W. P. Woodger, when Thelma Francis, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Rhyndress, became the bride of Sherman Ed. Albertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Albertson, Kingston. The bride looked charming in a gown of powder blue georgette trimmed with shell pink georgette and rhinestones, small blue hat and satin shoes and hose to match. They were attended by Miss Ruth Thompson and Mr. Warren Albertson, brother of the groom. They left on the midnight train for Toronto, where they will reside, the bride travelling in a royal blue crepe dress and grey coat trimmed with mole collar. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, showing the esteem in which she was held by her many friends. She was an employee of Caton's Confectionery Store, while the groom is employed as salesman of the Coco-Cola Co., Toronto.

EASTER FESTIVAL IN GRACE CHURCH
The Easter Festival was fittingly celebrated at both services in Grace United Church last Sunday. At the morning service special organ numbers, and a beautiful Easter anthem, along with fitting hymns comprised the musical contribution. Rev. W. P. Woodger preached upon the significance of Easter, historically and personally, and showed how becoming it was on this day to receive new members into the church, and gave words of encouragement to those who were uniting with the church at that service. After the sermon, thirty-eight new members were received, twenty-four by letter of transfer from other churches, and fourteen by profession of faith. Messrs. R. B. Allen and C. A. Wiseman, on behalf of the Session assisted the minister in extending the right hand of fellowship to those who were received.
At the evening service, after a short introductory period, the Choir rendered the cantata, "The Resurrection Story", by Carrie B. Adams, under the leadership of Mrs. Bert Seymour, with the organist, Mrs. B. M. Black, at the organ. It would be hard to single out any one part, or any group or persons for special mention, the whole cantata being so effectively given, and each part so well taken. Grace Church Choir always prides itself upon being self-contained, and free from the necessity of employing outside artists even in their special productions. Mesdames Harold Denison, Bert Seymour, F. B. Elliott, and Misses Marion Wales and Edna Hull were heard in solo, trio, and quartette numbers, while among the men, Messrs. Reginald Wiseman, C. A. Wiseman, Bert Seymour, F. W. Barrett and B. M. Black were heard in solo and quartet selections. High tribute must be paid to each and every member of the choir of thirty voices for the contribution made. The cantata began after a short introducing of the text, by a description of the tragedy on Calvery, and ending by songs of triumph about the Resurrection. At the conclusion, after the benediction the choir and audience all remained standing in time honoured fashion, while Mrs. B. M. Black played very beautifully, "The Hallelujah Chorus", from Handel's "Messiah". Thus ended one of the finest musical treats ever heard in Grace Church.

NEWBURGH

The W. M. S. of the Newburgh ... United Church met at the parsonage ... for their Easter Thankoffering service ... on Wednesday afternoon, April 3rd. ... The opening hymn was "Jesus Shall ... Reign Where'er the Sun," followed by ... prayer by Miss M. Keough. A letter ... was read from the Presbyterial Super- ... intendent of Finance, Mrs. (Rev.) Sey- ... mour, of Marmora, in which she urged ... that we realize our privilege and re- ... sponsibility in meeting the financial ... requirements of the work of the So- ... ciety. An impressive responsive Easter ... service followed, in which all present ... took part. Mrs. W. Wagar, Enterprise, ... then spoke very earnestly on "Leader- ... ship and Stewardship." She lead us ... through the Old Testament, noting the ... strong women who played such an im- ... portant part in those early days; then ... through the early days of the Christian ... Church when women did their share ... in building up the kingdom of the ... Master. She called upon all to take ... up some service, and, if appointed to ... office, to take up the task, realizing ... what a great army of workers were ... doing the same thing, and how the ... example of all the more helped the ... timid and untiring office bearer. These ... prayers are the most necessary of all ... and in them we each have a share; ... love through prayer reaches to the ... remotest corner of the world. When ... Mrs. Wagar finished speaking, Mrs. J. ... Paul, Mrs. Vandervoort and Mrs. An- ... derson offered prayer. A vote of ... thanks was tendered the speaker and ... a pleasant social hour spent by all. ... The offering amounted to over $60.00. ... Miss Jane Moore has returned ... from Vermont, where she visited with ... her daughter, Mrs. Palmer.

The many friends of Mr. Walter ... Paul will be pleased to know that he is ... much improved in health.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given to the land owners of South Fredericksburgh that the Weed Act is to be more rigidly enforced during 1929.

Farmers, therefore, are advised to exercise greater care in preparing the seed-bed, and to sow only clean seed.

Badly infested fields should not be sown to Spring grains, but should be thoroughly worked the early part of the season and later sown to buckwheat, rape or a hoe crop; or in extreme cases, summer fallowed and worked throughout the season.

If these precautions are not taken, the Inspector may exercise his authority and have the menace removed before the weeds mature.

FRED SILLS,
13c Inspector.

BAY CIRCUIT

The severe wind storm of Monday did a great deal of damage to farm properties throughout our neighbourhood. Wind mills were blown down, roofs taken off barns, and trees uprooted.—Our six day school teachers returned on Sunday and Monday from their different homes, and are again busy guiding the minds of the youth of our communities. — Several new cases of mumps have developed among our older folk. It is hoped they will get speedy relief.—This is the week for our monthly missionary meeting on this circuit. (The Bay West organization meets at Mrs. A. C. Parks' on Wednesday, April 10th, and the Bay East group at Mrs. A. Dean's on Thursday. All the women are cordially invited.—Miss Hazel McCabe is spending a few weeks visiting friends in Oshawa. —On Sunday, April 7th, the Stand Hill Sunday School reorganized for the summer months, and will meet one hour before preaching service. — Mrs. Walter Huffman is the superintendent, with Mrs. Funnell, Mrs. Huffman, and Mr. Beckel as teachers.—Rev. Improvement soon.—The Anderson Ladies' Aid held a sale of homemade cooking at Kingston market last Saturday, and report good success.—The pastor will preach on Sunday, April 14th: Hay Bay at 11 a.m., Bethany 2.30 p.m., and Anderson 7.30 p.m. Subject: "The Boldness of Peter and John."

SELBY

A sad gloom was cast over this community last week, when the news came of the death of Mrs. Irvine S. Jackson, who was well and favourably known by all the surrounding country. The funeral service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. H. W. Foley, on Saturday afternoon, in Selby United Church. The text was taken from Luke 24, and part of the 5th verse, "Why seek ye the living among the dead?" The large attendance showed the high esteem in which she was held. Much sympathy is extended the bereaved ones in the sad loss of a wife and mother.—The special meetings this week were well attended, considering the unfavourable weather and the condition of some of our roads.—Mrs. Vernie Boothby has returned home after spending a few days with her brother, Mr. Armond Huigin, Tomstown.—Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Anderson and daughter, Betty, of Belleville, have been spending a few days with his father, Mr. Ivy Anderson. — Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Arnold, of Roblin, spent Friday with their daughter, Mrs. Walter Doidge.—Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson spent Wednesday in Kingston.—Mr. and Mrs. Everyone from here spent Wednesday with her brother, Mr. W. B. Close spent Friday at Arch Black's. —Messrs. Will and Wilbert Coulter had tae Sunday night at P. Nolan's.

DORLAND

The continued rainy weather keeps the roads soft and muddy.—This part of the country escaped any serious damage from the recent wind and electric storms. The storm on Friday evening disappointed many who had planned to attend the play given by the Union Young Peoples' Society in the Parish Hall. Those who were present report a very enjoyable evening. — The sacred drama, "The Challenge of the Cross," which was presented by the W. M. S. in the United Church here before Easter, will be repeated by request in Shiloffe Church on Friday evening, April 19th. — Mrs. Robert Cousins very kindly opened her home for the entertainment of the W. M. S. last Wednesday afternoon. — Mr. Roy Millman, who was so seriously injured when he fell on a circular saw February 2nd, was able to leave the hospital on Friday. His arm is still weak, but otherwise quite recovered.—Master Harold Allison is recovering from an appendicitis operation and mumps, in Kingston General Hospital.—Miss Beulah Rombough continues in very poor health. — Mr. Glenora ferry began regular trips last week. It is unusual for it to be able to begin so early in the season. The water is the highest for many years.

ODESSA

Last Saturday night the young people of the United Church, Camden East staged their popular play, "The Road Back", in the Town Hall, to a fairly well filled house. The talented artists were very entertaining, and each part taken wonderfully well. A concert was put on in behalf of the Odessa Brass Band, who served the performers to a very delicious lunch after the play was over.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ferguson, son, Bruce, and Mr. and Mrs. Bon Emmons and daughter, Marian, attended the funeral of their brother-in-law, Mr. Goodson Parker, which was held at his home in Watertown, Bruce and Marian remained with their aunt, Mrs. Parker, for the Easter holidays.—Mr. and Mrs. John Heath and daughter, Mrs. Leaman, and Mrs. E. Laughlin, Kingston, motored to Chamois, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Fred Heath, sister-in-law of Mr. Heath's. The deceased lady was a victim of the Flu.—The I. O. F. held a progressive euchre party in their lodge room last Wednesday evening. A very enjoyable time was spent and arrangements are being made to make these social gatherings monthly events.—Miss Verna Benjamin is visiting friends in Montreal.—Mr. W. C. Jenkins left last Tuesday to accompany Mr. J. G. Ettinger and daughter, Bessie, Kingston, for a week's visit with Mr. Ettinger's daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) Logan and Dr. Logan, Lynchburg, Virginia. — The out-of-town teachers left for their respective homes, Miss Jacques, Burgessville; Mr. Cordick, Perth; Miss Leatherland, Inverary, and Miss Anglin, Kingston.—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Benjamin spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charley Rose, Westbrook. — Among the Easter visitors were Charley Hamnn, Barrister and Solicitor, Toronto, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Hamm; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Metzler, Harold and Margaret, Trenton, with Mrs. Metzler's sister, Mrs. Wm. Lake and Mr. Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Moore, Switzerville, with the latter's father, John O'Neil; Fred Sproule, Toronto, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Sproule; Miss Violet Jackson, Kingston Business College, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson. — Fred Benjamin has purchased the farm vacated by Mr. Turnham, and better known as the Frank McCormac farm. — Roswell Henry has moved in part of D. E. Smith's house.—Steward Walker has purchased the Huggard lot on Wilton Avenue, and contemplates building a home in the near future. Mr. Walker moved here from Buffalo recently, where he had spent a number of years.—Frank Hillier and Fred Hodge have purchased new Whippet cars. — The Library Board will hold an At Home in the Town Hall, on Monday evening, April 15th. There will be euchre, dancing, good music, good lunch, and everything done to make this the best of all the socials previously held for the Library. Everyone come and help the good cause, as the library is badly in need of money to carry on the work.

Hunt's Delicious Chocolates, fresh each week, at Wallace's.

MORVEN

The quarterly service was held at Violet Church on Sunday afternoon, and members of each appointment were present.—Misses Coakwell, of Napanee, spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. D. R. NEWBURGH

The W. M. S. of the Newburgh United Church met at the parsonage for their Easter Thankoffering service on Wednesday afternoon, April 3rd. The opening hymn was "Jesus Shall Reign Where'er the Sun," followed by prayer by Miss M. Keough. A letter was read from the Presbyterial Superintendent of Finance, Mrs. (Rev.) Seymour, of Morven, in which she urged that we realize our privilege and responsibility in meeting the financial requirements of the work of the Society. An impressive responsive Easter service followed, in which all present took part. Mrs. M. Wagar, Enterprise, then spoke very earnestly on "Leadership and Stewardship." She lead us through the Old Testament, noting the strong women who played such an important part in those early days; then through the days of the Christian Church when women did their share in building up the kingdom of the Master. She called upon all to take up some service, and, if appointed to an office, to take up the task, realizing that a great army of women were doing the same thing, and how the prayers of all the members helped the timid and untiring office bearer. These prayers are the most necessary of all and in them we can each have a share; the humble prayer reaches to the remotest corner of the world. When Mrs. Wagar finished speaking, Mrs. J. Paul, Mrs. Vandervoort and Mrs. Anderson offered prayer. A vote of thanks was tendered the speaker, and a pleasant social hour spent by all. The offering amounted to over $60.00.

Mr. Jennie Moore has returned from Vermont, where she visited with her daughter, Mrs. Palmer.

The many friends of Mr. Walter Paul will be pleased to know that he is much improved in health.

Miss Bessie Rogers is convalescing at her home, after an operation for appendicitis, which took place at Kingston General Hospital.

Capt. and Mrs. Slade have returned from Toronto, where they spent the past few months.

Mr. and Mrs. George Quail are now occupying their home, after wintering in New York State with friends.

The McGuin Sisters' Concert Company were guests at the hotel while in the village. They gave a splendid entertainment on Thursday and Saturday evenings.

Dr. Harvey Paul and family, of Syracuse, visited friends in this locality during the week.

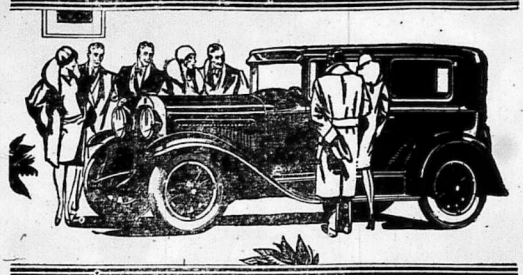
New Whippet

FOURS SIXES



SUPERB BEAUTY

MUCH Larger Bodies

Never have Fours and light Sixes been distinguished by such beauty and style as are now winning wide-spread praise for the new Whippets.

These smart cars are the style triumphs of master designers with grace of line, harmony of color, longer bodies, higher radiators and hoods, sweeping one-piece full-crown fenders and many other quality features.

The larger bodies give more spacious interiors, with broader seats and extra leg room. Other important factors in riding comfort are the oversize balloon tires, snubbers, and longer springs both front and rear.

"FINGER-TIP CONTROL"

The greatest driving convenience since the self-starter. A single button in the centre of the steering wheel controls all functions of starting the motor, operating the lights and sounding the horn.

In performance, the new Whippets are speedier, livelier and more powerful. Yet they retain all the quality features that built up Whippet's unsurpassed reputation for stamina, economy and minimum operating costs.

The new Whippets are unquestionably the outstanding values of the four and light six field.

WHAT CHANCE AGAINST FIRE HAS A ROOF LIKE THIS?

Old roofs like this are rapidly becoming things of the past. Fireproof, permanent, Rib Roll needs none. Lower insurance rates, banish upkeep trouble and give your building an attractive, spic-and-span appearance.

MODERN BUILDING—for permanence, low-upkeep and appearance—sounds the death-knell of wooden roofs. The dangers of fire to the building itself, to other buildings and to human life is rapidly being banished by metal roofs of high quality.

RE-ROOF WITH RIB ROLL

The appearance of this roofing alone has sold thousands. Whenever a roof of this material is laid in any district, it immediately secures a preference, and others who are roofing any kind of building, whether it be barn, house, garage, shed or warehouse insist on Rib Roll. It is made to famous "Council Standard" specifications.

COUNCIL STANDARD

A "close-up" of Rib Roll, showing the side-lap. When nailed this joint is so tight that it is quite invisible from even a short distance away. Illustration shows the neat and attractive pattern which is stamped into the sheets on huge press of 40 tons capacity. Beware of substitutes. There is only one Rib Roll.

EASY TO LAY ON NEW ROOFS OR OVER OLD ROOFS

The cost of laying Rib Roll is lower than that of nearly all other types of roofing. Any man who is handy with a hammer can put it on. Its handsome appearance adds many dollars to the value of your property.

Send ridge and rafter measurements of roof or roofs in question, for free estimate of cost.

Powerful, Penetrating Antiseptic Oil Heals Eczema and Other Skin Diseases

Must Give Results in 7 Days or Money Back, Says Wallace's Drug Store

Make up your mind today that you are going to give your skin a real chance to get well.

You've probably been like a lot of other people convinced that the only thing to use was an ointment or salve (some of them are very good) but in the big majority of cases these sticky salves simply clog the pores and the condition primarily remains the same.

Go to Wallace's Drug Store or any other good druggist and get an original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil.

The very first application will give you relief and a few short treatments will thoroughly convince you that by sticking faithfully to it for a short while your skin troubles will be a thing of the past.

Don't expect a single bottle to do it all at once but one bottle we know will show you beyond all question that you have at last discovered the way to restore your skin to perfect health.

Remember that Moone's Emerald Oil is a clean, powerful, penetrating Antiseptic Oil that does not stain or leave a greasy residue and that it must give complete satisfaction or your money cheerfully refunded.

Young Wife (after their first squabble): "I regret I ever married you!"

Copalline your floors, woodwork, linoleum and furniture! Copalline Varnish gives a brilliant gloss, does not turn white with water, and wears like iron! Will not darken hardwood floors. Sold at 80c. a pint; $1.60 a quart, and $3.00 half gallon, at Wallace's, agents for Napanee.

Old Lady (at the party): "I hear that your friend kissed that girl over there in public. Did you ever!"

Nervous Young Man: "Er—no!"

"Do you talk in your sleep?"

"No; my wife says I'm perfectly exasperating—I only smile!"

FOURTH LINE

On Friday evening, March 22nd, the members of the Volunteer Worker's Class of the Fourth Line Sunday School presented their play, "Home Acres", to a well filled house in the Fourth Line Church. The play was a drama in three acts, and while carrying a splendid moral all through, both in the story and the disposition of the characters, there was sufficient humour to keep the audience interested. The cast of characters was as follows: John Whitman, college graduate, Bert Denyes; Rose Whitman, sister of John, Mona Hagerman; Jane Whitman, aunt of John and Rose, Mrs. Karl Denyes; Enoch, chore boy, Karl Denyes; Lib, Bowery girl, Florence Reid; Dave Holden, young farmer, James Robson; Ann Rickett, village gossip, Mrs. James Robson; Helen Dalton, New York society lady, Luella Hagerman; Wilbert Clay, from New York, Harvey Reid; Jim Ferguson, schemer, Ford Denyes. Mr. S. M. Reid, who has been teacher of the class for a good many years, was manager. The various parts were so fitted to the individual that the verdict of the audience was unanimous that it was as fine a presentation as could be produced, and reflects great credit upon actors and manager. During the intervals between acts Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clark and three sons of Switzerville, entertained the audience with some splendid music, that was highly appreciated. Rev. Mr. Seymour, pastor of the church, spoke for a few minutes at the close and tendered the vote of appreciation of the audience to the actors and musicians, and the applause which followed showed it was genuine.

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE

Centreville, March 15th, 1929.

Mr. H. A. Hughes and Family,
Croydon, Ont.

Dear Sir Knight and Bro.,—

We, the officers and members of John W. Bell R. B. P., No. 725, wish to convey to you our condolence on the loss you have sustained in the death of your daughter.

The removal of one so near to your affection and loving regard must be a source of much sorrow. May it be granted to you to find all needed help in your bereavement, and may your trust be always with Him Who was with you in your time of sorrowing and gave to you strength to withstand all trouble.

We trust also that your family circle will be spared further losses and separation, and be kept in safety and prosperity.

We, therefore, send to you this letter in the spirit of true sympathy and brotherly love.

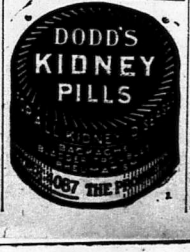
SILLSVILLE W.M.S.

The Sillsville W. M. S. met at the home of Mrs. George Phippen, Conway, on Good Friday p.m. The President, Mrs. M. B. White, occupied the chair, and the meeting was opened by singing the hymn, "The Way of the Cross Leads Home". The President read the Scripture lesson, Matthew 27, after which prayers were said by some of the ladies present. There were seventeen members present. The report of the last meeting was read and approved, and it was decided to send a pair of blankets to the home missions, and other business was discussed. Mrs. Plant then gave a reading, "Christ the Light of the World". Mr. and Mrs. Plant then favored us with a duet, "When I Remember Calvery", after which Mr. Plant gave an address on the "Significance of Easter", which was very appreciative. Hymn 184, "Joyful Tidings", and the meeting closed with the Mispah benediction. The hostesses then served a dainty lunch at small tables, with little white embroidered covers, in the spacious living room. The Easter Thankoffering amounted to $53.75.



CANADIAN GARDENING SERVICE

AN EASILY GROWN FLOWER

Where one is looking for something to grow easily in the flower line and yet be sure of abundance of brilliant bloom, both in the garden and for filling the vases indoors, there is nothing that will fill the bill any better than the Zinnia. This is an annual and it comes in a range of colors rivalling Joseph's coat. They do particularly well in a new garden. One can get them in the smaller sizes for blooming at the front of the bed, and from there right up to the latest giants which grow three feet high and have flowers as large as the dahlia. They bloom early and continuously from early Summer until frost. They can be started early indoors and transplanted outside after all danger of frost is over or can be planted as seed at the latter time. For big, individual flowers, it is well to pinch off half the side shoots and about the same number of buds, having about three flowers coming on at a time. All catalogues contain about a page devoted to Zinnia varieties from which a selection can be made, ranging from cream, mauve and pink to dark brown, yellow and scarlet. The phloxes, marigolds, godetia, butter-fly flower, petunia, calliopsis and coreopsis are also recommended where the choice is limited. Cosmos should also be added, which will grow with practically no trouble after one thinning and weeding.

A SHORT CUT

Even in a late season, vegetable growth can be brought up to normal by using a little quickly available fertilizer, like nitrate of soda. During the first cool weather when the sun is not strong enough to liberate the natural nitrogen in the soil, which is the great stimulant of leaf and stock growth, this fertiliser will bring things along as rapidly as nature would unaided later on. In ordinary gardens, a heaping teaspoonful is sufficient for a square yard of soil, with 150 to 500 pounds per acre for the larger places. This fertilizer should be applied at intervals of ten days to three weeks and it should not be allowed to actually touch the plant but should be placed close to it as it is apt to burn the foliage if damp. On this account it is safer in the smaller garden to dissolve it in water at the rate of about an ounce to the gallon and sprinkle, or it may be broadcast by hand during or just before a rain fall or before the hose or irrigation system is turned on. Practically all the market gardeners use a pinch of nitrate of soda as a pick-up in transplanting head lettuce, tomatoes, cabbages, and similar things. About as much as can be placed on a small five-cent piece is sufficient for each plant.

PEAS

The deeper the soil is cultivated the larger and the higher quality the pea crop will be. This vegetable requires a cool soil for its roots to produce the maximum yield and on this account must be planted fairly early and it must be cultivated well. This cultivation will loosen up the soil and allow the roots to penetrate to greater depth where they are cooler and will gather more food. It is time to begin thinking of some of the earlier types now. In this class will come the round-seeded sorts which will stand slightly more frost than the finer quality and later wrinkled peas. Of the earlier varieties perhaps the American Wonder and Little Marvel are best known. They are both dwarfs, take up little space and yield very well. A little later on, some of the Laxton variety may be used as well as Gradus. There are, of course, many varieties and types ranging from the little chap about a foot high which can be planted in double rows and will be self-supporting to the taller sorts which run up to four and a half feet and need some support. Peas should be planted with an eye on the variety and the season so that this delicious vegetable may be had for at least a month or more instead of just a week. Planting at intervals of one week and using varieties ranging from the very early to the very late will extend the season very materially.

GARDEN HINTS

Gardeners are advised to apply an application of hydrated lime, about one pound to two square yards every year or two, to sweeten the soil. This is particularly essential where one is depending on commercial fertilizers.

Very light soil will be benefitted with plenty of strawy manure, and the same treatment plus a little application of ashes or sand will loosen up clay.

In uncovering the perennials, care must be exercised not to disturb such early growers as tulips and other fall-planted bulbs and the herbaceous perennials which will now be pushing their way through the soil.

"I'm told the Smythe girl wore a very daring frock at the dance last night—do tell me what it was like!"

"Well—er—it's hard to say. It looked suspiciously like the Smythe girl!"

Mr. L. Siaud Speaks Highly of Dodd's Kidney Pills

Kidney Trouble Caused Him Weakness of the Back and Eyes

Forget, Sask., April 9.—Special.—"In former years I have been affected with Kidney trouble causing weakness of the body and eyes," writes Mr. L. Siaud, a well-known resident of this place. "Since I adopted the custom of taking Dodd's Kidney Pills I feel much better. Let this letter convince all sufferers from Kidney trouble that, "Two Dodd's Kidney Pills, Three a day is better than a person in the hospital."

The road to good health lies through the Kidneys. If they are kept well and strong, all the impurities are strained out of the blood. If they are weak and out of order the impurities stay in the blood and disease is the sure result.

Dodd's Kidney Pills keep the kidneys in good condition to do their work of cleaning and purifying the blood.

Weak, nervous, run-down men and women should give them a trial at once.

OBITUARY

Mrs. John R. Green

The death occurred in Deseronto on March 29th, 1929, of Mrs. Julia Green, wife of John R. Green, in the 59th year of her age.

Mrs. Green indulged a hope more than twenty years since and united with the Church of Christ in Deseronto, of which she continued a consistent member and exemplary christian until her demise. She exemplified the spirit of christianity in eminent degree. Her religion was not of that flashy kind which exhibits itself in sudden bursts of feeling, either of rapture or melancholy, that mark the course of some; but a steady, serene flame, ever burning upon the altar of a devoted heart. There was a depth and richness in her piety that is rarely attained. It was ever vigorous and active.

Among the traits prominent in her character were conscientiousness on all points of duty and a constant desire to be useful. Every worthy object had a place in her prayers and affections. The sick and suffering especially were dear to her heart and shared her unremitting attention and labor. But her labor of love is ended and she has gone to receive her reward. Her illness was brief and death came somewhat unexpected, at least to her relatives and friends; yet it found her at her duty, (relieving the suffering of others), prepared, clad in her spiritual armor. Her last moments were calm and tranquil and her end peace.

Though she dearly loved her precious children, and felt very keenly their loss, yet she desired to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. Her husband feels the stroke severely, whose loss none but himself can fully know. A large number of relatives and friends were in attendance upon the funeral solemnities, and gave visible tokens of the high estimation in which she was held while in life.

ADOLPHUSTOWN W. M. S.

The April meeting of the W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Cousins on Wednesday afternoon, with an attendance of sixteen, the President in charge of the meeting. In the absence of Mrs. Ruttan the devotional exercises were arranged by the President. The opening hymn was, "We Have Heard a Joyful Sound", after which Mrs. (Rev.) Plant led in prayer. The scripture lesson from St. Luke's gospel, Chapter 24, verses 1 to 12, was read by Miss L. Carr. All joined in singing "Jesus Shall Reign Where'er the Sun". The Secretary then read the minutes of last meeting. The Treasurer gave her report, which proved encouraging. The proceeds from the drama, "The Challenge of he Cross," were very gratifying. Mrs. John Humphrey and Miss L. Carr reported on the Indian and China work. Rev. Mr. Plant then gave a splendid address, taking as his topic "Ye Are My Witnesses." He showed us how the work done in our local societies affected the work done in the foreign fields. His message was full of inspiration and encouragement. The Easter thankoffering was then received. Rev. Mr. Plant offered the dedicatory prayer. Three verses of the consecration hymn was then sung. Miss Thelma Strawbridge contributed an interesting reading to the programme. Miss A. Magee gave the chapter in the Study Book, entitled, "Bubbling Springs in Bie", which was very interesting. The members which presented the drama, "The Challenge of the Cross," have been invited to repeat it at Stilleville on April 12th. The meeting adjourned, to meet in May at the home of Mrs. Carr. Rev. Mr. Plant dismissed the meeting, after which the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Wilkie Cousins, served dainty refreshments.

He: "Are you married?"
She: "That's my business."
He: "How interesting. Do you make much?"

WISE AND OTHERWISE

A dismal and slightly-battered figure emerged from the police court.

"'Ello, Bill," said a bystander, "You look fed up."

"No wonder," responded Bill. "Life ain't 'arf 'ard, it ain't."

"Wodyer mean?"

"Well, think o' this. Tunney gets two 'undred thousand quid, and I'm fined thirty bob, both for doing the same thing."

An Oil that is Famous. — Though Canada was not the birthplace of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, it is the home of that famous compound. From here its good name was spread to Central and South America, the West Indies, Australia, and New Zealand. That is far afield enough to attest its excellence, for in all these countries it is on sale and in demand.

The Barber: "Good morning, sir! Your face seems familiar. I've either seen you before or someone very much like you."

His Customer: "Well, I've never seen you before—or else it's someone else very much like you I've never seen before."

Requisite on the Farm.—Every farmer and stock-raiser should keep a supply of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil on hand, not only as a ready remedy for ills in the family, but because it is a horse and cattle medicine of great potency. As a substitute for sweet oil for horses and cattle affected by colic it far surpasses anything that can be administered.

The film producer was reading the part to the star.

"What you have to do is to seize the woman in your arms, get on top of a passing taxi, and jump from there to the fire escape of a building." He paused for breath. "Then you must climb to the sixth floor, drag her to the parapet, and, bracing yourself against a chimney, hurl her into space. She catches a window-ledge in her fall, and—"

"Suppose I drop her?" asked the actor.

"Well, you'll have to pick her up and begin over again."

Worms cause fretfulness and rob the infant of sleep, the great nourisher. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator will clear the stomach and intestines and restore healthfulness.

Two actors met after a long interval.

"What have you been doing lately?" asked one.

"Well, as a matter of fact I've left the stage," replied the other.

"But what made you do that?"

"Well, I had a hint that I was not suited for it."

"Oh, I see," said his friend; "the little birds told you, eh?"

"Well, no, not exactly, but they might have become little birds if they had been allowed to hatch."

No surgical operation is necessary in removing corns if Holloway's Corn Remover is used.

The straightforward young woman believed in telling the truth. She married a very sentimental young man.

"My darling," he said, "surely I cannot be worthy of you."

"Oh, of course not," she answered. "But when a girl's been twenty-three for six years she would be silly to be too particular, wouldn't she?"

Worms, by the irritation that they cause in the stomach and intestines, deprive infants of the nourishment that they should derive from food, and mal-nutrition is the result. Miller's Worm Powders destroy worms and correct the morbid conditions in the stomach and bowels that are favorable to worms, so that the full nutriment of the child is assured and development in every way encouraged.

Michael, having spent a tiring day at the local fair, was driving home, when a great drowsiness overcame him, and he lay down in the cart and went off to sleep.

The horse, finding that he could do as he liked, kicked himself free of the traces and ran away. When the Irishman awoke he found the horse was missing.

While he was pondering the situation a stranger appeared on the scene.

"Oh," said Michael, "am Oi Mike or aren't Oi?"

"Oi'm sure Oi dunno," said the stranger.

"Well," declared the other, "if Oi'm Mike. Oi've lost a horse, but if Oi'm not, Oi've found a cart."

All Night with Asthma. Everyone knows how attacks of asthma often keep their victims awake the whole night long. Morning finds him wholly unfitted for a day of business, and yet, business must still be carried through. All this night suffering and lack of rest can be avoided by the prompt use of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy, which positively does drive away the attacks.

Both the wives were on the youngish side, and both were discussing the merits and demerits of their respective husbands.

"Do you know, dear," began the first, "I think your husband had such a clever face. He looks as though he knows practically everything."

The other drew in her breath with a sudden gasp as she thought of her dressmaker's bill.

"Know everything!" she echoed. "My dear, thank heaven he doesn't even suspect."

B. & H. English Paints At Wallace's.

The great feature of B & H. Paint is its great covering capacity. Two quarts will do the same surface required by three quarts of cheaper paint. Then, too, being a lead and oil paint, it will wear infinitely longer. Priced at $1.50 a quart for most colors; $1.60 for the White, (a special price given on ½ and 1 gallon). Wallace's, Napanee Agents for B. and H. English Paint.

"How do you know it was a stork and not an angel that brought your little brother?"

"Well, I heard daddy complaining about the size of the bill, and angels don't have bills!"

OBITUARY

Mrs. John R. Green

The death occurred in Deseronto on March 29th, 1929, of Mrs. Julia Green, wife of John R. Green, in the 56th year of her age.

Mrs. Green indulged a hope more than twenty years since and united with the Church of Christ in Deseronto, of which she continued a consistent member and exemplary christian until her demise. She exemplified the spirit of christianity in eminent degree. Her religion was not of that flashy kind which exhibits itself in sudden bursts of feeling, either of rapture or melancholy, that mark the course of some; but a steady, serene flame, ever burning upon the altar of a devoted heart. There was a depth and richness in her piety that is rarely attained. It was ever vigorous and active.

Among the traits prominent in her character were conscientiousness on all points of duty and a constant desire to be useful. Every worthy object had a place in her prayers and affections. The sick and suffering especially were dear to her heart and shared her unremitting attention and labor. But her labor of love is ended and she has gone to receive her reward. Her illness was brief and death came somewhat unexpected, at least to her relatives and friends; yet it found her at her duty, (relieving the suffering of others), prepared, clad in her spiritual armor. Her last moments were calm and tranquil and her end peace.

Though she dearly loved her precious children, and felt very keenly their loss, yet she desired to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. Her husband feels the stroke severely, whose loss none but himself can fully know. A large number of relatives and friends were in attendance upon the funeral solemnities, and gave visible tckens of the high estimation in which she was held while in life.

ADOLPHUSTOWN W. M. S.

The April meeting of the W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Cousins on Wednesday afternoon, with an attendance of sixteen, the President in charge of the meeting. In the absence of Mrs. Ruttan the devotional exercises were arranged by the President. The opening hymn was "We Have Heard a Joyful Sound", after which Mrs. (Rev.) Plant led in prayer. The scripture lesson from St. Luke's gospel, Chapter 24, verses 1 to 12, was read by Miss L. Carr. All joined in singing "Jesus Shall Reign Where'er the Sun". The Secretary then read the minutes of last meeting. The Treasurer gave her report, which proved encouraging. The proceeds from the drama, "The Challenge of he Cross," were very gratifying. Mrs. John Humphrey and Miss L. Carr reported on the Indian and China work. Rev. Mr. Plant then gave a splendid address, taking as his topic "Ye Are My Witnesses." He showed us how the work done in our local societies affected the work done in the foreign fields. His message was full of inspiration and encouragement. The Easter thankofferting was then received. Rev. Mr. Plant offered the dedicatory prayer. Three verses of the consecration hymn was then sung. Miss Thelma Strawbridge contributed an interesting reading to the programme. Miss A. Magee gave the chapter in the Study Book, entitled, "Bubbling Springs in Ble", which was very interesting. The members which presented the drama, "The Challenge of the Cross," have been invited to repeat it at Sillsville on April 12th. The meeting adjourned, to meet in May at the home of Mrs. Carr. Rev. Mr. Plant dismissed the meeting, after which the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Wilkie Cousins, served dainty refreshments.

He: "Are you married?"
She: "That's my business."
He: "How interesting. Do you make much?"

WISE AND OTHERWISE

A dismal and slightly-battered figure emerged from the police court.

"Ello, Bill," said a bystander, "You look fed up."

"No wonder," responded Bill. "Life ain't 'arf 'ard, it ain't."

"Wodyer mean?"

"Well, think o' this. Tunney gets two 'undred thousand quid, and I'm fined thirty bob, both for doing the same thing."

An Oil that is Famous. — Though Canada was not the birthplace of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, it is the home of that famous compound. From here its good name has spread to Central and South America, the West Indies, Australia, and New Zealand. That is far afield enough to attest its excellence, for in all these countries it is on sale and in demand.

The Barber: "Good morning, sir! Your face seems familiar. I've either seen you before or someone very much like you."

His Customer: "Well, I've never seen you before—or else it's someone else very much like you I've never seen before."

Requisite on the Farm.—Every farmer and stock-raiser should keep a supply of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil on hand, not only as a ready remedy for ills in the family, but because it is a horse and cattle medicine of great potency. As a substitute for sweet oil for horses and cattle affected by colic it far surpasses anything that can be administered.

The film producer was reading the part to the star.

"What you have to do is to seize the woman in your arms, get on top of a passing taxi, and jump from there to the fire escape of a building." He paused for breath. "Then you must climb to the sixth floor, drag her to the parapet, and, bracing yourself against a chimney, hurl her into space. She catches a window-ledge in her fall, and—"

"Suppose I drop her?" asked the actor.

"Well, you'll have to pick her up and begin over again."

Worms cause fretfulness and rob the infant of sleep, the great nourisher. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator will clear the stomach and intestines and restore healthfulness.

Two actors met after a long interval.

"What have you been doing lately?" asked one.

"Well, as a matter of fact I've left the stage," replied the other.

"But what made you do that?"

"Well, I had a hint that I was not suited for it."

"Oh, I see," said his friend; "the little birds told you, eh?"

"Well, no, not exactly, but they might have become little birds if they had been allowed to hatch."

No surgical operation is necessary in removing corns if Holloway's Corn Remover is used.

The straightforward young woman believed in telling the truth. She married a very sentimental young man.

"My darling," he said, "surely I cannot be worthy of you."

"Oh, of course not," she answered. "But when a girl's been twenty-three for six years she would be silly to be too particular, wouldn't she?"

Miller's Worm Powders destroy worms and correct the morbid conditions in the stomach and bowels that are favorable to worms, so that the full nutriment of the child is assured and development in every way encouraged.

DESERONTO

Easter Day, Queen of Festivals, was well kept at St. Mark's Church, Deseronto. There were two Celebrations of the Holy Communion, at 8 and 11 a.m., after which eighty-one received the Sacrament. The organist and choir rendered the Ester music in keeping with the splendid spirit of the great festival. Mr. Bert Bowen was the soloist this year. Beautiful lilies adorned the re-table on the altar. At Evensong a strong surpliced choir, besides entering into the bright and uplifting spirit of hymn and chant, chanted the proper psalms for the day like veterans. The rector preached two thoughtful sermons, stressing the divinity of our blessed Lord and the courageous faith of Mary Magdalene.

Vacuum Cleaner Attachments are Obsolete

A WONDERFUL new cleaner, the Premier Spic-Span, has made vacuum cleaner attachments obsolete.

This diminusive but powerful cleaner not only takes the place of these clumsy, inefficient tools; it does cleaning jobs that attachments never could do.

The Spic-Span has introduced an absolutely new era in house-cleaning. Handling as easily as an iron, it brings amazingly powerful suction directly into the very smallest out-of-the-way corner. It cleans furniture and car upholstery, stairways, hangings, etc., with a degree of thoroughness and speed that has never been possible before.

Now, without a Spic-Span, your house-cleaning equipment is not complete. For the Spic-Span is an epoch-making advance in house-cleaning tools. Phone for a demonstration.

Address and Presentation

On Saturday, March 16th, about 80 of the friends of Wesley met together at the home of Mrs. Reginald B. Price to bid her and the family farewell before leaving the neighborhood.

The following address was read:

Dear Mrs. Price, Margery and Russell.

We have gathered here tonight for the purpose of bidding you farewell and in a very small way show our appreciation of your past services and comradeship. Life is full of glad meetings and sad partings, so, naturally, this is one in the series.

To Mrs. Price we may say that the years you have spent among us truly have been years of service to mankind and to your Master. Not one office, but many, have you filled in the church and the community. One more link in the chain will be missing, but we know our missing link will be mending some other chain of service.

To Russell and Margery we may say "Life is before you" and we know great fields of opportunities are lying at your door, and as you journey forth we trust you shall have an abundant harvest. Nevertheless we would not fail to tell you that you shall be greatly missed as we meet in our church and social gatherings.

We ask you, Mrs. Price, to accept this purse, and Russell and Margery, this fernery, and as the years roll by and we, one by one, pass to our reward, we trust that we shall all meet as an unbroken family, where the word "farewell" is never spoken.

"When for awhile we part,
This thought will soothe our pain:
That we shall still be joined in heart
And one day meet again."

Signed by your Wesley friends.
OLIVE B. HANNA.

Mrs. Price and Russell thanked their many friends, and assured them that a warm welcome awaited them in their future home.

Lunch was served and the remainder of the evening was spent in games and music. All joined in singing "Blest Be the Tie that Binds."

Valuable Training.

The importance of a knowledge of first aid among workers is being steadily emphasized by leading corporations throughout the country. The Bell Telephone Company has been a leader in promoting such knowledge amongst its employees. The annual report of the company states that of its male employees, over 5,100 in number, 70% are qualified first aiders. This is an enviable position and one of which the company may well be proud. As a result, Bell employees have been able to render aid, in critical cases, not only to their fellow employees, but also to other victims of accident.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of Mrs. Harold Sweet (nee Clara Cook), who departed this life April 14th, 1928, at 4 o'clock p.m.

The treasure of our home is gone,
The one that we loved best.
God called her to her home on high.
To her reward of joy and rest.

Just a year has passed and gone
Since we heard your tender voice and seen your smiling face;
But we will meet you, darling,
Asking God to give us grace.

To meet in the upper garden,
On that fair celestial shore.
And we'll walk the streets of Zion,
Where the parting is no more.

Sadly missed by husband and little sons, Lewis and Ray. 15ap

OBITUARY

John Richard Craig

A very sad death took place at Morven when John Richard, the eleven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Craig, was accidentally killed. The accident occurred during the removal of an old barn structure on the James Mills' place, recently purchased by Mr. Craig. Johnny was born at Switzerville, Nov. 23rd, 1917, and resided there until Nov. 4th, 1926, when the family moved to the John Albert Bell farm at Morven.

The service was conducted by the pastor, assisted by their former pastor, Rev. W. R. Merrick. Mr. Merrick spoke feelingly of the lad and his family. Mr. Seymour gave a very comforting message from II. Sam. 12: 23, showing the sorrow of David, how he born that sorrow, and his hope of meeting his son again. Mr. and Mrs. Fralick sang effectively "The Beautiful Land."

Admiration of the sunny disposition of Johnny and of sympathy for his parents, his sisters and brother, was expressed in the many beautiful floral tributes. Chums of Johnny bore his remains to their last resting place in the White Church cemetery.

He leaves to mourn besides his parents, two sisters, Mary and Beth, and one brother, Claude.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of Mrs. Harold Sweet (nee Clara Cook), who died this life April 14th, 1928, at 4 o'clock p.m.

The treasure of our home is gone,
The one that we loved best,
God called her to her home on high,
To her reward of joy and rest.

Just a year has passed and gone
Since we heard your tender voice and seen your smiling face;
But we will meet you, darling,
Asking God to give us grace.

To meet in the upper garden,
On that fair Celestial shore,
And we'll walk the streets of Zion,
Where the parting is no more.

Sadly missed by husband and little sons, Lewis and Ray. 15ap

OBITUARY

John Richard Craig

A very sad death took place at Morven when John Richard, the eleven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Craig, was accidentally killed. The accident occurred during the removal of an old barn structure on the James Mills' place, recently purchased by Mr. Craig. Johnny was born at Switzerville, Nov. 23rd, 1917, and resided there until Nov. 4th, 1926, when the family moved to the John Albert Bell farm at Morven.

The service was conducted by the pastor, assisted by their former pastor, Rev. W. R. Merrick. Mr. Merrick spoke feelingly of the lad and his family. Mr. Seymour gave a very comforting message from II. Sam. 12: 22, showing the sorrow of David, how he bore that sorrow, and his hope of meeting his son again. Mr. and Mrs. Fralick sang effectively "The Beautiful Land."

Admiration of the sunny disposition of Johnny and of sympathy for his parents, his sisters and brother, was expressed in the many beautiful floral tributes. Chums of Johnny bore his remains to their last resting place in the Wilt Church cemetery.

He leaves to mourn besides his parents, two sisters, Mary and Beth, and one brother, Claude.

a message to the USED CAR buyer for your response to the CHEVROLET DEALERS National USED CAR SALE

Still the best place for VALUES

TO all the thousands of Used Car buyers throughout Canada who so greatly assisted the Chevrolet dealers to reduce their Used Car stocks through the recent sale, we offer sincere thanks. We are confident you will be more than satisfied with your car and with the value you received . . and we look forward to a continuance of your goodwill.

Although the past month saw a veritable "clean-up" of used cars, yet the Spring demands for new Chevrolet Sixes have been so great that our dealers are fast replenishing their used car stocks and can offer many more unusual values.

To all who have not yet decided on their car, we urge an immediate inspection of these fine used cars at astonishingly low prices.

Keep Your Baby Happy and Well

Every mother wishes her child or children to be well and happy; to be bright-eyed, rosy-cheeked boys and girls. No mother, though, can expect her children to escape all the ills of babyhood and childhood, but she can do much to help them fight the battle for health.

All prudent mothers constantly keep at hand the means of aiding their little ones when sickness comes suddenly—as it generally does in the case of children. In every home where there are infants and young children Baby's Own Tablets should be found. Read what Mrs. Mary Hill, Centre Dummer, Ont., says concerning these Tablets:—"I am the mother of six children and would not be without Baby's Own Tablets. They are a wonderful medicine for little ones."

Baby's Own Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach and thus break up colds and simple fever, banish constipation and indigestion and allay the irritation accompanying the cutting of teeth. They are absolutely safe and are pleasant to take. The Tablets are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CAMDEN EAST W. M. S.

The Easter meeting of our W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. George Black on Wednesday afternoon, March 27th, with a goodly number of members present.

The meeting was opened with the President in charge. "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" was sung, followed by prayer. A special Easter programme was carried out, consisting of songs and responsive readings. Mrs. Histed gave us a very interesting reading, "Without Spot," also a reading by Mrs. Ferry Alkenbrack, "Two Easter Offerings."

The Thankoffering pledge was repeated in unison. While the offering was being counted by the Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. George Black gave us a very interesting talk about a sunrise prayer meeting which she attended on an Easter morning.

"God be with You Till we Meet Again" was sung, closing a very profitable meeting.

Delicious refreshments were served and a social half hour was spent.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. L. D. Williams on April 10th.

(For last week.)

Sunshine and rain, accompanied by wind and thunder and lightning, seem to be the outstanding characteristics of March weather this year.—The birds are back from their winter home, and it looks as though spring had come to stay. But it would not be surprising if there were a few cold days yet.—The maple syrup season threatens to be short and the supply rather small. Orders for syrup are coming in to those who have sugar camps, much faster than the supply of syrup. The price is $2.00 per gallon. —Another evidence of spring is the arrival of the automobile agent. This species has arrived in rather large numbers. If anybody comes through the season without a new car, it will not be the fault of the agents.—Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jackson, together with Mrs. Elias Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Wellesley Coulter, are leaving our community in the near future to take up residence in New York State. Preparatory to making the move a sale is being held this week. At a recent meeting of the "Ladies' Aid Society of Enterprise United Church an address of appreciation was read to Mrs. Elias Jackson, Mrs. Norman Jackson and Mrs. Wellesley Coulter, which was as follows:—

Mrs. Norman Jackson,
Mrs. Elias Jackson,
Mrs. Wellesley Coulter.

Dear Friends,—We have learned with regret that you are leaving our community, thereby severing your connection with our Aid, in which you have all been faithful and willing workers in the years past.

We wish especially to express our appreciation of the services of Mrs. Norman Jackson, who so ably occupied the office of President of the Aid for ten years. During all that long term she was always giving unstintingly of her time and thought to the furtherance of the work of our society, whether the task was pleasant or unpleasant. The example she has set will be an inspiration to all of us in the years to come.

While you are severing your connection with us, we know you are not leaving the Master's work, for you will be labouring in a new field where perhaps the need of workers is just as great as here.

We wish you every good wish in your new field of labor, and hope you may often think of our Aid with kindly feelings as we shall do of your services in our Aid, as workers and as President.

Signed on behalf of the Ladies' Aid Society of the United Church of Canada at Enterprise, Ont., this 26th day of March, 1929.

MRS. ELMER JACKSON, President.
LELA M. WAGAR, Secretary.

CHRYSLER "75" ROADSTER, $2010; F. O. B. FACTORY

A new conception of beauty
A new peak of performance

THE new Chrysler "75"—with its fresh interpretation of the principles of classic beauty—is vivid proof that fine art can exist in stern metal.

At the same time, Chrysler genius in engineering has given this magnificent car a range of power and a rhythm of motion that create new ideals of motoring ease.

With its famous "Silver-Dome" high-compression engine; with a counter-balanced 7-bearing crankshaft; with iso-therm Invar-Strut aluminum alloy pistons; impulse neutralizer and rubber engine mountings, the "75" has speed, acceleration, smoothness and endurance.

Pivotal steering and balanced front wheels, rubber shock insulators on all springs, together with hydraulic shock absorbers, insure exceptional riding and driving qualities. The justly celebrated Chrysler weatherproof internal-expanding 4-wheel hydraulic brakes are a source of utmost safety and constant peace-of-mind.

The Chrysler "75" impresses you immediately with its imposing proportions and consequent luxury, just as it carries the certainty of road ease and restfulness not to be expected of motor cars of lesser specifications.

NEW CHRYSLER "75"—Nine body styles, $1985 to $2050. All prices f. o. b. Windsor, Ontario, including standard factory equipment (freight and taxes extra).

VIOLET WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The members of Violet Women's Institute have just completed a very successful class in Home Nursing and First Aid, under the capable leadership of Miss M. E. Roberts, Reg. N., Department Instructress. In the early part of the course we were rather handicapped by illness in our community, and the attendance was rather small, but our numbers gradually increased and the interest shown was worthy of special mention. The class totalled 20, and several became Institute members.

The roads were detrimental to attendance, but in spite of mud even many of the girls walked daily. We are especially proud of our class of young girls who helped to make it a success, for it is "to the girl of today that we must look for the mother of tomorrow" and Institute worker likewise.

Thursday evening the members of the class held a class party at the Institute rooms, progressive games and dancing being enjoyed. The progressive prizes were won by Miss Jennie Sharpe and Mr. Irwin Smith. During the evening the members formed a circle around our worthy Instructress, Miss Roberts, and presented her with a beautiful pair of book ends in grateful appreciation of her painstaking service in our behalf, and also Clara Paige, who very graciously assisted with the demonstrations in the lectures. All the members voted Miss Paige a very bright and healthy patient. She was presented with a very pretty novelty choker. Both ladies responded with a few well chosen words, and community singing and games brought the evening to a happy close.

On Friday afternoon at the close of the lecture the members of the class served afternoon tea, under the convenership of Mrs. Jas. A. McCormick, and a jolly hour was spent, though all felt sorry to say goodbye to Miss Roberts, and a warm vote of thanks was tendered her for the kindly spirit shown throughout the course and the carefully prepared lectures given for our welfare and those around us.

It's the song ye sing, and the smile ye wear,
That is making the sun shine everywhere.

THE LATE M. V. LAKE

AN APPRECIATION

Not in the memory of the present generation have the people of Yarker received a greater shock than that which came to them recently in the sudden and most unexpected passing of one of the village's most prominent and most active residents, in the person of Maitland Lake.

For the last few years Mr. Lake had conducted a garage business here, and had built up for himself a very successful industry. On Saturday, the 23rd of March, he was in his garage all day, and until closing time at night, and was in the best of health and spirits. Sunday morning, apparently without warning, he was suddenly stricken with what proved to be a hemorrage of the brain. As soon as discovered he was rushed away to Kingston Hospital, where all efforts to revive him proved unavailing. He lived until Tuesday noon, never having regained consciousness.

Mr. Lake was a well known and most highly respected citizen of this community, having lived here all his days. For a number of years first after being married he lived on the Lake homestead, now occupied by Mr. Alfred Galbraith, but with the failing health of his wife he removed from the farm and took up residence in the village, where he went into the garage business. His wife, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Cambridge, predeceased him by a little over two years, and was buried in Yarker cemetery. His body now lies beside hers.

The funeral was held in the United Church, of which he was a member, and was one of the most largely attended here in many years. The sermon was preached by his Pastor, Rev. Mr. McKenzie. Rev. Mr. Hollingsworth, of Sydenham, reading the Scripture lesson, and offering the prayer. At the cemetery the Oddfellows assembled around the grave of their departed brother, and read the solemn ceremony of the Order.

The one surviving member of the family is Mrs. Alfred Galbraith, a sister, to whom all express their sympathy in her sad bereavement.

Father, in thy gracious keeping.
Leave we now thy servant sleeping.

BAY CIRCUIT WEST W. M. S.

The regular meeting of the W. M. S. was held on Wednesday afternoon, March 13th, at the home of Mrs. S. T. Parks, with an attendance of nineteen and one visitor. The President, Mrs. A. C. Parks, was in the chair.

The meeting opened with hymn, "Faith of Our Fathers", after which the President offered prayer. The Scripture lesson, Psalm 95, was read by Mrs. P. Huyck, and the minutes of the last meeting were read.

The sixth chapter in the Study Book, "Drums in the Darkness", was explained by Rev. J. E. Beckel. All then joined in singing the hymn, "Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult". The roll call followed, after which a number of items of business were dealt with.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Mr. Beckel. A very dainty lunch was then served, and a vote of thanks was moved to the hostess. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Parks.

TYENDINAGA EAST

The March meeting of the Tyendinaga East Woman's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. M. Husband, on Friday, March 22nd. The President, Mrs. C. Akey, was in the chair. The meeting opened by singing the Ode, followed by the Lord's Prayer. The roll call was answered by suggestions giving a name for our Institute. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Several letters were read from other branches, including a letter from Mr. Putnam. A number of items of business were seen to, after which the programme for the year was read by the Secretary and met with the approval of the members present. Fifteen members answered the roll call, with one new member added to our lists; visitors, three. This interesting meeting was brought to a close by singing "God Save the King". A social half hour was spent, lunch being served by Mrs. J. Gibson, Mrs. Frank German and Mrs. C. Akey. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Whittington, on April 18th.

VIOLET WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The members of Violet Women's Institute have just completed a very successful class in Home Nursing and First Aid, under the capable leadership of Miss M. E. Roberts, Reg. N., Department Instructress. In the early part of the course we were rather handicapped by illness in our community, and the attendance was rather small, but our numbers gradually increased and the interest shown was worthy of special mention. The class totalled 20, and several became Institute members.

The roads were detrimental to attendance, but in spite of mud even many of the girls walked daily. We are especially proud of our class of young girls who helped to make it a success, for it is "to the girl of today that we must look for the mother of tomorrow" and Institute worker likewise.

Thursday evening the members of the class held a class party at the Institute rooms, progressive games and dancing being enjoyed. The progressive prizes were won by Miss Jennie Sharpe and Mr. Irwin Smith. During the evening the members formed a circle around our worthy Instructress, Miss Roberts, and presented her with a beautiful pair of book ends in grateful appreciation of her painstaking service in our behalf, and also Clara Paige, who very graciously assisted with the demonstrations in the lectures. All the members voted Miss Paige a very bright and healthy patient. She was presented with a very pretty novelty choker. Both ladies responded with a few well chosen words, and community singing and games brought the evening to a happy close.

On Friday afternoon at the close of the lecture the members of the class served afternoon tea, under the convenership of Mrs. Jas. A. McCormick, and a jolly hour was spent, though all felt sorry to say goodbye to Miss Roberts, and a warm vote of thanks was tendered her for the kindly spirit shown throughout the course and the carefully prepared lectures given for our welfare and those around us.

It's the song ye sing, and the smile ye wear,

THE LATE M. V. LAKE

AN APPRECIATION

Not in the memory of the present generation have the people of Yarker received a greater shock than that which came to them recently in the sudden and most unexpected passing of one of the village's most prominent and most active residents, in the person of Maitland Lake.

For the last few years Mr. Lake had conducted a garage business here, and had built up for himself a very successful industry. On Saturday, the 23rd of March, he was in his garage all day, and until closing time at night, and was in the best of health and spirits. Sunday morning, apparently without warning, he was suddenly stricken with what proved to be a hemorrage of the brain. As soon as discovered he was rushed away to Kingston Hospital, where all efforts to revive him proved unavailing. He lived until Tuesday noon, never having regained consciousness.

Mr. Lake was a well known and most highly respected citizen of this community, having lived here all his days. For a number of years first after being married he lived on the Lake homestead, now occupied by Mr. Alfred Galbraith, but with the failing health of his wife he removed from the farm and took up residence in the village, where he went into the garage business. His wife, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Cambridge, predeceased him by a little over two years, and was buried in Yarker cemetery. His body now lies beside hers.

The funeral was held in the United Church, of which he was a member, and was one of the most largely attended here in many years. The sermon was preached by his Pastor, Rev. Mr. McKenzie. Rev. Mr. Hollingsworth, of Sydenham, reading the Scripture lesson, and offering the prayer. At the cemetery the Oddfellows assembled around the grave of their departed brother, and read the solemn ceremony of the Order.

The one surviving member of the family is Mrs. Alfred Galbraith, a sister, to whom all express their sympathy in her sad bereavement.

Father, in thy gracious keeping.
Leave we now thy servant sleeping.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH SANDHURST

The joyous Eastertide was fittingly celebrated in St. Paul's Church, Sandhurst, on Easter morning. The Holy Communion service was at 8 o'clock, and the Rector, the Rev. A. Strother, administered the Holy Sacrament to over sixty communicants.

The text was taken from the sixteenth chapter of St. Mark, 1-4 verses. The great stone before the tomb of Christ was compared to our troubles and the need we have of looking up to God, in the hour of trial and trouble.

Memorial flowers adorned the altar. Instead of closing the service as is customary with the "Nunc Dimittis", the hymn "Jesus Lives! Thy Terrors Now Can No Longer Death Appal Us", was sung as recessional.

Hatchery Men Spent Night in Hay Bay Marsh.

After being absent 36 hours somewhere in the Bay of Quinte in motor boats with their whereabouts kept secret, Walter Hicks and Dick Coulter returned safely to the Fish Hatchery at Glenora at one o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. The men had left, each in one boat, with loads of fry to be deposited in Hay Bay. Before the journey was completed one boat suffered a broken propellor and the other's engine stopped. While the men were engaged in fixing the engine the seas got rougher and rougher and the boats were washed into the marsh by the waves. This was near Wicklow. The men did not dare venture out owing to the heavy seas and a roaring gale, from which the rushes sheltered them. However, the night was spent very uncomfortably. The engine was repaired next morning and the journey home safely made, but not without many exciting experiences, as the one boat had to be towed. Mr. Coulter and other members of the hatchery staff spent a very anxious night.

POLICE COURT.

Fourteen car drivers appeared before the Magistrate on Tuesday morning charged with not stopping at stop signs. All pleaded guilty and were assessed $5.50 each. A number of others who received notices did not appear to answer to their names and summonses will be issued for their appearance.

TO BE A VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

With the re-opening of the Napanee Collegiate Institute in September the school will be classed as a Vocational School as far as the Commercial Department and Night Schools are concerned. Under the new classification a largely increased grant will be received from the Government. A considerable amount of new equipment will be necessary, but the Government grant also covers half of the cost of such equipment.

The same good stuff at the same place. Ask for Sherwin-Williams Paints and Varnishes at Hooper's Drug Store.

NAPANEE HUMANE SOCIETY

There will be a meeting of this Society on Thursday evening, April 11th, at 7.30 o'clock, in the Historical Hall, above the Library. Anyone interested in humane work is cordially invited, and all members should be present if possible. This is a business meeting, and should not last over half an hour. Please be on time.

Section 536 of the Criminal Code reads: Everyone is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to two years' imprisonment who wilfully

(a) Attempts to kill, maim, wound, poison, or injure any cattle, or the young thereof; or

(b) Places poison in such a position as to be easily partaken of by any such animals.

DESERONTO

The seven-reel film of Life in the Artic Regions, taken by Venerable Archdeacon Fleming at Naylor's Theatre, Deseronto, Sunday evening last, was a very great success. The theatre was filled to capacity, numbers having to go away. The Bishop of Ontario was the speaker. Well known hymns were sung at intervals, and the evening was a most enjoyable and instructive one. If you have not seen this film, reader, go and see it the first opportunity you have, but go in time to get a good seat. Our country, Canada, is certainly a wonderful one, and if only the world knew long enough is destined to be one of the greatest in the world.

—An opportunity to see a wonderful moving picture film of Missionary work in the Arctic Circle, will be afforded the people of Napanee next Sunday, in Wonderland Theatre. The film has been secured by the Vicar of Napanee from the Ven. Archdeacon Fleming, who took the pictures and had the film prepared. This film has been shown to thousands of people in Toronto, Trenton, Belleville, Kingston, Brockville and Ottawa, and has been declared to be most interesting and instructive. At 3 p.m. all the children of the community are invited, and at 8.30 p.m. the adults of the community will all be welcome. A collection will be taken up at each performance to help Archdeacon Fleming pay for the film which cost him $1800.00. Do not miss this unique opportunity of seeing our great Northland. Mr. Tustin is most kindly giving the use of the theatre free of charge.

CLOSING EXERCISES EVENING VOCATIONAL CLASSES

The Evening Vocational Classes at the Napanee Collegiate Institute were brought to a close by the Annual Exercises on Tuesday evening, April 9th. Mr. Alpine Woods, the Chairman of the Vocational Committee, presided, and referred to the great success of the Evening Classes during the past two years.

Principal Beattie was then called upon to give the results of this year's classes. He reported that out of an enrolment of 127 in the classes, 59 pupils had attended over 80% of the evenings. Mr. Beattie also pointed out the splendid relationship which existed between the staff and pupils, so that no steady application some of the pupils had been able to accomplish as much as day pupils do. Mr. Woods then proceeded to present over sixty diplomas to those who had completed sufficient work to win them. The senior championship cup in Typewriting for Napanee and district was won for a second year by Miss Mary Rogers, with a speed of 70 words per minute, while Miss Dorothy Sagar stood first in Senior accuracy, with a speed of 63 words per minute and only two errors in the speed test of 15 minutes writing. Short addresses were given by Mrs. A. Kimmerly, Mr. F. W. Knapp, Mr. Beverley Thompson, Mr. George Howitt and Mr. H. C. Garrett, on behalf of the pupils, each one speaking very highly of the staff of teachers and of the benefit to be obtained by attending the classes regularly. Mr. Garrett, who has had a 100% attendance record this year, gave a practical demonstration of the value of the conversational class in French, by giving his address both in French and in English. Miss Grange then replied on behalf of the staff, and said that it had been a pleasure to teach the enthusiastic classes this year. After this formal part of the program, there followed a more informal two hours during which those present had an opportunity to see some of the work done in the practical classes. The ladies served refreshments, and the boys provided the orchestra for the dance which followed. All present enjoyed the evening, and most of the pupils stated their intention of attending the classes again next year.

DORLAND

Some warm bright sunshine would be very welcome. So much chilly damp weather is very conducive to sickness and prevents the land from drying out.—The members of the sacred drama, "The Challenge of the Cross," and a few others attended the open meeting of the Sillsville Auxiliary on Friday evening. The drama formed one feature of the evening. Common services will be observed on the circuit next Sunday, with the Quarterly Official Board and General Meeting at Ald meeting in this church on Monday evening.—The W. I. meeting which was to have been held at the home of Mrs. C. F. Allison last Wednesday afternoon, was indefinitely postponed.—Mr. Jas. Macdonald, who suffered a broken limb a couple of months ago when the gravel bank fell on him, returned from Kingston hospital on Saturday. He is able to get about with crutches.—Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Magee, Mr. Lawrence and Miss Annabell Magee, attended the funeral of the late Mr. John Miller, Milford, on Monday.—Everyone is glad to see Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Roblin at home, after spending the winter in Napanee.

Late A. B. Carscallen

Was Most Prominent Citizen of Tamworth

Following a brief illness the death occurred on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock of Mr. A. B. Carscallen, general merchant and one of the most outstanding residents of Tamworth. In his death the community has suffered a great loss. Mr. Carscallen was in business there for the past thirty years, conducting a general store and grist mill and took an active interest in everything that had for its object the welfare of Tamworth and district.

Deceased was sixty-two years of age and was born at Newburgh, being a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Luke Carscallen, and was very widely known throughout the district. He was the Reeve of Sheffield Township. Mr. Carscallen was taken ill on Wednesday evening last at 6 o'clock, and as already stated death occurred on Saturday at 1 p.m. The entire community is in mourning over his passing.

Thirty years ago Mr. Carscallen took over the old Sherman property in Tamworth and ten years ago purchased the Thornton property and rebuilt it. His general store was regarded as the finest in an area of many miles around. In 1912 Mr. Carscallen built a grist mill, and had machinery installed and operated. He also operated on the site of Mace's old mill, which was destroyed by fire. Deceased also had to his credit the installation of the electric light plant for Tamworth, which is now in operation He was regarded as the "father" of the plant. Mr. Carscallen was also chief executive of A. B. Carscallen Co. Limited.

Although always a busy business man, Mr. Carscallen found time to devote to other activities. He was Reeve of Sheffield Township, director and secretary-treasurer of the Sheffield Cheese Company, and was also prominent in educational circles. He was a member of the School Board for many years and it was through his efforts that the Consolidated School was built in 1911, which is regarded as one of the finest Continuation schools in Ontario. Mr. Carscallen was also President of the Redden Telephone Company, and a member of the Official Board of the Methodist Church in Tamworth. He was also a Shrifer and prominent in Masonic and Orange circles. He was a member of Rome Lodge No. 401, A. F. & A. M., P. D. D. G. M. of Frontenac District, A. F. & A. M., Frontenac Chapter, No. 44, Napanee; member of Rameses Temple, Toronto; member of Mount Sinai Chapter, No. 44, Napanee; member of Rameses Temple, Toronto; member of Rome Lodge No. 401 I. Kingston; member Sheffield L. O. L. No. 9; and also a member of other Sheffield Black Preceptory No. 725, Centreville.

Mr. Carscallen is survived by his two daughters, Mrs. George J. Wolfe, of Tamworth, and Mrs. S. D. Whaley, of Little Current, and two brothers, also two sisters, Mrs. George McFarland, of Toronto, and Mrs. S. S. White, of Deseronto.

The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, from his late residence to the United Church at Tamworth. The service was conducted by Rev. I. N. Beckstead, assisted by Rev. W. J. Clark, of Shannonville, a former pastor of the United Church at Tamworth, and Rev. Mr. Morgan, of the Anglican Church at Tamworth.

BAY CIRCUIT

Farmers are busy these days drawing gravel unto the River. Several have been placed for the new piece of road out as far as Alkenbrack's corners. The continued fine weather has made the Bay Road very bad in places.—Several young men from Ireland have come into our neighborhood. Several others are expected in the near future. We welcome these our old country friends.—The annual social under the auspices of the Anderson Young People's Union was a decided success. Mrs. Watts, of Mallorytown Landing, rendered all her musical numbers played on the bells. Rev. and Mrs. Seymour, Miss Marjorie Huyck and Mr. Ernest Tack presented several very pleasing literary and vocal numbers.—The severe wind storm of last week blew the chimney off the Bethel Church. The Orange Order kindly loaned the use of their building for service on Sunday. On Monday the chimney was rebuilt by Mr. Wm. Conger, Jr.—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Conger and Mr. E. Burtch spent a couple of days this week visiting with friends in Canandaigua.—The Bay Circuit West Women's Missionary Society met last week at the home of Mrs. Frank Parks. The collection of $200.00 was presented. One new member was secured. One of the most interesting features of the programme, a letter received from Mrs. Harrison, missionary of the United Church in Angola, Africa. Mrs. Harrison is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Parks.—Mr. Percy Furrs narrowly escaped serious injury when a colt he was clipping kicked him.—The Bay Circuit East Women's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Arthur Conger on Thursday of last week. In the absence of the President, who is ill, Mrs. Norman Pitchett took charge of the programme. "Daughters of Africa" made an interesting study led by the Pastor, while several very helpful readings were given.—Two of our Ladies' Aid groups met this week, Anderson Ladies' Aid at Mrs. J. Card's, on Wednesday afternoon, and Hay Bay Ladies' Aid at Mrs. Leonard Parks', on Thursday afternoon.—Some changes have been made in the appointments on

STYLE BEYOND THEIR PRICE CLASSES

New Whippet FOURS AND SIXES

SUPERB BEAUTY
MUCH Larger Bodies

The longer, larger bodies of the new Whippets, the low lines, distinctive colors, higher radiators and hoods, heavier one-piece full-crown fenders, are bringing to Four and light Six buyers an entirely new conception of how beautiful an inexpensive car can be.

Roomier interiors, broader seats, longer front and rear springs, snubbers and oversize balloon tires bring you the riding comfort of costlier cars. Mechanically too, the new Whippets are far advanced—faster, livelier, more powerful than ever. They are the lowest-priced cars to offer such important features as the new "Finger-Tip Control", silent timing chain and full force-feed lubrication.

FINGER-TIP CONTROL

The greatest driving convenience since the self-starter. A single button in the centre of the steering wheel controls all functions of starting the motor, operating the lights and sounding the horn.

They carry on Whippet's unsurpassed reputation for operating economy and minimum service costs.

Be sure to see the new Whippets at your first opportunity!

CONWAY WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Conway Women's Institute held their April meeting at the home of Mrs. Geo. Ham on Tuesday, with a fair attendance of members and several visitors, who are always welcome.

The meeting was opened in the usual manner, the President presiding.

After the minutes were read and adopted, the Secretary read several letters of thanks to the Institute for flowers and fruit sent to sick folk recently, also for letter of sympathy to a bereaved member.

The Hospital Committee reported some new furnishings in our room at the hospital, which was gratefully acknowledged by the Hospital Board. Mrs. Phippen read a very clear, but concise, clipping on the "League of Nations."

Announcement was made of the "Summer Series" meeting, which will be held in the Masonic Hall, Bath, including the four branches, Bath, Ernestown, Bay View, and Conway. Also the District meeting at Fredericksburgh Hall, June 18th. At both these meetings there will be talks by very able speakers on interesting topics, and it is to be hoped that many will avail themselves of this opportunity.

On motion it was decided to withdraw our meetings during July and August.

The roll call was answered by suggestions for the new programmes.

Rev. Mr. Strother, being the speaker for the afternoon, took for his subject the picture, "Angelus", depicting very clearly the three elements or factors in every human life, viz.: labor, love, and religion. How very essential each one are, but without the last life is incomplete.

Mrs. Ross VanDyck, in her usual capable manner, gave three short readings, "Workworn," by Pauline Johnson; "Work and Play," by Lillian Leverage, and "The Wife," by Jean Blewett.

Rev. Mr. Strothers' talk and these giving us many beautiful thoughts to carry home with us.

A well rendered solo, "In an Old-Fashioned Town," with encore, by Mrs. Strother, was greatly enjoyed by all.

A well written paper by Miss Osborne, Bath, on "Industries," was also read by Mrs. H. M. Robinson.

After a hearty vote of thanks to those taking part in the programme, the meeting was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem, after which light refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed by all present.

How to Reduce Varicose Veins

Rub Gently and Upward Toward the Heart as Blood in Veins Flows That Way

Many people have become despondent because they have been led to believe that there is no remedy that will reduce swollen veins and bunches.

If you will get a two-ounce original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) at any first-class drug store and apply it night and morning as directed you will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.

Moone's Emerald Oil is a harmless, yet most powerful germicide and two ounces last a very long time. Indeed, so powerful is Emerald Oil that old chronic sores and ulcers are often entirely healed and anyone who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded. Wallace's Drug Store sells lots of it.

"THE DUMBELLS"

All the way from Vancouver to Toronto comes the word that The Dumbells have the biggest success of their first ten years in legitimate show business in "Here Tis". The new revue which comes to the Grand Theatre, Kingston, on April 19th and 20th, is described as being the last word in musical concoctions. The City of Kingston has always been particularly fond of Captain Plunkett's brand of entertainment and many of the local theatregoers have not missed a single one of the preceding revues. Therefore, it is with keen pleasure that the management of the theatre announce this forthcoming engagement of The Dumbells. "Here Tis", to use the cloak and suit man's expression, was designed especially for the spring trade. It's all fun and frivolity. Everyone of the company enters into the spirit of the thing. Al. Plunkett sings two groups of laughing songs. Fred Emney gambols around like a spring lamb. "Red" Newman emulates Mr. Pep, and Scotty Morrison, Morley Plunkett and Charlie Jeeves also participate in the merriment. Cameron Geddes and Harry Binns, while hardly comedians in the accepted use of the word, have followed suit and put a lilt into their numbers that is anything but serious. The Dumbells, those dainty dancing divinities who have become a part of the organization, provide the youthful charm and grace so very essential to a musical offering of the revue type.

Had Terrible Trouble With an Aching Back

Ontario Lady Used Dodd's Kidney Pills

Mrs. C. Mason Gladly Recommends Dodd's Kidney Pills

London, Ont., April 16.—(Special)—If we could show you the actual proofs, results attained in thousands of cases suffering from Kidney Trouble, Rheumatism, Backache, etc., it would convince you that Dodd's Kidney Pills are an excellent kidney remedy. One more tribute showing the efficacy of Dodd's Kidney Pills comes from Mrs. C. Mason, 723 Queens Ave., London, Ont. She writes: "A few years ago I had trouble with my Kidneys. A friend advised me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, which I did and they surely relieved me. I would gladly recommend them to anyone. I had terrible trouble with my back aching. Six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills relieved me."

Other sufferers of backache tell of pains relieved and health restored through the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. They act directly on the Kidneys. They strengthen the kidneys and put them in shape to strain the impurities out of the blood.

ENTERPRISE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

A very profitable and interesting meeting of the Enterprise Women's Institute was held on the 5th April at the home of Mrs. Byron Cronk, the March meeting of the W. I. having been postponed until April on account of the Easter holidays.

The meeting opened with the singing of the ode and the repeating of the Lord's Prayer, after which the minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted, and other business attended to.

Arrangements were made for erecting the beautifully painted "Welcome Signs" at the entrances to the village.

Mrs. G. Penwick read a letter from the League of Nations, also an interesting paper on "Good Sports."

The roll call was answered by the reading of a number of clippings bearing upon the sowing of flower seeds, planting of gardens, etc., which were very helpful at this time of year.

A very enjoyable and appropriate "Green Contest" was held, followed by community singing.

It was moved by Mrs. E. R. Wilson and seconded by Mrs. Stanley Bell that a vote of thanks be given Mrs. Cronk for so kindly entertaining the Institute.

This was heartily responded to, and the meeting closed with the singing of "O Canada" and "God Save the King."

Address and Presentation

Mr. and Mrs. Wellesley Coulter.

As members of the Friendly Bible Class we have come tonight, on the eve of your departure from our midst, to wish you every success in your new home. May health and strength be your portion, and may you be enabled to accomplish the work you have set out to do with credit to yourselves and to all concerned.

We do not forget the help you have given us here, Mrs. Coulter, as Social Convenor in the Friendly meetings of the last three years, and we appreciate your helpfulness. Also being the Christian Stewardship of the W. M. S. Mr. Coulter, in connection with various plays in which you have assisted, you have always been willing to play your part, and you have done it well.

We shall miss you both, and our earnest desire for you is that you may play well your part in the great drama of life, so that when the curtain finally falls you will be accorded that word of appreciation which should bring joy to all of our hearts, "Well done, enter thou into the joy of our Lord".

As a token of appreciation from the Friendly Bible Class we ask you to accept these gifts. May they ever be reminders of old friends and pleasant associations.

Signed on behalf of the Class: Mr. Grover A. Wagar, President; Mrs. George Hopkins, Secretary.

Enterprise, April 3rd, 1929.

Mr. Coulter and wife thanked their many friends and assured them that a warm welcome awaited them in their future home.

Lunch was served and the remainder of the evening was spent in singing. The closing hymn was "Blest Be the Tie that Binds."

RUTS

The world is full o' ruts, my boy,
Some shaller and some deep;
An' every rut is full of folks as High as they can heap.

Each one that's growlin' in the ditch
Is growlin' at his fate.
An' wishin' he had got his chance
Before it was too late.

They lay it all on someone else, or Say 'twas just their luck—
They never once consider that 'twas
Caused by lack o' pluck.

But here's the word o' one that's lived
Clean through, from soup to nuts:
The Lord don't send no derricks round
T' hist folks out o' ruts.

—The Christian Advocate.

MAN'S GOOD EVERYDAY PRAYER

The following is an old English prayer that dates back to the eighteenth century:

"Give me a good digestion, Lord, and also something to digest;
Give me a healthy body, Lord, with sense to keep it at its best.
Give me a healthy mind, good Lord, to keep the good and pure in sight,
Which, seeing sin, is not appalled but finds a way to set it right.
Give me a mind that is not bound; that does not whimper, whine or sigh.
Don't let me worry over much about the fussy thing called I.
Give me sense of humor, Lord; give me the grace to see a joke;
To get some happiness out of life and pass it, on to other folk."

BY AERIAL WAYS

No more vivid realization of what has been accomplished in aerial development in Britain during the past year could be brought to the public mind than that emphasized in the report of the Imperial Airways, Limited, covering its fifth year of operation. The figures alone are impressive. They show a record of four million miles flown between London and the continent, over one hundred thousand passengers carried, and not a single accident resulting in any injury to a passenger during the past four years. Statistically, this proves that aerial travel today under conditions such as are observed by Imperial Airways is safer than travel by either railway or steamer, for no railway or steamship line can show such a record in proportion to mileage. Air passenger transportation is becoming very popular across the Atlantic, and the fact that the Heir to the Throne repeatedly utilizes it is ample proof that it is considered safe by the authorities.

It is of interest to Canadians to note that the progress in Britain is being paralleled on a more modest but still most substantial scale over here. With the existing companies combined, there should emerge an organization quite capable of taking care of aerial transportation in this Dominion for a long time to come. Canada is in the forefront of aerial progress, and is keeping abreast of all the latest developments. In this connection the effective work done by General J. H. Macbrien is worthy of note. He has taken the keenest interest in aerial matters from the start. He was one of the first to see the importance of Canada being in the van, and it is largely due to his efforts that this country occupies such an enviable position "in the air" today.

A college president says the young man's most difficult problem is choosing the right girl to marry. Which proves that the president has funny ideas as to who does the choosing.

cases ended in death! So a recent Canadian investigation showed. These were not cases of infectious diseases—of consumption—of typhoid! They were cases where a person had sustained some slight injury—a cut, a burn, a wire-prick—and where the wound, being thought not serious enough for careful treatment, had been neglected. Blood-poisoning and death resulted.

When you or your children sustain any injury, ensure against infection by applying Zam-Buk. This balm soothes the pain, stops bleeding, and by destroying all germs prevents blood-poisoning, etc. Hence no time need be lost from work or pleasure by those who use Zam-Buk. All dealers, 50c. box.

ONE BOX ENDED HIS SUFFERINGS

...from Bowel Condition Relieved by "Fruit-a-tives"

MR. PAGE

Mr. James Page of Cabano, P.Q., was in a very dangerous condition. The Constipation from which he had suffered for five years was undermining his whole system. It was not only ruining his digestion and poisoning his blood, but had also brought on painful piles. Various treatments failed to help him until he tried "Fruit-a-tives," made of intensified fruit juices combined with scientific medicinal ingredients. "One box of this wonderful medicine," he writes, "gave me complete relief. 'Fruit-a-tives' gives results as nothing else does, and I sincerely recommend it to every sufferer." Try this great medicine. 25c. and 50c. a box—at dealers everywhere

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE ODESSA

The April meeting of the Odessa Women's Institute was held in the Library, as usual, opening by the Ode, followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. In the absence of our President, Mrs. N. Smith, our Vice President, Mrs. J. C. Parrott, took the chair.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The roll call was answered by "Making a Home Out of a House," which proved very interesting. Some of the suggestions were as follows: To have a cosy corner in the kitchen, also having the kitchen the most pleasant room in the house, and the home could be judged by the attitude of the home makers. Another suggestion was not to have any more in the room than is necessary.

A letter from Mrs. W. Pooke was read, thanking the Institute for the dollar deposited in the bank for her wee son.

The celeste, Mrs. Mabee, gave a splendid report from the convention of the Local Council of Women, the affiliated societies, which was held at the LaSalle Hotel, in Kingston. A vote of thanks was moved by Mrs. J. C. Parrott to Mrs. Mabee for her splendid report, and seconded by Miss Aggie Laughlin.

Basic. G. Boyce nominated Mrs. J. L. Clark and Mrs. W. J. Snider as auditors.

A report of the Library Board was given by Mrs. C. Boyce, and also some useful rules. We were disappointed in part of our programme. A new member was added to the list.

A very dainty lunch was served by the conveners, Mrs. F. Vrooman, Mrs. W. Sharpe and Mrs. J. L. Swift.

The roll call for next month will be suggestions for the next year's programme. We are hoping for a full attendance, as this is the annual meeting and election of officers. Reports of the year's work will also be given.

At a military dance in Bombay one officer said to another, as they adjourned for refreshments, "I don't know how it is, but my wife's lipstick always tastes different from any other woman's," and he carefully wiped his lips.

"Yes, doesn't it?" remarked the other absent-mindedly.

The Big Boxing Match

Bigger and better! Larger crowd, larger gate, superior attractions. Each show that the Wontenac Regiment sponsors here is an improvement over the last. The tournament on April 10th was a winner in every way.

The old antagonist, Beau McNeil, who is believed to have taught Joe Humphries all he knows about the announcing business, was absent and in his place Gundy Paul called them off. At first he used a home-made megaphone, but on the unanimous advice of the crowd discarded it, after which he could be heard. Les Richardson looked after the time, Harry Skitch and Hugh Fitzpatrick did the judging, and the refereeing was handled by Herb Plumley and Bert White, of Kingston.

The local heavyweight favorite, Tweton Thompson, was the first to enter the ring, where he opposed a diminutive gladiator named Sampson Maracle. The tremendous improvement which Two-ton showed over his first appearance two weeks ago delighted his supporters. He has been training steadily for this appearance, although it was not noticed that he had reduced very much. However, the defensive tactics which he used in his first bout were discarded for a smashing offensive, and his rushes were frequent. His wily opponent, Maracle, however, was able to avoid many well meant wallops, and the decision was given him for superior ring generalship. Thompson has been out-pointed in his two appearances, but that sort of thing will not continue. Two-ton is a real comer, and he is going to win the next time he appears if steady training and determination will do it.

A newcomer made his initial appearance in the ropes as Ira Herrington, who opposed Mushy Lewis in the second bout. Herrington has a most unusual style, and his crouching attitude on many occasions was responsible for blows which seemed rather low. There was no foul called or given, but Herrington, by a sustained attack on Mushy's mid-section, did considerable damage. Herrington was given a close decision on points. Blessed as he is with a tremendous reach and a heavy punch, the Hurricane should develop fast if he is given expert advice and guidance.

The applause was tumultous as the big favorite of the night, the formidable Slugger Wells, gracefully entered the ring to fight Rex Martin, the Battling Boiler Maker. The Slugger, after four weeks' of steady practice, made a formidable opponent, but he was slightly overmatched, as the boy from the Iron Works was the heavier. Wells very gamely took a lot of punishment and handed out no light taps, both boys appearing groggy at the end of the third round. Martin was given another very close decision.

Slim Thompson proved to be a mauler when he faced Plumley in the next bout. Plumley is a boxer of no mean ability, but was hardly able to withstand the lightning attack of his opponent. Slim showed a burst of speed that was amazing, and his punches were usually well timed. It so happens that Plumley wears his hair long, and it bothered him frequently by getting in his eyes. Each time he raised his hand to brush it away he became a mark for Thompson's fast shooting right. Thompson was also particularly aggressive in starting action after a clinch, and he won the bout by a good margin.

Brick McTaggart, who has been a constant performer ever since the series of tournaments started, was opposed by Battling Babcock, who made his first appearance. This was very even, but Babcock's stronger finish gave him the close decision.

McLaughlin's brother, ten pounds heavier, faced Bud Fraser in the next bout. It had been intended to match McLaughlin with Brant, the other Deseronto boy, but the manager objected so strenuously to the Bardy-McLaughlin decision, advised him not to enter, claiming that Deseronto was not getting a square deal. It is too bad that it was a Napanee man who was responsible for Brant's withdrawal, but the manager had a grudge against the crowd and show, having been booed from the ring two weeks previously when he acted as referee, and this was likely at the bottom of the action. Fraser was outweighed by seven or eight pounds, which makes considerable difference in the ring, and this was taken into consideration by the judges in awarding him the decision. Again the smaller man proved the more expert in close fighting, while the taller looked the best in the long distance exchanges. The crowd seemed to think that another draw would be in order, but the judges and referee, after a long consultation, awarded the bout to the local boy, and he received a silver medal donated by Mr. John Geale Daly.

The last bout of the evening's fine card was between Ted Bentley, the local champion, and Ashley, of Kingston. There was a misunderstanding about weights, and the Kingston boy proved to be twelve pounds lighter than the local bruiser. It is believed that Bentley, sensing a victory within his grasp, eased up during the second round to avoid administering unnecessary punishment, but his action went unheeded, for the Kingston boy would not stop. Instead although given terrific punishment about the face by Bentley, he continued to carry the fight to his heavier foe. It is supposed to be the result of being in good training when a boxer is able to absorb so many solid punches. One spectator was heard to remark that he hoped that he would never get in training if that is all it got him. Ashley's nose was bleeding badly for two rounds, and he was repeatedly staggered by Bentley's straight lefts and rights, but he merely would shake his head and charge in again. Bentley did not have it all his own way by any means, for the Kingston boy packed a punch as heavy as a man of his size could expect, but the good big man beat the good little man. Bentley received a silver medal, donated by Mr. Ernest Gibbard, and a special trophy was awarded to Ashley for his remarkable endurance and gameness.

The next bouts will be held, it is expected, on May 15th.

SUN VARNISHES

It will not chip or crack!

SUN FLOOR VARNISH dries stone hard with a satiny beauty that will not crack, chip or show heel marks. It is wonderfully transparent, enhancing the beauty of the wood, and at the same time providing exceptional protection and wear. It is waterproof and will not bleach with hot or cold water.

SUN VARNISH is specially made for interior or exterior varnishing of woodwork (except floors). It has incomparable lustre and durability with a richness of finish absolutely unequalled. For exterior door fronts and porch ceilings it is particularly good because it withstands the ravages of the weather.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Gerald had bought a two-seater and was taking his girl for a spin.

"O, Gerald, isn't it 1-o-ovely?" said the girl as they topped a hill and saw the country spread out far below them.

But she got no answer, for they were already dashing downwards like the stick of a rocket. Gerald, with moist forehead and bulging eyes, shouted in her ear: "The brakes have given way!"

"O, Gerald, how awful!" shrieked the girl. "Can't you stop it? I'd give all the money in the world to get out!"

"Don't part with a penny!" gasped Gerald, who was of Scottish descent. "We'll both get out for nothing when the car hits that gate down there!"

Asthma Brings Misery, but Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy will replace the misery with welcome relief. Inhaled as smoke or vapor it reaches the very innermost recesses of the bronchial passages and soothes them. Restriction passes and easy breathing returns. If you knew as well how this remedy would help you as do thousands of grateful users, there would be a package in your home tonight. Try it.

"An American doctor," says the Manchester Guardian, "has discovered that the modern divorce epidemic is due to the fact that we are not getting enough lime juice. This deprivation causes amiable men to become harsh and overbearing, and fair women to grow nervous and irritable."

Crews on long ocean voyages partake regularly of lime juice, and apparently this would be an equally good custom for voyagers on the sea of matrimony.

To safeguard the child from damage that worms cause, use Miller's Worm Powders, the medicine par excellence for children. These powders will clear the system entirely of worms, will regulate and stimulate the organs injuriously affected by the worms, and will encourage healthful operation of the digestive process. As a vermifuge it can be relied on for its effectiveness.

"I hear Mr. Brown plays golf on Sundays," she remarked to her husband.

"Well, what of it?" commented the latter.

"Why, I think it's dreadfully wicked."

"Wicked! It's wicked to play the kind of golf Brown does on any day of the week!"

Nation-wide Fame.—There is scarcely a corner of this great Dominion where the merits of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil have not veen tried and proved. It is one of the world's most efficient remedies for sore throat, lame back and many other ailments arising from inflammation. Rubved on the skin its healing power is readily absorbed, and it can also be taken internally.

Prince Nikita, who has been receiving sixty dollars a month as a bank clerk in Paris, has been designated heir to the fallen throne of the Romanoffs. The prince hasn't quit at the bank, yet though.

Useful in Camp.—Explorers, surveyors, prospectors and hunters will find Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil very useful in camp. When the feet and legs are wet and cold it is well to rub them freely with the Oil and the result will be the prevention of pains in the muscles, and should a cut, or contusion, or sprain be sustained, nothing could be better as a dressing or lotion.

A small boy was waiting on a pier with his mother for a boat to come in to take him out to sea, when he espied the following notice and would not go aboard the boat: "Adults is 6d, Children thrown in."

There is no poisonous ingredient in Holloway's Corn Remover, and it can be used without danger or injury.

Johnny—"Mamma, I wish I had a little sister."

MILK PRODUCERS ORGANIZE

It was unanimously decided to form a Producer's Association, same to be known as the Napanee District Milk Producer's Association, and also to become affiliated with the Ontario Milk Producer's Association, at an enthusiastic meeting held in the Class Rooms of the Ontario Department of Agriculture on Monday, April 8th, at 2 p.m., at which some fifteen delegates, who had previously been chosen at meetings held at various centres, were present.

The following officers were elected:
President—Jas. McCormick, R.M.D. No. 4, Napanee.
Vice President—John Hume, R.M.D. No. 6, Napanee.
Sec.-Treas.—Wilfred Haight, Bath.

Plans were made and a membership drive will be launched in the near future. It was also decided to hold meetings in centres not already visited. Mr. Griffin, of Toronto, Secretary of the Ontario Milk Producer's Association, will address the meetings.

Baby's Own Tablets Win Great Praise

Many Mothers Always Keep Them in the House

Thousands of mothers state that they know of no other medicine for little ones to equal Baby's Own Tablets—that they always keep the Tablets in the home as a preventive of childhood ailments, or if sickness does suddenly grip their little ones they feel safe with such a remedy at hand.

Concerning the use of the Tablets Mrs. Donat Ploudre, Tingwick, Que., writes:—" I have nothing but praise for Baby's Own Tablets. They are the only medicine I have ever given my two little ones and I am glad to state that the Tablets have always kept them in perfect health. I feel so safe with the Tablets that I always keep a box in the house."

Baby's Own Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative. They regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach and thus banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fever and make the cutting of teeth painless. The Tablets are absolutely safe, being guaranteed free from all injurious drugs. They are all sold by all medicine dealers, or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE ROLE OF SUNLIGHT IN THE NORMAL GROWTH OF CHICKS

Experimental work during the past few years has drawn particular attention to the importance of sunlight in the successful brooding and rearing of chicks.

It has been definitely shown that unless special supplementary feeds are fed chicks cannot be raised satisfactorily in the absence of sunlight. Since many early hatched chicks, particularly where cold winters are the rule, have not the opportunity of getting out into the sunlight it is essential to supply some form of substitute for the sun's rays to avoid trouble from leg weakness or rickets. Experimental work carried on at the Poultry Division of the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, has definitely shown that in spite of the complete absence of sunlight, chicks may be kept healthy and make rapid gains if given certain supplementary feeds.

Of these, crude cod liver oil is the most efficient and when fed at a rate of 2 per cent of the mash consumed or about one tablespoonful to each 50 chicks, will give complete protection against rickets. Since cod liver oil is easily obtainable it is advisable to feed this material rather than the product known as cod liver meal, since the latter has given rather indifferent results in experiments conducted here. It is just possible that the same uniformity in quality is not available in the case of cod liver meal, and that it therefore is not at the present time at least, as dependable as cod liver oil.

Certain physical agencies in the form of ultra-violet ray machines and special glass, substitutes will also give the desired effect. The former method of supplying the sun's rays is at the present quite expensive, and in the experimental stage, its practical value not having been definitely determined. Most glass substitutes are not so durable as common glass and allow only a certain proportion of the sun's rays into the house, and once the chicks can get out into the sunlight, or windows can be opened wide, their usefulness is ended. Cod liver oil is much cheaper and will carry the chicks over until such time as they can reap full benefit of the sun's rays.

A FURTHER DEPRESSION

Is there anything more depressing than the inspection of a shabby wardrobe?—Fashion paper.

Oft I gaze while I am dressing
At my stock of shabby togs,
And with other fellows' smartness
I compare 'em.

Is there aught that's more depressing
Than to contemplate those rags?
Yes—the awful thought that I have got to wear 'em.

CITIES SERVICE OIL PRODUCTS are Tempered Like Fine Steel

THE severe tests made of Cities Service oil products are like the tempering of steel. That ten-gallon fill-up which you get at the black and white pumps of the Cities Service stations has been through 12 tests before it reaches you. This is possible only because the Cities Service organization spends each year a million dollars in research and experimental work, to improve its products and services.

Performance rather than promise is the Cities Service criterion of value. The Company devotes itself to the production of oil products which need no extravagant claims to promote their sale. They stand on their own power legs. That is the reason behind "Once—Always."

HERE IS AN OPPORTUNITY FOR EVERYBODY DURING

"Learn-the-Difference" FORTNIGHT

We Invite You to Discover Plymouth Superiorities Behind the Wheel

STARTING TODAY, and lasting two weeks, we are holding a "Learn-the-Difference" Fortnight for the full-size Plymouth.

We want you to drive a Plymouth and learn the difference between Plymouth performance and any other in the Plymouth price field. For there is a difference—an overwhelming difference in the things Plymouth does and how it does them.

See—Feel—and Experience the Difference

There is only one sure way in which you will know how decisive this difference actually is: That is to see, and feel and experience—to ride in and actually drive the Plymouth.

We invite you to discover for yourself the full-size of the Plymouth which seats five adults in comfort—to note its easy-riding lengthiness—to see how sharply it contrasts with the small dimensions usually associated with cars at anywhere near its low price.

Fifteen minutes at the Plymouth wheel will convincingly reveal how wide a margin separates the Plymouth from all other cars that attempt to compete with it in its price-group.

Do Not Miss This Great Opportunity

Take advantage of Plymouth "Learn-the-Difference" Fortnight at once. See the unmatched features—experience the unprecedented performance.

We are eager and anxious to have you put every Plymouth claim to the test, to learn for yourself what a vast difference there actually is, in performance, appearance and value, between Plymouth and other cars in its price-class.

Once you drive a Plymouth and learn the difference, you will never be content with any other car. Your judgment will insist that you own a Plymouth.

NO OBLIGATION

We are eager to have you realize the many outstanding advantages of the Plymouth. Come and drive the car—see for yourself how and why it excels. There is not the least obligation. Come in today!

CANADIAN GARDENING SERVICE

EARLY PLANTING

Those vegetables of which the leaves are eaten, such as spinach, lettuce, cress and mustard, should go in first. There is little danger of planting them too soon, as most of them will stand some frost. They may be planted just as soon as it is possible to get on the land. Those which are grown for their bulbs or roots, such as parsnips, beets, carrots, early turnips and onions, may be planted about the same time, although they are not as hardy as the first mentioned. Peas should not go in until the weather turns warmer for, although they are fairly hardy, they are liable to rot if put in while the soil is cold and wet. This applies to the vegetable pea and not the kind grown for flowers, which are sown just as early as possible. Later sown or set out vegetables are cabbages, cauliflower, tomatoes, melons, cucumbers and celery. These will not stand any frost and so must either be planted and protected in hot beds, cold frames, or in the greenhouse until all danger of frost is past.

SCREEN WITH FOLIAGE

Bare wooden fences, even if painted, do not make attractive hazgrounds for any garden, and neither do barns, garages, and house walls. In most cases, these can be very effectively screened by tall-growing flowers, creepers, or trailing vines. Where one owns the property the job should be made permanent, using clumps of shrubbery at the corners and here and there in front of the walls or fences, and permanent creepers, such as Dutchman's Pipe, Virginia Creeper, or Boston Ivy on the walls. With the exception of the Boston Ivy and one form of Virginia Creeper, which are self-clinging, the others will need some form of support. With the latter, and also with climbing roses, it is well to have them out from the wall or fence a little bit. In the case of a brick or stone wall, which is inclined to heat up during the hot summer days and ruin the bloom, if not the plant itself, it is almost essential to have the creeper at least a foot away from the wall. One can do this by erecting trellis work or wire—the wooden trellis is preferable because it will not heat and burn the plants—which is attached by short supports to the wall. Another way is to fasten blocks or stout pieces of wood about six inches long to the wall and string wires along these about six inches from the wall. Where the creepers are supported in this way, foliage and bloom will last longer because they are away from the reflected heat and it is also possible to get a hose or sprayer in behind them to fight insect pests. Of course, this is a rather expensive process and is only recommended in the case of expensive screening material. Even where one is only renting the property and expects to move next year, very effective screen can be made with Scarlet Runner Beans, Morning Glories, Hops, or Dolliches Hyacinth Bean, which will all grow rapidly providing foliage and flowers to cover anything they are attached to. Sweet Peas, Morning Glories and Climbing Nasturtiums can only be used on the smaller buildings or fences, as they will not grow much over five feet, but the other named will grow up to 20 feet, the Hyacinth Bean doing this easily and providing an abundant show of white, purple and lilac flower-spikes as well. For a standing screen, such as is necessary in front of the vegetable garden where perhaps there is no fence, Sunflowers, Cosmos, African Marigolds, Dahlias and Giant Hollyhocks may be used. The larger growing annuals can also be used very effectively in place of clumps of permanent shrubbery. The writer has grown fine bushy Cosmos and Nicotines standing five feet high and measuring four feet across. To get the best results in this case, one must give plenty of room, otherwise the plants will be spindly and go down with the first heavy wind or rain.

SHRUBBERY AND FRUIT TREES

Fruit and ornamental trees, shrubbery and rose bushes are planted as soon as the ground is dry enough to dig. This also applies to bush fruits, strawberries and perennial flowers. Once the soil loses the moisture of early Spring and hot dry winds commence, a much larger proportion of plants will die than if planted earlier. In planting these, trim off all broken and weak growth and shorten the top to compensate for the shearing off of the root growth. Plant a little deeper than those things were in before and make the hole big enough to receive all the roots without crowding. It is well to fill in with good soil, finely pulverized, and pour from half to a pail of water on this soil after it is firmed about the roots. The water will force the fine soil in tight around the tiny rootlets and exclude the air which would otherwise be fatal to the plant. Nitrate of soda sprinkled at the rate of a teaspoonful per shrub in the case of newly planted seedlings up to half a pound for a large well-established bush will stimulate growth wonderfully.

OBITUARY

Robert Lyle Smith

This community was shocked to hear of the death of Robert, two and one-half year old son of Irving and Bessie Gray Smith, formerly of Roblin, but now of Watertown, N.Y.

Although in delicate health since birth, he was stricken with tubercular meningitis and after an illness of four weeks was called home to be with Jesus on Good Friday morning, March 29th. The funeral was from the home, Rutland Hollow Road, at 2.30 Easter Sunday afternoon. Rev. Joseph Parkin, of the Black River Methodist Episcopal Church, minister in charge, delivered an impressive sermon from St. John 14:1-3 and from the 23rd Psalm.

The remains were interred at Black River. Robert is survived by his heartbroken parents and one brother, Wilbert, and two sisters, Doris and Kathleen.

The flowers from his many friends were beautiful. The pallbearers were four little boys from the Rutland Hollow School. Harold McNett, Maurice LaVine, Adelbert Arnold and Leon Phillips.

THE EXPLANATION

Arnold Bennett remarked recently that a man takes more care in choosing a car than in choosing a wife.—(English Paper).

Why is it when I buy a car
Careful inquiry I must make.
How many cylinders there are
And if it's got a four-wheel brake.
And if the bearings are indeed
Quite strong enough for constant use.
How many miles I can proceed
Per gallon of the vital juice?

And yet, when I select a wife
None of these things do I require.
Although I'm taking her for life
And each of us may quickly tire;
Why do I rush to make her mine?
The reason is not far to seek—
Cars are of standardized design,
While every woman is unique.

As long as we are unafraid, life is trailed and saddled for our use.—Zacha Parker.

"How did you get here?" said the hospital doctor to the patient.
"Flu," replied the victim softly.

"Poverty is a blessing in disguise," says the sage.

"Well," replied the fool, "the disguise is certainly effective."

Lecturer—"Cleopatra is one of the most remarkable figures in history."

EARLY PLANTING

Those vegetables of which the leaves are eaten, such as spinach, lettuce, cress and mustard, should go in first. There is little danger of planting them too soon, as most of them will stand some frost. They may be planted just as soon as it is possible to get on the land. Those which are grown for their bulbs or roots, such as parsnips, beets, carrots, early turnips and onions, may be planted about the same time, although they are not as hardy as the first mentioned. Peas should not go in until the weather turns warmer for, although they are fairly hardy, they are liable to rot if put in while the soil is cold and wet. This applies to the vegetable pea and not the kind grown for flowers, which are sown just as early as possible. Later sown or set out vegetables are cabbages, cauliflower, tomatoes, melons, cucumbers and celery. These will not stand any frost and so must either be planted and protected in hot beds, cold frames, or in the greenhouse until all danger of frost is past.

SCREEN WITH FOLIAGE

Bare wooden fences, even if painted, do not make attractive backgrounds for any garden, and neither do barns, garages, and house walls. In most cases, these can be very effectively screened by tall-growing flowers, creepers, or trailing vines. Where one owns the property the job should be made permanent, using clumps of shrubbery at the corners and here and there in front of the walls or fences, and permanent creepers, such as Dutchman's Pipe, Virginia Creeper, or Boston Ivy on the walls. With the exception of the Boston Ivy and one form of Virginia Creeper, which are self-clinging, the others will need some form of support. With, the latter, and also with climbing roses, it is well to have them out from the wall or fence a little bit. In the case of a brick or stone wall, which is inclined to heat up during the hot summer days and ruin the bloom, if not the plant itself, it is almost essential to have the creeper at least a foot away from the wall. One can do this by erecting trellis work or wire—the wooden trellis is preferable because it will not heat and burn the plants—which is attached by short supports to the wall. Another way is to fasten blocks or stout pieces of wood about six inches long to the wall and string wires along these about six inches from the wall. Where the creepers are supported in this way, foliage and bloom will last longer because they are away from the reflected heat and it is also possible to get a hose or sprayer in behind them to fight insect pests. Of course, this is a rather expensive process and is only recommended in the case of expensive screening material. Even where one is only renting the property and expects to move next year, very effective screen can be made with Scarlet Runner Beans, Morning Glories, Hops, or Doliches Hyacinth Bean, which will all grow rapidly providing foliage and flowers to cover anything they are attached to. Sweet Peas, Morning Glories and Climbing Nasturtiums can only be used on the smaller buildings or fences, as they will not grow much over five feet, but the other named will grow up to 20 feet, the Hyacinth Bean doing this easily and providing an abundant show of white, purple and lilac flower-spikes as well. For a standing screen, such as is necessary in front of the vegetable garden where perhaps there is no fence, Sunflowers, Cosmos, African Marigolds, Dahlias and Giant Hollyhocks may be used. The larger growing annuals can also be used very effectively in place of clumps of permanent shrubbery. The writer has grown fine bushy Cosmos and Nicotines standing five feet high and measuring four feet across. To get the best results in this case, one must give plenty of room, otherwise the plants will be spindly and go down with the first heavy wind or rain.

SHRUBBERY AND FRUIT TREES

Fruit and ornamental trees, shrubbery and rose bushes are planted as soon as the ground is dry enough to dig. This also applies to bush fruits, strawberries and perennial flowers. Once the soil loses the mousture of early Spring and hot dry winds commence, a much larger proportion of plants will die than if planted earlier. In planting these, trim off all broken and weak growth and shorten the top to compensate for the shearing off of the root growth. Plant a little deeper than these things were in before and make the hole big enough to receive all the roots without crowding. It is well to fill in with good soil, finely pulverized, and pour from half to a pail of water on this soil after it is firmed about the roots. The water will force the fine soil in tight around the tiny rootlets and exclude the air which would otherwise be fatal to the plant. Nitrate of soda sprinkled at the rate of a teaspoonful per shrub in the case of newly planted seedlings up to half a pound for a large well-established bush will stimulate growth wonderfully.

OBITUARY

Robert Lyle Smith

This community was shocked to hear of the death of Robert, two and one-half year old son of Irving and Bessie Gray Smith, formerly of Roblin, but now of Watertown, N.Y.

Although in delicate health since birth, he was stricken with tubercular meningitis and after an illness of four weeks was called home to be with Jesus on Good Friday morning, March 29th. The funeral was from the home, Rutland Hollow Road, at 2.30 Easter Sunday afternoon. Rev. Joseph Parkin, of the Black River Methodist Episcopal Church, minister in charge, delivered an impressive sermon from St. John 14:1-4, and from the 23rd Psalm.

The remains were interred at Black River. Robert is survived by his heartbroken parents and one brother, Wilbert, and two sisters, Doris and Kathleen.

The flowers from his many friends were beautiful. The pallbearers were four little boys from the Rutland Hollow School. Harold McNett, Maurice LaVere, Delbert Arnold and Leon Phillips.

'Spring Time; Tonic Time'

MOST men and women need a tonic at this season of the year. Their blood has been thinned, their vitality lowered by the long winter.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills definitely enrich the blood and increase the body's oxygen supply.

Mrs. Elizabeth Clarke, R.R. No. 1, Hastings, Ont., says: "I use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in the Spring, when one naturally feels run-down after our long Winter. Last Spring I was feeling weak and easily tired, and again used the pills, with the result that I have had splendid health since."

THE EXPLANATION

Arnold Bennett remarked recently that a man takes more care in choosing a car than in choosing a wife—(English Paper).

Why is it when I buy a car
Careful inquiry I must make,
How many cylinders there are
And if it's got a four-wheel brake.
And if the bearings are indeed
Quite strong enough for constant use,
How many miles I can proceed
Per gallon of the vital juice?

And yet, when I select a wife
None of these things do I require.
Although I'm taking her for life
And each of us may quickly tire:
Why do I rush to make her mine?
The reason is not far to seek—
Cars are of standardized design,
While every woman is unique.

As long as we are unafraid, life is trusted and saddled for our use.—Hattie Parker.

"How did you get here?" said the hospital doctor to the patient.
"Flu," replied the victim softly.

"Poverty is a blessing in disguise," says the sage.

"Well," replied the fool, "the disguise is certainly effective."

Lecturer—"Cleopatra is one of the most remarkable figures in history."
Reporter (pausing in his notes) —"Is or had?"

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH MID-WEEK MEETINGS

On Wednesday night, April 10th, there was brought to a close in Trinity Church, a most interesting and constructive series of week-night meetings. For the past few months a study course in John Bunyan's "Pilgrims Progress" has been carried on by the Pastor, Rev. Harry Pawson, who has succeeded in a most admirable way in relating this immortal work of Bunyan to the everyday life and experience of the average man and woman.

That this end has been accomplished is clearly evidenced by the keen interest in and the faithful attendance at all of the meetings of the series. To all who were privileged to attend, the twenty-four studies revealed that the characters of "The Pilgrims Progress" were not merely artistic creations of the imagination of John Bunyan, but vital personalities to be encountered in the ordinary contacts of life.

At the closing meeting of the series a set of beautifully colored slides depicting the characters of the book were thrown upon the screen and served as a means for recalling to the minds of those present the characters and experiences dealt with in the book. Very great gratification was expressed over the fact that an average attendance of sixty had been maintained throughout the series, and sincere words of appreciation were voiced to Mr. Pawson for the very fine contribution he had made to the success of the mid-week meetings.

DEATH OF WILLET H. HARRISON.
Willet H. Harrison, Denver, Col., only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Harrison, Napanee, died April 4th, 1929, after a very brief illness. Services were conducted by Centennial Lodge, No. 8, Knights of Pythias, from his late residence, Saturday, 6th inst., at 3 p.m., Crown Hill. Mr. Harrison leaves to mourn his loss, his wife and a daughter, Mrs. Eva M. Hurt, also two sisters, Napanee. (Picton papers please copy).

AFTERNOON TEA
A "Talent Money" afternoon tea was given in St. Mary Magdalene Vicarage on Wednesday afternoon, April 10th, by Mrs. Sagar, Mrs. Vanderwater and Mrs. Harry Babcock. Mrs. Dumbrille received the guests in the livingroom, which was most inviting with its cheery open fire. The daintily appointed tea table was presided over by Mrs. Herbert Daly, assisted by Mrs. Katherine Powell. There were many guests in attendance and a goodly sum was realized for Guild purposes.

BRIDGE AND SHOWER.
Mrs. E. A. Wright, "Midfields, Odessa, was hostess on Thursday afternoon, April 11th, 1929, at a charmingly arranged bridge and miscellaneous shower for Mrs. H. A. Dunlop (nee Frances Lambert), a recent Easter bride. In the livingroom a gaily decked three-tiered wedding cake concealed a lot of mysterious packages, which were opened by the guest of honor and a great deal of merriment ensued. The prizes for bridge were won by Mrs. Fred F. Sharpe and Mrs. G. W. Hannah. At a daintily decked tea table in the diningroom with a beautiful lace cloth, a silver basket of yellow daffodils and mauve candles in silver sticks, the hostess' mother, Mrs. Jas. A. Dunlop, and Mrs. Jas. A. McCormick, poured tea. Mrs. Donald Douglas cut the ices. The girls assisting the hostess were Mildred Hannah, Mrs. J. N. McCormick, and Emma McMillan. The charming bride thanked her friends for their kindly expressions and tangible gifts for her future happiness, and all voted Mrs. Wright a splendid hostess.

NAPANEE HUMANE SOCIETY

The attendance at our second meeting last Thursday evening just doubled that of the first one—sixteen being present. The numerous decisions of the meeting—such as electing the Honorary President, the Society's Inspector, a Tag Day, a Pets' Parade, and so forth, will be published when such become completed.

The Humane Pleader—the official magazine of the Provincial Society—may be secured at the regular price of $1.00 from the Secretary, Miss Etta Harrison. As an affiliated society we are able to secure the Pleader for 70c., thus increasing our treasury by 30c.

Last Saturday Mrs. Amos Kimmerly noticed a Bronze-Grackle had become caught on a high branch of a maple tree. Mr. Russell Grass kindly brought the long Hydro pruners and cut off the limb. The bird's foot had become securely tied to the branch, in some unknown way, by a piece of string.

Our membership is up to 45 already. Won't you join too?

OBITUARY

William C. Vine.
After an illness of several years duration, there passed away at his home, on Alma Avenue, on Wednesday, April 10th, 1929, one of Napanee's well known and much respected residents, in the person of Mr. Wm. C. Vine. Deceased, who was in his 83rd year, was born in Napanee, and had spent practically all his life there. He was a member of Trinity United Church and a regular attendant until ill health prevented him from going.

He is survived by four daughters and one son, Mrs. R. W. VanAlstyne, St. Catharines; Mrs. J. F. Donaldson, Peterboro'; Edith Vine, Mrs. Perry Huffman and Wm. E. Vine, of Napanee. Also one brother, Mr. John Vine, Napanee, survives. His wife predeceased him over four years ago.

The funeral took place from his late residence on Friday afternoon, Rev. W. P. Woodger had charge of the service, and interment took place in the family plot at Riverside cemetery.

John W. Anderson
A former well known resident of Napanee died very suddenly at his home at Moscow on Friday last. Mr. Anderson was living alone and on Friday morning, neighbors not seeing him around, broke open the door of his house and found him sitting in a chair in the kitchen, dead. Mr. Anderson had evidently got up early in the morning and expired while trying to light a fire, as his hands were somewhat blackened and one lid was moved on the stove. Coroner Dr. Oldham, of Yarker, was summoned, and after hearing the evidence of the neighbors and examining the body, declared an inquest unnecessary. The late Mr. Anderson was for many years a business man in Napanee, where he was in the butcher business. Has the late butcher to open for business when the meat stalls were in the town hall. Besides his widow, who is at present in Seattle, Wash., at the bedside of her son, he leaves two sons, both living at Seattle. One son was a soldier in the American army, where he was seriously crippled, and has been in hospital ever since. The funeral took place on Sunday to Riverview cemetery, Napanee.

LATE FREDERIC CONGER.
Frederic Conger, of New York City, brother of Mrs. W. G. Wilson, died suddenly at Petersburg, Florida, U.S.A., April 12th and was buried at Newark, N.J., U.S.A., April 15th. Deceased and his wife were on their way home from Cuba when he was stricken. His nephews, Wilfred Wilson and Rogert Wilson, of Ont. Northern Ontario, are now with their aunt at Roundbrook, N.J., having immediately left on receipt of telegram advising of the sad news. Mr. Conger when here for a few days last summer en route to his Northern fishing camp, was physically the very picture of good health. He was the son of the late P. D. Conger, of Conger Coal Co., Toronto, and besides Mrs. W. G. Wilson, there is another sister surviving him, Mrs. Walter Crowley, London, England.

TAMWORTH

The community at large was severely shocked last Saturday, when the sad news of the death of Mr. A. B. Carscallen was known. There are few men who are loved and respected in an entire community as Mr. Carscallen was. He was always ready to give a helping hand to those who needed his assistance. Not only did he help individuals, but as a church and community worker he never tired, always giving advice and assistance to the best of his ability. He was also Reeve of the Township of Sheffield and was doing a good work, and had several things planned for the future for the good of the municipality, but God called him away to be forever with him.—The Y. P. U. of the United Church are preparing to present a "Mock Trial" at their meeting, on April 29th.—Don't forget the play, "The Road Back", which is to be put on in the Town Hall, Tamworth, on April 22nd, by the Camden East players, under the auspices of the L. O. B. A. of this place.—Mrs. Dowsley left on Friday morning for Syracuse, N.Y., to visit her mother, who is ill.—Mr. Orval Richmond spent Thursday of last week in Kingston.—Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Bradshaw, of Roblin, spent Sunday at his brother's, Mr. Ed. Bradshaw.

BAY CIRCUIT

The muskrat season is over. Many of our farmers were very successful in their catch. The prices were also good.—The government net in Hay Bay is getting a large haul of fish. Some of our local fishermen are not quite so successful.—The bad roads are being repaired and travelling conditions will soon be normal again.—Mr. Ezra Huffman, who has been in poor health for a number of months, went on Monday of this week to consult the Mayo Bros. Specialists. His wife accompanied him. Your correspondent joins with others in the hope that they both return in better health. — The Anderson Ladies' Aid met last week at the home of Mrs. Jacob Card, the President of the organization. A short programme was given, business transacted, and a social half hour, followed by lunch.—Miss Wilma Furrs has been confined to bed for ten days with an attack of the Flu.—The Hay Bay Ladies' Aid met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Leonard Parks. A good programme was given, consisting of readings and a short address on "Woman in Her Home". The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Wilfred McCabe's.—Mr. Edda McCabe is confined to his bed under the Doctor's care, with a nurse in attendance.—The Sand Hill Ladies' Aid hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. E. McCabe, on Wednesday evening, April 24th, at 8 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.—Mr. William Parks spent the week end with friends in Napanee

NAPANEE REBEKAH TEAM EXEMPLIFIES WORK OF ORDER

The degree team in connection with the Rebekah Lodge, of Napanee, accompanied by several other members of the Lodge, last evening were in this city for the purpose of conferring the initiatory degree. It was at a regular meeting of Quintena Lodge No. 133, whose members were out in large numbers, with visitors from other lodges in this locality. There was a large attendance during the lodge session and the initiation. The team work of the Napanee members was all that could have been desired and the three candidates must have been impressed with the ceremony for it was certainly carried out in a most creditable manner. At the close a hearty vote of appreciation of the capable manner the initiation ceremony was conducted was moved by Bro. R. H. Ketcheson, and seconded by Sister J. W. Carter. Bro. J. S. Douglas, degree captain, acknowledged the vote of thanks in a suitable manner. At the conclusion of the initiation and lodge business the visitors and others repaired to the upper hall in the I.O.O.F. temple where a repast provided by the ladies of Quintena lodge was partaken of. Bro. C. Frost who was the first Noble Grand of the Lodge, presided over the function in a manner that was most satisfactory. After all had partaken of the good things provided a brief time was spent in speech making, the remarks of those called up to speak being brief. The consensus of opinion was that the initiatibn was exemplified in a manner that could scarcely be excelled. Visitors replying to the toast proposed expressed pleasure at being present, also their gratitude for the welcome extended to them and the entertainment provided. It was in many respects a night long to be remembered by those who attended.

Members of the degree team from Napanee were as follows:

Mrs. A. D. Snider, N.G.; Mrs. K. Huffman, V.G.; Mrs. S. Douglas, R.S. N.G.; Mrs. Coates, L.S.N.G.; Mrs. H. C. Garratt, L.S.V.G.; Mrs. C. Loucks, R.S.V.G.; Mrs. A. Kitchen, Junior Past Grand; Miss Mollie Allingham, Chaplain; Mrs. B. Hudson, Conductor; Mrs. R. Ham, Warden; Misses Jean and Myrtle Russell, Mrs. Couts, Miss Morgan, Miss Hull, Miss Hall, Mrs. E. Smith, Miss Aylesworth, Mrs. B. Huyck, Mrs. F. Moore and Mrs. Wales.

To Bro. James S. Douglas, Captain of the degree team, is due great credit for the state of efficiency reached by the team.—Belleville Ontario, April 17th.

YARKER - COLEBROOK WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The regular meeting of the Yarker-Colebrook Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Geo. Curl, on Wednesday afternoon, April 17th, with forty-five members and visitors present.

The meeting opened in the usual manner. Secretary's and Treasurer's reports were read and approved. Many letters of appreciation were read from those who were remembered by fruit during their illness. The roll call was well responded to by "Little things that make life beautiful".

Our President then invited our District President, Mrs. A. Huffman, to take charge of the election of officers, and the following were elected:—

President—Mrs. N. Boyce.
Vice President—Mrs. G. Lee.
Secretary—Mrs. R. Jackson.
Treasurer—Mrs. G. MacFarlane.
Flower Committee—Mrs. S. Winter and Mrs. C. Smith.
District Representative — Mrs. S. Freeman.
Directors and Programme Committee—Mrs. S. Freeman, Mrs. R. Holland, Mrs. A. D. Leonard, and Mrs. A. Candy.
Press Reporter—Mrs. H. Freeman.

After the election of officers, Miss Macpherson, Wilton, favored us with a reading, "Why I am Proud to Belong to the W. I." An instrumental duet was then played by Mrs. R. Freeman and Mrs. G. Rawley. Mrs. McCormick, of Violet, gave us an instructive paper on "What Is Golter". Next was a solo by Mrs. Wright, of Violet. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to the ladies who took part in the programme.

The meeting then closed by singing "God Save the King", after which a very dainty lunch was served by the hostess and lunch committee, and all enjoyed the social half hour which followed. Our next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. A. Martin, Yarker, on May 16th, at 2 p.m.

NAPANEE BOXERS WIN IN BELLEVILLE

The Frontenac Regiment have good cause to be proud of the showing of their string of boxers in Belleville last Tuesday night. A bout was staged there by the Belleville branch of the Canadian Legion, and the Napanee fans turned out in full force. Only three of the Napanee boxers were able to get into action, but when they did, they certainly showed the Belleville crowd plenty.

Buddie Fraser was matched against Bennie Powell, of Belleville, and was the better throughout the three rounds. Powell is an experienced worker, fast and clean, and gave Fraser a lot to think about, but Fraser has a little margin in each round. This Powell would likely make a good drawing card for a return bout here, as he was by no means outclassed, and might do even better again. Owing to the unaccustomed lightness of the gloves worn in Belleville, Fraser injured his hand in the closing moments of the fight, but his injury was too late to deprive him of a well earned victory.

In the next bout Frankie Sedore opposed Marascas, a tall slim Greek boy. This was not as good a bout as it might have been had the olive skinned Belleville battler been able to take punishment. Sedore got in a couple with each hand in the first five seconds, and for the remainder of the bout Marascas devoted his time and energy endeavouring to evade the savage attack of the Napanee boxer. Marascas had the advantage of height, weight, and reach, and the opinion of the crowd and judges was that he might have done much better. The Belleville press have razzed him for his back-pedaling tactics, which is well enough in its way, but it must be remembered that Frankie carries a dose of very potent poison in each hand, and better boxers than Marascas will do as he did. Sedore was of course given the decision.

It was hoped that the opponent for Ted Bentley would be a good one, for in every match here, Bentley has outclassed his opposition. It is not that the local fans want to see Ted beaten, but they want to see him extended, realizing that he needs a better class of opponent in order to improve himself. When the word was whispered through the crowd that he was to meet Norwich, who was considered a first rater, an experienced bruiser, and a capable mitt handler, Napanee was well pleased, for at last it looked like an opportunity for the local champion to really display his wares. But it seems that we will have to go farther afield than Belleville to find a boy of Bentley's class. Norwich showed enough to let the crowd know that he was experienced, that he was game, and that he knew something of his business, but at that he was easy for Ted. The Belleville papers say that Bentley gave him an artistic lacing. He did that and more. He slowly, carefully, and with well chosen deliberation outboxed, out-punched, outpointed and outclassed Norwich, and having worn him out in the first three rounds, proceeded to knock him out in the fourth. Ted seems to be completely happy when in the ring, and his jovial smile won him the plaudits of the crowd.

The Tournament was an elimination affair, and the various winners in the different weight groups were supposed to meet again for the championship cups donated for the evening. As Bentley was the only winner in his class, he was not called out again, and as Sedore and Fraser were the two winners in their class, and Fraser's hand was out of commission, he conceded the cup to Sedore. That makes two handsome silver trophies which will rest in the Frontenac Club for a year, as a concrete evidence of the success of the night, and particularly as a tribute to the excellent training of Steve Watson, to whom most of the credit for the fine showing of the boys will be due.

Wife—"The doctor says he has given you a new lease of life."

Husband—"Well, he hasn't left me much with which to pay the rent."

They Have Done Me Such a Lot of Good

Winnipeg Man Used Dodd's Kidney Pills With Good Results

Mr. F. S. Spillman Took Them For Pains in the Back and Kidney Trouble.

Winnipeg, Man., April 22nd, (Special)—"I must say Dodd's Kidney Pills have done me such a lot of good," writes Mr. F. S. Spillman, 462 Brandon Ave., Winnipeg. "I have taken them for quite a while and would not be without them in the house. They are the only pill I can get for my back. They relieve me right away. I cannot praise them enough. I have recommended them to many people suffering with backache and they all say the same—they would not be without them."

If you have any symptoms of Backache or Rheumatism, you may be sure that your Kidneys need attention. Neglected Kidneys are the cause of more than half the ills to which mankind is heir.

Dodd's Kidney Pills act directly on the Kidneys, making them strong and healthy. Sound Kidneys mean pure blood. Pure blood means good health.

KILLING ON HIGH SEAS INVOLVES FOUR NATIONS

A story of manslaughter on the high seas, which started with the quarrel of two sailors over a shaving brush and has caused international complications, has now been brought to an end, through the extradition recently to Brazil of Francesco, alias Manuel De Lima, a nineteen-year-old oiler on the Swedish steamer Liguria of the Swedish Lloyd line.

The events date to Aug. 23, last year, when the steamer was thirty-six miles off Ambrose Light, Port of New York, according to statements made by witnesses at the time. Lima was shaving on deck when Olaus Monson saw that his shaving brush was being used. He took the brush from Lima, but there was no quarrel. Later the two men had breakfast together. Afterward, however, they were found fighting, witnesses said, and Lima struck Monson so severely with an iron bar that he died from internal injuries the following day. Before his death Monson gave his version of the row. De Lima on his part, maintained he had been persecuted by his fellow-sailor. He admitted the blow, preliminary hearing was held on board the steamer by the Assistant United States Attorney. The Brazilian sailor was arrested and placed in jail in Brooklyn.

Olof H. Lamm, Swedish Consul General in New York, sought immediately to have De Lima sent to Sweden to be tried there, as the crime was committed on board a Swedish steamer on the high seas. At the same time the Swedish Legation in Washington communicated with Secretary of State and asked for De Lima's extradition.

The case was referred to Extradition Commissioner William J. Wilson of the Federal Court, Eastern District of New York, who decided that the extradition treaty between the United states and Sweden was not applicable. Shortly afterward the Department of labor deported De Lima to Rio de Janeiro.

It seems likely now that the Swedish and Norwegian authorities will seek to have De Lima tried before a Brazilian court. Manuel de Barros, Consul General for Brazil in New York, has taken charge of the case.

Deep-Seated Rheumatic Pains

Quickly Yield to Powerful Penetrating Oil

Probably no affliction is more common or responsible for more intense suffering than rheumatism. Thousands of otherwise robust persons drag through a life of misery and agony.

Here is a new treatment. Simply get a bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil, and apply to the affected parts. It's easy and pleasant to use and there is no doubt but what the most stubborn and severe cases yield quickly to its powerful, penetrating influence. The first application brings blessed relief. All good druggists have it, but you can be sure to get it at Wallace's Drug Store.

CAMDEN VIII. W. M. S.

A good deal of disappointment was felt when it was learned, that through illness, Mrs. George Switzer, of Napanee, would be unable to visit our Auxiliary for our Easter thankoffering service. It was therefore, decided to combine such service with the regular monthly meeting. Such meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Samuel Doupe on the afternoon of April 4th. Inclement weather prevented many from attending, but an earnest appeal is made to every member not to forget to hand in a liberal Easter thankoffering.

The President opened the meeting with singing and prayer, with Scripture reading of Matt. chapter 6. The devotional leaflet, "Money Talks; What Does it Say to You?" was read by Mrs. Perry Armstrong.

In the absence of the Recording Secretary, the minutes of last meeting could not be dealt with, but held over for May meeting.

The roll was called and offering taken, after which the 7th chapter of the Study Book was discussed, followed by a very interesting talk on Africa, by Rev. Mr. Beckstead.

Then followed the W. M. S. printed Easter programme, with Mrs. Perry Armstrong as pianist. The singing of an Easter hymn, and prayer by Mrs. Beckstead brought the meeting to a close, after which Mrs. Doupe served a very bountiful lunch, and a social half hour was spent.

CAMDEN EAST LIBRARY BOARD

Camden East Public Library Board extends thanks to all those who in any way helped to make their play, "His Uncle's Niece", such a success.

It's success as an entertainment can only be judged by the hearty applause during its presentation and the favourable comments heard since. But the large sum of $31.00 (net profits), proves its success financially.

This farce will be presented at Yarker in the League Hall, on April 30th, in aid of Yarker Orchestra and Camden East Library. If you wish to see a play which has no dull moments, is clean and produces laugh after laugh, come to Yarker on the 30th.

The Library Board takes this opportunity of publicly thanking Sir Gilbert Parker for a gift of books and money recently presented to the Library. If more of our Camden East sons would follow his example, our Library's work and usefulness could be much extended, and it would compare favourably with the other libraries in the township.

WOMEN REVERT TO SIDE SADDLE

Women horse riders are forsaking the modern astride seat for the old-fashioned side saddle. The return of the old fashion is encouraged actively by prominent organizers of horse fairs. The authorities of the Richard Royal Horse Show, one of the most popular events of the kind in the kingdom, have ruled that for the meeting in June women must not ride astride at the parades or in the classes of hunters and hacks.

Several women notable for their skill in horseriding express appreciation at the return to old conditions.

"The astride seat is not for women," declares Mrs. Victor Adamson, who holds many riding prizes. "It is too cumbersome and very uncomfortable. Nothing looks more beautiful than a woman riding side saddle, but how many women look well astride—even the best of them?

"Women have not the same grip as men, and to ride astride means special muscle development and a great deal of practice. The side saddle seat is far more easily acquired, more artistic, certainly more womanly, safer and less exhausting."

Horace Smith, from whose school in Cadoganplace many London children and women learn to ride, said that the tendency to revert to the side saddle was increasing rapidly.

"Nineteen out of twenty pupils are now taught the old style," he said. "And the little girls almost solely learn to ride as their grandmothers did.

"One never sees a girl blush nowadays. When I was a young man it was different."

"Oh, grandfather dear, do tell me what you told them to make them blush."

HATCHING WITH HENS

When chicks are to be hatched by the natural method it is well to set several hens at once. As the eggs are tested from time to time and the infertile eggs removed those remaining can be given to fewer hens. Then when the chicks hatch a few hens will be able to brood a larger flock of the same age. Where this system is used the hens from which the eggs have been taken may be re-set and kept going for several weeks. Mr. F. C. Elford, the Dominion Poultry Husbandman, in Circular No. 70, "Natural Incubation", published by the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa, recommends thoroughly dusting the hen with sulphur or insect powder before she is set. The nest should be made ready and the hen placed on the eggs, preferably after dark. To test the hen as a brooder it is well to give her a few common eggs for a few days and if still inclined to set, she may be given a setting of from 13 to 15 eggs according to size. It is important to see that the nest is perfectly clean and disinfected before allowing the hen into it. It is regarded as good practice to set the hens where the laying stock cannot get to them. A colony house makes an ideal place for this purpose. There should be kept near at hand a constant supply of fresh water and hard grain either placed on the floor or in a hopper as well as green feed. Some hens do not sit as well as others and Mr. Elford regards it as sometimes advantageous to continue the good sitters at work for several weeks. This may be done by removing the eggs to other hens before they are hatched. If they continue to sit well and keep in good flesh it may be possible to keep them at work for several hatchings before allowing them or with chicks or putting them back into the laying pens.

The lighter laying breeds like the Leghorns, though they may become broody seldom make satisfactory sitters. Hens of the medium or larger size that are not too clumsy and awkward should be used for incubation. It is also pointed out in the circular that hens usually sit better than pullets.

SCOUTEN—On April 13th, 1929, to Mr. and Mrs. Ford Scouten, nee Annie Kellar, of Wilton, a son.—Kellar Wilkins.

DEATHS

SMITH—At St. Mary's Hospital, Toronto, on Saturday, April 20th, 1929, Charles J. Smith, son of the late John Smith, Napanee.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving memory of our dear parents, John and Eleanor Tyner, who departed this life—Father, April 27th, 1922; Mother, May 11th, 1927.

A loving father, a mother dear,
Has gone and left us mourning here.
They parted from this world of pain,
But only died to live again.
Our parents at rest, how sweet the thought.
They have gone from this world of care,
Gone to the beautiful mansion above
That Jesus went to prepare.

Always thought of by their Family. 17ap

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. George Johnston, who departed this life April 15th, 1927, just two years ago.

Mother dear and softly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one I loved so dearly,
In her lone and silent grave.
She shall never be forgotten,
Never shall her memory fade,
Sweetest thoughts shall always linger
Around the grave where mother is laid."

Sadly missed by daughter, Alice. 17a

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our dear mother, Mary Ann Yeomans, who departed this life on April 21st, 1925.

—Daughters and Son. 17a

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Martin W. Bradshaw, who passed away on April 23rd, 1923.

Swift and sudden was the parting,
Taken home without a sigh;
We could not think his life was ended,
For he never said good-bye.

Yes, we miss his well known footsteps,
And the face we used to greet,
He was a loving husband,
A father kind and true.
No morning dawns, no night returns
But what we think of you.

Ever remembered by his Wife and Family. 17ap

WEDDING BELLS

Kennedy—Shannon.

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized on Thursday morning, April 18th, at St. George's Cathedral, Kingston, when Ruby Edna, daughter of Wm. Shannon and the late Mrs. Shannon, of Sheffield, became the bride of Harold Herbert, eldest son of Mrs. Kennedy and the late Herbert Kennedy, of Tamworth. Deacon Craig officiated. The bride was becomingly gowned in a brown crepe dress with hat, shoes, stockings in matching shades and muskrat coat. Mrs. Lily Connor acted as matron of honour, while Mr. John Connor assisted the groom. The happy couple will reside on the Kennedy farm, near Tamworth.

York—Gonyou.

At St. Andrew's Manse, April 16th, 1929, at 8 p.m., by Rev. W. J. Preston, was the scene of a pretty wedding, when Nancy Edith, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James H. York, of Erinsville, Ont., was united to Mr. Clinton A. Gonyou, eldest son of the late Edwin C. and Mrs. Gonyou, of 25 Park Ave., West, Chatham, Ont. Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Watson supported the bride and groom. They will reside in Chatham, Ont.

McGrath—Doyle.

The Church of the Assumption, Erinsville, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, April 17th, when Catherine Theresa Doyle, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Doyle, of Marlbank, was united in marriage to Stanley J. McGrath, son of Mr. John McGrath, Sulphide.

The bride looked very attractive in a frock of powder blue georgette, trimmed with beige lace. Her only jewellery was a rhinestone necklace, the gift of the groom. She carried an arm bouquet of butterfly roses. The bride was attended by Miss Bernadette McGrath, sister of the groom, while Mr. James Doyle, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

After the ceremony the guests, who included only the immediate relatives and friends of the young couple, returned to the home of the bride's parents, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. Among the numerous gifts to the young couple was a substantial cheque from the bride's father. Mr. and Mrs. McGrath left on the afternoon train for Peterboro' and other western points, the latter travelling in beige flat crepe, shoes, stockings and hat to match, and navy blue coat with brown fox stole. On their return they will reside on a farm near Erinsville.

OBITUARY

The Late Charles Smith.

On Saturday last there passed away in St. Mary's Hospital, Toronto, Mr. Charles Smith, formerly of Napanee. Eleven weeks ago Mr. Smith, who had been in his usual good health up to that time, was taken suddenly with a heart seizure. He was removed at once to the hospital, where his condition was seen to be serious, and though everything possible was done, he gradually grew weaker until he finally succumbed on Saturday.

Mr. Smith was the son of the late John and Elizabeth Smith, who were life long residents of Napanee. For many years Mr. Smith was employed in the clothing store of Mr. J. L. Boyes, where he came into contact with a large section in the community.

Of late years he was similarly employed in Toronto. His quiet, unassuming and reserved manner won for him the lasting friendship of a whole host of friends.

Mr. Smith is mourned by three sisters, Mrs. J. L. Boyes and Mrs. W. Crossley, of Napanee, and Miss Minnie Smith, of St. Thomas. Mrs. Boyes and Miss Smith were able to spend the last two weeks with their brother in Toronto, and along with Mr. Boyes, accompanied the body to Napanee.

The funeral took place from the residence of Mr. J. L. Boyes, on Monday afternoon. Revds. A. J. Wilson and H. Pawson officiating. The large number present testified to the high esteem in which Mr. Smith is regarded in his home town.

Mrs. Mariah Lasher.

Mrs. Peter Lasher was called to her Eternal Home, in Toronto, on December 25th. She was a patient sufferer for some time, and was in her eightieth year. She was a loving mother. She was formerly Miss Mariah Deline and was married to Mr. Peter Lasher in 1867. She leaves to mourn her loss a loving husband, also four sons and three daughters, William, Minnie Walter and George, all in the U. S. A.; Rillie, in the West, and Hawley and Effie residing in Toronto. The remains were brought to Napanee and placed in the Riverview vault to await burial. The remains will start from Napanee at 10 o'clock, on May 5th, and burial will be made at Roblin cemetery at 11 o'clock. Will the friends and relatives kindly take notice and attend if possible.

To ride in a De Soto Six is to forget low price—to realize in a flash that here is a luxury six which belongs, by right of performance, by right of riding ease and by right of beauty, among the finest. Swift, alert, vigorous, staunch under punishment—smartest, snappiest of the low-priced sixes—the only car of its price equipped with four-wheel hydraulic brakes—De Soto has rightly broken all sales records for a first-year car. It has become in a few months the accepted quality car of those many thousands who delight in zestful driving.

NEW CHEVROLET SIX

—a Six in the price range of the four!

WE cordially invite you to visit our special Spring display of the new Chevrolet Six.

Here, in a price class that has hitherto been occupied exclusively by four-cylinder automobiles, you will see displayed a line of beautiful models that bring you every advantage of six-cylinder performance in the price range of the four . . six-cylinder smoothness, six-cylinder reserve power, six-cylinder speed and six-cylinder acceleration.

And this amazing six-cylinder performance is matched in impressiveness by the beautiful new Fisher bodies. Longer lower and roomier . . finished in striking new colors . . and offering numerous outstanding comfort and convenience features—they introduce into the low-price field a new conception of luxury, comfort and style.

Come in any time the week of April 20th to 27th. We want you to see for yourself that no other car in the world can give you so much at prices within the reach of all.

THE FARM HOME SHELTER BELT

Winter is the season when plans should be made for planting a shelter belt about our farm homes, for at that time the benefits of shelter appeal to us most strongly. When the warm days of spring and summer come and the work of planting trees for shelter should be done, we forget the howling snowstorms, the days when the wind blew a gale from the north-west and the thermometer dropped below zero. We forget, too, the days when we dashed through the drifts to get to the stables, and that during those days the stock received insufficient water as they could not be induced to stay at the water trough long enough to drink. In winter the many discomforts due to lack of shelter appear very real to us. We know that it is the high cold winds that make our winter climate so disagreeable, and that this can be overcome, about our homes at least, by shelter belts. We know also that good shelter would save much fuel, would materially add to our own comfort and to the comfort and welfare of our live stock, and that the planting of a good shelter belt is a paying proposition. But in spring and summer we forget. Therefore let us plan now to start planting a windbreak this coming season.

While a single row of trees will give considerable shelter, the ideal shelter belt, judging from experience at the Dominion Experimental Station at Charlottetown, P. E. I., should be at least one hundred feet wide, should be situated about one hundred yards from the buildings, and should protect them on the west, north and east. In making the first planting, it is advisable to use native spruce set in two rows about eight feet apart, placing the trees six feet apart in the row and arranging them so that each tree in the back row is in line with the space between each two trees of the front row. Small trees about six inches or one foot in height are most easily transplanted, and should be dug up with a square of sod attached. If two furrows are opened with the plough where the lines are to be set out, the trees may be placed in the furrows and planted with little trouble. Spruce stands transplanting best in August, September or October, but the work may be done in early spring or in late fall. After the first planting has been made, its width may be increased from year to year by additional planting. A few native hardwood trees set out with later plantings of spruce add much to the appearance of the shelter belt, and form a good background for the buildings. All plantings should be protected from live stock.

The present head of the household may feel that no benefit will be derived from a young shelter belt in his day, but trees grow rapidly and soon afford considerable shelter. He should remember too, the fruits of his efforts may pass on to his descendants.

First Lady—"Does your cook give you any impertinence?"

Second Ditto—"No, I pay her £1 a week for it."

"Do you know Lord Heathmoor? I've often shot at his country seat."

"And did you ever hit it?"

THE nerves are fed by the blood. Poor blood means starved nerve tissue, insomnia, irritability and depression.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will enrich your blood stream and rebuild your over-worked nerves. Miss Josephine M. Martin, of Kitchener, Ontario, testifies to this:

"I suffered from a nervous breakdown," she writes. "I had terrible sick headaches, dizziness; felt very weak and could not sleep; had no appetite. I felt always as if something terrible were going to happen. After taking other treatment without success, on my sister's advice, I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and now all these symptoms are gone, and I am strong and happy again."

Buy Dr. Williams' Pink Pills now at your druggist's or any dealer in medicine or by mail, 50 cents, postpaid, from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ontario. 52B

MORVEN W. M. S.

The Easter meeting of the W. M. S. was held at the Brick Church, on April 8th, with a good attendance. The President, Mrs. G. Fralick, occupied the chair, and the meeting was opened by Hymn 174, after which all repeated the watchword. Responsive Scripture lesson was led by Mrs. C. L. Sharp. Prayer then followed by Mr. Seymour; reading by Mrs. Winters; quartette by Mrs. Seymour, Miss Babcock, G. Fralick and G. Shane. Then roll call, all responding with an Easter thought. A very interesting letter was then read by our President, from a missionary in Trinidad. Mrs. G. I. Perry was then asked to take the chair, and in her pleasing manner gave a very interesting talk on the first Easter morning. Hymn 195; reading by Mrs. G. Clark; solo by Mrs. Seymour; reading by Mrs. Ernest Miller; duet quartette, Mr. Seymour, Mr. Babcock, Mr. Shane and Mr. Fralick; reading by Mrs. F. Lake.

The offering was then taken up, which amounted to over $23.00. Rev. Mr. Seymour then dismissed the meeting, and the ladies served a delicious lunch.

The regular meeting of the W. M. S. was held at the White Church, on Wednesday afternoon, April 10th. The meeting opened by Hymn 15; prayer by the President; Hymn 99; Bible lesson by Mrs. Seymour; prayer by Mrs. John Fralick; reading on Christian Stewardship by Mrs. F. Lake; reading by Mrs. Fralick; reading by Mrs. C. L. Sharp. Roll call answered by interesting clippings from Africa. The meeting then closed by Hymn 162.

PLYMOUTH

Only a few days left to learn the high points of Plymouth during "Learn-the-Difference" fortnight.

Here is your chance to find out for yourself what scores of your friends and neighbors have learned—the decided difference between Plymouth and any other car in its price class.

We know that fifteen minutes behind the Plymouth wheel will convince you that Plymouth is not only different in the big obvious things, but different also in the little things that mean so much in the pleasure and convenience of driving a motor car.

NO OBLIGATION

We are eager to have you realize the many outstanding advantages of the Plymouth. Come and drive the car—see for yourself how and why it excels. There is not the least obligation. Come in today!

We know you will recognize Plymouth is a full-size car, not a miniature—in point of size and seating space it overshadows every other offer at this price.

We know you will recognize Plymouth has distinctive Chrysler-like style and manner, and richness and dignity not to be found in other low-priced cars.

We know you will recognize Plymouth is typically Chrysler in performance—so swift in traffic, so eager on hills, so easy to control and so safe with weatherproof internal-expanding four-wheel hydraulic brakes.

We could pack this whole page full of type telling why Plymouth is so vitally different—in-style, quality, performance, dependability and economy. But five minutes' inspection followed by a brief drive will tell the story far more graphically.

That's the reason for Plymouth "Learn-the-Difference" fortnight—why we urge you to take advantage of this opportunity to learn the all-inclusive superiority of Plymouth—to see it, experience it.

Come in today! Get the facts! See us now—before the big event is over.

ODESSA

Mrs. Wm. Brant, who has been spending the past two weeks with her mother, Mrs. T. C. Graham, has returned to her home in Toronto.—Mrs. Smith, who has been spending some time the guest of Miss Aggie Laughlin, has returned to her home in Brockville.—G. R. Benjamin, who was called home to be with his mother during her illness and death, returned last Wednesday to his position in St. John's School, Syracuse.—Mrs. Ashton Amey has returned from visiting her sister, Mrs. Chase, Sydenham.—Miss Frankie Aselstine, who has spent the past winter with her sister, Mrs. (Rev.) Shaver and Rev. Shaver, Winnipeg, returned to her home last week.—Mrs. Wilson spent a couple of days at her old home in Wairtown.—Mr. and Mrs. George McGowan and son, Ayrest, of Kingston, spent Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Snider.—Dr. and Mrs. Parkhill and family, of Lanark, and Mrs. Parkhill and Miss Kathleen Crawford, Kingston, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Young, last Saturday.—Mrs. George Ohman, Napanee, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Tolls.—Alfred Mills, Belleville, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mills.—Mrs. Ernest Sharpe was a recent guest of her brother, Oswald Snider.—Mrs. W. C. Jenkins has returned from visiting her niece, Mrs. (Dr.) Logan and Dr. Logan, Lynchburg, Virginia. On her return trip she also visited her nephew, Karl Ettinger, Hamilton, and friends in Toronto.—The euchre and dance held in the Town Hall, Monday night, was a great success. There were twelve tables in play, and the prizes were won by Miss Bertha Graham and Mr. Henry Venton. The dance proved to be a great attraction for the young people, and the music was furnished by Walters' Orchestra, Napanee. A very fine lunch was prepared by the ladies, and the Library Board is to be congratulated for their efforts in making the all around social evening the most successful of their series of events.

A very-highly respected person, Mrs. George Benjamin, passed away in the Kingston General Hospital, on April 12th, after a comparatively short illness. The funeral was held from her late home with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Benjamin, on Sunday afternoon, conducted by Mr. D. E. Smith, in the absence of Rev. Mr. Linstead, and was largely attended by relatives and friends. Interment took place in the family plot in Morven cemetery. The deceased was born in Morven, July 6th, 1849, and had nearly reached her eightieth year.

Practically all her early life was spent in Odessa. Her husband predeceased twenty-three years ago and she was laid by his side last Sunday. Mrs. Benjamin was very favourably known and had many friends won by her lovable disposition and her faithful Christian life. Ten years were spent in Lakewood, Michigan, with her son, G. R. Benjamin, who has been her sole comfort and support since her husband's death. He has always been affectionate and kind, his only thought apparently being to make her happy and spent most of the time during her illness with her. Surviving are her only son, G. R. Benjamin, who has returned to his position at St. John's Academy, Syracuse, and one sister, Mrs. Robert Perry Minetto, New York.

ERNESTTOWN WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The Ernesttown Women's Institute held their meeting on April 11th, in the Community Hall, with a large attendance. Our President, Mrs. Fred Hamm, extended a hearty welcome to our visitors from Kingston, Odessa and Bath.

The roll call, "My One Superstition" caused much merriment. What a lot of superstitious people there are.

The business routine was quickly dispensed with so that everybody could enjoy the really good program. The program consisted of a debate, "Resolved that a hundred acre farm is better for a boy than a college education." This proved quite interesting. The judges were Mr. Stevenson, Bath; Rev. G. C. R. McQuade, Odessa, and Mr. A. W. Sirrett, Kingston. They had quite a hard time in deciding, but the decision was in favour of the negative side. Next was a chorus by eight ladies, accompanied by our capable pianist, Mrs. H. Laidley.

Last, but not least, was an address on "Home Border", by Mrs. Sirrett, Kingston, which proved most interesting and instructive. One could well imagine the speaker's lovely garden. What better subject for an address could we have at this time of the year than flowers?

A hearty vote of thanks was given Mrs. Sirrett, Mrs. Stevenson, Rev. Mr. McQuade and Mr. Sirrett. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses and a most enjoyable and instructive afternoon brought to a close by the singing of "God Save the King".

Next meeting is May 9th, in the Community Hall. Members please remember to bring written suggestions for next year's programme.

A Great Puzzle To Careful Parents

One of the greatest puzzles to the careful parent is to know just what medicine to give the little ones. When the child falls ill with griping pains; is seized with cold or fever, refuses food or vomits what he has taken, when he cries a great deal and cannot get the sleep so necessary to the growing child, the parent is in a quandary. What is to be done on such occasions? As often as not there is not a suitable medicine in the house. The puzzle is what to give him to set him right quickly.

It is to meet such emergencies that Baby's Own Tablets were designed. These pleasant little Tablets quickly reduce fever, break up colds, relieve constipation and indigestion and allay teething pains. They quiet the nerves and promote restful health-restoring sleep. They are guaranteed absolutely harmless and safe for even the youngest and most delicate baby.

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"George," said Mamma, "if you're not good you won't go to heaven."

"Don't care," retorted wee George, "I've seen five old gentlemen fall down on a slide this afternoon, and heaven can't be better than that!"

Doctor—"What is your profession?" Patient (pompously)—"I'm a gentleman."

Doctor—"Well, you'll have to try something else; it doesn't agree with you."—Tit Bits.

Johnny had told a falsehood and his mother was anxiously talking with him.

"The Good Book says, John," she told him, "that no one who tells lies can go to heaven."

"Mamma," he asked, "did you ever tell a lie?"

"I dare say I did, my son, when I was very small like you, and did not realize how wicked it was."

"Did papa ever tell a lie?"

"Perhaps he did when he was a little boy, but he would not do it now."

"Well," remarked the young philosopher, "I don't know as I care about going to heaven if there isn't going to be anybody there but God and George Washington."

A doctor declares that kissing shortens life. We presume he means single life.

"The Good Book says, John," she told him, "that no one who tells lies can go to Heaven."

"Mamma," he asked, "did you ever tell a lie?"

"I dare say I did, my son, when I was very small like you, and did not realize how wicked it was."

"Did papa ever tell a lie?"

"Perhaps he did when he was a little boy, but he would not do it now."

"Well," remarked the young philosopher, "I don't know as I care about going to heaven if there isn't going to be anybody there but God and George Washington."

Care of the Lawn.

If a little work is put on the lawn early in the season, there will be practically no trouble in keeping it in shape during the rest of the year. At this time, the ground is soft and dandelions and plantains, two of the worst pests, as well as most of the other weeds, can be removed quite easily. Weeding devices are now sold which eigher pull or cut off tap-rooted plants without mussing up the lawn. A few minutes each day for a week or two will soon rid the patch of all offenders. Where wide-spreading weeds such as dandelions, plantain and knot-grass have got established, and their removal leaves a fairly large piece of bare ground behind, it is well to rake in liberally with grass seed, rolling the patches smooth. The new grass will soon fill up these spaces. This is the real time to use a heavy roller or pounder, such implements firming the soil around the roots of the young grass and insuring an even velvety surface later on. Sharp frosts at night during the Spring months are responsible for heaving in the top half inch of the soil and thus creating dangerous air spaces around the roots. It is to correct this condition that the roller or pounder is used. At this time, too, the grass, like the old-fashioned child, needs a Spring tonic and for this purpose nitrate of soda is advised. This is one of the most quickly available fertilizers and is particularly valuable in restoring energy to those plants which were injured during the Winter weather. A light application of pulverized sheep manure is also advocated by lawn experts. This will provide nourishment over quite a long period and will add humus to the soil. Clippings of grass should be allowed to stay on the lawn to provide a mulch which will protect the tender plants from the hot sun and will also conserve moisture. If the lawn is cut every four or five days, as it should be, these clippings will not disfigure the surface.

Peonies.

It is not a very difficult matter to extend the blooming season of the gorgeous peony. In the old days, when varieties were limited to half a dozen, there was an excuse for the shortness of the season, but to-day this wonderful perennial may be had in all its glory for over a month. In the white varieties alone, there is a period of almost two weeks between the blooming of the earliest and the latest, and there is practically a different date of opening for all the well-known varieties. All that is necessary is a study of the blooming dates in the catalogue before ordering so that one's list of varieties will include a fair proportion of early, medium, and late-blooming sorts.

Rose Diseases.

Blackspot and mildew are two of the most serious diseases which affect roses. In fighting disease of any kind, one should bear in mind that a quickly growing plant is less susceptible to injury than the other kind and because of this it is essential to plant your roses in good, rich, well-drained soil and to fertilize liberally to encourage vigorous growth. Moreover, badly diseased plants should be removed, main roots and all, and destroyed, and if a certain portion of the garden seems more liable to disease than another, new ground should be selected. In attacking these fungus diseases with spray, something inconspicuous as well as efficient should be used as one does not want the beauty of the rose marred. A fungicide that best meets these requirements is a dust composed of extra fine flowers of sulphur—the ordinary kind is not as good—and arsenate of lead, made up in the proportion of nine parts of flowers of sulphur and one part of arsenate of lead. The sulphur will check the fungus diseases, if applied in time, while the arsenate of lead being a poison will head off eating insects. This dust should be applied in the early morning when the dew is on the plants so that it will get a chance to stick. One or two dustings will usually control the disease, except in very warm moist seasons when seven or eight applications may be necessary.

Cultivation.

Cultivation is not carried out mainly for the destruction of weeds. While ridding the garden of these pests is important, it is even more so to keep the soil open, porous, and to conserve moisture. A garden absolutely free of weeds and inculitvated would not produce much of a crop because the soil would soon bake and dry out. Hoeing, or cultivating lightly from the start, will keep the surface soil stirred and provide a dust mulch which prevents evaporation of the water stored up in the soil. The drier the weather, the more frequent should be the cultivation. The majority of our vegetables consist of about 95 per cent water and this must be conserved for them.

The weather has turned quite warm again, after the cold spell of the past few days. Some farmers have started to work on the land.—House cleaning is the order of the day.—A number from here attended the lantern slides service, which was held in the United Church on Sunday night of last week. —The community was shocked when the sad news came of the sudden death of Hon. Dr. Edwards, on Thursday morning of last week. — Mrs. Marsh Wagar was rushed to Kingston Hospital last week. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery. — Mrs. M. Horton, of Deseronto, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Histed, and attended the play, "The Road Back", in the United Church Hall. — Mr. George Black spent a day last week at Tamworth, and attended the funeral of the late Mr. A. Carscallen. —The W. M. S. met at the home of Mrs. L. D. Williams, on Wednesday of last week, with a goodly number in attendance. — Mrs. Cyrus Estes, of Colebrook, visited her aunt, Mrs. Chas. Histed, a couple of days last week.—Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Amey spent a few days last week at Desmond, with the Bell Brothers. — A number from here attended the wedding in Newburgh, when Miss Hazel Lewis became the bride of Mr. George Robinson, one of our prosperous young farmers. The ceremony was performed at high noon, in the United Church, by the Rev. T. H. P. Anderson. — The members of the Public Library presented the most popular play of the season, "My Uncle's Niece", in the Parish Hall, on Tuesday evening, April 18th, to a well filled house. — Mrs. Christie Rogers returned to her home here, after spending two weeks with her brother and family in Toronto.

Presentation and Address.

To Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Taylor, Maribank, Ont.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Taylor,—We, your friends and neighbours, have gathered here this evening to express our deep regret that owing to ill health, you feel it your duty to take your departure from our midst. So we meet here to spend one more evening in the old home, where we have enjoyed so many good times. We are pleased to note that your new home is no great distance away, and will be glad to welcome you back wherever you find it possible to come.

Your genial dispositions coupled with your generosity, has been a help to all who knew you, and these impressions will remain long after you are gone from among us. During times of trouble and sickness, you and your wife have always endeavoured to give help and comfort, and this in itself has made you countless friends.

As a citizen, we have found you all that could be desired, ever desirous of assisting in every way anything of benefit to the community, serving as you did as Councillor of our Township for many years and afterwards as Deputy Reeve of our Township, by which you found it necessary to help with the affairs of the county. You are also one of the shareholders in our Maple Ridge Cheese Factory Company, ably giving your best attention to the work of director, salesman and furnisher.

In conclusion we beg of you to accept this purse of money, as a slight token of the many happy occasions on which we have met together, and the many warm friendships formed. May your years be long and happy ones in your new home, and may health and prosperity attend you at all times.

Signed on behalf of the Community,

Mr. and Mrs. John J. McGrath.
Mr. and Mrs. Richard Taylor.
Mr. and Mrs. Brenard McGrath.
Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Turkington.

To the address read by Mr. Turkington, Mr. Taylor made the following fitting reply :—

Ladies and Gentlemen.—You don't know how I appreciate the honour you have done me in coming here this evening. I didn't expect any such presentation, and I cannot express my thanks.

I have been in this community for nearly a half century, having been born and raised here; so my heart is in Hungerford, and always will be in Hungerford. In the many trials sent me in the past eleven months, when things looked blues, I had the community at my back.

Now ladies and gentlemen, I shall make my address brief. I thank you from the bottom of my heart. Remember, dear friends and neighbours, my new home will not be far away; and in the future, if ever I can give a helping hand, I'll only be too glad to do so. I have done in the past. I thank you again, friends, from the bottom of my heart.

Mr. Gallivan was then called upon to say a few words, and he did so very ably.

Ladies and Gentlemen, I didn't expect to be called upon to speak, but I will try to say a few things. I must say, nothing ever pinched me as hard as having Mr. and Mrs. Taylor leave our midst. As a boy, he grew up amongst us; he has been a credit to Hungerford, a credit to his father, his mother, and to his wife. I hope he'll have prosperity as long as he lives.

On behalf of the Stoco community, Charles Rush spoke a few words.

I came as a listener, not as a speaker; but I feel I would not be doing my duty to my fellowmen, if I did not recall to them the good qualities of Mr. Taylor. I do not intend to make a lengthy speech, but I'll tell you the reason I am here : to extend to Mr. Taylor the good wishes of the people of Stoco. I wish him good luck, and that Mrs. Taylor will soon be restored to health.

Others asked for a few words were Stafford Whalen, Richard Taylor, John McGrath, Sam Turkington, Wellington Monds.

Afterwards all joined in singing "He's a Jolly Good Fellow", followed by three ringing cheers.

The community joins in the one desire, for the future good health and prosperity of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor in their new home, in Deseronto, Ont.

CAMDEN EAST WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The April meeting of Camden East Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Smedley. There were forty present, half of this number being members of Odessa Institute.

The meeting was opened in the usual way by our President. A few items of business were dealt with; then Mrs. Nelson Smith, President of the visiting Institute, was asked to take charge of the meeting and present the programme they had prepared. This proved to be a very interesting, instructive and well-balanced programme, which consisted of the following numbers:—Short address on the Institute and friendship, by the President; paper on "Hospitality" by Mrs. C. Snider; demonstration, "Pine-needle Work", by Mrs. E. S. Parrott; paper, "Feeding the Growing Child" by Mrs. (Dr.) Mabee; humourous reading, "Mrs. Jones' Washing", by Mrs. Vrooman; Community Singing; paper on "Friendship", Miss W. Clark; reading, Mrs. S. Denyes; vocal duett, Mrs. and Miss Sproule; paper by Mrs. J. C. Parrott; Community singing; song, composed for and sung to the hostess, by Odessa ladies; demonstration, "Making a Salad", by Mrs. C. Boyce; contest for Camden East women, who were divided into three groups, then each group asked to sing the Ode; National Anthem, by all present.

The serving of lunch brought to a close a much enjoyed meeting.

We thank the Odessa women for their excellent programme, and hope they will visit us again.

NAPANEE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The annual meeting of the Woman's Institute was held in the Agricultural Rooms, on Tuesday, April 9th, the President, Mrs. Ralph Ham, in the chair. After the singing of the Institute Ode, the yearly reports were read and passed, and the Secty.-Treas., Mrs. Frank Herrington, handed in her resignation, which was most regretfully accepted. The President then vacated the chair, Mrs. Herrington taking charge of the meeting, and election of officers for the coming year took place as follows:—

President—Mrs. Ralph Ham.

Vice President—Mrs. T. V. Anderson.

Secty.-Treas. and Press Reporter—Mrs. Katherine Powell.

District Director—Mrs. Shore Loynes

Executive Director—Mrs. J. Gehan.

Directors—Mrs. U. M. Wilson, Mrs. W. Exley, Mrs. M. B. Judson, Mrs. F. Herrington, Miss Helen Alcombrack.

Flower Secty.—Mrs. Frank Marsh.

Supt. of Current Events—Mrs. J. Haggerty.

At the conclusion of business, Mr. Runions, of the Agricultural Office, addressed the meeting, his subject being "Bacteria". While most all present were quite familiar with the effect of Bacteria in causing the spread of disease, it was most interesting to hear of the part Bacteria in the soil plays in promoting growth and germination of seeds, etc. Mr. Runions exhibited a bottle of developed Bacteria, and explained its use in inoculating clover seed thus advancing its growth. In concluding his talk, Mr. Runions touched briefly on the presence of Bacteria in water, milk, dust, etc., and explained how Bacteria develops on bruised and overripe fruits and vegetables, causing early decay and loss.

The speaker was listened to with very great pleasure, and was given a hearty vote of thanks for his interesting and instructive address. The meeting was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

"Betty has postponed answering Jack until she can look up his rating."

"The asset test,' so to speak."

WISE AND OTHERWISE

A restaurant in Montana has surely won a high place for originality for the following efforts:

Use only one spoonful of sugar to a cup and stir like h—. We don't mind the noise.

Our spoons are not medicine. They must not be taken after meals.

Try our milk. Cream ain't in it.

Don't make fun of our coffee. You may be old and weak yourself some day.

Cheapest of all Oils.—Considering the qualities of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, it is the cheapest of all preparations offered to the public. It is to be found in every drug store in Canada from coast to coast and all country merchants keep it for sale. So being easily procurable and extremely moderate in price, no one should be without a bottle of it.

Mitchell Kingsley, the airplane designer, said at a luncheon in Washington.

"We spent a billion on our air program during the war, and we didn't get a single good combat plane for our money. It's admitted that our air forces is badly equipped and managed, and the excuses that the responsible heads offer us remind me in their absurdity of the schoolboy.

"'You claim to have mastered your ancient history,' the boy's teacher said sternly, 'but the leaves of your history book arn't cut.'

"'No, sir,' said the boy. 'I was in such a hurry when I read it.'"

Simple and Sure.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is so simple in application that a child can understand the instructions. Used as a liniment the only direction is to rub, and when used as a dressing to apply. The directions are so plain and unmistakable that they are readily understood by young or old.

"Why do you like cafes where they have jazz?"

"I'm not quite sure," answered Miss Cayenne. "I am unable to decide whether it's because I hope that the dancing will take my mind off the food or that the food will take my mind off the dancing."

As a vermicide an excellent preparation is Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator. It has saved the lives of countless children.

Mr. Maurice L. Jacks, headmaster of Mill Hill School, at a prize distribution at Finchley, said he found the following howler in a schoolboy's examination paper:

Question—What is the feminine of bachelor?

Answer—A lady-in-waiting.

No matter how deep-rooted the corn may be, it must yield to Hollo-way's Corn Remover if used as directed.

Parent—"My son has many original ideas, has he not?"

Teacher—"Yes, especially in spelling."—Tit Bits.

Miller's Worm Powders work so effectively that no traces of worms can be found. The pests pass away in the stools without being perceptible. They make an entire and clean sweep of the intestines, and nothing in the shape of a worm can find lodgement there when these powders are in operation. Nothing could be more thorough or desirable than their action.

He—"I suppose I'm only a pebble on the beach of your life?"

She—"That is true, but you might stand a chance if you were a little boulder."

Your Asthma, Too. The efficacy of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy is not something that is merely to be hoped for; it is to be expected. It seldom fails to bring relief, and in your own individual case it will do the same. So universal has been the success of this far-famed remedy that every one afflicted with this disease owes it to himself to try it.

Proud Father—"There ain't no doubt young Alf's cut out for a lion tamer."

Mother—"Wot's 'e done now?"

Proud Father—"He's been talking back to your mother."

BATH

Mrs. John Holt, of Toronto, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cuppage.—Mr. W. H. Hall has returned home from Essex, Ont., where he spent the last few weeks during the last illness and death of his mother, the late Mrs. Martha Hall.—Mrs. J. M. Wemp has returned from a pleasant visit with friends in Chicago, Ill.—The sale of household furniture, etc., held at the residence of the late John Forester, on April 18th, was well attended.—The sale of household effects held at the residence of the late Misses Davy, on April 19th, was also well attended.—Mr. and Mrs. James Young are rejoicing in the arrival of a baby girl.—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sexsmith attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Ross Sexsmith, at Belleville, last week. The late Mrs. Sexsmith was a resident of this village for a few years, and being well known, her passing is a matter of regret to all.—Mrs. Harry Mott and party of relatives had a pleasant visit with friends at Syracuse, N.Y.

W. M. S. OF GRETNA AND ANDERSON

The Easter meeting of the W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Dean, on Thursday p.m., April 11th. We regret that our President, Mrs. Aikenbrack, was not able to be with us on account of sickness. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. N. Fitchett and Mrs. S. Griffiths.

The opening hymn, "O God Our Help in Ages Past", was followed by the Scripture lesson, "The Visit of Mary and Martha to the Tomb of Jesus", by Mrs. Amos Hambly. Mrs. S. Griffiths gave a reading on "Easter". All took part in the responsive reading, entitled "A Saviour Which is Christ the Lord". The following readings were given, "A Real Thank-offering", by Mrs. J. Mellow; "Giving" by Miss Beatrice Joyce; Devotional Leaflet by Mrs. Dean. Mrs. A. C. Baldwin read a very interesting letter from Mrs. Harrison, one of our missionaries in Angola, West Africa. This was followed by the chapter, "Daughters of Africa" of our Study Book, by Mr. Beckel, followed by prayer. The meeting closed by singing "Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult". A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to the hostess for a very dainty lunch.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. J. Card.

The April meeting of Bath Women's Institute was held on Monday, April 8th, in the Library. Owing to the sewing classes only a short business meeting was held. Several new members joined, and all replied to the roll call by "Hints on Housecleaning."

Correspondence and business were dealt with.

The May meeting will be held at Mrs. Spearing's, on Tuesday, May 14th at 1.30 p.m. Please note the change of date. This is when officers are elected and members join for the following year. A full attendance is requested.

Miss Collins, of Ancaster, has been here since April 1st, giving instruction in sewing. Ten lessons were given, and all the members found them very instructive and interesting.

An epidemic being in our midst lessened our number somewhat, but nevertheless a good class received instructions. The final meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Collins, on Wednesday evening, when a lesson on flowers was given, after which a social evening was held.

After lunch our President, Mrs. G. Stevenson, read a very appropriate address, and presented Miss Collins with a lovely travelling case and sewing comb, from the members of the sewing class.

For two years he was in charge of the Muirkirk office, whence he proceeded to Brinston in a similar capacity, and at the time of receiving this present appointment he was temporarily in charge of the Iroquois branch.

BASEBALL

A meeting of the officials and all those interested in baseball was held at the Paisley House on Friday night and representatives were present from the Napanee and Adolphustown teams, there being the only teams which remained at the close of the schedule last year. Among the principal items of business was the election of officers, resulting as follows:

President — Frank Gallagher, Adolphustown.
Vice-Pres.— W. C. Gault, Napanee.
Sec.-Treas. — Cummings Daverne, Napanee.

The attendance, though not large, was enthusiastic in regards to the prospects for baseball in this district this year.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. W. H. Roe, who has spent considerable time in furthering the interests of baseball in this County. Last year the league got away to a good start, there being three teams, Napanee, Odessa and Adolphustown. Odessa, unfortunately, withdrew before the schedule was completed, and with only two teams the interest waned to quite an extent. Napanee won the championship and in the first of the home and home games with Peterboro' were badly defeated, consequently did not go to the Lift Lock City for the return game, as a result of which the local team was suspended from the O.B.A.

Considerable discussion took place at the meeting on Friday night as to the probable teams which would enter the league, which, of course, will not be affiliated with the O. B. A. this year. It was proposed to have teams from Napanee, Odessa, City Adolphustown, the Gibbard Furniture Shops, and one other if possible. However, the matter was left in abeyance and it was decided to call a general meeting on May 1st, when it is hoped that final arrangements will be made to get this popular game going in this district again this year.

GRAND CONCERT

The concert in the Town Hall on Friday evening last, under the auspices of The Women's Institute was a decided treat and greatly appreciated by the large audience present.

Mr. Runions, of the Agricultural Department, presided, and in opening the program, spoke most flatteringly of the splendid work which is being done by the Institute in the community, specially referring to the teaching of music in the Public Schools, for which fund the concert was given, and concluded his remarks by reading a letter from Mr. Kendall, Organist of Trinity Church, who is the music instructor in the schools relative to the work already accomplished.

The first part of the program consisted of selections by the N. C. L. Orchestra splendidly rendered and plainly showing the effects of hard and faithful practise under the leadership of Mrs. Cameron Wilson.

Mrs. Wilson also contributed a charming violin solo and graciously responded to an encore.

Mrs. Eppler and Mrs. Harold Denison sang two splendid numbers suitable to Grandmother's Day and each responded to a hearty encore.

Mrs. Katherine Powell gave a humorous reading entitled "Mrs. Dumbly Entertains Motor Visitors", calling forth much laughter and applause, her encore, "The Old Fashioned Girl", being a very daring number with musical accompaniment.

Then followed a one-act play entitled "The Girls", presented by the following cast:—Mrs. I. Went, Mrs. Blake Huycke, Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Fred Moore, Mrs. Percy Vine, Mrs. Katherine Powell, Mrs. Frank Marsh, Mrs. Valkman and Mrs. Albert Reid, and directed by Mrs. Powell, with stage setting and costumes of our Grandmother's Day.

All the parts were exceptionally well taken and created great amusement.

During the play Mrs. Valkman sang "In the Glimming". Mrs. Powell recited "The Old Family Album", and Mrs. Valkman and Mrs. Powell sang the duet, "Sweet and Low".

However, the final chorus "Auld Lang Syne", was quite the most unique musical number given.

The accompanists for the occasion were Miss Beatrice Baughan, Mrs. B. Seymour and Miss Kane. The National Anthem brought a very delightful program to a close.

ERNESTTOWN

We are beginning to have some nice weather now, which is appreciated by all. The farmers are getting anxious to get busy on the land.—Rev. and Mrs. S. P. Dixon, of Bath, took tea on Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thompson.—Mrs. Fred Hamm has returned from Toronto, where she spent a few days.—The April meeting of the Ladies' Aid was held in the Community Hall on Wednesday afternoon, April 17th. It being a very stormy and cold day there were only fourteen members and one visitor present. The meeting was conducted in the usual way, Mrs. Dixon reading the lesson, followed by prayer. Each member responded to the birthday offering freely, each one putting in the birthday box one cent for each year they are old. Mrs. E. Amey passed the box and it was well filled by those present. One new member was enrolled, and she was added to the floral fund. A dainty lunch was then served by the young ladies, which was enjoyed by all present.—Mr. Dixon closed the meeting with prayer. The collections were $6.00. Mrs. Clarence Thompson kindly invited the Aid to her home on May 15th.—Mr. and Mrs. Willie Amey spent Friday with her parents at Morven.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wesse motored to Desoronto on Saturday evening.—Mr. Arch Close spent a few days at Mr. Geo. Spring's.—A number attended the sale in Bath on Friday. — Mrs. Lovica Kellar motored to Toronto on Wednesday, where she intends spending the summer months.—Mr. and Mrs. T. Davison have returned from Belleville, where they spent the winter.—Mr. Don McMillan, of Desoronto, spent a few days at Mr. Willie Wesse's.—Mr. and Mrs. H. Laidley spent Friday in town.—Mr. and Mrs. George Spring Sundayed with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thompson.—Messrs. R. Hunt and N. Wood are sporting new cars.—On Sunday, April 28th, there will be Sunday School in the United Church here at 1.30 p.m. Come and bring the children.

YARKER

The old adage, "A green Xmas means a fat church yard", has proven quite true this last winter. Never for a long while has there been so much sickness and sudden deaths around this part of the community as has been this winter. Here's hoping the weather soon settles. — Wagar and Smith seem to be getting their share of work to do, as they are always busy.—We are sorry to report that Maureen Lee adorned his side while sawing wood for Mell Irish.—The I. O. O. F. held their last euchre and dance for this year last Friday night. All report an exceptionally good time. People came from all distances, even from Belleville, for a pleasant evening, and tell us it was worth the long drive, as they were also shown such hospitality.—Mr. Chas. Amey is suffering from a leaking valve of the heart. All hope for a speedy recovery. —Some of the faster workers of the women folk have their housecleaning finished, while the "slow but sure" are still digging away. But we will all be shining by'e and bye.—Can you imagine anything better than this? Pie, pie, pie galore, doughnuts, sandwiches, etc., and a right good concert in the League Hall, Yarker, on Friday evening, April 26th. Proceeds in aid of the Church Choir. If you don't believe we are going to have a good time and plenty to eat, come and see for yourself. We will be glad to welcome you all.—Many from this vicinity were in Kingston on Sunday last to pay their last respects to the late Dr. Edwards. —Mrs. Archie Gray, Mountain Grove, is visiting her parents here.

C. B. FOX, M.A., DISTINGUISHED GRADUATE OF QUEEN'S

By John Donnelly, M.E.

The high position in the world of metallurgy attained by many graduates of Queen's must be a never-ending source of pride to the University. For me there is a certain personal gratification, in that I had a small share in shaping the careers of some of these men. Among the most notable, possibly, is Charles B. Fox, President of the Aluminum Ore Company of America.

Charlie Fox modestly believes that his only claim to fame on the old Ontario strand rests on the part he took in football. And he was a quarter-back in a thousand. His football prowess, was, however, but an indication of his ability in many lines. He is an unusually complete man. His career should prove an inspiration to many of the boys who come to Queen's.

Like several other football stars of the early nineties—an era that rivalled in fame the early twenties—C. B. Fox was a brilliant student. Like many other graduates who became distinguished he was a gold medallist of the University. A great athlete—even now an amateur golf champion, and holding along with his Presidential duties championship in tennis — a student leader, a notable scholar, he has in the passage of over thirty years become an outstanding industrialist.

Charles B. Fox is a native of Napanee, to which he has retained a material loyalty despite his success in the western states. He came to Queen's from the Napanee Collegiate in 1890, with a prophetic record as captain of the football and the baseball teams, and as first president of the Literary Society—a sort of A.M.S.—of N.C.I.

He remained at Queen's for five years with equal fame on the football field and in the examination hall, graduating M.A. along with Professor W. C. Baker, Rev. Dr. J. R. Fraser, and Dr. Harry Guess of New York, who succeeded Fox as medallist in chemistry.

Professor W. B. Munro, Dean R. W. Brock, Dr. Farrell of Utica, were among his academic rivals. Stewart Rayside, Guy Curtis, Dr. Robert Laird were among his football colleagues. As an undergraduate he was likewise a stalwart among stalwarts.

His football fame was well-deserved. The great record of 1893 won the championship of the O. R. F. U. and of the Dominion. In the game lost to Varsity, when Queen's had already been beaten by twenty points, it was significant that the reason given for the defeat was the wet field, which militated against the vet field, which militated against Fox's celebrated line-plunging and ability to worm his way like a live bullet through the opposing line. In the following year, '94, when the Hamilton Tigers in revenge squeezed a final victory out of Queen's, Fox personally played more brilliantly than ever. "Perfect", the sports writers of the day described his play.

May I speak of my personal relations with him in those days?

I came to know Charlie Fox during the years when I was taking a mining course at the University for the purpose of becoming more conversant with the material with which I was coming into business contact. Several of the senior students helped me clear up many problems. Among those who assisted was Charlie Fox, the last of whose favours was a series of grinds in junior chemistry which enabled me to receive high marks on my examination.

Some months later, in the summer of 1895, I had an opportunity to return this favour in part. I was with a group of directors of the Hamilton Blast Furnace Company inspecting the Glendower Iron mine, about which they requested my opinion. On our return Mr. T. G. Blackstock, K.C., and others of the directors asked me to recommend a chemist for them. I heartily recommended Charles Fox. Fox himself recently wrote me in memory of that occasion, "I shall never forget the winter morning when you called at my boarding house on Spruce Street in Toronto, when I was half way in Toronto, when I was half way through my course at the Normal College in Toronto, and induced me to give up my ambition to teach the young idea how to shoot and turn to iron-mongering."

At that time chemical engineers were rare birds in Canada. Fox, however, after his first interview with the directors was not for taking the salary of $1,000 a year. I finally got him on the phone and forced my opinions on him so strongly that he accepted the job at the princely sum of $1,200 a year. In the first of January following graduation, I installed a laboratory at the Hamilton (Ont.) Blast Furnace Company (afterwards the Hamilton Steel and Iron Co.) of Hamilton, Ontario." He was now launched on his career.

He advanced regularly but rapidly to be chief chemist and superintendent. By 1901, only six years after graduation, he had become general superintendent of the Hamilton works of the Steel and Iron Co. These were the struggling days of Canada's steel industry.

In 1905 he wanted to get experience in the large field of metallurgy, and as the Pittsburgh Reduction Company, the leading producer of aluminum, seemed to offer the best opportunity, I introduced Charles Fox to Mr. Louis, wanted a good manager. Charles Fox to Mr. Louis, wanted a good manager. Charles Fox to Mr. Louis, wanted a good manager.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

C. C. B. reports that as he entered the hall the other evening his five-year-old son came tearfully down the stairs from a painful session with mummy. Seeing B. he said, "Daddy, when you get married again, I hope you don't marry mother."

Long Standing Asthma. Many have suffered so long from asthma and have tried so many so-called remedies they think there is no real help for them. They should read the letters received by the manufacturers of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy from hundreds of cases once as desperate as their own. Even in long-neglected cases this famous preparation brings prompt help.

Cashier—"So you are going to marry George at last. What is he like?"

Bookkeeper—"He is the most upright, high-minded, honorable fellow in the world."

Cashier—"Goodness, you'll starve to death!"

Certain morbid conditions must exist in the stomach and intestines to encourage worms and they will exist as long as these morbid conditions permit them to. To be rid of them and spare the child suffering use Miller's Worm Powders. They will correct the digestive irregularities by destroying the worms. Conditions favorable to worms will disappear, and the child will have no more suffering from that cause.

Tourist (at village shop)—"I want to buy a toothbrush."

Shopkeeper—"Sorry, sir, but our line of summer novelties ain't in yet."

Corns disappear when treated with Holloway's Corn Remover without leaving a scar.

Teacher—"Use 'despair' in a sentence."

Grade Five—"If a tire blows out, put on de spare."

Feevish, pale, restless, and sickly children owe their condition to worms. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator will relieve them and restore health.

As the benevolent visitor went the rounds of the prison she confronted a man who looked the picture of loneliness.

"Do your friends ever come to visit you?" she asked.

"No, ma'am," replied the convict. "They're staying here, too."

Cuts and Bruises Disappear—When suffering from cuts, scratches, bruises, sprains, sore throat or chest any any similar ailment, use Dr. Thomas Eclectric Oil. Its healing power is well-known in every section of the community. A bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil should be in every medicine chest ready for the emergencies that may always be anticipated.

"Are you guilty or not, guilty?"

"I don't quite see," said the prisoner, "why I should express an opinion and try to interfere with the jury's guessing contest."

It Will Relieve a Cold.—Colds are the commonest ailments of mankind and if neglected may lead to serious conditions. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil will relieve the bronchial passages of inflammation speedily and thoroughly and will strengthen them against subsequent attack. And as it eases the inflammation it will usually stop the cough because it allays the irritation in the throat. Try it and prove it.

After challenging juryman after juryman, who had to leave the box, the prisoner leant over to his solicitor and whispered, "The jury's all right now, I think. I must challenge the judge. I've been convicted under him several times already, and maybe he's beginning to have a prejudice."

Puts An End To Bunion Pains

No Need to Suffer Another Day

There is one simple yet inexpensive way to reduce inflammation of swollen toe joints and help get them down to normal and that is to apply Moone's Emerald Oil night and morning.

Ask Wallace's Drug Store or any first class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces lasts a long time and furthermore if one bottle of Emerald Oil does not give you complete satisfaction you can have your money refunded.

Special note: People who want to reduce swollen or varicose veins should get a bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil at once. Applied night and morning as directed they will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.

OBITUARY

Mrs. I. S. Jackson.

In the early morn of the 4th day of April, 1929, in her eightieth year, there passed to her reward M. J. Booth, loved wife of I. S. Jackson, and daughter of the late Wm. Booth, who emigrated from Ireland in the early forties of the last century and settled near the Village of Roblin, in early days known as Spencer's Mills, where the subject of this sketch was born. Early converted to God in a revival held under the administration of the late J. T. Clark of the old M. E. church. She lived her whole life in the Township of Richmond, a truly exemplary Christian life, one truly devoted to her Saviour. While not caring for too great an activity in too many church organizations her religion was a profound and lasting one, of all the essentials of a Christ-like life. Her home and duty thereof were her palace. She was always ready to help those in need and it was her delight to live a quiet unpretentious exemplary Christian life, fully resigned when the end came. She leaves to mourn, her husband and two daughters, Mrs. T. J. Russell and Mrs. Wilbert Winter, both of Empey Hill, and two sons, Gardiner Wilson, near Selby, and Wm. Edwin, on the homestead. May she rest in peace.

CAMDEN EAST W. M. S.

The April meeting of Camden East W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. L. D. Williams, on Wednesday afternoon, April 17th. With the President in the chair the meeting was opened by singing "Stand Up! Stand Up for Jesus", followed by prayer by Mrs. Sherlock. Scripture lesson was repeated in unison by the members, namely "The Shepherd's Psalm".

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Roll call was responded to by thirteen members. A few matters of business were discussed. "Cast Thy Bread Upon the Waters" was very feelingly sung by members. The 3rd chapter of our Study Book, "Drums in the Darkness", was taken by Mrs. Perry Alkenbrack, which proved interesting to all.

Collection was taken, amounting to $1.60. Hymn, "Into a Tent Where a Gypsy Boy Lay", followed by prayer by Mrs. Robt. Lewis closed the meeting. Mrs. George Black assisted the hostess in serving delicious refreshments, and a social half hour was spent. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Sherlock's, on May 8th.

Address and Presentation

On Friday evening of April 12th, 1929, about fifty friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Scott to bid them farewell before leaving for their new home in Brantford, and presented them with a purse of money. Following is the address:—

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Scott and Family.—We, your friends and neighbours, have gathered here this evening to show our regret at your anticipated departure from our midst. It was with deep thoughts that we heard of your intended removal from our vicinity. You have been with us for a number of years and it is now when we gather to say farewell, although your vacancy will probably be filled in one respect, whosoever the newcomers may be, their influence will never make up for you whom we are losing.

We hope this has been of some knowledge of our regret at seeing you leaving our locality, and we earnestly entreat you that you leave us with the heartiest wishes that in your future home wherever it may be, prosperity and a host of friends may be yours.

Now we ask you to accept this sum of money as a small token of remembrance from your friends and neighbours.

Mrs. Ernest Bradshaw
Mr. Jack McGiffin.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott and family wish to thank their friends and neighbours for their kindness.

HARDINESS OF RED CLOVER

Red clover undoubtedly one of the best hay crops particularly for the dairy farmer and the sheep raiser, varies greatly in hardiness according to the climate in which the seed is produced. At a conference in Denmark a few years ago experimental evidence was produced which proved that red clover seed from southern climates was undesirable in Northern Europe due to lack of winter hardiness. As a consequence the countries concerned restricted the importation of southern grown clover seed. To secure light in this subject for Canada, the Experimental Farms Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa has for five years been testing side by side seed secured from different countries. The plants were grown under control in rows at definite distances apart and the following spring a record was made of the living plants remaining. Commencing with seed from five sources in 1923, the number has been increased from year to year until in 1927 seed from twenty-five sources was grown. Of these Canadian grown seed suffered the least amounting to an average of 12.81 per cent covering the five years. Plants from Swedish seed came next in hardiness with a loss of 20.08 per cent. followed by the United States with 20.75 and Czecho-slovakia with 21.25, with losses increasing up to even one hundred per cent with seed produced in Australia. Some years ago Italian seed was commonly imported in this country. In these tests 58.52 per cent of the plants suffered winter killing. The hardiness test was conducted by the Forage Plants Division of the Experimental Farms and is fully dealt with in the Report of that Division for 1927, published by the Department. In this it is shown that French red clover seed winter killed to the extent of 45.63 per cent. Seed from Great Britain went down to the extent of a little more than 36 per cent. On the whole it is shown that Canadian seed produced much the best results.

The Department of Agriculture recognizing the non-hardiness of southern grown seed have enacted legislation under The Seeds Act whereby all Italian mixed seed of clover seed of such origin must contain a percentage of seed stained red. Seed from other parts of Europe must contain a percentage stained green, that from the United States, navy blue, while Canadian seed goes on the market unstained.

TYENDINAGA EAST

The Women's Institute of Tyendinaga East held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Whittington, on April 24th. Sixteen members were present, and also several visitors. The meeting opened in the usual manner and the roll call was answered by the paying of the fees. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Several letters were read, including a letter from the Secretary of Roslin Women's Institute, offering their sincerest congratulations to the ladies of Tyendinaga Woman's Institute, and wishing them all success in their future work. The ladies of the Institute appreciate a letter of this kind very much, and will always endeavour to keep in mind the motto, "For Home and Country". Several business items were discussed, and on motion it was decided to accept the District President's offer to visit us at our May meeting. A number of suggestions were sent by other Institutes as to ways and means of raising funds. After a short business discussion the members were entertained by a short programme. A reading was given by Mrs. Robert Tucker, "Remember Yet Have Children of Your Own" which was enjoyed by all. Two very interesting papers were given—Mrs. A. Waddingham on Current Events, and Mrs. W. Hodgins on a paper on "Flower Culture". After a few remarks from the President, a very nice lunch was served by Mrs. M. Husband, Mrs. Howe, Mrs. Haggerty, Mrs. Robt. McFarlane. Coffee was served by the hostess, Mrs. Whittington. A very social half hour was spent. The next meeting will be held on May 16th, at the home of Mrs. C. Alex. Meeting closed with The National Anthem.

MADE BY THE MAKERS OF THE FAMOUS 'ELEPHANT BRAND' WHITE LEAD

"The Island of the Stairs"

BY CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY

Pimball Had a White Neck Cloth Tied to the Muzzle of His Gun.

trusted me apparently as little as I trusted him, stood the wretch, Pimball. Back of him, beneath the trees, I distinguished Gilbby and a number of the crew, nearly all of them, I should judge, and back of these were massed the savages. Pimball had a white neck cloth tied to the muzzle of his gun.

"Say what you have to say and be quick about it," I said, but he looked past me and took off his hat with a profound sweep.

"Good morning, Mistress Wilberforce," he cried.

I turned in a hurry and found that she had stepped out by my side. The two of us presented a fair mark for any weapon. One might have escaped, but hardly two.

"Get back," I cried harshly.

"I stay where you are," she answered firmly. "See, I too am armed." Her little hand lifted a heavy pistol.

"I can talk with the two of you just as well as with one," said Pimball.

"Talk on and be brief," I returned, seeing that there was no use arguing with my little mistress.

"You have found the treasure," he began; "there is no use denying it. We have it from our savage friends that the things are there. In years gone by they sacrificed here and on the cone yonder; but for generations the island has been taboo. The white man has broken the ban and we are here to take the treasure."

"Indeed!" said I sarcastically, where at he turned pale with anger but still mastered himself.

"We offer you," he continued, "safety. We cannot take you with us, but we will leave you here on the island after we have taken the treasure, and," his eyes turned from me to my companion, "if you are willing to give up the woman I will enroll you with our following and we will all get away together on the Rose of Devon."

"What of the ship?" I asked.

It was a hard thing to control my temper, but I wanted the information.

"She was badly stove up but not entirely wrecked. We fought the savages, conquered them, made them our friends. We can get away in her and you can navigate her, or we can do without you for that matter and make shift to get back to the South American coast at least."

"So you offer me free passage and my share of the treasure if I will give up Mistress Wilberforce, do you?"

"That is it," answered Pimball. "Eh, mates?" whereat a deep chorus of approval came from Gilbby and the men.

"And this is my answer," I said furiously, leveling my pistol at him. "Get back, you villain, or you will have looked your last on life."

"But the flag of truce?" he cried, dropping his weapon.

"It is not meant to cover such propositions as yours. As for the treasure you shall have it when you can get it."

As I spoke he sprang behind the tree and motioned to his men to fire, but I was too quick for him, and we were safely within the cave when the sound of the reports came to us.

"Now what is to be done?" said my little mistress.

"The next move," I answered, "is with them."

"Shall we go further back into the cave?"

"No," I replied. "We will stay here for the present."

We were not long left in suspense, for I could hear them breaking through the woods and rushing toward the opening. Missiles in the way of weapons there were none in the cave, but I picked up a skull that lay on the floor and hurled it out of the opening into the unseen crowd below. A shriek told me that I had hit some one, but I was at once that the game was one I could not play. The white men had some skill at warfare. They had posted covering parties to protect the workmen. I crept cautiously toward the entrance, where I could see them working hard, piling up the stones to enable them to get at us, while back of them stood others with drawn bows and presented weapons.

I didn't come off unscathed, for as I sprang back after having thrown another skull and taken my loot an arrow bit me in the fleshy part of the arm. My mistress noticed it instantly. The stone head had broken off, and it was the work of an instant to draw out the slender wood shaft. It was not a bad wound, but it was painful. The next thing she did amazed me beyond measure, for before I could prevent it she had put her lips to the wound.

"What mean you?" I cried, when I could recover myself.

"It might have been poisoned," she said, quietly looking at me with luminous eyes, "and I cannot have you die."

I was amazed, astounded—even, at her hardihood in sucking any possible poison out of that wound in my arm at so great a risk to her own life, if the weapon had been envenomed. And I was most profoundly touched too. But I had had my lesson. I viewed it as done out of common humanity and to preserve a life useful to her—nothing more. Meanwhile, in my turn, I took such hasty precautions for her safety as I could. I bade her rinse out her mouth thoroughly with cold water and then with the strong spirit of which I still had in my flask.

CHAPTER XVI.

In Which We Fight For Life In the Cave of the Treasure.

WE had withdrawn by this time to the back of the outer cave. Indeed, that was the only safe place for us, for a constant succession of weapons was thrown through the opening. We needed no further warning to keep out of reach. Master Pimball was showing himself something of a general. He was keeping us away from the entrance, and with the great host of men at his command he was building up the broken down heap of stones which would presently enable them to come to us.

I considered what was to be done. I had four loaded pistols and, therefore, four lives in my hand. No man could show his head in that entrance without receiving a shot. After that I could account for a few more, perhaps, with sword, ax or naked fist, but in the end they would inevitably master me. Unfortunately, the entrance was broad enough for three or four, or even more, to enter abreast.

Should I open the battle there or retreat into the inner cave and wait? was the question that had to be decided.

Perhaps the latter would be the safer plan, but I had a strange unwillingness to adopt it. It would be like burying ourselves, for once within we should never get out alive, except as prisoners, so long as they had the outer cave. And I could never dislodge them from it. There was not much more chance of getting out alive from the outer cave, for that matter, but still it seemed so. We could at least see the sky and the sunlight. Should we stay there or go further into the wall?

I decided upon the former course. I explained to my mistress that I would keep the outer cave as long as I could, begging her to retreat to the inner chamber. She demurred at first, but when I spoke to her pretemptorily at last—God forgive me—she acceded to my request humbly enough. I thrust the best pistol into her hand and told her to reserve it for herself in case her capture was inevitable, but not to pull the trigger until the last moment; and I promised her faithfully that I would not foolishly or uselessly jeopardize myself, but that after I had made what fight I could I would join her, if it were in any way possible.

She hung in the wind awhile, seeming loath to go when all had been said between us. Finally she approached me, laid her hand on my arm, and looked up at me.

"Master Hampdon," she said softly, "here we be, a lone man and woman among these savages and murderers with but little choice for our lives, I take it. I am sorry that I struck you on the ship, and—you may—kiss me goodby."

With that she proffered me her lips. I could face a thousand savages, a hundred Pimballs, without a quiver of the nerves, but at these words and that proffer my knees fairly smote together before this small woman. I stood staring down at her.

"You were overeager once to take from me what I now offer you willingly," she said, half turning away.

With that I caught her to me and once again I drank the sweetness of her line. I forgot the savages outside, the spears, the arrows streaming through the entrance. I held her in my arms and without resistance. I could have held her there forever, quite willing to die in such sweet embrace. She pushed me from her at last and I could swear that my kisses had been returned, and then with a whispered blessing she dropped to her knees and crawled within the cave.

I could have fought the world thereafter, for her kisses intoxicated me like wine. Yet even then I did not delude myself. I knew that on her part at least, it was a farewell kiss, such as two friends might give each other in the face of death. To her the pursuit of my life had only been as the salute of an ancient gladiator about to die was to the Cæsar who watched the struggle. Well, I blessed her even for that condescension.

With a pistol in each hand and the third upon a rock close at hand I waited. I had not long to wait. There was a sudden fierce rain of arrows and spears, some of which struck at my feet or by my side. I gathered up a sheaf of them and laid them with the pistol on the rock.

The next instant two tremendous savages and a white man appeared in the opening. The shot was easy, the target fine. I couldn't miss. The first bullet went into the brain of Master Gilbby, the next tore off the head of the leading chief. Reserving the third pistol, I seized a spear and drove it through the throat of the other savage.

ANNIVERSARY SALE

Means Great Days of Celebration ---- Friday and Saturday

In passing our first milestone as a unit of the T. Eaton Co., Ltd., we offer our warmest thanks to the citizens of Napanee and vicinity, for the patronage accorded us during the past year. Within that time, we have aimed to make the store surroundings as attractive to you as the values offered within them. We have made many pleasant associations. We have learned many things. It is those things which we have learned that shall guide our steps in the coming year to provide even better service—greater values—incomparable savings. And always, we shall live up to the slogan which is so closely linked with the Eaton service of goods at rock bottom prices—"Goods Satisfactory or Money Refunded".

We thank you for the past and in the present express our thanks in more tangible form. For our Birthday celebration we have gathered together a noteworthy collection of special values—purchased with the Anniversary in mind and marked to provide an extra measure of value-giving which the celebration of the event justifies. Come early in the morning—shop early and often—and save liberally on this happy occasion.

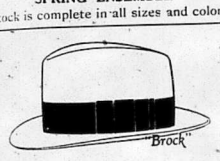
Well Dressed MenWear Collar-to-Match Shirts

The better dressed men realize that the Shirt and Collar is an important aid to style. If you wear a tweed or pattern suit you should wear a Shirt to blend with it, and, of course, the Collar will match the Shirt.

Plain Shades in Pastel Colorings, Blended Stripes, and Plain Grounds, with wide contrasting stripes, are now the correct mode.

BUY ONE TO TONE UP YOUR SPRING ENSEMBLE

Our stock is complete in all sizes and colorings.

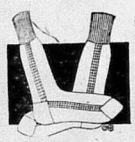


Brock Hats

To Tone with Your Suit or Coat

The newer Hats are narrower in the brim and higher in the crown. The old Fedora shape has given way to Hats with flatter brims. The new styles take ten years off your age. You'd better buy one. We are Sole Agents for the well known Brock Hat.

Ensemble Ties and Sox



A Tie in strong plain colors is needed for some of the new Shirts. Pastel shades are used for the darker colored Shirts.

If you don't wear a vest, a contrasting border end Tie would be very nice.

Our range is very large and varied.

GOOD IN EVERY WAY

Baby's Own Tablets Banish Babyhood and Childhood Ailments.

A medicine that all mothers praise—one good in every way — one that will quickly banish the minor ills of babyhood and childhood is the medicine to keep in the medicine chest, to have on hand in case of emergency. Such a medicine is Baby's Own Tablets—they are helpful at all times. They are a mild but thorough laxative which by regulating the bowels and stomach banish colds and simple fevers; correct constipation and indigestion; relieve colic and diarrhoea and make the cutting of teeth easy.

Thousands of mothers use no other medicine for their little ones. Among them is Mrs. J. H. Bromley, Westmeath, Ont., who writes:—"I have four children and whenever any of them are ill I always use Baby's Own Tablets and have found them good in every way. I would not, be without the Tablets and would also like your little booklet 'Care of the Baby in Health and Sickness.'"

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"The Island of the Stairs"

I shouted with triumph, and Mistress Lucy has since confessed to me that, kneeling down and peering through the opening, contrary to my explicit order, which was for her to seek safe cover, she saw all, and that my call of victory was the sweetest sound she had ever heard in her life.

I thought we had done, but they were an indomitable lot those south sea islanders, and they were well urged. Four others took their places at once, spears in hand, which they threw at me. I jumped aside with difficulty and let fly the third pistol. They came crowding this time, and the bullet from the heavy weapon accounted for two others, but the survivors had gained a footing and the shelf behind them was suddenly filled with lifting heads and climbing men. I clubbed my weapons and buried them one after another, fair and square into the mass. One went down with a broken skull. The rush was checked; they gave a little. I cast spears at them and arrows, but now the shield men had come up, and they caught the missiles on their shields. The front rank wavered, and perhaps, if they had been unsupported, they might have been driven below, but the crowd behind would not let them. Slowly they began to move toward me.

I doubt not I was a terrible figure, for I had whipped out my cutlass by this time and stood at bay. I had forgotten for the moment all else but the lust of the conflict, and in another second I had flung myself upon them in fury. It was my mistress who recalled me to myself.

"Save yourself!" she shrieked. "They are upon you. Come hither!"

With that I dropped to my knees and made a spring for the opening. I had waited too long. The leading man would have pinned me to the earth with his spear. The entrance was wide, fortunately, and Mistress Lucy could see through the part I did not block with my huge bulk. Disregarding entirely my instructions, she fired the last pistol at the nearest man. He went down like a ninepin, both legs broken, which gave me time to gain the inner chamber and stand upright. I was bleeding, for I had been cut here and there, but was otherwise all right.

"That shot saved my life!" I cried, panting. "You should have kept it for yourself."

"I can find means to die," she answered. "If naught else, by your sword blade."

"Good," I exclaimed, proud of her prowess and her resolution.

They gave us no time for further speech, for, urged by what promises of reward, what passionate hatred, I knew not, they came on. The narrow entrance was suddenly block with the islanders, who thrust their spears at us. Fortunately, my mistress had moved aside and was out of range, but I was perilously near being cut down. Mistress Lucy had the sword which I had thrust into her hand, and I the great ax which I had cast into the inner cave ahead of me.

Those outside were given less able to see than we, and perhaps they thought we had withdrawn or been driven back, for they crept forward. While I had lived in the gardener's lodge of Wilberforce castle I had got to be quite an axman. I brought down the heavy weapon on the first head, striking with just enough force to kill the man and yet leave me able to recover myself without delay, and when three heads had been knocked that way in rapid succession with no more damage to me than a trifling spear cut on the ankle, the battle stopped for a moment. I laughed.

She Fired the Last Pistol at the Nearest Man.

"Come on, you dogs!" I shouted. "I can play at that game until you are more tired of it than I."

I spoke without thought, however, for those outside the opening drew back the bodies by their legs and thus cleared the entrance. I judged that the outer cave, which was large and spacious, was now filled with men. They were shouting and gesticulating in great excitement. But none made any effort to enter. Finally I heard a human voice speaking English. It was Pimball.

"Master Hampdon!" he cried.

"Speak not to me, you murdering villain!" I answered.

"Now, this is madness," he went on. "You are trapped like rats. We have only to wish us the pleasure of your company and we can starve you out. Better a fire in front of it and you will die."

"It is better to die even so," I replied, "than to live with men like you."

"You are a fool!" he exclaimed.

He dropped down on his knees as he spoke, and I could see his face in the opening, but too far away for me to swing my ax. If it were my last effort I was determined that I would get him, and so I waited.

"Don't lose the sword!" I cried to my lady across the chamber, where her white face stared at me out of the dimness.

"I shall not," she answered undauntedly.

Then I lifted the ax and waited for Master Pimball and his men to come on. But he had a better plan. Bullets and powder they had in plenty, and he knew from the fact that I had thrown my pistols at them that I had none left. With a deafening roar a storm of bullets from a dozen weapons swept into the cave. I leaped back. I had to or I should have been shot where I stood. Of the way thus opened they took advantage, and under cover of a second volley they entered. Well, it was all up. All I could do was to leap upon them as they rose, and—

But at that moment the solid rock beneath my feet began to sway. It was as if I had been instantly translated to the deck of a tossing ship. I stood rooted to the spot trying to maintain a balance. Pimball had lifted himself upon one knee and was almost clear of the entrance, but he, too, stopped appalled. A sickening feeling of apprehension that all the savages on earth could not inspire came over me. My mistress screamed faintly. The natives outside broke into terror stricken shouts and cries; on oath burst from the lips of the leader of the sentinels.

The next moment, with a crash like a thousand thunder peals, the earth was rent in twain.

The earthquake shook that rocky island like a baby's cradle. A great mass of rock over the entrance fell. With another roar like the first the cliff was riven in every direction. The noise outside eased. The men with Pimball were ground to death. Upon his legs lay fifty feet of broken rock. Darkness, total and absolute, succeeded the dim light. I remember realizing that the attack had failed and then something struck me. Down upon the wet, still quivering sand I fell and knew no more.

Water, icy cold, trickling upon me from some spring, opened in the wall by the earthquake presently brought me to myself. I lay for a moment listening. I could hear nothing at first, but in a little while a deep groan and then a faint whispered prayer came to me.

I strove desperately to collect my senses, and finally I realized where I was—the cave, the battle, the earthquake, Pimball and the woman!

"Mistress Lucy!" I cried.

"Oh, thank God!" her voice came through the darkness hysterically. "I thought you were killed."

"No," I answered, slowly rising to my knee and stretching my members to see if I had control of them, which, fortunately, I soon discovered I had. "I was stunned but otherwise I believe I am not much hurt. How is it with you?"

"I am well and unharmed."

"Thank God!"

"For heaven's sake, water," interrupted a trembling hoarse, anguished voice.

"Who speaks?" I asked.

"I, Pimball. I am pinned to the ground, my legs are crushed, my back is broken. I am dying."

"There should be a lantern here," I said. "I placed it—let me think—where did I place it?"

"It was just to the left of the opening," answered my little mistress.

I was turned around and giddy, but I managed to fix the direction of the entrance by Pimball's groans and by good fortune presently found the lantern. It would burn but a few hours, but we never needed a light as we did then. My flint and steel I carried ever in my pocket, and to kindle a flickering flame was but the work of a moment. If I had not possessed it I would have given years of my life for that light which threw a faint illumination about the place.

There, opposite me, where I had stationed her, protected by a niche in the cave from the rain of rocks which had beaten me down, was my mistress, safe and unharmed. I stepped toward her and with a low cry of thankfulness she fell into my arms. I soothed her for a moment and then turned to the other occupant of the chamber. The entrance was blocked up, the rock had settled down. Pimball's legs were broken and his back as well. It was impossible to release him—what lay upon him weighed tons and tons.

"You murdering hound!" I cried, "you have brought this upon us." But he would only plead for water, disregarding my reproaches.

I was for killing him with my cutlass, which I picked up, but she would not have it so. She filled a half cocoanut shell with water and brought it to him. She bathed his brow and gave him some to drink. It gave him temporary relief, but his minutes were numbered. His life was going out by seconds.

"God!" he cried as his eyes caught the gleam of the gold and silver; "the treasure!" He stretched out his hand toward it and then stopped. "I am undone," he choked out with a fearful scream. "Mistress!"

"Yes?"

"Forgive"—

Indeed, she forgave him, I make no doubt, but her forgiveness came too late, for his head drooped—he had been looking sideways—and his face buried itself in the wet sand.

"Is he dead?" she asked, awestruck.

I nodded. No closer inspection was needed to establish the truth of that fact.

"And we, too, shall die," she said, shuddering. "We are buried here in the bowels of the earth in this treasure house prison."

Says Ontario Man of Dodd's Kidney Pills

Mr. M. Hay Suffered With Acute Pains in His Back

Stratford, Ont., April 30th, (Special)—"About four years ago I suffered with acute pains in my back," writes Mr. M. Hay, 71 Front St., Stratford, Ont. "Dodd's Kidney Pills were recommended to me by a friend. I bought a box and found great relief from that day on I have never been without them."

Dodd's Kidney Pills purify the blood, and pure blood carried to all parts of the body means new health and increased energy all over the body. Dodd's Kidney Pills are an excellent tonic, and now is the opportune time to take them. During the long, weary winter months the system becomes weakened and gets in a run-down condition. Dodd's Kidney Pills work with Nature by encouraging and assisting the kidneys—to cast out everything impure or diseased.

Dodd's Kidney Pills can be obtained from Druggists everywhere, or The Dodds' Medicine Co., Ltd., Toronto 2, Ont.

CANADIAN GARDENING SERVICE

SPINACH AND LETTUCE

Spinach and lettuce are so easily grown, come in such a range of varieties, and are so indispensable from the health standpoint, that they should have a place in every garden. There is no difficulty in growing them to perfection in any place in Canada. But there is a great difference in the way those things turn out sometimes, and disappointment can always be traced to lack of care. They must be planted early in the season and they must be grown quickly without a check. There are three types of lettuce, the leafy sort which is the most easily grown in the winter, the head lettuce which takes a little more care to grow carefully and which is regarded as a medium sort, and the Cos lettuce, which can be grown successfully during the hot weather. All should be planted in fine, warm soil in an open position, must be thinned well, and must be cultivated frequently. The leaf lettuce should be thinned to about two inches apart, and the first thinnings can be used on the table. Head lettuce requires about eight inches each way for full development, while about six inches is sufficient for the Cos type. The latter, which is not very well known, is a most excellent salad material for late summer when the other lettuce is inclined to become bitter. The heads of this should be tied up loosely with a piece of elastic or soft twine and they will bleach out to an attractive whitish color. With lettuce and with spinach, a quick acting fertilizer, like nitrate of soda, is indispensable to hurry growth along and keep the crop tender, side-dressings of this fertilizer are advisable. Spinach can be sown early, as a light frost will not hurt it, and it requires a well pulverized rich soil and cool conditions. Some of the newer Danish or the New Zealand are best. Plants should be thinned to about five inches apart, and the foliage of the everlasting type, which incidentally is not of as high quality as the best of the others, may be cut several times and will grow again.

MULCH SAVES LABOR

Where the garden is very large and it is worth while to effect a saving in hand labor, or where one is going to be away a good deal of the time, a practical plan is to mulch between the rows of vegetables or clumps of flowers with straw. Vegetables, particularly those which yield fruits lying on or close to the ground, will be much cleaner when grown this way. Straw, lawn clippings, or leaves are spread over the earth to a depth of between four and six inches after the plants are well grown. This mulch will keep down weeds and will conserve moisture. When one is going away for two or three weeks in the middle of a hot summer, spreading the lawn clippings over the earth in the garden like this is particularly advisable in order to conserve moisture and prevent the plants from becoming stunted. With those plants which will not permit deep cultivation on account of spreading roots close to the surface, mulching is also valuable.

TRANSPLANTING IS NECESSARY

To get stout, vigorous plants, one must move them around at least once, or, better still, twice, before they are transferred to their permanent quarters outside. This rule applies to almost flowers and vegetables started indoors, such as zinnias, marigolds, asters, petunias and cosmos, among the flowers, and tomatoes, cauliflower, cabbage, head lettuce, of the vegetables. It does not apply to those things like corn, melons and sweet peas, plants which ordinarily are not grown inside, as these should be disturbed as little as possible. With the others, however, transplanting develops a sturdy root-growth, prevents long spindly, weak stems, and gives the young plants a better chance to develop than if left crowded in the original box. In transplanting should be done in a dull place, and the new beds well wa ed after moving is complete. Keep full sun away for a couple of days. Before moving outside, gradually harden off by having sheltering window raised for some days before moving. A pinch of nitrate of soda at this time will help the plants get quickly established.

TAKE A CHANCE

Vegetable seeds cost but a few cents. It is a good plan to plant a few rows of the hardy varieties, such as spinach, radish, lettuce, carrots and beets as soon as possible. If they come through, a considerable gain has been secured in earliness; if frost cuts them down, the loss is really trivial.

GOLDEN JUBILEE

Argyll Lodge, No. 212, I.O.O.F. Will Celebrate Fiftieth Anniversary on Wednesday, June 5th

It will undoubtedly be very interesting to the members of the Independent Order of Oddfellows not only in the district but to members residing in many parts of Canada and the United States to learn that the golden jubilee of Argyll Lodge No. 212 is to be fittingly commemorated this summer; the date, Wednesday, June 5th, having been finally decided upon by the general committee consisting of Mr. Wilfred Wilson, chairman; Mr. C. N. Loucks, treasurer; Mr. R. S. Wales, secretary; Mr. E. L. Deline, Noble Grand.

At the meeting of the General Committee held recently the chairman for each sub-committee was selected, consisting of the following Brethren :—

Sports, Ex-Mayor E. J. Roy; Parade, W. H. Roe; Music, James Douglas; Booth, Roy Moore; Refreshments, Andrew Kitchen; Publicity, *B. M. Black.

Details.

The details of the celebration are being carefully worked out by the committees, and it goes without saying that Wednesday, June 5th, will be a memorable day for Oddfellowship in this district.

The history of this well known lodge is an interesting one and to hundreds of people in Napanee and the Bay of Quinte district will vividly bring back to memory, many members of the Order, who during their lifetime did much to promote the success of this lodge and who have now passed on to join the Grand Lodge above.

Prior to 1878 there was only one Oddfellows' Lodge in Napanee, it being Napanee Lodge No. 86, which still is a potent factor for Oddfellowship in this district. In the early fall of 1878 a number of Brethren desiring to institute another lodge in Napanee gave the matter serious consideration and applied to the Grand Lodge of Ontario for a dispensation to institute a new lodge. The dispensation was granted, and on Oct. 18th, 1878, the first meeting was held over the Huffman Drug Store, which is now occupied by the Daly Tea Co.

Installing Team

The installing team on that occasion was D.D.G.M., Thos. C. Carson, Picton; G. Warden, W. H. Hosey, Napanee; G. Marshall, W. S. Judon, Kingston; G. Secretary, A. A. Richardson, Mill Point; G. Financial Secretary, A. Davidson, Picton; G. Chaplin, William Patterson, Mill Point; G. Inner Guardian, John Silor, Mill Point; G. Outside Guardian, Geo. Hancock, Mill Point.

Declared Lodge Open.

The Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ontario, Bro. J. T. Horni brook, was present and declared the lodge open for installation. The Grand Secretary read the dispensation authorizing the brothers whose names appeared thereon to start a lodge to be named Lorne No. 212. The following brethren were then nominated for the elective offices: Noble Grand, A. C. Osborne; Vice-Grand, R. J. Wales; Recording Secretary, Charles James; Financial Secretary, Wilburn Anderson; Treasurer, Donald McLever.

The above brethren were balloted for and all declared duly elected. The Noble Grand-elect then appointed the following brethren to the non-elective offices :—

Warden, John E. Clark; Conductor, George Peran; I. Guard, E. S. Lapum; O. Guard, R. B. Clark; R.S.N.G., W. J. Crouch; L.S.N.G., Robert Mathewson; R.S.V.G., Walter S. Williams; L.S.V.G., W. F. Sanford.

The lodge then formed continued under dispensation until May 13th, 1879, when the charter was officially granted by the Grand Lodge, the Grand Master being present on this auspicious occasion. At the institution of the lodge on October 18th, 1878, the following applications for membership were received, and all have passed on to join the great company of Oddfellows above :—

Robert Martin, John Carson, A. S. Ashley, Richard W. Bennett, Wilder Joy, James Armstrong, Roblin S. Wagar, Foster Ham, J. J. Perkin, W. C. Scott, L. W. Perry, James Carscallen, Robert A. Wees, Henry Ham, Walter Scott Jackson, Allan C. Embury, Wm. R. Moore, Wm. Robinson, David Ash; James W. Fralick, H. V. Fralick, J. M. Jeroy, Uriah Tobey, Wm. Grange, John Lowry, George Cliff.

The Lodge by an unanimous vote fixed the fees as follows :—

Initiation—Under 30 years, $5.00; over 30 and under 40 years, $6.00; over 40 and under 50 years, $7.50.

Grand Master.

The Grand Master in his address informed the Lodge that "Lorne" was the name of another Lodge in Ontario and requested that another name be selected, the lodge adopting the name "Princess Louise".

During the early part of the year of 1879 the name of the Lodge was again changed to that of Argyll Lodge, which name has remained to this day. The charter which for nearly 50 years has adorned the Lodge Room, has neatly written on it the following charter members :—A. C. Osborne, R. J. Wales, Charles James, Wilburn Anderson, Donald McLever, George Perrin, R. Mathewson, W. F. Sanford, W. S. Williams, R. B. Clarke, John G. Clarke, Wm. Crouch, E. S. Lapum.

Grew Quickly.

Shortly after the institution of the Lodge, in the course of three or four weeks, eighteen were initiated into the secrets and mysteries of Oddfellowship and thus from a small but auspicious beginning, the years have passed on and the old guard who not only instituted but practised Oddfellowship, have passed away.

Argyll Lodge to-day is one of the shining lights of Oddfellowship in this district and prosperity and success is written on every page of her history.

For nearly half a century the home of the Lodge has been in the building on Dundas street which is now owned by the Bank of Montreal. The furniture, furnishings and regalia were of course, not as resplendant as prevails to-day, the rooms being beautifully furnished at present and the regalia befitting the institution.

Changes in Room.

In the year 1901 elaborate changes were made in the Lodge Room and nearly $2,700.00 was spent in papering, painting and redecorating the room, the emblems of the Order being artistically painted by Mr. E. E. Richardson, formerly of Napanee, now of Belleville.

A few years later at an expense of nearly one thousand dollars, a new hardwood floor was laid in the Assembly Hall, a kitchen built and completely furnished, and three electric plates installed. The club room was also redecorated so that to-day the home of Argyll Lodge is one to admire.

Many Initiations.

In the past fifty years there have been 616 initiations and admissions by transfer, the largest number of initiations on a single night in recent years being ten, this taking place on October 9th, 1924.

Another note-worthy fact in the history of the lodge is that there has never been a lodge night during the fifty years but the lodge has opened for regular business.

The membership of the Lodge today is about 220, many residing in all parts of Canada as well as the United States. There are quite a number who have been continuous members for twenty-five years or more and several who are nearing the half century mark, the latter being Samuel Wilson, of Toronto, and John Wilson, of Napanee, initiated June 17th, 1880, and Lester A. Scott, Napanee, initiated August 19th, 1880.

Finances Good.

During the past fifty years thousands and thousands of dollars have been collected from initiations and dues and although there have been generous contributions made through sick and funeral benefits, the Oddfellows Home donations, Grand Lodge fee and current expenses, the finances are such that every member may well take pride. Since Oddfellowship was formed in Napanee, other branches of the Order have come into being, such as the Encampment Branch which has a good membership and is doing good work, and the Rebekah branch which was instituted in 1924 and which to-day has a membership of 125. These two lodges also hold their meetings in the rooms of Argyll Lodge.

While Oddfellowship has flourished in Napanee, it has also flourished in all parts of the district and the utmost of harmony is prevailing among the lodges of the district, the District Deputy Grand Master for the year which is soon closing being Mr. Allan Burgess, of Enterprise.

Sparing No Pains.

To make the celebration in June a fitting success the committee are sparing no pains and every Oddfellow in the Napanee district is assured of a warm and fraternal welcome on Wednesday, June 5th, by the officers and members of Argyll Lodge No. 212, the officers for 1929 being :—

J. P. G., Mr. C. N. Loucks; N. Grand, Mr. E. L. Deline; V. Grand, Mr. A. S. Hamilton; R. Secretary, Mr. E. J. Walters; F. Secretary, Mr. Frank Smith; Treasurer, Mr. F. S. Scott.

The celebration, if fine weather permits, will take place in the Napanee Driving Park and is to be preceded by a mammoth parade.

Spray your furs, clothing and woollens with Fly Tox! This absolutely kills not only the moth, but also the larvae or grubs, which do all the damage. Moth balls and similar preparations, while helping to keep moths away, will not destroy the larvae. Fly Tox is 50c., 75c. and $1.25 (4 times the 50c. size), at Wallace's Drug Store.

AMBULANCE TAKES PATIENT 350 MILES.

What is described as the longest ambulance trip made by a Canadian patient has been completed by T. J. Kearney & Co., of Vancouver. One of Kearney's ambulances left at 7 p.m. Tuesday on a 350-mile trip to Portland, conveying Mr. Thomas H. Whelan, who has been a patient in the General Hospital, Vancouver, B.C., for some time. Mr. Whelan's brother, Joseph, accompanied him. The ambulance carried the two brothers and two nurses. Mr. Whelan is a brother of Mrs. P. Gleeson, Napanee.

TRINITY CHURCH FATHER AND SON SERVICE.

The Napanee Rotary Club have asked the ministers of the churches in Napanee to help them in promoting their boys' work by holding services next Sunday morning, the services to give special prominence to the vital and determinative relationship of fathers and sons. With this object in view, there will be held next Sunday morning, in Trinity Church a Father and Son service. All fathers and sons of the congregation are urged to be present. The minister of the church will be the preacher.

TO PRODUCE ANOTHER SHOW HERE.

Desire J. Bourque, popular Canadian Theatrical Producer, who directed "Let's Go", two years ago, has been re-engaged by the U. E. L. Chapter, I. O. D. E., to present another "Revue" which will be given in the Armouries, on May 27th-28th. Since Mr. Bourque's engagement here in 1927, he has attended two of America's leading Schools of Stage Arts and Dancing. He has also enlarged his wardrobe to several hundred costumes, and carries a quantity of scenery and lighting equipment. Mr. Bourque is now in a position to present better shows and give those taking part a better training. "SMILE" is the title of the new Revue, with which Mr. Bourque has been very successful during the past season, and is superior in every way to "Let's Go". 18a

WEDDING BELLS.

Robinson—Lewis.

A pretty wedding took place in St. John's Church, Newburgh, on April 17th, when Miss Hazel Alberta, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Casper Lewis, of Newburgh, was united in marriage to George Henry, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, of Camden East, by the Rector, Rev. Mr. Spencer. At 12 o'clock noon the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, escorted by the full choir. The young bride looked very sweet gowned in white satin, with a veil arranged in cap effect. The bridesmaid was Miss Marie Lewis, sister of the bride, and she was gowned in pink taffeta. The groom was supported by Cecil Simmons, of Camden East. The church was tastefully decorated by the members of the choir, of which the bride was a member. The ceremony over, the party then repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous dinner was served. At 4 p.m. the bridal party motored to Napanee, where the young couple took the train for a short trip to Ottawa. On their return they will reside at Camden East, where the groom is a prosperous young farmer. The many beautiful and useful gifts received showed the high esteem in which the bride and groom were held.

REDUCING DANGER.

Canadian National workmen are busily engaged in erecting stout bridging for a siding over the Hole in the Wall, e of Milltown. This danger spot on the Provincial Highway will be straightened. At present the detour is down by the riverside and under the railway bridge. Motorists will welcome the move to eradicate the old narrow crooked passage at this spot.

HYDRO EXTENSION INTO RICHMOND TOWNSHIP.

On Monday night a meeting was held at Selby to discuss the question of the extension of the Hydro service in the Township of Richmond in the vicinity running north from Napanee. We are informed that the Hydro Electric Commission intend to construct a line as far north as the C. P. R. station at Robindale, and possibly run into the Village of Roblin. The line will be constructed through the Village of Selby. We also understand it is the intention to extend the line either from Sharp's Corners or Grieves' hill easterly to Centreville, and then on into Enterprise. This Hydro service should undoubtedly prove a great benefit to the villages served, also to the farming community adjacent to this new line.

ANNUAL BANQUET.

The annual banquet of the Young Peoples' Society of Grace Church was held in the Sunday School rooms on Monday night and was marked with a splendid attendance of officers and members. As on previous years, the banquet marked the culmination of the year's work, and the success which has been attained by the President, Miss Marjorie Thompson, and her officers, has been gratifying to everyone. An excellent menu was provided by one of the groups of the Ladies' Aid Society, and the tables were tastily decorated for the occasion. Following the banquet, several toasts were proposed, the first being "To the Young People," proposed by Mr. C. A. Wiseman, and responded to by Miss Marguerite E. Root; 2nd, "To the Christian Church", proposed by Mr. Wilfrid Smith, and responded to by Rev. W. P. Woodger; 3rd, "To the Ladies", proposed by Mr. Gordon Gibson, and responded to by Mrs. B. M. Black. During the evening musical numbers were given, consisting of vocal and violin solos, piano trio, and community singing. A very interesting and enjoyable evening was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

Those troublesome woodchucks can be easily disposed of with the new treatment, "Cyanogas". Ask at Hooper's Drug Store.

FRATERNAL BODIES ATTEND CHURCH.

The 110th Anniversary of Oddfellowship in America was fittingly observed Sunday morning, when the members of the various branches of the Order in Napanee attended divine service in Grace United Church. The attendance, although splendid, was possibly not as large as previous years, rain starting in previous to the service which doubtlessly kept many at home. The officers and members in all about one hundred, from Mt. Ararat Encampment No. 16, Napanee Lodge No. 86, and Argyll Lodge No. 212, gathered at the rooms of the later lodge at ten o'clock and paraded to the church, where they were joined by Queen of Shetia Rebekah Lodge No. 294. Music of a splendid character had been prepared by the choir, consisting of an anthem, the solos being well taken by Mrs. Harold Denison and Mr. Bert Seymour. Following the offertory, a male quartette, "Remember Me, O Mighty One", was rendered by Messrs. Wiseman, Black, Seymour and Wiseman. The Pastor, Rev. W. P. Woodger, preached a very masterly discourse, his subject being, "What Do Ye More Than Others ?" Preceding his sermon, Mr. Woodger, on behalf of the Church and officials, extended to the members of this world-wide fraternity, a most cordial welcome. Mr. Woodger at the outset referred to the old Jewish law which said "Love your friends, but hate your enemies". Christ said, "Love thy neighbor as thyself". The speaker's first reference was to "The Home", which was a sacred institution and where love should be supreme. The second reference was to the Church, the important point being that Loyalty and Faithfulness to one's church is a commendable attribute. The third reference was international, that of Love to Country. It was the duty of every one to cultivate the highest in Citizenship. In concluding an inspirational address, Mr. Woodger said that loyalty, although greatly to be desired in Lodges, should not be confined to the Lodge only, but to every worthwhile institution. Following the service the members returned to the lodge rooms, where a vote of appreciation was tendered to the Minister, Choir, and Church officials.

ADOLPHUSTOWN W. M. S.

The May meeting of the W.M.S. was held on Wednesday afternoon, May 1st, at the home of Mrs. Carr, with sixteen present and four little visitors. The President in the chair. The meeting opened by singing the Doxology, with Mr. Plant as organist. Mrs. John Magee was in charge of the Devotional period. Hymn 156, "O Master, Let Me Walk With Thee", was sung. The Secretary's report was read by Mrs. John Magee. A selection from the book, "The Greatest Thing in the World", by Henry Drummond, which is based upon this chapter, was read by Mrs. G. Ruttan. Hymn 390, "Jesus Saviour, Pilot Me", was sung. The Secretary gave the report of the last meeting, which was approved. The Treasurer gave her report. The Secretary of Temperance Education, Miss Audrey Ruttan, distributed the pledge cards of the Mirror Campaign, and took the names of those pledged to stand for Prohibition, which will be forwarded to Mrs. Miller, Napanee. Miss Ruttan sang a solo, "My Rest", very acceptably. Three Heralds reported: China, Miss Lillian Carr; Japan, Miss Margaret Mitchell; India, Mrs. John Magee. The programme was in charge of Miss Mitchell, who gave a reading, "Out of Touch With Your Lord", which was much appreciated by all present. Two junior girls, Josie Cousins and Jean White, sang a duet sweetly. As Mrs. W. D. Roblin was unable to be present, Mrs. T. N. Mc-Gillivray kindly took up the chapter of the Study Book, "Drums in the Darkness". Roll call was answered by a verse of Scripture on seeding time. Several quilt blocks were handed in and a membership fee paid. Collection was taken; Hymn 138, "Listen, the Master Beseecheth" was sung. Mr. Plant pronounced the Benediction, and the meeting adjourned to meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Gallagher in June. The hostess served dainty refreshments at the close of the meeting.

OBITUARY

The Late Mrs. Jaynes.

In the early hours of Thursday morning, April 25th, 1929, there passed away to eternal rest, Mary Margaret Jaynes, wife of Daniel Jaynes, Richmond, after had been in failing health for the past fifteen years, but able to be around until about eight weeks ago since when she has been a patient sufferer, and was in her seventy-first year. She was a loving mother, having reared fifty years ago, Miss Mary Margaret Moore. She leaves to mourn her loss, the husband three children, Will, of Big Creek; George, of Big River, Sask., and Maggie, of Tees, Alta.; also several grandchildren, by whom Grace Jaynes, resided with her. One daughter, Mary predeceased her twelve years ago. The funeral took place from her late residence on Friday afternoon, Rev. W. P. Woodger officiating. Those from a distance who attended were: Mrs. George Farrow, Oshawa; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Moore, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Moore, Napanee; Mrs. and Mr. H. Howard, Mrs. B. Masters, Deseronto; Mr. and Mrs. J. Toppings and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander, Marysville; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Dafoe, Kingsford; Mr. and Mrs. George Somers, Selby, also several friends from Napanee.

NOTICE TO DOG OWNERS

All dog owners are hereby warned that dogs must be registered, numbered and tags procured for same, from the office of the undersigned, under provisions of By-law 1298 of the Town of Napanee.

All dogs running at large without being so described may be impounded, and liable to be destroyed, without further notice.

Tags must be procured at once.

BAY CIRCUIT

Weather conditions seem more favorable this week. As the farmer's bread and butter depends on weather conditions, he can't help but be alarmed.—The River Road has been wonderfully improved by the use of the crush grader. Let the good work be continued.—The Bethany Ladies' Aid had a very helpful meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Clarke, on Wednesday last. The attendance was large, the house being filled to capacity. After the business was transacted Mrs. Clarke served a substantial lunch. A very fine spirit prevailed throughout the meeting.—Another of the older members of our community passed to his eternal reward on Monday morning, May 6th, in the person of Mr. Solomon Baldwin. Last Tuesday morning he was stricken with paralysis and though everything was done to bring about his recovery, the end quietly came. The funeral will be held on Wednesday afternoon, May 8th, at 2 o'clock. He leaves to mourn his loss, his devoted wife, five daughters, Mrs. N. Pitchett, Mrs. R. Furrs, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. S. Griffith, Mrs. Boyce, and one son, Alonzo Baldwin. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved ones.—The Gretna Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. White, on Thursday of last week, with a large number of the ladies of the community in attendance. A good programme was given under the direction of the President, Mrs. A. Dean. Mrs. White made an excellent hostess, and all enjoyed the very bountiful lunch.—Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Huffman, who have been running the Mayo Bros., Specialists, returned safely home on Sunday, May 5th.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore were in Toronto over the week end, attending the wedding of Mrs. Moore's neice.—This is the Women's Missionary Society week on the Bay Circuit. The Bay West organization will meet at the home of the President, Mrs. A. C. Parks, on Friday afternoon, May 10th, instead of the usual day; the Bay East organization at the home of Mrs. J. Card, on Thursday afternoon. All the ladies of the community invited.— The Anderson Young People's Union visited the Selby group on Friday evening last. The Anderson folk gave the programme, while Selby furnished the contests and lunch. A very enjoyable time was spent by all.—The remains of the late Mr. Thos. Spencer, a life long resident of this township, who had lately been residing with his son in Watertown, were brought here on Thursday for interment in the Parks' cemetery.—Mr. Cochrane, of Scotland, has entered the employ for Mr. Herbert Mellow for the summer months.—Mrs. Edward Hambly is still in very poor health and is confined to the house most of the time.—Mr. Edda McCabe's condition does not improve, and he spends most of his time in his room.—The annual meeting of the Bay Circuit Official Board was held in Anderson Church, when Selby furnished the contests and lunch. A very enjoyable time was spent by all.—The remains of the late Mrs

TOP GRAFTING OF FRUIT TREES

(Experimental Farms Note)

The top grafting of fruit trees, particularly the apple, is a question of some importance in many of the older fruit districts to-day. This has been brought about by the fact that many of the older varieties have become unpopular and unprofitable to grow. Such varieties may be top-worked over to the more profitable sorts and, as the time for top-working is close at hand, a few words on the technique employed, based on experience at the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, may be of value.

The work is done in the spring before growth begins, but it is possible to graft successfully even when the trees are coming into leaf, provided the scion is quite dormant; but the chances of success are much lessened if it is done late. As the shock to a large tree would be very great if all or nearly all of the branches on which the leaves develop were cut off the first season, from three to four years should be devoted to removing the top of the trees. If, however, a large number of scions are inserted, the top may be changed in less time, but, as a rule, it is not wise to do it in less than three years. Furthermore, a too severe pruning at one time will cause a large number of shoots to grow on the tree, and considerable labour will be involved in removing them if many trees are grafted. Cleft-grafting is usually adopted in top-working trees, it being a simple and satisfactory method.

The branches to be grafted should not exceed an inch and a half or two inches in diameter. If they are larger, it is so long before the stub heals over that disease may set in. It is possible, however, to graft larger branches by putting in more scions. The top-grafting of a large tree should be done with a view to having the new top as symmetrical as possible, and great care should be taken in selecting the branches to be grafted upon. After the branch is sawn off it is cleft by means of a mallet and strong knife to a depth of an inch and a half to two inches. It is held open to receive the scion by driving a wedge into it. Scions for use in top-grafting are cut from dormant wood, which has been kept in good condition in the manner already described, or from wood taken from the tree before the buds swell in the spring. They should have about three strong buds and should be cut wedge-shaped at the base, one side of the wedge being a little thicker than the other. Two scions are now inserted in the cleft of the stub, with the wide side of the wedge on the outside, and thrust down until the lowest bud is almost on a line with the edge of the stub. The inner bark of both scions and stub should meet at some point, so that the union will take place readily, and this is more easily affected if the scion is given a slightly outward slope when inserted. When the wedge has been withdrawn from the cleft the advantage of having the wedge-shaped end of the scion thicker on one side will be apparent as it will hold much more tightly than if both sides were the same. If the scion is not a tight fit all along, there is something wrong in the way it has been cut or the stub cleft. The cut parts should be covered with grafting wax to exclude the air and hold the scion in place. Cotton is also sometimes wrapped around the wax in order more effectively to hold the scion in place. If both of the scions grafted on the stub should grow, the weaker one should be removed after the other is well united and the surface of the stub at least partially healed over.

"Give him time," said her husband.

FLYING SQUADS RE-OPEN MOHAWK TRAINING CAMP

Word comes from Deseronto to the effect that the Government plans to send two squadrons of Royal Canadian Air Force fliers to camp Mohawk near Deseronto within the next two weeks. They will use the old flying field on Mohawk Plains which was used extensively during the Great War by the same Air Force. They are expected to arrive there on the 15th of May, coming direct across country from Camp Borden.

As there are no buildings on the field at the present time, it is expected that temporary hangars for the machines and quarters for the flyers will be erected forthwith. It will be remembered that at the conclusion of the war the hangars were sold to various individuals throughout the country and what was once the busiest training camp in Canada now presents a scene of dreary desolation. Undoubtedly the planes will remain in that vicinity for two months and their object in coming is said to be for photographic purposes.

Deseronto hails the decision of the R. C. A. F. to send the squadrons to Mohawk even for two months with delight, one reason being that they will now be sure to have them there for the U. E. L. celebration which takes place in June. Mohawk Camp is ideal as a flying field, but otherwise is not much use for anything else. Future events in connection with the squadrons will be watched with much interest by residents of this district.

SOME FEATURES OF APPLE SCAB CONTROL

From repeated and continuous observations made by the Dominion Laboratory of Plant Pathology, Kentville, N. S., on the seasonal development of the scab fungus, it has been possible to find some of the weak points in the application of control measures. All the early infection comes from spores produced by the fungus in the fallen apple leaves. These spores are liberated during rainy weather and require six to twelve hours in which to germinate and enter susceptible new growth. Thus, in order to successfully protect the new growth, sprays should be applied before wet weather.

The earliest date spores have been found to mature coincides with the time the first green leaf tips are visible on the trees. About the time that the earliest blossom buds show pink, a general discharge of spores from the fallen leaves takes place. The heaviest liberation of spores during each of the past four years has occurred between the 23rd and 28th of May; i.e., at the time when the early varieties are bursting into bloom. Additional periods of infection from spores arising from the fallen leaves may appear until the middle and occasionally the end of June. However, after blossoming, scab is spread in the orchard by spores produced on scab spots which have developed on the new growth.

It is necessary to spray before the spores are liberated if thorough protection is to be obtained. The first spray, at what is locally called the "delayed dormant" or "green tip" stage gives the first protection necessary. Leaf tips are just breaking through and seldom over one-quarter to one-half inch long at this time. The second or "pre-pink" spray is applied when the earliest flower buds show pink but before they are separated. The third spray before blossoming should be the most thorough. It is applied just before the early blossoms commence to open and when the buds are separating in the clusters. The "calyx spray", i. e., when most of the petals have fallen, should not be delayed, as this application is impotant for the control of other pests as well as diseases. Later sprays may be applied at 10 to 14 day intervals as the season demands.

Further information may be obtained by consulting the spray and dust calendars available for each province.

The Jewish storekeeper, who had read so nothing about the wonders of medicine, took his wife to the nearest town to see an oculist. "Good sir," he said, "I hear you can make eyes. Here is my blind wife. If she could see she could still work." The oculist looked at her eyes and decided that a trifling operation could restore her sight completely. The visitor was overjoyed. "Good!" he said. "And what will it cost?" The oculist smiled. "Can you pay me thirty shillings?" "That is too much; I cannot pay more than twenty," was the reply. The oculist agreed, but the storekeeper still hesitated. "And you will make both eyes all right for twenty shillings?" "Certainly," said the oculist. A smile lit up the visitor's face. "Here are ten shillings," he said triumphantly. "Do only one. One eye is quite enough for my old woman!"

Read What Mrs. A. Frame Has To Say About Dodd's Kidney Pills

Alberta Lady Suffered For Over a Year With Her Kidneys and Lame Back

Champion, Alta., May 6th, (Special)—Mrs. A. Frame, a resident of this place, relates her experience with Dodd's Kidney Pills in the following brief letter. She writes: "I was troubled with my Kidneys and a lame back for over a year. I had tried nearly all the medicines I could think of without results. A friend of mine told me about Dodd's Kidney Pills. I gave them a trial and after using three boxes I felt a great relief. I would advise anyone who is troubled with their Kidneys to use Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Dodd's Kidney Pills simply strengthen and heal the kidneys. The work of the kidneys is to strain all the waste matter out of the blood. If the kidneys are out of order they fail to do their work, and the waste matter remains in the blood, causing serious diseases.

Sound kidneys means pure blood. Pure blood means good health.

Get Best Seed

The importance of good seed cannot be too strongly emphasized. Many amateurs when they raise some particularly fine corn, or an excellent specimen of flower, think that by saving the seed from these particular plants that they will get perfect reproductions the next season. This is rather a serious mistake, however, as no consideration has been taken of the fact that bees and other insects mix the pollen of the corn or other vegetables or flowers indiscriminately and that the average seed saved in this way will produce very weak plants. The production of seed is a specialized business, the art usually being passed down from generation to generation, and whole districts are devoted to this business and nothing else. Unless one is willing to take the precaution of screening the individual blossoms on the vegetables and flowers and to mix the pollen by hand, and also to make sure that similar varieties are not being grown close together one would be well advised to purchase the very best seed procurable. And in this case, the very best seed is that which is put up for Canadian conditions and not something that will do well in another climate. After all, the best seed in sealed packages with the variety, date, and sowing directions printed plainly on the outside is by long odds the smallest cost in gardening, although it is the most important because without it labor, fertilizer and care is in vain.

Transplanting.

Head lettuce, tomatoes, cabbages, as well as many of the flowers should be transplanted at once before being placed in their permanent positions. When done carefully, this strengthens the roots and produces a stockier plant. If planted directly in the garden, they are inclined to become spindly and tender, besides losing the three or four weeks' start they get when sown indoors. At transplanting time, have a supply of nitrate of soda on hand, putting a pinch about each plant, or dissolving this quick-acting fertilizer in water, one ounce to the gallon for each four square yards of soil and applying at intervals of two weeks. This will make your plants shoot ahead.

Window-Boxes.

Window-boxes may now be prepared. If one bears in mind that there are simply intensive gardens producing as many flowers to the square foot as one ordinarily grows in about four square yards of garden, good results are easy to obtain. Rich soil, plenty of fertilizer and daily watering are essential. The boxes must be very strongly constructed as when filled with earth they will weigh over a hundred pounds, and they must be from eight to ten inches wide at the top, six at the bottom and at least seven inches deep. The corners should be strongly reinforced on the inside with iron straps, secured at any hardware store, and wire or chains should be used to fasten them to the window frame. It is well to so arrange your box that it hangs flush with the top of the window sill and does not sit on it, as otherwise, the foliage will soon fill up most of the window. There should be holes in the bottom of the box and also a layer of cinders, broken crockery or gravel to provide drainage. Put in a layer of well-rotted manure next, if this is available, and then fill up with fine soil. If there is still a danger of light frost, leave the box in some place where it can be protected after planting. In any case, it is well to screen the newly set out plants with newspapers, or light cotton, for a few days, until the plants get established. Use stocky plants and prune off all bloom, buds and weak growth. Heading back the main stem is also advisable so that they will branch well and fill the box. They may be planted close together, a few inches apart for the short or trailing types at the front of the box, and six inches between the taller plants at the rear. Firm the soil down well about the plants. Next dissolve a scant handful of nitrate of soda in a fair-sized watering can which will be sufficient fertiliser for a box about four feet long. This will give the plants a good start. Now, saturate the soil with another can or two of water, and water daily from then on. Even on rainy days, it will usually be found that little moisture has reached the box owing to its sheltered position, while the evaporation from these hanging gardens exposed on all sides to the air is very rapid. Apply applications of nitrate of soda at intervals of about ten days for the first two months. These same general directions may be followed in making up hanging baskets and pots. Along the front, put in trailing nasturtiums, German ivy, lobelia, alyssum, and similar plants, while farther back petunias, geraniums, ageratums, begonias, ferns, and other types recommended by florists and greenhouse men, may go in.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

"It is a beautiful thing to see a husband and wife of one mind," remarked Mrs. Blogg.

"Yes", replied Blogg; "but then it makes a good deal of difference who carries the mind."

The Oil for the Athlete.—In rubbing down, the athlete will find Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil an excellent article. It renders the muscles and sinews pliable, takes the soreness out of them and strengthens them for strains that may be put upon them. It stands pre-eminent for this purpose, and athletes who for years, have been using it can testify to its value as a lubricant.

"I can't understand why you stayed outside so long with such a wonderful dancer as Ralph."

"But he showed me some new steps and we sat on them."

Always Ready and Reliable.—Practically all pains arising from inflammation can be removed with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Simply rub it on the sore spot and it is quickly absorbed by the skin. Its healing power is conveyed to the inflamed tissue which is quickly soothed. This fine old remedy is also a specific for all manner of cuts, scratches, bruises and sprains. Keep a bottle handy always.

Pat (meeting Mike)—"Have yez heard, Mike, that the great Mussolini is an Irishman."

"No, indade, brejabers. Is that so? And phwat might his name be?"

"Well, his real name must be Richard Murphy, for they call him for short Dick Tater."

Wise mothers who know the virtues of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator always have it at hand, because it proves its value.

After the service the preacher who was an old-fashioned type, gave the old lady his views on eternal punishment. There was a great deal of fire and brimstone in it.

"I don't believe it," the old lady said, impulsively; "no human constitution could possibly stand it."

When Holloway's Corn Remover is applied to a corn it kills the roots and the callosity comes out without injury to the flesh.

Mistress—"Bridget, this is the third time I've had to tell you of the finger bowls. Didn't the lady you last worked for have them on the table?"

New Maid—"No, mum, her friends always washed their hands before they came."

Miller's Worm Powders will not only expel worms from the system, but will induce healthful conditions of the system under which worms can no longer thrive. Worms keep a child in a continual state of restlessness and pain, and their can be no comfort for the little one until the cause of suffering be removed, which can be easily done by the use of these powders, which are very effective.

"How do you guard against microbes?"

"First I boil all my water."

"Yes, and then?"

"I filter it."

"Yes."

"And then I don't drink it."

Asthma Overcome. The triumph over asthma has assuredly come. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy has proved the most positive blessing the victim of asthmatic attacks has ever known. Letters received from thousands who have tried it form a testimonial which leaves no room for doubt that here is a real remedy. Get it today from your dealer.

Mr. Coolidge is well known as a man of few words. A story now going the rounds suggests that he also possesses a dry sense of humor.

A certain distinguished Englishman was on a visit to Washington with his daughter, and, as is usual in such cases, the two of them received cards of invitation to the Friday reception at the White House.

Before setting out the girl told her father that she was certain she could make Mr. Coolidge talk. "If he says three words to you I'll give you a fur coat," said her father.

On being introduced to the President the girl frankly explained the situation to him and confidently awaited the outcome. But, having eyed her in silence for a minute, Mr. Coolidge remarked quietly, "Dad wins".

Beeks with was struck by a falling rafter, but as no bones were broken, he is able to be around again, although he will not be able to work for some time.—Mr. J. H. Baker has secured the services of Mrs. May Ingram, of Picton, as a housekeeper for the summer.—Mrs. H. Kearns, who has been seriously ill for some time, was removed to the Hotel Dieu Hospital, Kingston, on Sunday last for treatment.—Miss Dwyre, of Enterprise, is spending the past month with friends in this vicinity.—Mr. R. Gaffney unloaded a car of New Brunswick potatoes at Erinsville station this week.—Mr. J. M. Simpson and brother-in-law, of Napanee, spent one evening this week at Mr. G. Brown's.—Mrs. W. Waddell is on the sick list, with Dr. Burrows in attendance.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

"It is a beautiful thing to see a husband and wife of one mind," remarked Mrs. Blogg.

"Yes", replied Blogg; "but then it makes a good deal of difference who carries the mind."

The Oil for the Athlete.—In rubbing down, the athlete will find Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil an excellent article. It renders the muscles and sinews pliable, takes the soreness out of them and strengthens them for strains that may be put upon them. It stands pre-eminent for this purpose, and athletes who for years, have been using it can testify to its value as a lubricant.

"I can't understand why you stayed outside so long with such a wonderful dancer as Ralph."

"But he showed me some new steps and we sat on them."

Always Ready and Reliable.—Practically all pains arising from inflammation can be removed with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Simply rub it on the sore spot and it is quickly absorbed by the skin. Its healing power is conveyed to the inflamed tissue which is quickly soothed. This fine old remedy is also a specific for all manner of cuts, scratches, bruises and sprains. Keep a bottle handy always.

Pat (meeting Mike)—"Have yez heard, Mike, that the great Mussolini is an Irishman."

"No, indade, beejabers. Is that so? And phwat might his name be?"

"Well, his real name must be Richard Murphy, for they call him for short Dick Tater."

Wise mothers who know the virtues of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator always have it at hand, because it proves its value.

After the service the preacher who was an old-fashioned type, gave the old lady his views on eternal punishment. There was a great deal of fire and brimstone in it.

"I don't believe it," the old lady said, impulsively; "no human constitution could possibly stand it."

When Holloway's Corn Remover is applied to a corn it kills the roots and the callosity comes out without injury to the flesh.

Mistress—"Bridget, this is the third time I've had to tell you of the finger bowls. Didn't the lady you last worked for have them on the table?"

New Maid—"No, mum, her friends always washed their hands before they came."

Miller's Worm Powders will not only expel worms from the system, but will induce healthful conditions of the system under which worms can no longer thrive. Worms keep a child in a continual state of restlessness and pain, and there can be no comfort for the little one until the cause of suffering be removed, which can be easily done by the use of these powders, which are very effective.

"How do you guard against microbes?"

"First I boil all my water."

"Yes, and then?"

"I filter it."

"Yes."

"And then I don't drink it."

Asthma Overcome. The triumph over asthma has assuredly come. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy has proved the most positive blessing the victim of asthmatic attacks has ever known. Letters received from thousands who have tried it form a testimonial which leaves no room for doubt that here is a real remedy. Get it today from your dealer.

Mr. Coolidge is well known as a man of few words. A story now going the rounds suggests that he also possesses a dry sense of humor.

A certain distinguished Englishman was on a visit to Washington with his daughter, and, as is usual in such cases, the two of them received cards of invitation to the Friday reception at the White House.

Before setting out the girl told her father that she was certain she could make Mr. Coolidge talk. "If he says three words to you I'll give you a fur coat," said her father.

On being intrduced to the President the girl frankly explained the situation to him and confidently awaited the outcome. But, having eyed her in silence for a minute, Mr. Coolidge remarked quietly, "Dad wins".

D. B. WILSON

The following is told of Winston Churchill when working at the Admiralty. An American journalist was granted an interview.

"I've turned down seven of your compatriots this morning," exclaimed Winston, nodding towards a pile of visiting cards.

"I know. I'm them!" replied the American.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Hogle.

The death occurred on Sunday, May 5th, 1929, of a well known resident of Napanee, in the person of Hannah Maria Fellows, widow of the late Mr. Norman Hogle. The deceased, who was 87 years of age, was born in the Township of Ernesttown, but for the past 54 years had resided in town. For the past six months she had been in poor health, and owing to her advanced age, there was little hope held out for her recovery. The late Mrs. Hogle was a member of Trinity United Church, the funeral service which was private, being held Tuesday, interment taking place at Fourth Line cemetery. Surviving is an only daughter, Mrs. D. B. Wilson, with whom she resided.

REIDVILLE

The farmers are rather discouraged with weather conditions, but seed time and harvest never fails.—We are pleased to report that Mr. Harper Reid has returned home from Toronto, where he has been undergoing treatment for an extended time, very much improved in health.—The ladies are busy cleaning house.—Quite a number from here attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Wm. Brown, Tamworth, on Wednesday.—We are pleased to welcome in our neighborhood Mr. and Mrs. Burley and family, also Mr. and Mrs. Percy Finlay and son.—Mr. J. Hannah sports a new Pontiac, and Mr. Nathan Wagar has treated himself and family to a new Essex. — Mr. Ray Brown spent Sunday at R. J. Wilson's.

CLEANING SPEED THAT MEANS LEISURE

A Premier Junior will bring to you that priceless gift of leisure hours unhampered by the call of housework ... for this speedy cleaner is a work saver unrivalled for the small home.

Built expressly for the average home or apartment, the Premier Junior employs exactly the same cleaning principle —the combination of a motor-driven brush with suction—that has raised the larger Premier-Duplex to a position of world-wide fame.

Not a speck of dust or lint is left after a few swift strokes with the Junior. It gets all the dirt in a time so short it will amaze you.

The Junior fits in the storage space of a broom and never needs oiling.

Phone now for a home demonstration, and remember without the new Premier Spic-Span, a powerful little cleaner that antiquates attachments, your housecleaning equipment is not complete.

SHARP'S CORNERS

The people of this neighborhood have been very busy lately, cleaning house and working up the land, getting it in shape for sowing.—Some of our local trappers have been successful this spring, muskrats being quite numerous, and they feel satisfied with results.—We are pleased to hear that Mrs. Bert Hughes, Mrs. John McConnell and Mr. Wm. McConnell, who have been ill, are recovering. We hope they may soon be restored to their usual good health.—Mr. W. Humphrey, who has been a successful cheesemaker in Adolphustown for several years, is going to reside in our midst this summer. We hope, Will, that you may remain with us for some time. — A gloom was cast over this neighborhood on April 28th, 1929, when Mr. George Colling, a highly respected resident, passed peacefully away, in his seventy-ninth year. The deceased was a patient husband, a kind father, and a good neighbor. He was ever ready in his younger days to lend a helping hand in the hour of need, and he took a great interest in Victoria Appointment of the Selby Circuit. It was a pleasure for him to be present at the fortnight service on Wednesday evening, to spend an hour in worship with his neighbors and friends. He will be greatly missed not only in the home but in the neighborhood and at the church service. The funeral service, which was largely attended, was held at Selby United Church, and was conducted by his Pastor, Rev. W. H. Foley, who chose as his text, Joshua 1:5. Then the cortege proceeded on its way to Riverside cemetery, where his remains were laid to rest to await the coming of Christ on the Resurrection morn. We extend our sympathy to his sorrowing widow; his daughter, Mrs. Walter Russell Napanee; and to his son, Mr. Alex. Colling, on the homestead, in their bereavement.—Mr. and Mrs. C. Thompson and Mrs. Eli Thompson called at Mr. Jas. Grange's, Napanee. We are sorry Mr. Grange is so seriously ill.—The members of the Selby W. M. S. residing at Sharp's Corners, were invited to prepare the programme for the month of May. Some were unable to be present, but those who attended enjoyed the service with the ladies of Selby. The most important number on the programme was a very interesting letter, which was read, from Mrs. (Rev.) Harrison, a missionary at Angola, West Africa. — Mr. Harvey Thompson has returned from Watertown, having spent a few weeks with his sister, Mrs. Milford Walwrath. — We are sorry to lose Mr. Geo. Bush from our midst, who left a few days ago for Oxford Station, near Cornwall. Mr. Bush is engaged by a Construction Co., and will be absent for some time.—Visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Tate, Selby West, at Mr. Ross McConnell's; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Nolan, Hay Bay, and Mr. Alex. Jayne, with Misses Electo and Etta Jayne; Mrs. Milford Walwrath, of Watertown, at Mr. Eli Thompson's; Rev. Mr. Bennett, of the Holiness Movement Church, Roblin, at Mr. S. Storrings'; Miss May McCutcheon, Watertown, with her sister, Mrs. Arch Graham; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kent, of Latimer, at Mrs. ... Pinney's; Miss Grace. Walker, ... nee, with her grandparents, Mr. ... Mrs. Wm. McConnell; Mrs. A. ... Ilwaine and son, Mr. George ... Ilwaine, Adolphustown, at Mr. ... Bush's.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of dear wife and mother, Alice Victoria Milligan, who passed away May 6th, 1928.

No morning fawns, no night returns,
But we remember you;
Those left behind are very dear,
But none replaces you.
And through the gates of heaven
Your arms will stretch some day,
To welcome those who are grieving
For you who have passed away.

Sadly missed by Husband and Children. 19a

PLAY AND CONCERT A SUCCESS.

Under the auspices of the Catholic Women's League Napanee sub-division, the play and concert which was presented two weeks ago under the auspices of the Women's Institute, was repeated in the Parish Hall, on April 29th.

The program was in two parts. The first consisted of selections by the N. C. I. Orchestra, vocal solo by Mrs. Epplet, violin solo by Mrs. Willsen, vocal duet by Mrs. Epplet and Miss Kane, and readings by Mrs. Katherine Powell, all of which were splendidly given and received with delight by the large audience present. Then came the one-act play, "The Girls", directed by Mrs. Powell, and splendidly portrayed by the different characters. During the course of the play, Mrs. Valkman sang very sweetly. Mrs. Powell gave a humorous reading entitled "The Old Family Album" and a most amusing rendering of Auld Lang Syne, concluded the mirth provoking scene.

A hearty vote of thanks was moved by Miss Mary Leamy, seconded by Miss West, and responded to by Mrs. Ralph Ham on behalf of the Woman's Institute.

"God Save the King" brought an enjoyable evening to a close.

OBITUARY

Mrs. J. A. Tompkins.

In the early evening of the 28th day of April, 1929, there passed to her reward, in her sixty-third year, Hester Ann Wright, beloved wife of J. A. Tompkins and daughter of the late John Wright, of Yarker.

Mrs. Tompkins was born in Camden, in the Village of Colebrook, but had resided in the Village of Bath for the past three years. Though the deceased had been in failing health for the last five years, her condition became so acute, of recent months she was confined to her bed.

She leaves to mourn, her husband, and three daughters, Mrs. Fred Reed, Bath; Mrs. C. J. Hines, Conway, and Mrs. Fred C. BUCKWHEAT AS A FARM CROP

(Experimental Farms Note)

As a general purpose crop, suited to farming conditions in Eastern Canada, buckwheat should not be overlooked. While not strictly a cereal crop and not able to compete with or replace our common grain crops for either human or live-stock consumption, buckwheat has special features which give the crop both direct and indirect sources of revenue to the farmer.

Buckwheat has a variety of uses. It is well known that the flour made from this crop commands a high favour in making griddle cakes and the popularity of the crop for this purpose creates a fairly steady demand.

Buckwheat can be used as a feed for live-stock although the feeding value of the grain is less than in wheat, oats, or barley. The grain however makes an excellent poultry feed.

On account of its unusually succulent leafy growth, buckwheat serves a useful purpose as a smother crop for weeds. Weedy land can be kept clean cultivated until mid-June or later and then seeded to buckwheat. The quick germination and dense growth prevent weed development.

The fact that buckwheat will thrive on comparatively poor, light land, makes it an excellent crop for this type of soil, and also to plough under as a green manure. Its thick succulent stems decay very quickly, leaving the soil in a better condition in so far as plant food and general physical condition is concerned. On heavy soils, buckwheat, on account of the nature of its root system, tends to loosen up the soil, leaving it in a more friable, porous condition. The claim made that buckwheat will withstand more soil acidity or lack of drainage than other cereals is undoubtedly true and, for this reason, it can often be grown on land that would otherwise remain idle.

Buckwheat has been used as a nurse crop for sweet clover with good results. When this practice is followed, the combination can be cut green and used as a soiling crop.

The abundance of flowers, carrying that characteristic and pleasing aroma so familiar to us all, makes buckwheat one of the best honey producing plants.

In buckwheat then, we have a crop, suited to fairly moist cool conditions; tible to thrive on comparatively poor soil; valuable as a smother crop for weeds or as an emergency crop sown late in June; useful as a green manure, as a live-stock and poultry feed, and as a bee pasture.

OVER 300 WHALES TAKEN BY CANADIAN VESSELS

Ottawa, It may be news to a good many people but whaling adds a tidy little sum every year to the British Columbia trade totals. Last year 305 whales were taken by the fleet of six steamers operating from the two whaling stations on the British Columbia coast and were used in the production of fish meal, fertilizer, and oil. Figures covering the value of the 1928 production have not yet been finally revised by the Fisheries Branch of the Department of Marine and Fisheries but in 1927, when the number of whales killed was 47 less than in 1928, the value of the meal, fertilizer, oil, and whalebone obtained was $241,488. Of the 305 whales taken last year the largest number, 140, were of the finback variety. Eighty-three sperm whales were killed, 47 sulphur, 21 humps' 13 of the sei variety, and one lone bottlenose.

Ottawa, Canadian Fish Sales accounted for $31,934,000 of the country's favourable balance of trade in 1928. When final figures covering the trade in fish products are also available the favourable balance on fishery account for the year will be seen to be still larger. In 1927 the favourable balance of trade in connection with the fisheries, with fish products as well as fish taken into the reckoning, was $31,045,547.

On the import side of the trade in fish in 1928 there was a net increase of $215,000, as compared with the 1927 business, but the net increase in sales abroad was more than ten times as much or a total of 2,222,000.

During 1928 Canada sold fish to some 100 Countries—British Columbia canned salmon alone being sold in more than 25 foreign markets—and the total value of these exports was $34,959,000. Fresh fish accounted for the largest single total, $10,927,000, with canned salmon a good second at $9,227,000. Canned or preserved fish, with a value of $1,473,000, made up the largest total, among the fish imports which, altogether, amounted to only 3,325,000.

Ottawa, Pearls From Canadian herring? Nonsense? Not nonsense at all. There is many a string of artificial pearls worn for adornment in North America that came from the scales of herring caught by Canadian fishermen in Canadian waters.

The presence of crystal guanin on the scales of herring is the explanation, for from these crystals there is manufactured pearl essence which, in turn, is manufactured into imitation pearls.

Reports of the Fisheries Branch at Ottawa show the manufacture of pearl essence from the scales of the humble herring as one of the interesting by-product operations of Canada's fishing industry, and one which is likely to become of increasing value. So far the production of the essence is carried on only in Southern New Brunswick, but herring scales for use in its manufacture are also gathered to some extent on the British Columbia coast. In 1927, for example, 1,000 hundredweight of scales were marketed by British Columbia fishermen. In the same year 1,820 hundredweight were marketed in New Brunswick for manufacture into pearl essence. The return to the fishermen in the two provinces was $10,281, which is not a very large sum, it is true, but is a fairly tidy amount to receive for something which a few years ago was a waste and a nuisance.

In producing the pearl essence, the herring are scaled and the scales are then put through a special process by which the guanin crystals are freed. These crystals are held in suspension in ammonia and the pearl essence results. At present the final processes of manufacturing the pearls are not carried on in Canada, but the essence is exported to the United States. The pearls have won considerable favour, and there is likely to be increasing attention to the business on Canadian coasts.

Powerful, Penetrating Antiseptic Oil Heals Eczema and Other Skin Diseases

Must Give Results in 7 Days or Money Back, Says Wallace's Drug Store

Make up your mind today that you are going to give your skin a real chance to get well.

You've probably been like a lot of other people convinced that the only thing to use was an ointment or salve (some of them are very good) but in the big majority of cases these sticky salves simply clog the pores and the condition promptly remains the same.

Go to Wallace's Drug Store or any other good druggist and get an original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil.

The very first application will give you relief and a few short treatments will thoroughly convince you that by sticking faithfully to it for a short while your skin troubles will be a thing of the past.

Don't expect a single bottle to do it all at once but one bottle we know will show you beyond all question that you have at last discovered the way to restore your skin to perfect health.

Remember that Moone's Emerald Oil is a clean, powerful, penetrating Antiseptic Oil that does not stain or leave a greasy residue and that it must give complete satisfaction or your money cheerfully refunded.

The ROYAL MASTER and your new car

THERE are three major features to be considered in choosing tires for your new car — economy, safety and freedom from trouble.

—No other tire in the world will return as many miles per dollar as the Royal Master.

—The Royal Master insures safety from blowouts and punctures.

Not one Royal Master in a thousand will ever puncture.

Not one in five thousand will blow out under two years of service.

—With Royal Masters you will enjoy care-free motoring not only this year but for a long time to come.

* * *

Royal Masters cost more than any other tire made and you cannot expect them as standard equipment on your new car.

Any dealer will, however, be glad to equip your new car with Royal Masters as an extra. You will find the additional cost one of the best investments you have ever made.

CANADA WORLD LEADER IN SMELT FISHERY

Ottawa, Canada's smelt fishery, prosecuted in Atlantic Coast waters only, is the biggest in the world, yielding annually about 75 per cent of the total world production. In 1928, unrevised statistics of the Fisheries Branch show, 9,796,900 pounds of smelt were landed by the fishermen of the Maritime Provinces and Quebec, or 2,546,800 pounds more than in 1927. New Brunswick led in catch.

Smelt are marketed fresh or fresh frozen and very large quantities are exported to the United States. Out of the 1927 catch of 7,251,900 pounds 6,155,600 pounds were sold on the American market.

A good investment

Because—De Soto Six is the only Chrysler-built six listing for as little as $1075.

Because—De Soto Six was designed by the same group of engineers, whose genius confers on all Chrysler-built cars the unmistakable attributes of leadership.

Because—Chrysler craftsmanship—guided by the unique Chrysler principle of Standardized Quality—has attained a masterpiece in the creation of De Soto Six.

Because—All the vast resources of Chrysler Motors—all the advantages resulting from the common policy of engineering, purchasing, manufacturing and financing—are crystallized in De Soto Six in a manner that cannot be equalled by any other manufacturing source.

Because—De Soto Six truly expresses the applied significance of Chrysler genius, and the inimitable means whereby Chrysler Motors constantly seeks to achieve the greatest values in the motor world.

Those who fail to discriminate in the purchase of a motor car often spend more and get less. Guard your expenditure by telephoning us or calling at our showroom, and we will be glad to demonstrate the soundness of your investment in a De Soto Six.

EMPEY HILL.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. T. Alexander, on Wednesday evening. In spite of the threatening weather, there was a good attendance of members and visitors present. The President, Mrs. Wilbert Winter, was in charge of the meeting, which was opened by singing, followed by prayer. The Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. E. Price. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. Roll call was responded to by the name of a favorite hymn. Readings were given by Mrs. B. Kimmerly and Mrs. Ashley. The June meeting, which is to take the form of a sewing bee, will be held at the home of Mrs. W. Anderson.

A social half hour was spent at the close of the meeting, which was enjoyed by all.—A reception service for a number of new members into our church will be held at the close of the morning service on Sunday, May 5th. —Special plans are being made for the Mothers' Day service the following Sunday. We are trying to have everybody in the community at church that day.—Mr. Earl Pinney and Mr. Willis Kimmerly, Syracuse, N.Y., spent the week end with their parents.—Mr. I. Jackson, Selby, spent a day recently with his daughter, Mrs. Wilbert Winter.—Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Gibson and family, Gananoque, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Jas. Barnes.—A number from here took in the play at Selby, on Tuesday evening.—Miss M. Pitchett spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. F. Kimmerly.—Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Abrams, Lakefield, spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Mowers.—Mr. David Brown, Napanee, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Winter, for a few days.

Manager of Store—"What do you mean by arguing with that lady? Let her have her own way. Remember, a customer is always right."

Clerk—"But she said we were swindlers."

Magistrate—You are charged with habitual drunkenness. Have you any excuse to offer?

Prisoner (brightly)—Habitual thirst, my lord.

R. Y. EATON

Mr. Eaton is President of the T. Eaton Co., Ltd., Canada, which controls the Canadian Department Stores, Limited. This group of the great chain of Eaton Stores last Friday celebrated the anniversary of the occasion when the Canadian Department Stores were taken over a year ago. Under Eaton control, these stores have been modernized and made wholly attractive — and the store here particularly is an example of the improvements which have been wrought.

YEAR BRINGS GREAT CHANGES IN THE C.D.S.

The anniversary of the C. D. S. here, under Eaton control an inspection of this attractive store reveals the fact that important improvements have been accomplished in the appearance and arrangement of the store throughout the year. These changes have been going on so continuously that they have not always been obvious to regular visitors at the store, but to any one who remembers the store as it was a year ago when Eaton's took over the organization, the present modern arrangement and attractive surroundings are sure to be a revelation.

One of the significant facts surrounding these improvements is that they have been accomplished without any interference to daily business. Back of every change has been the one thought, to make the store as attractive, convenient, and comfortable as possible for the customer.

The changes in the local store are worthy of note. For example, installation of new stairways, better lighting, modern fixtures, carpeting of floors, removal of walls to provide better ventilation, cutting down ledges to make merchandise more accessible and more easily seen, moving the heating plant and opening up entire basement for selling.

Many New Departments Have Been Added During Past Year.

Following their consistent policy of making their stores completely adequate for the needs of the community the Canadian Department Stores, under the control of the T. Eaton Co. Ltd., have added many departments within the year which is now being celebrated by their anniversary. To serve the public satisfactorily, is the constant aim of this organization, and, in each community, their stores have put in departments calculated to serve the needs of the majority of people in the district.

As a consequence, many things can now be bought in these stores which were not formerly offered; on the other hand, certain lines have been withdrawn which were not of general need. By removing these, it has been possible to effect economies on the more necessary lines to permit offering greater values to the public in wanted merchandise.

During the past year, the store has added the following new lines: shoes, hardware, paints, toiletries, confectionery and wheel goods.

Practically all these additional sections to the store's stock have met with excellent response, and have proven to be of popular appeal.

BETHEL

We have just had another very heavy rain at time of writing, which makes the grass look very green and a good start in growth has already taken place, while still seeding is being delayed some longer.—Mrs. Edith Allenbrack left last week to visit her brother, William Edgar, in Toronto.—Mrs. Justus Gilligan is confined to her home, under the treatment of Dr. Horton, of Enterprise. We hope for a speedy recovery.—Mr. and Mrs. Dan. Sagriffe have the sympathy of the neighbors and friends in this neighborhood, in the loss of their infant son, "Kenneth Duan", aged five weeks, who passed away on Tuesday afternoon, April 30th. The burial took place in the R. C. cemetery, at Centreville, on May 1st.—Master Harold Clark continues about the same with some improvement in some ways.—Mr. and Mrs. Bert Simpkins and family and Mrs. Eunice Babcook, of Harrowsmith, spent Thursday evening, May 2nd, with the latter's daughter, Mrs. Arley Clark, and family, partaking of lunch in honor of Mrs. Clark's birthday, the birthday cake being made and decorated in the usual way with candles by the mother for the occasion.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith, of Croydon, spent last Sunday week end with Robt. Galbraith and family.—A surprise was given our people of this community last week when it was learned of the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Riddle, of Colebrook and Mr. Dan Kingsbury, of Deseronto, who were quietly married at the United Church Parsonage, in Yarker, on Wednesday, May 1st. Congratulations are extended to the aged couple. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lewis accompanied the bride and groom, by motor, to their home in Deseronto, following the ceremony.—Mr. and Mrs. Seymore Ball spent a day recently with the former's sister, Mrs. John Curl, River Road, Yarker, who we are sorry to hear is gradually sinking to her last long sleep, no hope being held now for her recovery.—Mrs. Wm. Jackson and Mrs. Ed. McKnight and daughter, Jean, spent Thursday afternoon last attending the Moscow Women's Institute at the home of Mrs. Welly Benn.

No Medicine Like Baby's Own Tablets

Once a Mother Has Used Them She Will Use Nothing Else

To once use Baby's Own Tablets is to use them continually — that is as long as there are young children in the home. That is the testimony given us by mothers from all parts of Canada. They all say that they know of nothing to equal the Tablets, that they find them safe and efficient and at the same time pleasant to take.

Mrs. John Hollinworth, Maidstone, Ont., writes:—"I have three children, the eldest fourteen and the youngest nine months old. I have always used Baby's Own Tablets for them and have found no other medicine to equal the Tablets as a relief for the many ailments of childhood."

Baby's Own Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach. They drive out constipation and indigestion, break up colds and simple fevers and make the cutting of teeth easy. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Presentation and Address.

To Mr. and Mrs. Ball and Willie.

We, your friends and neighbors, of Thorpe, have taken this last opportunity to be with you in our neighborhood before you leave for your new home in Morven.

Although you are not going so far away but what we hope to spend many more happy times together. Both you, Mr. and Mrs. Ball, have served as good neighbours in this vicinity in sickness or in health, and Willie will be greatly missed among the young folks. But what is our loss is others gain, and we hope that you will find the new friends much better than the old.

To show a little of our sorrow in seeing you leave this neighborhood, we ask Mr. and Mrs. Ball to accept this chair, and Willie this ring as a small token of remembrance from your old friends and neighbors of Thorpe, and we all extend to you a hearty welcome in our homes at any time

Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbors.

Dora—"He told me he could live on my kisses for ever."

Delia—"Are you going to let him?"

"Not till I find out what I'm going to live on."

Praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Asbestos Mines, Quebec.—"After the birth of my second child, I was always feeling tired, nervous and weak and had headaches. Sometimes you would describe pains every month. I suffered two years before I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I got four bottles at first and it did me a world of good. I would not be without it in the house now, and have another six bottles in. I recommend it to every woman I know."—Mrs. T. BARRETTE, Box 134, Asbestos Mines, Quebec.

OBITUARY

George G. Spencer.

The death occurred on Tuesday, April 30th, 1929, of George G. Spencer, at the residence of his son, in Watertown, N.Y. The deceased, the son of the late James W. Spencer, was born in North Fredericksburgh, and when four years old moved with his parents to the farm on the south side of Hay Bay in South Fredericksburgh. On this farm he lived until nine years ago, when he retired and with Mrs. Spencer moved to Napanee. After the death of Mrs. Spencer, a year later, he went to live with his son in Watertown, N.Y. Mr. Spencer, who had many friends in Napanee, had reached the age of 86 years, and was in good health until about two months ago. He is survived by one son, Mr. James F. Spencer, Watertown, N.Y.; one daughter, Mrs. William Pennell, Napanee, and foster daughter, Miss Rachel Ayrhart, of Watertown, N.Y., and a sister, Mrs. George Huff, Glen Park, N.Y.

The funeral services were held in Watertown on Wednesday morning, conducted by Rev. Charles Bollinger and Rev. F. A. Miller, after which the remains were brought to Napanee and interment made at Hay Bay cemetery. The service at the grave was taken by members of Union Lodge No. 9, A.F. & A.M., of which Mr. Spencer was a member.

Mr. Eugene Richardson.

Mr. Eugene Richardson, for many years a well known and highly respected resident of Napanee, died suddenly at his home in Belleville, on Sunday. Mr. Richardson had been suffering with a slight cold for a few days, but nothing serious was anticipated. On Sunday, however, his heart, which never had been very strong, gave out, and without warning or suffering he quietly passed away.

Mr. Richardson was of old English stock and came to Napanee with his parents when a small child. His whole life, with the exception of the last few years was spent in Napanee. He married Miss Annie Detlor, the sister of Mrs. (Judge) J. H. Madden, who survives him. A sister, the late Mrs. Edgar Foster, and a brother, the late Fred Richardson, predeceased him.

By profession, Mr. Richardson was a funeral artist, and had decorated the interior of many churches and public buildings in Ontario. He was a member of St. Andrew's United Church, Napanee, and a member of the Masonic order, No. 9, Napanee.

He leaves to mourn, his wife, Mrs. Annie Richardson; a sister, Mrs. (Dr.) Yeomans, of Toronto, and a host of friends and acquaintances.

The funeral was held from the home of Mrs. Fred Richardson, Napanee, on Tuesday, and was conducted by Rev. A. J. Wilson. The Masonic service was conducted by the members of Union Lodge No. 9, at the grave side.

DESERONTO HAS NEW CONSTABLE.

Deseronto celebrated May-Day with a new constable. Mr. Duncalfe, late of Campbellford, was in Deseronto last week and met the Council with the result that he was hired. He is a man with wide experience in his work and was on the Campbellford force for several years. T. A. Wilkins, who has been constable for some time, will likely be retained as street overseer.

PLAY AT TRINITY CHURCH.

On Friday evening, April 26th, under the auspices of the Ready Helpers' Class of Trinity Church, Napanee, the young people of Princess Street United Church, Kingston, presented their play, entitled "Cyclone Sally". It proved to be an evening of pleasure and profit. The play was most interesting and humorous and each player took his or her part very capably. The proceeds for the evening amounted to ninety-two dollars and fifty-five cents. Before the Kingston talent left for their homes, they were tendered a luncheon by the Ready Helpers' Class in the dining room of Trinity Sunday School Hall.

WEDDING BELLS.

Tyner—Mason.

A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday, May 4th, at 10.30 o'clock, at St. Mary Magdalene Church, Napanee, when Rev. Mr. Dumbrille united in marriage two popular young people of Marlbank.

The nuptials were Myrtle Geneva, only daughter of Mrs. Emma and the late Arthur Mason, and Albert Bruce, second son of George Tyner, of Marlbank. The bride looked charming in a gown of new blue flat crepe with hat to match and beige shoes and stockings, and carried a bouquet of apple blossoms. Miss Mary Gee, cousin of the bride, being bridesmaid, was attired in pongadour blue silk crepe-de-chine, with hat to match, and beige shoes and stockings, and wore the groom's gift, a white gold and cut crystal necklace.

Mr. Ralph Dafoe, cousin of the groom, was groomsman, and wore the groom's gift, white gold cuff links.

After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the groom's aunt, Mrs. Albert Root, where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. Later the bride and groom left on the 2.19 train for Toronto and other points West. On their return, the bridal couple will take up residence on the Crescent Road ranch, near Marlbank.

THE MILLS HATCHERY

Is going strong, and is turning out some wonderful hatches. We had two 96% and a number of 85% and 88% hatches last week, the average being above 70%.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather many have delayed in having their hatching done, but the next six weeks ought to be ideal for hatching and rearing of chicks, so bring us your eggs in any quantity you desire.

Reports so far have been unanimously satisfactory as to number of chicks raised, so why not join in the success with others.

Yours for first class service.

OBITUARY

Charles H. Asselstine.

The funeral of Mr. Charles H. Asselstine, who passed away at his home in Hawley, on Wednesday, was held at the family residence on Friday afternoon, May 3rd, and despite the inclemency of the weather, was largely attended. Mr. Asselstine was for many years a prominent and well known farmer residing at Hawley, and his illness had been of long duration. During these years that he was in ill health he consulted many prominent physicians at home and abroad, but they were unsuccessful in restoring his health. The deceased was probably as well known in Napanee as in the district in which he resided, and his many friends will regret to learn of his death. Surviving are brothers and one sister; also two brothers and a sister, Mr. Herbert Asselstine, proprietor of the Campbell House, Napanee; Mr. Fred G. Asselstine, Kent, Wash., and Mrs. Stewart Weese, Bath.

NOTICE

Any person or persons owing the estate of the late Robert James Delong are requested to call at the Bank of Montreal, Napanee; MRS. R. J. DELONG, Napanee, or D. M. DELONG, Belleville, Ont.

ODESSA

The annual sports day of the United Church will be held on May 24th, on the Agricultural grounds, and all preparations are under way to make it a success.—Mr. and Mrs. John Kenny, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kenny and Mrs. A. Hagerman spent Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Kenny, Kingston.—Mrs. Stanley Storms, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Risley, of Niagara Falls, N.Y., are spending a short time at the former's home here.—Mr. Storms spent the winter months at Niagara Falls, and plans on returning there in the near future.—Mrs. Olman, of Napanee, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Toles.—Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Roberston, Violet, spent Monday at W. E. Topliff's.—Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rutledge and Mr. and Mrs. Arch Bradshaw, Sydenham, were Sunday guests at B. L. King's.—The many friends of Mrs. George Watts are pleased to know that she is recovering nicely from her recent illness.

Flashlights that work, at Hooper's Drug Store.

BATH

Mrs. G. W. Cuppage is spending a couple of weeks with friends in Toronto.—Mr. G. W. Cuppage spent the week-end with her.—Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Northmore spent last week end in Toronto.—Mrs. James Aylsworth has moved into the H. D. Wemp house.—Mr. and Mrs. Smith and family, of Kingston, have moved into the village.—Mrs. John Thompson and daughter, Doris, have returned from Rochester, N.Y., where they had a pleasant three weeks' visit.—Our village lost another highly esteemed resident on April 28th, 1929, when Mrs. J. A. Tompkins passed away. She had resided in Bath for several years, but before that she resided close to the village for several years. She had been in failing health for several years, but her condition for many months had become so much worse that she was confined to bed. Besides her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Fred Reed, Bath; Mrs. C. J. Hines, Conway, and Mrs. Fred C. Lewis, Watertown, N.Y., and eight sons, Frank, of Strathcona; Fred, of Millhaven; Bazvey, of Conway; Thomas, of Yarker; Percy, of Strathcona; Harry, Archie and Wilfred, at home; and one brother, John Mc. Wright, of Yarker. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. F. Dixon, in the United Church of Bath, and interment was made at Newburgh. The many friends of the bereaved family join with them in their sorrow.—Another well known face has disappeared from our midst, in the passing of Frederick William Hudson, who resided a few miles from the village, and who passed away on May 4th, very suddenly. Although in poor health for several years his last illness was quite brief. He was well known in this vicinity and highly respected. To mourn his loss are his widow, formerly Miss Pearl Barrage, of this village, and two brothers, Albert and Charles, living near here; his aged father living with his son, Charles, and two sisters, Miss Elizabeth, residing with her brother, Albert, and Mrs. Sullivan, of Chicago, U.S.A. The funeral services were conducted on May 6th, by Rev. W. G. Swayne, at St. John's Church, and interment was made at St. John's cemetery. The sympathy of the community is extended to all those bereaved.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davy, of Kingston, attended the funeral of the latter's cousin, the late Frederick Hudson, on part of the day at W. H. Hall's.

NEWBURGH

Mrs. T. J. Cook visited on a recent day with Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, Napanee.

Senator T. C. Brown, of Schenectady, N.Y., was on a business trip to Napanee one week, and on the return trip visited his sister, Mrs. J. S. Yeomans, Newburgh. He was accompanied by Mrs. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Rogers, of Kingston, were week end guests in Newburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foster, of Brighten, spent the week end renewing acquaintances and visiting relatives.

We are sorry to report Mrs. Davidson is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard, of Yarker, was a visitor in the village on Sunday evening.

Miss Mildred Winters spent Mother's Day at home with Mrs. C. J. Winters.

A large number attended the Mother's Day Service in the United Church, Sunday evening. A special programme of worship, consisting of a story, "The Quest", by Miss Mabel McNeely; a recitation by Gwen Fluke, and a solo by Mrs. Vernon, "A Message of Our Mothers", by the Pastor.

On Tuesday, May 7th, a number of relatives and friends of Mrs. C. Clancy gave her a surprise party on the occasion of the 80th anniversary of her birthday. While Mrs. Clancy was away visiting, friends took possession of her home, bringing flowers, gifts and refreshments. Congratulatory messages were received from members of her family, one coming from as far away as Texas. A beautiful luncheon was given her by the Women's Adult Bible Class of the United Church (which Mrs. Clancy was formerly for a number of years teacher of this class. Only one of her children lives in this vicinity and was able to be present, Mrs. S. Shier, of Deseronto, and her children. An interesting event in connection with the birthday party was the christening of a great-grandson, Jack Clancy Gordon Switzer, the child of Mrs. Clancy's granddaughter, Mrs. Burma Switzer. Those present were Mrs. Shier, and her children, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Switzer and Francis, Clancy, and Bob; Misses Edna H. M. Paul, sisters; her brothers, Peter Paul and Frank; Robt. W. and Mrs. Paul, of Selby; children of Hawley Paul were Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Moore, with their daughters, Mrs. Empey and Miss Marjorie Moore, of Switzerville. Mr. Clare Paul, B.A., LL.B., Percy Paul and his son, Edward. Representatives of Stuart Paul's family were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Paul and Gordon and Irene, of Napanee; and of Wm. Paul's family the representatives were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Paul, with their children, Helen, Gordon, Willie, Norman, also Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Paul, of Deseronto, with their children, Don, Dorothy, Phylis and Lois; Rev. T. H. P. and Mrs. Anderson. The evening was spent in visiting and having a good time. Refreshments were served. "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" was sung, and the party dispersed after assuring Mrs. Clancy of their very hearty best wishes for many returns of the day.

The W. M. Auxiliary of the United Church, Newburgh, was held at the home of Mrs. German Wagar, on Wednesday afternoon, the 8th inst., at 2.30 o'clock. The hymn, "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me", was sung, and a portion of Scripture read by Miss Eliza Paul, after which Mrs. Jos. Paul led in the devotions in prayer. The Treasurer's report for the quarter was read. $107.82 having been sent to the Presbyterial Treasurer. Miss Welbanks and Miss Yeomans were appointed to prepare the programs for the next two meetings. Mrs. D. Denison asked that the June meeting be held in her home.

The business being concluded Miss H. M. Paul gave a report part of the program of the Branch meeting held in Kingston. She spoke of the social intercourse enjoyed on the first afternoon, of the spiritual uplift of the devotional periods, of the reports brought in from the group conferences, of the forceful temperance addresses given by Mrs. Gordon of Kingston, and of the Quiet Hall Hour led by Mrs. R. O. Jolliffe based on "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up on wings as eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint."

An impressive Memorial Service was held for the 150 members who, during the past year had entered higher service. Miss Winnifred Thomas, of Toronto, spoke of the difficulty of securing new missionary candidates to fill the 30 or 40 vacancies occurring each year by superannuation, illness, or death of workers on the different fields. Mrs. Dunwoody read a paper on tithing, emphasizing the important place which systematic giving plays in the life of the christian. The time for closing the session had come, so Mrs. Anderson's report on the other day of the convention was left over for the next meeting. A hymn was sung and prayer offered, thus closing a very interesting and helpful afternoon.

OBITUARY

Charles H. Asselstine.

The funeral of Mr. Charles H. Asselstine, who passed away at his home in Hawley, on Wednesday, was held at the family residence on Friday afternoon, May 3rd, and despite the inclemency of the weather, was largely attended. Mr. Asselstine was for many years prominent and well known farmer residing at Hawley, and his illness had been of long duration. During the many years that he was in ill health he consulted many prominent physicians at home and abroad, but they were unsuccessful in restoring his health. The deceased was probably as well known in Napanee as in the district in which he resided, and his many friends will regret to learn of his death. Surviving are two brothers and a sister, Mr. Herbert Asselstine, proprietor of the Campbell House, Napanee; Mr. Fred C. Asselstine, Kent, Wash., and Mrs. Stewart Weese, Bath.

ODESSA

The annual sports day of the United Church will be held on May 24th, on the Agricultural grounds, and all preparations are under way to make it a success.—Mr. and Mrs. John Kenny, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kenny and Mrs. A. Hagerman spent Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Kenny, Kingston.—Master Storms, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Risley, of Niagara Falls, N.Y., are spending a short time at the former's home here. Mr. Storms spent the winter months at Niagara Falls, and plans on returning there in the near future.—Mrs. Olman, of Napanee, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Toles.—Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Robertson, Toronto, spent Monday at W. E. Toplift's.—Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rutledge and Mr. and Mrs. D. Wemp, Sydenham, were Sunday guests at B. L. King's.—The many friends of Mrs. George Watts are pleased to know that she is recovering nicely from her recent illness.

Flashlights that work, at Hooper's Drug Store.

BATH

Mrs. G. W. Cuppage is spending a couple of weeks with friends in Toronto. Mr. G. W. Cuppage spent the week end with her.—Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Northmore spent last week end in Toronto.—Mrs. James Aylsworth has moved into the Mrs. Wemp house.—Mrs. Howard Smith and family, of Kingston, have moved into the village.—Mrs. John Thompson and daughter, Doris, have returned from Rochester, N.Y., where they had a pleasant three weeks' visit.—Our village has another esteemed resident on April 28th, 1929, when Mrs. J. A. Tompkins passed away. She had resided in Bath for three years, but before that she resided close to the village for several years. She had been in failing health for several years, but her condition for many months had become so much worse that she was confined to her bed. To mourn her loss are her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Fred Keech, Bath; Mrs. C. D. Lewis, Watertown, N.Y.; and Mrs. Fred C. Lewis, Watertown, N.Y.; and eight sons, Frank, of Strathcona; Fred, of Millhaven; Harvey, of Conway; Thomas, of Yarker; Percy, of Strathcona; Harry, Archie and Wilfred, at home; and one brother, John W. Wright, of Yarker. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. F. Dixon, in the United Church of Bath, and Interment was made at Newburgh. The many friends of the bereaved family join with them in their sorrow.—Another well known face has disappeared from our midst, in the passing of Frederick William Hudson, who resided a few miles from the village, and who passed away on May 4th, very suddenly. Although in poor health for several years the last illness was quite brief. He was well known in this vicinity and highly respected. To mourn his loss are his widow, formerly Miss Pearl Barriage, of this village, and two brothers, Albert and Charles, living near here; his aged father living with his son, Charles; and two sisters, Miss Elizabeth, residing with her brother, Albert, and Mrs. Hallman, of Chicago, U.S.A. The funeral services were conducted on May 6th, by Rev. W. G. Jerome, at St. John's Church, and interment was made at St. John's cemetery. The sympathy of the community is extended to all those bereaved.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davy, of Kingston, attended the funeral of the latter's cousin, the late Frederick Rudder.—Miss Hall spent part of the day at W. H. Hall's.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell and family, of Toronto, motored to Newburgh and visited Mr. and Mrs. C. Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott, of Kingston, were at Mr. Roscoe Scott's, during the week end.

Mrs. T. J. Cook visited on a recent day with Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, Napanee Road.

Senator T. C. Brown, of Schenectady, N.Y., was on a business trip to Newburgh, on Monday last.—Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Bowerman, of Kingston, spent the week end renewing acquaintances and visiting relatives.

We are sorry to report Mrs. Davidson is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard, of Yarker, was a visitor in the village on Sunday evening.

Miss Mildred Winters spent Mother's Day at home with Mrs. C. J. Winters.

A large number attended the Mother's Day Service in the United Church, Sunday evening. A special program of worship, consisting of a story, "The Quest", by Miss Mabel McNeely; a recitation by Gwen Flike, and a very fine sermon, "The Faith of Our Mothers", by the Pastor.

On Tuesday, May 7th, a number of relatives and friends of Mrs. C. Clancy gave her a surprise party on the occasion of the 80th anniversary of her birthday. While Mrs. Clancy was away visiting, friends took possession of her home, bringing flowers, gifts and refreshments. Congratulatory messages were received from members of her family, one coming from as far away as Texas. A beautiful fuchia was given her by the Women's Adult Bible Class of the United Church Sunday School. Mrs. Clancy was formerly for a number of years teacher of this class. Only one of her children lives in this vicinity and was able to be present, Mrs. S. Shier, of Deseronto, and her children. An interesting event in connection with this birthday party was the christening of a great-grandson, Jack Clancy Gordon Shier, son of Mrs. Clancy's granddaughter, Mrs. Burma Switzer. Those present were Mrs. Shier, and her children, Mrs. Floyd Switzer and Francis, Clancy, and Bob; Misses E. and H. M. Paul, sisters; her brother, Jas. Paul, and Mrs. Paul; Miss Joy Paul and Frank; Robt. W. and Mrs. Paul, of Selby; children of Hawley Paul's family were Mr. and Mrs. Reg Paul and Gordon and Irene, of Napanee; and of Wm. Paul's family the representatives were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Paul, with their children, Helen, Gordon, Willie, Norman, also Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Paul, of Switzerville, with their children, Don, Dorothy, Phylis and Lois; Rev. T. H. P. and Mrs. Anderson. The evening was spent in visiting and having a good time. Refreshments were served. "Blest Be The Tie That Binds" was sung, and the party dispersed after assuring Mrs. Clancy of their very hearty best wishes for many returns of "the day".

The W. M. Auxiliary of the United Church, Newburgh, was held at the home of Mrs. German Wagar, on Wednesday afternoon, the 8th inst., at 2.30 o'clock. The hymn, "Jesus Saviour, Pilot Me", was sung, and a portion of Scripture read by Miss Elsa Paul. Prayer was then said by one of the members in prayer. The Treasurer's report for the quarter was read, $107.25 having been sent to the Provincial Treasurer. Miss Welbanks and Miss Yeomans were appointed to prepare the programs for the next two meetings. Mrs. D. Denison asked that the June meeting be held in her home.

The business being concluded Miss H. M. Paul gave a report of part of the Provincial Branch meeting lately held in Kingston. She spoke of the social intercourse enjoyed on the first afternoon, of the spiritual uplift of the devotional periods, of the reports brought in from the group conferences, of the forceful temperance addresses given by the Secretary for Temperance and Mrs. Gordon, of Kingston, and of the Quiet Half Hour led by Mrs. R. O. Joliffe based on "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up on wings as eagles, they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint."

An impressive Memorial Service was held for the 150 members who, during the past year had entered higher service. Miss Winnifred Thomas, of Toronto, spoke of the difficulty of securing new members to replace those to fill the 20 or 30 vacancies caused each year by superannuation, illness, death of workers and removal to other fields. Mrs. Dunwoody read a paper on tithing, emphasizing the important place which systematic giving plays in the life of the christian. The time for closing the session had come, so Mrs. Anderson's report on the other departments of the convention was left over for the next meeting. A hymn was sung and prayer offered, thus closing a very interesting and helpful afternoon.

Presentation and Address

On Friday evening, April 19th, 1929, a large number of friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mrs. Mary A. Kerr to bid them farewell before leaving for their new home in Napanee, and presented them with a beautiful electric floor lamp.

Following is the address:—

Dear Mrs. Kerr and Freda.—We have met to-night, as friends and neighbours, partly to renew old associations, but chiefly out of honor and respect for you, who have spent the better part of your lives among us, but who now find it necessary, because of circumstances, to take your departure from our midst.

You have always been good neighbours and loyal friends, and your ever ready sympathy in our hours of sorrow, as well as in our times of joy, has endeared you to us, and we feel sure these same qualities will make many friends for you in your new home.

It is with regret that we say good-bye, but our loss will be but another's gain, and your future home is not so remote but our personal associations may remain unbroken.

We will miss you in the church and in the W. M. S., and you, Freda, will be greatly missed in the Sunday School, which you so faithfully attended, but hope that in your new home you may enjoy God's richest blessing.

And now as a token of our good will and esteem, we ask you to accept this gift, trusting that it will always remind you of your old friends at Ebenezer.

Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbours,

MURNEY SCOTT
CLAYTON ANDERSON.

Mrs. Kerr and Freda thanked their many friends and neighbours for their kindness.

How to Reduce Varicose Veins

Rub Gently and Upward Toward the Heart as Blood in Veins Flows That Way

Many people have become despondent because they have been led to believe that there is no remedy that will reduce swollen veins and bunches.

If you will get a two-ounce original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) at any first-class drug store and apply it night and morning as directed you will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.

Moone's Emerald Oil is a harmless, yet most powerful germicide and two ounces lasts a very long time. Indeed, so powerful is Emerald Oil that old chronic sores and ulcers are often entirely healed and anyone who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded. Wallace's Drug Store sells lots of it.

BAY VIEW

(For last week.)

The farmers are very anxious for fine weather.—The heavy wind of Friday did small damage in this district.

The Feast of the Lord's Supper was solemnized by Rev. S. F. Dixon, in Beulah Church, on Sunday morning.—The Ladies' Aid held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. S. Little, on Thursday of last week, and laid plans for re-roofing Beulah Church.—The Woman's Institute will hold their next meeting at the home of Mrs. P. Compton. The business of the year will be discussed, and election of officers for next year will take place.—Mrs. J. Clement still continues on the sick list.—The many friends of Chas. Collins, of Millhaven, will be glad to know that he is improving as well as possible, after having his left leg amputated above the knee, following an attack of gangreen.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Frink, of Wilton, and former residents of this place, suffered a severe accident on the Provincial Highway on Saturday, when they were ran into by a Detroit car. Mrs. Frink is in the K. G. H. in a serious condition. A speedy recovery is hoped for by her many friends of this place.—Mr. S. Reid installed a phone at Sidney Little's, on Friday last.—Mr. and Mrs. A. Lane and family, of Belleville, have moved into our neighbourhood, occupying the house owned by the shareholders of the Bay View cheese factory.—Mr. and Mrs. Roy McDonough, of Oshawa, spent Sunday with relatives here.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Catherine Melbourne

Mrs. Catherine Melbourne, nee Miss Catherine Stone, after a long serious illness, passed peacefully to the "Great Beyond", on Monday, at 8.50 a.m. Her husband predeceased her several years ago. Mrs. Melbourne, who had lived practically her whole life at Empey Hill and in the surrounding vicinity, was 60 years and 8 months old, and had been in good health until about a year ago, when she began to fail. Since last October she has been confined to her bed.

Mrs. Melbourne was a woman of good Christian character and bore her recent illness with Christian fortitude. She was Superintendent of Empey Hill Sunday School for three years, and will be sadly missed in her home, Empey Hill Sunday School and Church, and also in the community at large.

Mrs. Melbourne is survived by her father, Mr. Stone, Deseronto; two sons and two daughters, Ross and Miss Opal, at home; Mrs. Ernest Waddingham and Charles, of Lonsdale, Ont.; seven grandchildren; also by two sisters, Mrs. J. A. Porter, Wauksha, Wisc., and Mrs. Wm. Parfitt, Rome, N.Y.; and two brothers, Mr. Hawley Stone, Flinton, Ont., and Mr. Wesley Stone, Oneida, N.Y.

The funeral, which took place in Empey Hill Church, on Wednesday at 10 a.m., was largely attended by sympathetic friends and neighbours for many miles around. Rev. H. Foley officiated and interment was made in Deseronto cemetery. The bearers were Messrs. Bruce Russell, Baron Demorest, Fred Kennerly, Wm. Alexander, Wm. Pinney and Elias Stafford.

Besides the floral tributes received from the family and the many friends and relatives, were a wreath from Empey Hill Sunday School, and a spray from the Ladies' Aid and W. M. S., all of which show the esteem in which she was held.

They come to SEE— They stay to BUY . .

THOUSANDS come to see De Soto Six because any automobile sponsored by Walter P. Chrysler is a magnet to those who look for the latest and finest in fine cars. They stay and many of them buy because the De Soto Six exceeds their expectations of what even a Chrysler-built car could give for so moderate a price.

They find a roomy, comfortable car—stylish, distinguished—with ample power and speed, rapid yet smooth acceleration and exceptional safety due to four-wheel hydraulic brakes.

They see those evidences of Chrysler craftsmanship which assure long life, easy maintenance, low running cost and a satisfactory re-sale value. And they find all these distinctive attributes of Chrysler Motors quality at a price well below $1500.

See De Soto Six and drive it. There is no obligation. Come in today.

Prevents Stone Bruises

ONE small stone puts a barefoot boy out of the running—but ten thousand stones fail to keep Gum Cushioned Tires off the road. Even though each stone crashes into the same spot—the live gum cushions will absorb each successive shock. What better tire-protection would you have? And you pay no more for them. Go to Gum Cushion Tire Stations—they'll show you.

DYNAMIC SPEAKER AT NO EXTRA COST TO YOU

$250.00 COMPLETE (in Canada)

The Model "Four-Hundred" Highboy

Rogers Batteryless Radio

HERE'S good news for those who are planning to purchase a radio soon. This popular Rogers model is now equipped with a newly-developed Dynamic Speaker, instead of the Magnetic Speaker used formerly. And the price remains exactly the same—only $250.00 complete!

The Dynamic Speaker is generally recognized as one of the greatest recent improvements in radio. Its advantages are now yours in this beautiful Rogers Highboy model, in addition to the many other advantages of Rogers-Batteryless ownership.

Due to the remarkable development of chain broadcasting radio has become a year 'round source of entertainment and education. And—as any owner will tell you—Rogers is the ideal year 'round radio.

You are missing a lot without a Rogers. Ask us to demonstrate. Terms to suit your convenience.

"Did you tell her when you proposed that you were unworthy of her? That always makes a good impression."

"I was going to—but she told me first."

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Customer—"Do you make any reduction for those in the same line of business?"

Waiter—"Yes; are you a restaurant keeper?"

Customer—"No—I'm a burglar."

Sores Heal Quickly.—Have you a persistent sore that refuses to heal? Then, try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil in the dressing. It will stop sloughing, carry away the proud flesh, draw out the pus and prepare a clean way for the new skin. It is a recognized healer among oils and numbers of people can certify that it healed where properly applied.

Judge—"You say this man struck you last night. Have you any witnesses to prove it?"

Pat (pointing to black eye)—"I have—an eye-witness, yer honor.

For Sprains and Bruises.—There is nothing better for sprains and contusions than Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It will reduce the swelling that follows a sprain, will cool the inflamed flesh and draw the pain. It will take the ache out of a bruise by counteracting the inflammation. A trial will convince any who doubt its power.

An elderly Polk County woman paid her first visit to the dentist to have several teeth extracted.

"Will you have gas, madam?" she was asked.

"Certainly," she replied. "I don't want you fumbling in the dark."

A safe and sure medicine for a child troubled with worms is Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator.

Two convicts were talking.

"You know," said one, "it took John Bunyan all his life to write a story."

"Garn," was the reply, "it took me ten years to do a sentence."

Many people are almost crippled with corns. But it is needless suffering which can be speedily ended with Holloway's Corn Remover.

"That rich uncle of John's is worrying about what our married future will be," said the bride-to-be.

"Yeah?" said her chum, "and what are you worrying about?"

"What his wedding present will be," she replied.

An excellent protection against worms can be got in Miller's Worm Powders. They render the stomach and intestines untenable to them. They heal the surfaces that have become inflamed by the attacks of the parasites and serve to restore the strength of the child that has been undermined by the draughts that the worms have made upon it, and that their operation is altogether healthgiving.

Robin and Richard were two city men. They lay in bed till the clock struck ten.

Then Robin jumped up and cried, "Richard, me thinks,

As we're late for the office we'll go on the links.

Our clients can wait, they're a gullible bunch.

Hurry up and we'll manage a round before lunch."

The Last Asthma Attack may really be the last one if prompt measures are taken. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy will safe-guard you. It will penetrate to the smallest bronchial passage and bring about a healthy condition. It always relieves and its continued use often has a permanent effect. Why not get this long famous remedy to-day and commence its use? Inhaled as smoke or vapor it is equally effective.

The new Irish pupil at a big boarding school excited much curiosity by his habit of talking to himself. One day a senior boy stopped him and asked, with a supercilious smile, "Why on earth are you always chattering to yourself."

"Shure, for two very good reasons."

"What are they?"

"Well, bedad, one is that I loike to listen to a sensible man, and the other is that I loike to talk to a sensible man."

ENTERPRISE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The regular monthly meeting of the Enterprise Women's Institute was held in Keech's Hall, on Friday, April 26th, with the President, Mrs. V. D. Olliver, in the chair. The District President, Mrs. A. E. Hoffman, and a number of representatives from the other branches of the Institute, were present, to assist in preparing the programme for the District Annual Convention, which is to be held at Yarker in June.

The meeting opened with community singing, after which the minutes of minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted, correspondence and business attended to, and preparations made for the entertainment of the lady speaker in June. It was decided to hold a course in Household Science Judging, for the benefit of the women and girls of the district, at Enterprise, in June.

Mrs. Hoffman gave a short address, and by request read an excellent paper on "The Early History of Our County" beginning as far back as Champlain. The immense amount of hard work and research which went into the preparation of such an essay was duly appreciated by the audience, and the paper very much enjoyed by all.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem, after which lunch was served by the ladies of the Enterprise Women's Institute.

BAY CIRCUIT

It is many years since the water was so high in river and bay as it is this spring. Several boat houses as well as wharfs are nearly swamped by the water.—The work on our new river road has begun in earnest. Several fences have to be moved as well as a number of garages. The road is to be straightened in several places. Telephone poles will have to be moved, and it is expected that our telephone system will be dis-organized for several days this week. — The Southern part of our township is to come into prominence shortly. An American gentleman has purchased a thousand acres of marsh land and is to run a muskrat farm. He is also building several cottages.—The meeting of the Women's Missionary Society for Bay East was held at the home of Mrs. J. Card, with a large number of the ladies present. An excellent programme was given under the direction of Mrs. Laura Parks and Mrs. Elmer Alkenbrack. Mrs. Card acted as hostess, and a very helpful social hour was spent.—The funeral of the late Mr. Solomon Baldwin was held on Wednesday afternoon, May 8th, at 2.30. Rev. J. E. Beckel had charge of the service, assisted by Rev. T. H. F. Anderson, of Newburgh, a former Pastor. Both ministers paid tribute to the noble Christian character of this quiet man. Miss Marjorie Huyck, of Napanee, sang "Rock of Ages". The bearers were Mr. J. Card, Mr. A. Parks, Mr. Nugent, Mr. Fitzmartin, Mr. A. Hambly and Mr. W. Baird.—A new family from Scotland have moved into the tenant house of Mr. Edward Sills. We welcome them to our neighborhood.—The Women's Missionary Society for Bay West was held at the home of Mrs. A. C. Parks on Friday of last week, beginning at 2.30 p.m. There was a large attendance, and Mrs. J. Gough presented a very interesting and helpful programme. The chapter on "New Paths", in the book, "Drums in the Darkness", was presented. Lunch was served and a social half hour much enjoyed. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Cameron Sexsmith.—Mr. Detlor, who had just lately moved into the house vacated by Mr. Albert Sills, took suddenly ill on Friday of last week. He was taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. Yeomans, where he died on Saturday. The funeral service was held on Monday, May 13th, at his sister's home, conducted by Rev. J. E. Beckel. The Orange Order of Deseronto and visiting brethren conducted a service at the house. Interment was made in Tamworth cemetery. — Two of our Ladies' Aids hold their monthly meetings this week. On Wednesday afternoon the Anderson Ladies' Aid meets at the home of Mrs. S. Griffith; on Thursday afternoon the Hay Bay organization meets at the home of Mrs. Wilfrid McCabe. All ladies will be made welcome.—Mr. Fred Mellow and daughters, Miss Mata Mellow, of Napanee; also Mr. J. Mellow, of Newcastle, spent Mother's Day at their parents' home at Gretna.—Mr. Rockwell Parks and Mrs. and Mrs. Gordon Parks were in Kingston on Sunday afternoon, visiting Mrs. G. Parks' brother, who was seriously ill in the Kingston General Hospital, and who passed away that day.—Mrs. Alkenbrack, Sr., who has been spending some weeks with her son, Mr. Alkenbrack, returned on Sunday to her home at Gretna. Mrs. Alkenbrack, we are sorry to report, is in very poor health.—The Mother's Day services on our Circuit, on Sunday, were all well attended. Choirs rendered very appropriate music, and Pastor preached on the subject, "Mother, the Queen of Our Homes".—The Bethany Church is having its spring house cleaning this week, under the direction of the Ladies' Aid. A new carpet for pulpit and choir platform has been purchased and will improve greatly the appearance of the Church.—The Pastor will visit the following appointments this coming Sunday, May 19th: Sand Hill at 11 a.m. Hay Bay at 2.30 p.m., and Gretna at 7.30 p.m. The five Sunday Schools will be held at the usual hours.

WILTON

Mother's Day was observed on Sunday in each church by special services. — Mr. Earl Cole, of Kingston, spent the week-end with his parents here. — The school children enjoyed their annual arbor day treat of going to the woods on Friday last.—Mr. and Mrs. S. Carr spent Sunday in Kingston. — Mrs. Milligan, of Sydenham, who has been spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Mills, here, was removed to the Kingston hospital on Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. Keith Simmons were Sunday visitors at Mr. Ross Peters'.—Mrs. Rose Storms and daughter Miss Dorothy Neilson of Kingston spent Sunday last at the home of Mrs. Ida Parrott.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Murphy and family, Kingston, were at her fathers', Mr. Nick. Simmons on Sunday last.— Mr. and Mrs. S. McNeil, and Leone and Mrs. McNeil Sr. spent Sunday in Trenton.

So Fast — it will amaze you

THE speed with which a Premier-Duplex cleans is little short of amazing.

It cuts cleaning hours to a few swift minutes a day because it employs a cleaning principle that is unequalled for speedy thoroughness.

That principle is the famous Premier combination of a motor-driven brush with super-suction that extracts even the last scrap of dirt hidden deep in the nap of your rugs.

An adjustable nozzle which adapts the Premier Duplex to varying rug surfaces is a further guarantee of thoroughness.

And the Duplex needs no after-hours care—it never needs oiling.

Arrange for a home demonstration to-day, and remember without the new Spic-Span, a powerful little cleaner that antiquates attachments, your home cleaning equipment is not complete.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Emily D. Freshman.

On Monday afternoon, May 6th, a large number of people gathered in Trinity Church to pay their last respects to an aged and well-beloved citizen, Mrs. Emily E. Freshman. The esteem in which she was held was further evidenced by the presence on the platform of the three United Church ministers of the town. Mr. Pawson, who gave the address, spoke of the many noble and generous qualities which had endeared her to Napanee.

Mrs. Freshman was born in the vicinity of Napanee, of U. E. L. stock. Before her marriage she was Emily E. Miller, the daughter of Charles R. Miller and Mary Parrott. She was a sister of the late Mrs. James Daly, and of Mr. Sydney Miller, of Napanee.

Miss Miller became the wife of Rev. Jacob Freshman, at that time a minister in the old Wesleyan Methodist Church. During his ministry he occupied pulpits in Gananoque, Perth, and Georgetown.

Of Jewish extraction, Mr. Freshman felt himself specially called to work among the Jews, and for fifteen years he was in charge of the Christian mission to the Jews in New York. In this work, as elsewhere, Mrs. Freshman was an interested and devoted helper. During this time they travelled extensively. On two occasions they spent six months in Jerusalem, and in addition they visited practically every important centre in Europe.

On giving up his work among the Jews, Mr. Freshman became pastor of a Presbyterian Church in Buffalo, N.Y., which position he held until the time of his death in 1900. Following his death, Mrs. Freshman continued to live in Buffalo until nine years ago, when she returned to Napanee to spend the final years of her life among her old friends and relatives. Yet since her return she never ceased her interest in all religious and cultural subjects. Up to the very last she was an active worker in the W. M. S., in the I. O. D. E. and the W. C. T. U., and a constant and interested attendant at the meetings of the Historical Society.

Mrs. Freshman had not been in the best of health for a few weeks, and finally she suffered from a stroke, from which she failed to recover.

She is survived by her brother, Mr. Sidney Miller, of Napanee, and his four children, Mr. Charles W. Miller, Assistant Corporation Council of New York City; Mrs. T. E. Mallaby, of New York; Miss Minnie Maude, of New York, and Mr. Howard Miller, of Syracuse.

WILTON WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.

A special meeting of the Institute will be held on Thursday afternoon, May 23rd, at the Grange Hall, Wilton, at 2 o'clock. This meeting will be addressed by Mrs. M. E. Lowe, of Toronto, the Government Series speaker for this year. Subject: "Faith and Agreeableness is the Secret of Youth; Discouragement is a Disease." Every woman in the community welcome.

DORLAND

The weather on Sunday morning was bright and pleasant, after the heavy rain and electric storm of Saturday night. — The special Mother's Day service in the United Church was well attended. The floral decorations were very suitable to the occasion and the musical numbers contributed by the children of the Sunday School added to the interesting service.— We are glad to hear favorable reports from Kingston General Hospital as to the progress of Misses L. Gallagher, E. Bruce and Mrs. W. J. McCrudden, who are all recovering from appendicitis operations. Mr. W. J. Magee, who has been ill for the past two weeks, is also slightly improved. — A series of accidents occurred last week. On Monday evening Mr. H. John's team became frightened on the hill north of the cheese factory and bolted. The buggy was overturned and Mr. John and Isaac Steele thrown out, the latter injuring his shoulder. The team left the buggy there and were later discovered in James Bird's yard. On account of the darkness it took some time to locate them. On Friday afternoon when Mr. Jonas Garrison was turning around at W. E. Buck's mail box, the steering gear of his car broke, and the car would have plunged over the bank into the hay but it not struck a tree. Mr. Alex. Magee, who was a passenger, jumped and in some way sprained his shoulder. Mr. Garrison escaped with a severe nervous shock. On Sunday a wheel ran off G. A. Magee's car near the scene of Mr. John's accident, but no one was injured as the car came to a standstill without overturning. — Mr. L. Steele left for Boston last week. —Mr. L. L. Price and Miss S. Price, of Selby, were guests of their sister, Mrs. W. J. Magee, last week. Miss Price remained over until this week.—Mrs. J. A. Humphrey is spending some time in Kingston with her daughter, Mrs. F. Harper.

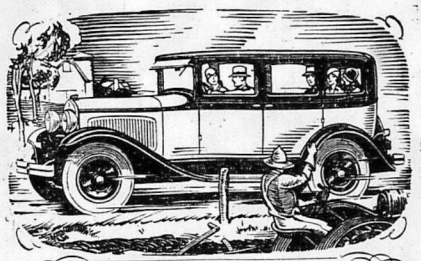
CHRYSLER MOTORS PRODUCT

Quality is the Keynote of what People Say about Plymouth

PLYMOUTH
CANADA'S LOWEST-PRICED FULL-SIZE CAR

FULL SIZE



THE SMART, FULL-SIZE FOUR-DOOR SEDAN, $890

When people discuss Plymouth, quality is invariably the keynote of their conversation.

They say most complimentary things about its Chrysler smartness, its charm, its slender-profile radiator, its graceful "air-wing" fenders, its arched windows, its chromium-plate bowl-type lamps.

They comment highly on Plymouth's full-size dimensions, its richness and spaciousness, its wide, deep seats, its exceptional leg-room.

They refer glowingly to the powerful performance of Plymouth's 45 h. p. engine, of Chrysler "Silver-Dome" principle—its speed, its pick-up, its ability on hills, its smoothness, its quietness.

They speak of Plymouth's safety—of its full-size Chrysler weatherproof 4-wheel hydraulic brakes, its rugged full-size chassis, springs and axles. They praise Plymouth's amazing economy in fuel, oil and upkeep.

After all, it is only natural that people should talk more about Plymouth's fine qualities than they do about its low price—for Plymouth is, first and last, a motor car of intrinsic quality and value

Coupe, $880; Roadster (with rumble seat), $850; 2-Door Sedan, $860; Touring, $870; De Luxe Coupe (with rumble seat), $870; 4-Door Sedan, $890. All prices f. o. b. Windsor, Ontario, including standard factory equipment (freight and taxes extra).

$820 and upwards f.o.b. Windsor

THE Plymouth—product of Chrysler engineering and craftsmanship—has been so named because its endurance and strength, ruggedness and freedom from limitations so accurately typify that band of British people who braved the Atlantic three hundred years ago in pursuit of new high ideals.

She Feels Like a New Woman Now

Says Ontario Lady After Taking Dodd's Kidney Pills

Mrs. L. Mitchell Was Troubled With Her Back

Chatham, Ont., May 16th, (Special)—"I was troubled with my back so much. I could hardly work," writes Mrs. L. Mitchell, 85 Baxter Street, Chatham, Ont. "I used three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and I feel like a new woman now. I have also used two jars of Dodd's Antiseptic Healing Ointment and find it is the very best thing."

When your back and limbs ache, and you experience dizziness and bladder irregularities, be quick to give the over-worked Kidneys fortifying help. Dodd's Kidney Pills stimulate the Kidneys. This treatment relieves you of discomfort, and wards off Rheumatism and Sciatica.

Dodd's Kidney Pills have been taken by thousands of men and women all over Canada with very beneficial results.

Obtained from druggists everywhere or The Dodds Medicine Co., Ltd., Toronto 2, Ont.

PENITENTIARY CENSUS SHOWS 2,560 INMATES

Year Ended March 31st, 1928, Has Increase of 80 Over 1927.

Ottawa—(CP)—Inmates in Canadian penitentiaries on March 31st, 1928, numbered 2,560, according to the annual report of W. S. Hughes, superintendent of penitentiaries, tabled in the House of Commons. This was an increase of 80 over the same date in 1927.

Besides 647 prisoners who were discharged during the year at the termination of their sentences, 363 were paroled, 79 were deported, 11 were pardoned and 16 died. There were no escapes from penitentiaries, although one mental prisoner escaped from a provincial insane asylum.

A strong appeal that provision be made for dependents is contained in the report. "The leaving of a poor mother, frequently with several small children without any means of support or chance of obtaining a livelihood, would," it says, "seem a greater crime than very often is committed by the one who had been their provider."

Among the statistics included are the following, giving place of birth and number of inmates: Canada, 1,583; other parts of the Empire, 329; United States, 220; Russia, 85; Italy, 75; Austria-Hungary, 67; China, 53; Roumania, 22; other countries, 120.

Length of sentences: Life, 138; under five years, 1,562; five to ten years, 584; ten years and over, 276.

CANADIAN GARDENING SERVICE

A Busy Month.

There is much work to be done in the garden this month. Provided the weather is fine, cultivation will be general in a few days, and many of the early plants can be sown. The first job will be a thorough digging, or plowing in the case of large gardens, and then continual cultivation until the soil is in a very fine state of tilth. Generally speaking, these hardy vegetables and flowers, such as beets, carrots, lettuce, spinach, parsnips, zinnias, cosmos, marigolds, calliopsis, and many others, do best when planted early. Seed should be sown to a depth of about three times its diameter, which will mean a very light covering for most things. With the annual flowers, the gardener is advised to sow in clumps, marking each clump with a stake until the plants are up high enough to identify them. Smaller plants should go in the front, with the taller sorts, such as the cosmos and the giant zinnias, at the back. It is well to bear in mind the time of flowering and the color, so that there will always be some bloom here and there in the bed and so that colors will not clash. In vegetables, plant in straight rows, preferably from north to south, so that the full benefit of the sun may be obtained. Alternate rows in the garden should be of those early maturing sorts, such as spinach, lettuce, and radishes, so that these can come out and leave more room for the later and larger kinds, like beans, peas, tomatoes, corn and beets. Try a few new flowers and new vegetables and bear in mind that the seed, while representing the smallest cost in making a garden, is probably the most important. Get the best and use plenty of it.

Dahlia Culture.

The best time to plant dahlias is from the last week in May until the middle of June. The most suitable soil is sandy, well drained, deeply tilled and generously fertilized loam. If the soil is heavy clay, loosen up by digging in well rotted humus, or even a little coal ashes. Dahlias will grow to a height of three to six feet, and on this account it is necessary to space them about the same distance apart. The tubers should be placed on their sides with the buds pointing upwards, in holes six inches deep. Close to this drive a stout stake, taking care not to damage tuber, and tie the main stem of the plant loosely at intervals of about one foot. Nip off all but one or two side shoots and at least two-thirds of the buds where large flowers are desired. Order bulbs early, as the choicest varieties are soon cleaned out.

Prolonging Vegetable Season.

A continious supply of vegetables can be secured if the earliest sorts such as carrots, beets, onions, lettuce and spinach are planted at intervals of a week or ten days until the end of June. One must cultivate frequently, thin thin out wellWrs TaO bmhfmb thin out well, and fertilize heavily with some quickly available material like nitrate of soda every ten days, if the plants are to be kept going and the resulting crop made tender. Where possible, soak well with water every three or four days, if the weather is very dry. It is well to remember that one thorough soaking a week is worth a dozen daily sprinkles. After watering, get out the hoe or scuffler and loosen up the top growth so that moisture may be preserved. Follow the early crops of spinach, lettuce, radish and onions with later maturing sorts such as tomatoes, beets, carrots, beans and corn. These can be interplanted with the early vegetables, and will not need full room until the first named are taken out and consumed.

Handling Tomatoes.

The main planting of tomatoes may be risked soon in most sections. This plant prefers warm open soil and must be grown quickly. Wherever possible, it should be staked to encourage early fruiting. Nip off all side branches and train main stem to a central stake about five feet high. Tie loosely at intervals of a foot with soft twine or raffia. When the stem reaches the top of the stake, pinch off to hurry ripening of the later formed fruit. When staked, tomatoes may be grown about two feet apart in rows three feet apare.

Sowing Annuals.

Sowing annual flower seeds in the open ground the second or third week in May has proved very successful. Spaces might be marked out by pressing a pail bottom in the soil. Sow the seed in the space marked, and dust lightly with good soil. Asters, tagetes, phlox Drummondi, petunias zinnias, candy tuft, snapdragons, etc., will all make a brilliant show during the Summer if seed is sown in this manner.

Baby's Own Tablets Win Great Praise

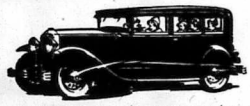
Many Mothers Always Keep Them in the House.

Thousands of mothers state that they know of no other medicine for little ones to equal Baby's Own Tablets—that they always keep the Tablets in the home as a preventive of childhood ailments, or if sickness does suddenly grip the little ones they feel safe with such a remedy at hand.

Concerning the use of the Tablets Mrs. Donat Ploudre, Tingwick, Que., writes:—"I have nothing but praise for Baby's Own Tablets. They are the only medicine I have ever given my two little ones and I am glad to state that the Tablets have always kept them in perfect health. I feel so safe with the Tablets that I always keep a box in the house."

Baby's Own Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative. They regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach and thus banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fever and make the cutting of teeth painless. The Tablets are absolutely safe, being guaranteed free from all injurious drugs. They are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25c. a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"McLaughlin-Buick get-away, power, speed and easy riding surpass any car I have ever driven. I do not think there ever was a more beautiful car made." (Name upon request)



MEN and women in every community have discovered that this dynamic car provides an advanced standard of motoring—that it out-runs, out-climbs, out-performs any automobile they have ever driven—that it is exactly what McLaughlin-Buick owners say it is; the finest performing automobile ever built!

More than twice as many people have purchased McLaughlin-Buicks as any other automobile at or above its price. And additional thousands are getting behind the wheel, getting the facts and entering orders for McLaughlin-Buicks with each passing week.

Matchless style, matchless comfort and, above all, matchless performance, are the reasons. Come, prove these things to your own satisfaction. Take the wheel of this car—test it against any other—and you, too, will join in the countrywide endorsement of McLaughlin-Buick!

OBITUARY

Alexander J. Smith.
The death occurred suddenly on Sunday of Mr. Alexander J. Smith, of Napanee. Mr. Smith had been in his usual health. There was nothing to indicate any great change, sitting in his chair he took a hemorrhage of the heart, and quietly and quickly passed away.
The deceased was the son of James Smith and Sarah Palmer, who owned and lived on a farm in Richmond Township, where Mr. Smith was born. Mr. Smith on the completion of his Public School work, attended Albert College, and on reaching twenty-one years of age he inherited the homestead. Ever since then up until his removal to Napanee ten years ago, he ran the farm.
Mr. Smith was a life-long Mason and Oddfellow, and since coming to Napanee has been active in Union Lodge No. 9, A.F. & A.M., and in Mount Sinai Royal Arch Chapter, and in I. O. O. F.
The funeral was held from the home of Mr. J. L. Boyes, Thomas Street, on Tuesday morning. Rev. A. J. Wilson conducted the ceremony, and spoke in high terms of the character of the deceased.
After the Church service the, Masonic funeral rites were engaged in by a large and representative Brother Masons. The body was conveyed to Riverside cemetery, where the final services both of the Church and the Masons were held.
There are left to mourn his loss, a half-brother, Mr. Blatherwick, of Melrose; a half-sister, Mrs. Badgley, of Corbyville, and three cousins, Mrs. J. L. Boyes, Napanee; Mrs. Wm. Crossley, Napanee, and Miss Minnie Smith, of St. Thomas.

—The Concert and one-act Comedy "The Girls", which was so successfully given recently, under the auspices of the Napanee Woman's Institute, will be given in the Parish Hall, Deseronto, on Thursday evening, May 23rd, under the auspices of the Catholic Woman's League. 20a

—The Violet Branch of the Women's Institute are having their summer lecturer with them on Monday, May 27th, in the person of Mrs. M. E. Lowe, Department Speaker. She has chosen a very worthy subject, "Faith and Agreeableness is the secret of youth and discouragement is a disease". Mrs. E. A. Wright has opened her home for the occasion, and a hearty welcome is extended to every lady and member in the district.

—Miss Ruth Lampkin, Dietitian, has sold as a going concern "The Daintibake Food Shop", 985 College St., Toronto, Ont. The new owner, Miss Agnes McTague, is also a graduate in Household Science of Macdonald Institute, O.A.C., Guelph, and will continue the business so well organized and established by Miss Lampkin. There are some six pure food shops in Toronto, owned and managed by Domestic Science experts, and these new ventures into modern food-land, have been recognized as community assets by Doctors, dietitians, and particular people interested in procuring these real home-made fine flavored products for family use. This slogan is well applied to these popular food shops: "Man is food on two feet, choose wisely what you eat".

"B" CO. FRONTENAC REGIMENT.
In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of many different things, and not the least of these is, "Where shall I spend my holidays?" The young men of this vicinity are particularly fortunate for that question can be very easily answered. A large number for the past two years have spent two weeks under canvas, among the most congenial companions, with every possible comfort, all expenses paid, and a salary as well, by attending the annual Military Camp. This year an even larger number will be going as the Camp will be at Barriefield, and any others who may wish to attend should get in touch with Major Babcock as soon as possible, as the vacancies are being rapidly filled. The hours are very easy, every evening is free, and the training is an excellent thing for everyone. The Frontenac Regiment, one of the livest organizations in the district, is very anxious to have as many athletes as possible, particularly runners, boxers, and softball players, for the many trophies which they have won in the past must be defended. Camp commences on July 8th. Let's go!

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY TRINITY UNITED CHURCH
On Tuesday evening, May 7th, the regular monthly meeting of the W. M. S. was held in the Sunday School Room at 7.30 o'clock. It proved to be a meeting of unusual interest, as the Society had been fortunate enough to secure Mrs. J. D. Walker, of the Dominion Board, Toronto, as special speaker. Mrs. Walker is visiting in Napanee, and was generous enough to accede to our request for an address. Mrs. Walker has had a wide experience in Home Mission work, and gave a vivid description of the conditions which prevailed in the West and in Northern Ontario twenty years ago, before Hospitals and School Homes were organized, of the sacrifices and privations of the young missionaries and doctors struggling against what seemed insurmountable difficulties, the crude equipment with which they had to carry on their work of healing, both to the body and soul of those early settlers in the remote parts of Canada, and the tremendous relief which was immediately felt when hospitals were established. Following the address, Mrs. F. Laughlin rendered a vocal solo. The crowning surprise of the evening came when the President announced, just before the closing hymn, that she had received a cheque for $50.00 from a lady who did not wish her name divulged, but who thought this amount might help us towards our allocation. Needless to say great pleasure was universally expressed and much curiosity evinced as to the identity of the generous donor.

OBITUARY

The Late Mrs. MacConachie.

On Wednesday, May 15th, 1929, South Napanee lost one of its best known and most highly respected residents, when Mrs. Robert MacConachie passed away. Mrs. MacConachie had been ailing for some months, and her death was not unexpected, and at the last she quietly slept away.

Mrs. MacConachie before her marriage was Harriet Catharine Rankin, daughter of William Rankin and Barbara Carnall, who were among the early settlers in the district. She was born and grew up in Napanee and married Mr. Robert MacConachie, who predeceased her some years. There were eight children, six of whom survive: Frank, of Toronto; John, of Hamilton; Norman, of Rivers, Sask.; Caroline, Margaret and Grace, of Montreal. In addition she is survived by two nieces, Mrs. James Graham and Miss Helen Chalmers, of Edmonton.

Except for a few years of her married life spent in Brampton, Mrs. MacConachie lived in Napanee. Through the years, her quiet manner, kind and sympathetic disposition, even and unruffled temperament had won for her hosts of warm and lasting friendships. She was a member of St. Andrew's Church, and up to the very last took a keen interest in all its activities.

The funeral service, which was a private one, was held from her late residence on Saturday afternoon, Rev. A. J. Wilson, who has known Mrs. MacConachie ever since coming to the town fourteen years ago, spoke of her personal attributes, her courage in the face of life's problems, her deep faith and devotion to church and family. She was a member of the Western cemetery, borne to her last resting place by Mr. Cartwright Hawley, Mr. E. J. Corkill, Mr. J. M. Thomson, Mr. G. H. Rankin, Mr. W. T. MacKenzie, and Mr. Wm. Hewitt.

The large number of floral tributes was a fitting testimony to the warm place which Mrs. MacConachie held in the love and affections of a wide circle of friends and relatives.

ERNESTOWN

The rainy weather is surely a great damage to the farmers, as very little sowing has been done yet.—Mrs. Martin Wiseman spent the week-end in Belleville with Mrs. Irvine Miller. — A number from here attended the church service in Bath on Sunday night, also the old time concert on Monday night.

Miss Edna Glenn spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. K. Hill. — The regular monthly meeting of the United Church Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Thompson on Wednesday, May 15th. There was a splendid attendance, there being 29 members and visitor at the meeting, which was presided over by the President. The scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Geo. Spring, followed by the minutes of the last meeting and the roll call. Business matters were discussed, and several new members were added to the list. The birthday box was passed to those not present at the last meeting, it being well filled. Mrs. Willie Kellar gave a delightful reading on "Mother," which was much enjoyed by all. There was $1.45 added to the Floral Fund. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, ample justice being done by all. This brought a delightful afternoon to a close. The collection amounted to $10.50.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Close Sundayed at Mr. Geo. Spring's. — Mr. H. Smith and Miss Emily Baker, of Parrott's Bay, spent Wednesday at Mr. Joel Kellar's.—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knight and family, of Shannonville, Sundayed at Mr. Clarence Thompson's.—A number of our young people took in the kitchen shower at Kenneth Hall's on Friday last.—Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith and family had tea on Sunday night at Mr. Wm. Chaplin's.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weese spent Saturday evening in Desoronto.—On Saturday, May 18th, Miss Lauretta Cousins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cousins, was quietly married in Bath to Mr. Irwin Youngs, of Ernestown, son of Wesley Hall's. The couple were attended by Miss Marguerite Wood as bridesmaid and Mr. Errand Cousins as best man, brother of the bride.

Copalline—the same good varnish you have used for 20 years, now has the added feature of drying in 4 hours. It gives a brilliant gloss, will not darken hardwood floors and wears extremely well. Priced at $1.60 qt., and $3.00 half gallon, at Wallace's, Napanee Agents.

CENTREVILLE

The continued wet weather makes it very difficult for farmers to get their seeding done. The cheese factory has reopened for the summer months with Mr. Runnalls as our cheesemaker. — Miss Pauline McGill has returned, after visiting friends in the States.—Mr. Lloyd Brown has secured a position in the cheese factory for the summer months. — Mr. Walter Thompson spent Sunday evening at George McGill's.—Miss Grace Weese is visiting friends in Oshawa.—Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brown spent an evening recently at Shan. McKeown's.—Mr. Harold Thompson and Miss Eamerice Milligan spent an evening recently at Napanee.—Mr. Richard Coulter spent Sunday evening at Mr. Charlie Clark's.

ODESSA

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Babcock left last Saturday to make their home in Toronto, where Mr. Babcock has accepted a position.—Mrs. Henry Burley left last Friday to visit her daughter Mrs. Harker, Syracuse. — Mrs. Ernie Babcock and Miss Roberts, of Perth Road, were guests of Mrs. Wm. Tolls last Sunday.—Mr. J. G. Ettinger, and daughter, Miss Bessie, and son, Russel, Kingston, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Smith.—Miss Zita Kenyon, Toronto, spent a couple of days the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. King and Fred Sproule, Toronto, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Sproule. — Mr. Albert Hartman is building a new home on the lot recently purchased from S. J. Sproule. The wall and foundation has been completed.—The Fourth Line Dramatic Club staged their popular play, "Hicks Farm," in the Town Hall, last Saturday night, in behalf of the Mission Circle. The large hall was well filled, and all enjoyed the evening's entertainment very much. The door receipts amounted to over sixty-five dollars.—Mother's Day last Sunday brought an unusually large congregation to the United Church. Rev. G. Edgar Wade delivered an eloquent sermon suitable for the occasion and the special music and choir selections were very fine and enjoyed by all.—Arbor Day for the Public School was held last Friday. The forenoon was spent in cleaning the grounds and planting trees. All took their dinners to the nearby woods and the afternoon passed quickly in games and gathering flowers. About seventy-five pupils enjoyed the outing, which is always looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure. The teachers, Miss Leatherland and Miss Anglin put forth every effort to make this a memorable event for their classes. — Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Hagerman and sons, Teddy and Buddy, of Rochester, spent a few days with the former's mother, Mrs. A. Hagerman. — Max Kenyon, who has been home for some time, has returned to Toronto.—Mr. and Mrs. George Way, Watertown, New York, spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mabee. Mrs. Southworth and Mrs. Webster, Toronto, were also their recent guests.

TAMWORTH

The farmers in this vicinity are having considerable trouble getting their seeding done, on account of so much wet weather.—Mrs. S. Haggerty returned home last week, after spending a short time with her parents in Woodstock.—Miss Mae Foster, Belleville, spent the week end with Miss Marion Richmond. — Misses Beatrice and Bernice Milligan, also Mrs. W. G. Richmond spent Saturday in Kingston.—Mrs. E. J. Present, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Present and family, of Blenheim, spent a few days visiting Mrs. Beckstead, who returned with them Monday for a short visit.—Services on the United Church Circuit will be held on Sunday next at Tamworth 11 a.m., Reidville 2.30 p.m., and Marlbank 7.30 p.m. Sunday School sessions are appointed for Marlbank at 10 o'clock in the morning and Reidville at 1.30 in the afternoon.

All those who want a pleasant way To spend the 24th of May, Should come to Tamworth, for I say There is to be lots of fun.

Of sports there is to be no end, And after supper you will wend Our way to the Town Hall,

Where we will see a boxing match, And after that a pleasant dance, So welcome one and all.

YARKER SOUTH

The cold wet weather of late has hindered the farmers, and very few have much sowing done.—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fenwick, of Sydenham, on Sunday last at the home of their cousin, John Love.—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Newman and Milford, of Wilton West, spent Wednesday evening with their aunt, Mrs. Martha Love.—Mr and Mrs. Arthur Irish and family, of Belleville, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Cassen Davey.—Mr. Everton Peters and Irvine, Bristol, of Sydenham, were called on Harold Huff on Thursday evening — Mrs. Vernon Bell and two children, of Enterprise, spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Chester Love.—Messrs. Ross Spencer and Thos. Hare, of Harrowsmith, called on Wm. Calthorpe one evening last week.—Miss Gladys Wilson spent Monday afternoon with Miss Mercy Babcock. — Mrs. Ed. Hamilton called on Mrs. Harold Huff on Wednesday afternoon.—Mr. and Mrs. Milford Love, of Wilton, called on his brother, Chester Love, on Wednesday evening. Mr. Wm. Calthorpe visited on Sunday at Mr. Stan. Husband's, Harrowsmith. — Mr. Harry Prescott spent Sunday at his home in Yarker.—Mr. and Mrs. Chester Love called one evening last week on Mrs. Charlie Curle.

DORLAND

Despite the continued cool, damp weather and white frosts, the grain that has been sown is coming up.—The unusually high water is making a lot of work on the Hay Bay road. All available men and teams are employed in drawing stone and erecting breakwaters in an endeavour to save the road from being undermined and the cement bridge being destroyed. — Every one is invited to the United Church on Friday evening, May 24th, to enjoy the Pie Social which the Ladies' Aid are giving on that date. Rev. J. A. Pirritt will give a travel talk; a number of musical selections will also form part of an interesting program. — We are glad to learn that Mrs. W. J. McCrudden is able to leave the hospital.—Mr. W. J. Magee is also recovering from his recent illness.—A suspicious looking tramp caused considerable excitement in the locality on Saturday. He called at a number of houses late in the evening and requested food. A call was sent to the police in Napanee, but the man evidently disappeared in the darkness.

BOY KILLED BY AUTO

A tragic accident occurred on the Newburgh Road, just inside the town limits, on Friday evening, when John Irvine, aged 16 years, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Irvine, Centre street, was fatally injured when struck by an automobile driven by Harvey McFarlane, of Napanee.

The unfortunate lad was on a bicycle going to Mr. Middleton's, and his two chums, Cyrus Middleton, aged 18, who is an employee of the Gibbard Furniture Co., and Ernest Conger, aged 15, were walking at the edge of the sidewalk pushing a bicycle.

The car which struck the boy was coming from Newburgh, the accident occurring about 9 o'clock.

Immediately following the accident, the lad was taken to Dr. Stratton's office and the ambulance was procured to take him to the Kingston General Hospital, but death ensued about half an hour after the accident.

The deceased was one of four children, there being Mary, a sister; Maxiene and Jim. The young lad was very popular with his chums.

The preliminary inquest was held on Saturday morning, and after the remains had been viewed by the jury the inquest was adjourned until Wednesday night. Dr. Stratton, Coroner, was in charge.

The funeral was held from the residence of Mr. John Yates, Adelphi St., on Monday afternoon.

ILLNESS FATAL TO OLD TIMER

Was Pioneer Resident of Mullan; Ship Body to Canada.

Mr. Richard Alexander McVitty, one of the oldest pioneers of the North West, and an early-day resident of the morning city, died at the Providence Hospital on May 4th, at 9.30 a.m.

Mr. McVitty had been in poor health for the entire winter, but for the past few weeks his condition was pronounced serious. He was removed to the Hospital several days before the end came.

The late Mr. McVitty was born in the County of Leitrim, Ireland, in the year 1854, and was 75 years of age. He came to America fifty years ago, and since 1892 has made Mullan his home. He was married to Miss Ida Wheeler, of Tamworth, Ont., Canada, in Spokane, Washington, in 1900. During his residence here he has followed his trade of mechanical engineer, and was extensively interested in numerous mining properties.

He was well known and highly respected in this city, and has scores of friends in every walk of life.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Ida McVitty, of Mullan; one brother in Ireland, and one sister, Mrs. Mary David R. Sexsmith, Selby Ont., Canada. After services in Mullan, it is decided to ship the body to Tamworth, Ont., Canada, where it will be laid to rest.—Idaho News.

U. E. L. Celebration at Deseronto June 16, 17, 18, and 19

DESERONTO

The Spring Rural Deanery meeting of Lennox and Addington was held in the Parish of Bath on Tuesday, May 14th, and Wednesday, May 15th, and began with a celebration of the Holy Communion at 10.30 a.m., in St. John's Church. The Bishop celebrant and preacher, assisted by Rural Dean Radcliffe, Deseronto, as gospeller, and Rev. W. G. Swayne, Rector of Bath, epistoler and server. Mr. Eppes, of Deseronto, played the organ. The laity were well represented.

The afternoon meeting.—A conference of the laymen of the deanery was well attended. The Rural Dean called upon the Bishop and Mr. Elliott, of Belleville, who delivered two splendid addresses on Stewardship, appreciated by all present. The practical result being the formation of a Laymen's Association to meet at a near date and report to the Synod, which meets in Kingston May 28th and 29th. The clergy present besides those mentioned above were Revds. R. J. Dumbrille, Napanee; R. W. Spencer, Camden East; Thos. Leech, Amherst Island; H. Pringle, Tyendinaga; Arthur Strother, Adolphustown, and W. J. Morgan, Tamworth.

The evening service, 8 p.m., with the surpliced choir, under the guidance of Mrs. Swayne, the Organist, was bright and hearty, the Rev. W. J. Morgan the special preacher.

Wednesday, May 15th.—After the Celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 a.m., the Deanery met in the Rectory for the hear two papers delivered by Rev. Rural Dean Savary, D.D., of Kingston, on the "G. B. R. E.", and by the Rev. Herbert Pringle, Tyendinaga, on "Confirmation", which led to a most profitable discussion and from all angles of thought. Hearty votes of thanks to the Rector and his Parishioners for their great hospitality, which was much enjoyed by both Clergy and Laity alike, were passed, and the Benediction closed a most successful chapter meeting of the Deanery of Lennox and Addington. Deseronto was represented by Messrs. J. S. Harding, W. G. R. Eppes, Jas. Tyendinaga and Roy McMath and Ernest Sherry.

Made by one of the country's largest paint concerns, you will find our Household paint comparers favorable with a great many higher priced brands. Though it pays on most jobs to use Floglaze or E. and H. Paint, there are numerous uses for the cheaper brand. Most colors are 75c. a quart; the gloss white, flat white and enamel 85c., and some floor colors 85c. About twenty-five colors to choose from, at Wallace's.

W. C. T. U. Convention

The twentieth annual W. C. T. U. Convention of Hastings, Lennox, Addington and Prince Edward was held in Grace Church, Napanee, on May 9th and 10th, 1929.

Mrs. McLaughlin took charge of the devotional exercises. The minutes of the Executive meeting, Jan. 2nd, 1929, were read and approved.

Committees were named as follows :

Plan of Work—Mrs. Pringle, Selby; Mrs. Shaver, Picton; Mrs. Gordon, Tweed; Mrs. Sparrow, Melrose; Miss Ludbrook, Madoc.

Resolutions — Mesdames Murdoff, Trenton; Jackson, Bloomfield; Dafoe, Madoc; Miller, Deseronto; Stoneburg, Belleville; Hicks, Picton.

Courtesy—Mesdames Baker, Belleville; Way, Tweed; Miss Paul, Newburgh.

Press—Mesdames Hobson, Beattie, Shoemaker.

Reports then followed, the President urging that definite reports be sent in.

Evangelistic—Eleven unions reported using the devotional half-hour; 4 observed Letitia Youman's day; 3 the Week of Prayer, some joining with the W. M. S. Frances Willard day was also observed.

Citizenship—Fourteen unions have this department. There is an increased interest among women as to how to make the best use of the ballot. Women are urged to take more interest in the appointment of school trustees, members of Boards of Education, and in trying to see that Temperance is taught in schools and in sending the right men to Parliament.

Exhibitions and Fairs—Very few unions have this department. Some had booths at fairs and raised funds by the sale of articles. It has been found difficult to stop gambling.

Flowers, Fruit and Delicacies—All unions sending in reports are helping in this work and many kind and thoughtful acts have been done.

It was suggested that letters of sympathy be forwarded to Mesdames Gibson, Wartman, Dunwoody, Sexsmith and Miss Shorey.

Moral Education is being conducted in several places, especially Trenton and Picton.

Parlor meetings are gaining ground and some unions are raising considerable funds this way. Some people who are not able to go out, and yet are willing to have a meeting at their homes, are thus reached.

The Memorial and Noontide service was conducted by Mrs. Vine and Mrs. Miller.

Thursday, 1.30 p.m.

The devotional half-hour was conducted by Mrs. Seymour, using the life of Paul as an illustration. Civic welcome was extended to the delegates by Mayor Howitt. The President replied.

Minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

The speakers, Mrs. Gordon, of Kingston, and Miss Duff, of Toronto, were called to the platform and presented.

Reports again followed :

Law Enforcement — Napanee has good police officers, and have been active in many ways. A petition was sent to Ottawa, asking that no liquor be shipped to U. S. Several liquor licenses were taken away and motor licenses cancelled.

Press—Trenton reports distribution of campaign literature and the use of clip-sheets. Receive space in papers gratis. Belleville re-prints valuable clippings. Madoc reported twelve meetings and published prize essays. Temperance Advocate, Young Canada, Northern Messenger and Montreal Witness are all used widely.

Scientific Temperance—Co-operation of school inspectors has been secured and pamphlets on this subject passed on to teachers. Several unions have presented schools in their localities with sets of Temperance and Life and corresponding charts. Many schools have entered contest for essays on this subject. The seed is being sown and some day the harvest will appear.

Treasurer's Report :—

Balance on hand at beginning of year	$282 37
Receipts this year	977 41
Total Receipts	$1259 78
Total Expenses	814 65
Balance on hand	$ 445 13

Mrs. Eppelett and Mrs. Pitt sang a duet, which was enjoyed by all.

The Corresponding Secretary's report showed that work is being carried on and increasing as a whole and several new unions have been formed.

L. T. L. Secretary reported an increased number of members and more work among the young people. The outpost system of work keeps in touch with boys and girls where there are no legions.

Mirror Pledge—It was suggested that we go about this campaign more systematically.

A pageant read by Mrs. Seymour told in a interesting way of our duty towards making our home town a fit place in which to rear our children and the best way to do it was to become a W. C. T. U. worker.

County life membership pins were then presented to Mesdames O'Flynn, C. B. Scantlebury, Wm. Faulkner, Geo. Foster, of Belleville; Rose, Wm. Deane, of Napanee, and B. F. Denison, Selby.

Paper on Loyalty by Mrs. Baker—Within the last few years a new word has come into our vocabulary—adventure, and so she spoke on the adventure of Loyalty. Let us not forget our watch-word, "For God and Home and Native Land". We have evil forces in the Dominion that are striking at the very heart of our national life. Let us believe that the eternal God in on our side and that right will ultimately win.

Miss Duff reported her tour of the county. She visited Sunday Schools, day schools, institutes, conventions, W. M. S. Branch, quilting bees, in all 108 groups. She urged that we reach the young people who are our future workers and leaders.

Meeting adjourned.

Thursday, 8 p.m.

The evening session opened with a sing-song led by Mr. McGregor, followed by the devotional service, conducted by Rev. Mr. Woodger. A solo entitled "A Little Bit of Love", by Mrs. Elliott, was much enjoyed.

Miss Duff was then called upon. She said the object of our society was to meet for prayer and conference, to train the young, to work for total abstinence and the extinction of the liquor traffic and to do whatever God may please. She then briefly reviewed the situation throughout the world, and showed that every nation was alive to the disastrous effects of the liquor traffic on human life.

Mrs. Gordon then gave an address. It is in the school of to-day that the Canadian race of tomorrow is being formed. There they get a glimpse of their country's past, her present, her future, and their part in it. Next after the schools, comes the press in moulding public opinion, and it should wield justice and truth. The press is the mould of the public opinion of to-day, while the schools mould that of to-morrow. We want a press that is pure and free and protects our new Canadians. De we want public servants muddled by alcohol ? No, but we do want men who are strong and brave enough to stand for the right.

The meeting closed by singing "Lead Kindly Light", and a prayer by Rev. Mr. Beckel.

Friday, 9 a.m.

The devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Conway and Miss Paul.

Minutes were read and approved.

The roll call of executive members and superintendents took place, followed by the election of officers, which resulted as follows :—

Honorary President—Mrs. M. Gibson, Toronto.

President—Mrs. N. B. Miller, Napanee.

Vice President—Mrs. Geo. Cole, 247 Coleman St., Belleville.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. D. L. Jackson, Bloomfield.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. C. A. Shoemaker, Napanee.

Treasurer—Miss Maud Reeves, 212 Charles St., Belleville.

Y. Secretary—Mrs. W. Lockyer, W. Moira St., Belleville.

L. T. L. Secretary—Mrs. B. F. Denison, Selby.

County Superintendents.

Evangelistic—Mrs. Wartman, Newburgh.

Citizenship—Mrs. M. E. Knox, Picton.

Exhibitions and Fairs — Mrs. S. Pringle, Selby.

Flower, Fruit and Delicacy—Miss F. McSteven, Picton.

Little White Ribboners—Mrs. E. M. Ruttan, Picton.

Medal Contest—Mrs. F. Dafoe, Madoc.

Moral Education—Miss H. Cory, Trenton.

Assistant Moral Education—Mrs. F. Pearce, Trenton.

Parlor Meetings—Mrs. (Dr.) Taylor, Wellington.

Press—Mrs. G. N. Hobson, Bloomfield.

Scientific Temperance—Mrs. (Dr.) Baker, Belleville.

Sabbath Observance—Mrs. (Rev.) Seymour, Napanee.

Anti-Narcotic—Mrs. A. W. Conway, Napanee.

Soap Wrappers—Mrs. D. Thompson, Picton.

Temperance in Sunday Schools — Mrs. F. Comerford, Eldorado.

Travellers' Aid—Mrs. M. Parks, Napanee.

Con. Plan of Work—Mrs. H. P. L. Seymour, Belleville.

Con. Resolutions—Mrs. A. D. Way, Picton.

Reports then followed :—

Little White Ribboners—There is an increased membership here.

Soap Wrappers—In Dominion there were 224,757 coupons collected, with a value of $1,124. Picton came third in Dominion, winning a box of soap which was sold and proceeds given to the Traveller's Aid work. All money from soap wrappers goes to this work. At Toronto station 25,088 persons were assisted.

The noontide hymn was sung and the meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Way.

Friday, 1.30 p.m.

The devotional half-hour was in charge of the Salvation Army.

Minutes were read and approved.

Reports followed :—

Y's—Increased interest and membership in this department. Invitation from Belleville and Eclipse Y's to have Y Convention of Hastings, Lennox, Addington and Prince Edward there in October.

Anti-Narcotic—Every union and Y has been written to twice during the year. Letters and findings of Opium Committee at Geneva were sent to M.P.'s who are reviewing Narcotic Drug Act.

Temperance in Sunday Schools. — Many schools took part in this campaign and wrote on the examinations. There are great possibilities in this department. There should be a pledge roll in every Sunday School, but children should not be allowed to sign without their parents' consent. Two splendid books for this department are Temperance and Here's Health to You.

Miss Duff then presented little Margaret Seymour with the Little White Ribboner's Pin, and she became our newest member.

Traveller's Aid—There are 404 framed cards in stations in Dominion. This is a great chain across the country. Thousands of women and children are helped at ports and when travelling alone.

Sabbath Observance—This important work is not fully recognized. Advised parents going to Sunday School with children.

The Question Box brought forth helpful questions and answers.

Report of Plan of Work Committee.

1. We recommend that local unions close the Scientific Temperance Contest not later than first week in April, thus giving ample time for the award of local prizes at public meetings and for entries reaching the county Superintends in compliance with date set.

2. That county reports be summarized.

3. That each union have a Superintendent's Conference immediately after convention to discuss each department and arrange a year's program, so that each Superintendent may know definitely when she must be prepared to present their work and needs of her department.

4. That women be more public spirited, taking greater interest in the selection of school boards and representatives to Parliament.

5. That small or weak unions be visited once a year by President or Vice President, and that County Vice President instruct newly appointed Superintendents.

6. That any plans for a W. C. T. U. Convention at Thousand Island Park as advocated by Mrs. Colvin, of N. Y. W. C. T. U. be left in the hands of the President.

7. That Superintendents of Departments who are not doing progressive work be asked why.

8. That each union be asked to remember in a special way the 26th Letter Days mentioned on page 216 of Report Book.

Virile, Velvety Power Cloaked in Refreshing Style

The car pictured below was created by the industry's foremost style authority . . . a man with a world-wide reputation for designing "custom-built" models.

But beauty is only one feature of the new-style Willys-Knight. There is comfort . . . roomy, well-upholstered seats that cradle your body like a lounge-chair. Effortless ease of handling that makes this car a restful pleasure to drive.

There is power . . . smooth, silky, whispering power . . . abundance of it for lightning getaway, hard pulls, steep hills and speed opportunities.

There is economy . . . with no costly valve grinding or carbon cleaning, upkeep costs are cut in two. With an engine that actually improves with use . . . growing smoother and more powerful with every mile . . . highest resale value is assured.

In every major feature, one by one, or altogether, Whippet is several lengths in the lead when it comes to sound, satisfying value.

First, there is the supreme beauty of design that makes the new Whippet the style authority in its class. You are quick to admire the graceful lines, the longer bodies, the higher radiator and hood, the smart but harmonious colors, the one-piece full crown fenders.

Then, when you enter the car, you are gratified with its spacious, tastefully appointed interior. The longer wheelbase gives several inches of added leg room.

"FINGER-TIP CONTROL"
The greatest advance in driving convenience since the self-starter. A single button, located in the center of the steering wheel, controls all functions of starting the motor, operating the lights and sounding the horn. No wires in steering post.

Seats are considerably wider and have form-fitting contours, assuring restful, comfortable positions for all passengers. Exceptionally wide doors afford easy entrance and exit.

Yet with all these improvements, the new Whippet's prices are amazingly low. Arrange for a demonstration today.

W. C. T. U. Convention

9. That the special collection on Frances Willard Day be a missionary one and sent to Miss Reeves as such.

10. That a finance committee be appointed to plan for raising funds for county work, if we continue to pay travelling expenses of officers, superintendents and local press.

11. As we believe no stream can rise higher than its source, we urge each union to stress the devotional part of program for real foundation of success is prayer. Also, that members acquire the habit of giving the first and last thought of each new day to our Heavenly Father.

12. That the President of each union call an executive meeting before the annual meeting and prepare correct reports to be sent to County Superintendent.

Report of Resolution Committee :—

1. Resolved, we recommend that each local union emphasize the devotional part of meetings and the daily noontide prayer by each member.

2. That we consider mothers' meeting important, and urge that moral education and work of Little White Ribboners be stressed at such meetings.

3. That we stress organiation of L. T. L's.

4. That by words and example we strive to teach the loyalty to our country means respect for the laws, and that in our homes we strive to foster a spirit of reverence for the Lord's day.

5. That we encourage and show appreciation of the work of school teachers along temperance lines.

6. That in spite of discouraging conditions in our province, we pray and work to secure regular temperance instruction in our Sabbath and day schools, to enforce laws regarding cigarettes, and in every way to help the young.

7. We recommend that each union plan and carry out a three-fold contest, 1 elocution essays, 2 posters, 3 scientific temperance in all schools.

8. That this convention go on record as being opposed to poster, bill board and radio liquor advertising.

Meeting adjourned.

Friday, 8 p.m.

Meeting opened with a sing-song, conducted by Mrs. Hunter, after which Mrs. McGregor took charge of the devotional exercises. Mrs. Seymour sang a solo.

The Courtesy Committee cordially thanked all those who had in any way contributed to the success of the Convention and to the comfort and pleasure of the delegates while here.

A pageant, entitled "Commander-in-Chief", then followed, and depicted in a graphic way the heart aches, misery and strife liquor causes in a home.

The local prizes in the Scientific Temperance Contest were presented.

After singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds", Rev. A. J. Wilson closed the meeting with prayer.

Mrs. C. Mason Gladly Recommends Dodd's Kidney Pills

London, Ont., May 21st. (Special) —If we could show you the actual proofs, results attained in thousands of cases suffering from Kidney Trouble, Rheumatism, Backache, etc., it would convince you that Dodd's Kidney Pills are an excellent kidney remedy. One more tribute showing the efficacy of Dodd's Kidney Pills comes from Mrs. C. Mason, 725 Queens Ave., London, Ont. She writes : "A few years ago I had trouble with my Kidneys. A friend advised me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, which I did and they surely relieved me. I would gladly recommend them to anyone. I had terrible trouble with my back aching. Six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills relieved me."

Other sufferers of backache tell of pains relieved and health restored through the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. They act directly on the Kidneys. They strengthen the kidneys and put them in shape to strain the impurities out of the blood.

Emergency Crops to fight weeds

The late season has given weeds a start in many fields. Do not seed improperly prepared land! Good crops cannot be expected and weeds will be encouraged.

To ensure probability of success in such fields, and to control the weeds, take the necessary time to cultivate properly, but use one of the later or emergency crops. Buckwheat, for instance, yields well, provides good feed, and has a ready market. This will pay you better than a weed-ridden crop! Hay crops suggested are millet, oats and sweet clover, or soybeans. A mixture of oats, peas and vetches may be used for either hay or silage. Rape is excellent for late pasture.

Your Agricultural Representative will gladly advise you about suitable crops and date of seeding. Write or call upon him now, or write to the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

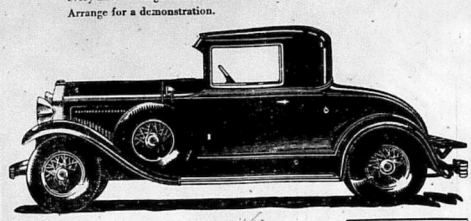
The car pictured below was created by the industry's foremost style authority . . . a man with a world-wide reputation for designing "custom-built" models.

But beauty is only one feature of the new-style Willys-Knight. There is comfort . . . roomy, well-upholstered seats that cradle your body like a lounge-chair. Effortless ease of handling that makes this car a restful pleasure to drive.

There is power . . . smooth, silky, whispering power . . . abundance of it for lightning getaway, hard pulls, steep hills and speed opportunities.

There is economy . . . with no costly valve grinding or carbon cleaning, upkeep costs are cut in two. With an engine that actually improves with use . . . growing smoother and more powerful with every mile . . . highest resale value is assured.

Arrange for a demonstration.



"FINGER-TIP CONTROL"

W. C. T. U. Convention

9. That the special collection on Frances Willard Day be a missionary one and sent to Miss Reeves as such.

10. That a finance committee be appointed to plan for raising funds for county work, if we continue to pay travelling expenses of officers, superintendents and local press.

11. As we believe no stream can rise higher than its source, we urge each union to stress the devotional part of program for real foundation of success is prayer. Also, that members acquire the habit of giving the first and last thought of each new day to our Heavenly Father.

12. That the President of each union call an executive meeting before the annual meeting and prepare correct reports to be sent to County Superintendent.

Report of Resolution Committee :—

1. Resolved, we recommend that each local union emphasize the devotional part of meetings and the daily noontide prayer by each member.

2. That we consider mothers' meeting important, and urge that moral education and work of Little White Ribboners be stressed at such meetings.

3. That we stress organization of L. T. L's.

4. That by words and example we strive to teach the loyalty to our country means, respect for the laws, and that in our homes we strive to foster a spirit of reverence for the Lord's day.

5. That we encourage and show appreciation of the work of school teachers along temperance lines.

6. That in spite of discouraging conditions in our province, we pray and work to secure regular temperance instruction in our Sabbath and day schools, to enforce laws regarding cigarettes, and in every way to help the young.

7. We recommend that each union plan and carry out a three-fold contest, 1 elocution essays, 2 posters, 3 scientific temperance in all schools.

8. That this convention go on record as being opposed to poster, bill board and radio liquor advertising.

Meeting adjourned.

Friday, 8 p.m.

Meeting opened with a sing-song, conducted by Mrs. Hunter, after which Mrs. McGregor took charge of the devotional exercises. Mrs. Seymour sang a solo.

The Courtesy Committee cordially thanked all those who had in any way contributed to the success of the Convention and to the comfort and pleasure of the delegates while here.

A pageant, entitled "Commander-in-Chief", then, followed, and depicted in a graphic way the heart aches, misery and strife liquor causes in a home.

The local prizes in the Scientific Temperance Contest were presented.

After singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds", Rev. A. J. Wilson closed the meeting with prayer.

A FEW MINUTES DAILY

GIVE but a few minutes per day to cleaning with the Premier-Duplex and your home will be clean as a new pin . . . always!

That's the beauty of Premier cleaning. It is so fast . . . so thorough. A motor-driven brush picks up lint. Super-suction draws out the last atom of deep bedded dirt.

Costing only a cent an hour to run, the Premier-Duplex relieves you of your hardest daily task more completely than any other household help you can buy.

Nozzle is adjustable to any floor surface. And the motor never needs oiling.

Had Terrible Trouble With an Aching Back

Ontario Lady Used Dodd's Kidney Pills

Mrs. C. Mason Gladly Recommends Dodd's Kidney Pills

London, Ont., May 21st. (Special)—If we could show you the actual proofs, results attained in thousands of cases suffering from Kidney Trouble, Rheumatism, Backache, etc., it would convince you that Dodd's Kidney Pills are an excellent kidney remedy. One more tribute showing the efficacy of Dodd's Kidney Pills comes from Mrs. C. Mason, 723 Queens Ave., London, Ont. She writes: "A few years ago I had trouble with my Kidneys. A friend advised me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, which I did and they surely relieved me. I would gladly recommend them to anyone. I had terrible trouble with my back aching. Six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills relieved me."

Other sufferers of backache tell of pains relieved and health restored through the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. They act directly on the Kidneys. They strengthen the kidneys and put them in shape to strain the impurities out of the blood.

Shop Assistant—"Here's a material, miss, that speaks for itself."

Young Lady—"Oh, I don't want anything quite so loud as that!"

Emergency Crops to fight weeds

The late season has given weeds a start in many fields. Do not seed improperly prepared land! Good crops cannot be expected and weeds will be encouraged.

To ensure probability of success in such fields, and to control the weeds, take the necessary time to cultivate properly, but use one of the later or emergency crops. Buckwheat, for instance, yields well, provides good feed, and has a ready market. This will pay you better than a weed-ridden crop! Hay crops suggested are millet, oats and sweet clover, or soybeans. A mixture of oats, peas and vetches may be used for either hay or silage. Rape is excellent for late pasture.

Your Agricultural Representative will gladly advise you about suitable crops and date of seeding. Write or call upon him now, or write to the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

More Actual Money's Worth

In every major feature, one by one, or altogether, Whippet is several lengths in the lead when it comes to sound, satisfying value.

First, there is the supreme beauty of design that makes the new Whippet the style authority in its class. You are quick to admire the graceful lines, the longer bodies, the higher radiator and hood, the smart but harmonious colors, the one-piece full crown fenders.

Then, when you enter the car, you are gratified with its spacious, tastefully appointed interior. The longer wheelbase gives several inches of added leg room.

"FINGER-TIP CONTROL"

The greatest advance in driving convenience since the self-starter. A single button, located in the center of the steering wheel, controls all functions of starting the motor, operating the lights and sounding the horn. No wires in steering post.

Seats are considerably wider and have form-fitting contours, assuring restful, comfortable positions for all passengers. Exceptionally wide doors afford easy entrance and exit.

Yet with all these improvements, the new Whippet's prices are amazingly low. Arrange for a demonstration today.

OBITUARY

James Grange.

The death occurred on Sunday, May 12th, 1929, of James Grange, Napanee, after suffering a severe stroke.

Mr. Grange had not been in the best of health for some time, but never complained. On April 29th he seemed to be so well, wanting to have everything done. He was finishing his day's work, when about 5.45 he was found unconscious, and was carried to his home on Isabella Street, where medical help was summoned at once, but nothing could be done. He laid in that condition until May 3rd. He gained consciousness enough to hear and see, but never gained his speech. May 10th he took a change again and from that time on never realized anything, slept up until the time of his death, when he passed peacefully away.

Mr. Grange was born in Camden, 4th Concession, on May 12th, 1859. In 1882 he was united in marriage to Elizabeth Thompson, daughter of the late Andrew Thompson, of Camden, where they lived until about eighteen years ago, when they moved to Napanee.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his sorrowing wife; one son, Milton, of Napanee; two daughters, Mrs. Thos. O'Connor, Napanee, and Mrs. James Lewis, Collins Bay, who were all with him at the time of his death.

The funeral service at his home on Tuesday, May 14th, was conducted by Rev. A. A. Deline, a large community of friends being in attendance. The remains were interred in the family plot in Riverside cemetery.

Deceased was a very kind husband and father, and will be sadly missed in the surrounding district.

Dr. Hess' White Diarrhoea Tablets are recognized preventative for the disease that carries off hundreds of chickens every spring. Sold in tins of 100 tablets, for 50c., at Wallace's Drug Store.

OBITUARY

Mr. Wm. Detlor.

Friends were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Mr. Wm. Detlor, a lifelong resident of this county, on Saturday morning, May 11th.

He had been ailing for a short time, but his friends did not realize his condition was serious, as he had been going about as usual until Friday evening he was seized with a heart attack and moved to the home of his father, and though a doctor was called nothing could be done.

The funeral took place on Monday, May 13th, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Jos. Yeomans, South River Road, and was largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. J. E. Beckel, assisted by Rev. Mr. Radcliffe, of Desoronto, followed by a service under the auspices of the Brethren of the Orange Order of Desoronto and surrounding district, of which Order he had been a lifelong member. The cortege then proceeded to Tamworth, where interment took place.

Mr. Detlor was born in 1860, in Richmond Township, of U. E. L. parentage, his father being Benjamin Detlor and his mother Rebecca Sexsmith. His wife and daughter, Alles, predeceased him some years ago, and surviving are seven children, James, Stanley and Mrs. S. D. Weese, of Saskatchewan; Mrs. C. R. Tait, of Toronto; Mrs. P. M. Howard and Mrs. E. C. McDonald, of Amherst Island, and Mrs. G. H. Young, of Sheffield Township. There are also eight grandchildren and three sisters, Mrs. Jos. Yeomans, North Fredericksburgh; Mrs. R. Reid, Napanee, and Mrs. J. Cummings, of Toronto.

ERNESTTOWN WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The Ernesttown Women's Institute held their meeting on May 9th, at the Institute rooms, with a good attendance. Roll call was answered by suggestions for next year's program. Some very good suggestions were made. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. It was decided to give to our three schools something the teachers thought they were really in need of. Miss Glenn asked for a First Aid outfit. Miss Huffman a drinking fountain, and Mr. Casey books for the school library. A short but splendid address was given by Mrs. Fred Hamm on co-operation of officers and members of the Institute. An excellent report on last year's work was given by our most efficient Secretary, Mrs. Gordon Young, "Bigger and Better Than Ever" being her slogan. The election of officers then took place, our very popular President, Mrs. Fred Hamm, being re-elected.

The officers are as follows:—

President—Mrs. Fred Hamm.
1st Vice—Mrs. T. B. Creighton.
2nd Vice—Mrs. Harry Mott.
Secretary Treasurer—Mrs. Gordon Young.
Pianist—Mrs. H. Laidley.
District Director—Mrs. J. B. Sharp.
Flower Committee—Mrs. Harry Mott and Mrs. W. Kelly.
Lunch Committee—Mrs. W. Springs and Miss M. Sills.

A social hour was next indulged in, followed by the National Anthem, and a dainty lunch was served by the hostesses.

THE UNITED CHURCH IN THE BAY OF QUINTE CONFERENCE

(The New Outlook)

One outcome of the Revolutionary War of the American colonists was the settlement of what became known as Upper Canada. Up to that time the white man had regarded it, not as a rich territory, but as a convenient means, through its chain of forts, for reaching the great fur-producing regions of the interior of the continent. For nearly two centuries those in authority had regarded the fur trade as of first importance. But the coming of from twenty to thirty thousand United Empire Loyalists to the Upper St. Lawrence and Bay of Quinte, whose economic life was based on agriculture rather than on the fur trade, changed that. To this rich tract, then a wilderness, came not a few hardy pioneers, but a whole colony, taking up desirable land in the front concessions of a score of townships. Napanee, the seat of this year's sessions of our Annual Conference, lies in the heart of this old district, and delegates may meet and mingle with the descendants of those who built the log cabins in the forest. They may visit some of the places of historic interest in the vicinity. Public men who have left indelible marks on our national structure were natives or representatives from this locality, among them Macdonald (known here as "John A."), Cartwright, Bidwell and Aylesworth (to mention one still living). Well does the present writer remember sitting in the gallery of the "Stone Church", Napanee, when yet a youth, and feeling the tensity of the occasion when the late Rev. Roberts (of the former Bible Christian Church) offered praying on the occasion of the death of Sir John A. Macdonald, who had spent his boyhood days at Adolphustown and had represented Kingston in Parliament. This was on a Sunday morning at the Bay of Quinte Conference of the Methodist Church.

Napanee itself is a pretty residential town of 3,500 people, lying on the north bank of the Napanee river which empties into the Bay of Quinte seven miles away. It is on the Canadian National Railway, and its junction point for the Ottawa branch. It is the County Town of Lennox and Addington, and gets its name from an Indian word for "bread" as they used to come to a mill there for flour, or bread as they called it, and that mill was the beginning of "Napanee". Its main streets are all paved, and it is connected with Highway No. 2. Its residential streets remind one of prosperous contentment. The well kept lawns and numerous trees which line the streets add beauty. Three years ago a thirty-thousand-dollar addition was made to the Collegiate Institute, and more recently the Town Hall and the County building have been remodelled, and with the Public Schools and the Library in the centre of the town adjoining a spacious park, give Napanee a group of public buildings perhaps unexcelled for a town of its size. A driving park of thirty acres provides a recreation centre for baseball, hockey and other sports; the curling fraternity have a modern, beautifully equipped rink all to themselves, and we are reliabil informed that should the fame of the fast clay courts, and ideal golf links become known before Conference, the President may have to declare martial law to get a quorum for the afternoon meetings. It is the centre of a farming community, and urbanities and ruralities are on most friendly terms. There are several manufacturing plants, giving employment to a sturdy, self-reliant class. It should be stated that the district has long been noted for its interest in temperance, and no permit is necessary to imbibe sparkling spring water at the supervised touring camp on the bank of the river.

Where Saints Have Trod

The Anglicans, Presbyterians and Methodists formed the mass of the population and for many years the Anglican clergy had a monopoly of marrying, although it was a common occurrence for a Justice of the Peace, or, in a few cases, a military officer, to perform the ceremony, and all such marriages were made valid by the Act of 1793. In 1798 the privilege of performing the ceremony was extended to Presbyterian misters; not until 1831 could those of other denominations do so legally. The Society of Friends or Quakers fell under the ban, and one member who was regularly elected to the Legislative Assembly trudged through the forest to the seat of government, only to be refused the seat because of his conscientious scruple against taking the oath; indeed another duly elected member of the Assembly was refused his seat in the House, because he had upon occasions filled the pulpit in a Methodist "meeting house". The Quakers were uncompromising in opposition to the liquor traffic, and the academies of learning which have been characteristic of this district owe something to the progressive support of the early Quakers. The saddle-bag preachers went everywhere in all kinds of weather and wherever a few listeners could be gathered. Among the Methodist preachers who carried the banner of the Cross throughout the settlement was "Father" Lyons, whose self-denying work is still remembered by descendants of some who had in their homes an "Elijah's chamber", as it was called, in which the preacher could rest for a night during pilgrimages. Major Vanalstine was responsible for sending the first Presbyterian minister, Rev. Dr. McDowell, who settled in Ernestown, but preached from Brockville to the head of the Bay of Quinte. Of John Dr. Caniff wrote: "No man contributed more than he to fulfil the divine mission, 'go preach', and at a time when great spiritual want was felt." These men went on horseback, by canoe or bateau or on foot. History records a debate (in Fredericksburgh or Ernestown, I think) between Dr. McDowell, representing the Calvinists, and a Methodist the Arminians. In 1925 Church union practically all the Methodist and Presbyterian village and rural congregations were under "Co-operation", and virtually all are now United Church. In fact it used to be said that Napanee and district had more Methodists per square mile than any other community in Canada. There were many Presbyterians in the county but they were scattered, and in some places not strong enough to form a congregation. The Conference this year will meet in the midst of a population where three quarters of whom belong or adhere to The United Church. In Napanee itself the three ministers and congregations work harmoniously and heartily, and the town is noted for its church loyalty as a community. In few places is the church so much the centre of life for the people; something of its value comes because the ministers try to conceive of their work in terms of the Kingdom of God, not in terms of the mere means, the local church unit. Our congregations unite on anniversary occasions and for Passion Week services. There is an Anglican and a Roman Catholic church.

Our Cathedrals

In alphabetical order let us consider them. Grace is the successor of the White Church, Methodist Episcopal, which was completed in 1844, with Rev. John Bailey as presiding elder, and Rev. H. H. Johnson, pastor. In 1871 the then pastor, Rev. S. G. Stone, felt the need for a new edifice, although it was a big undertaking for a small congregation. But the enthusiasm of the pastor and the generosity of the late John Gibbard became infectious, and the church was completed in 1873, and the congregation, now large, has been a big factor in the town's religious and civic life, and is known as a church whose members are active workers in local, missionary and temperance causes. Four generations of Gibbards have been or are active workers and liberal supporters. Among the pastors have been Drs. I. B. Aylsworth, S. G. Stone, J. P. Wilson and E. N. Baker (now principal emeritus of Albert College.) The present pastor, Rev. W. P. Woodger, is carrying on the tradition of progressiveness and is housed in a beautiful parsonage next door to the church.

St. Andrew's, the Presbyterian Church, a substantial stone structure, was commenced on July 1st, 1864, and on March 12th, 1865, the dedicatory services of the basement were held, the Rev. John B. Mowat, Queen's College, preaching in the morning, Rev. W. McLaren in the afternoon and Rev. Patrick Gray in the evening. On Monday evening following, the ladies held their first tea-meeting, the forerunner of the annual gatherings for which the congregation has become famous. The minister, Rev. John Scott, had, for two years, been holding services in the old academy and in the town hall. The commodious building for worship is due largely to his energy and perseverance. The main audience room was not completed until 1869, when it was opened for public worship by Rev. Dr. McVicar, of Montreal. Among those who have served here have been Revs. Alexander Young, Duncan McEachern, W. W. Peck, J. R. Conn and Dr. Howard, whose successor was the present minister, Rev. A. J. Wilson, inducted into the charge on September 27th, 1915, immediately on graduation from Queen's. He is the dean of the town's ministers, and has taken an active part throughout the county in the social, moral and cultural movements. There is an excellent manse, and it is beyond the capacity of your correspondent's imagination to conceive why there is still no lady of the manse.

Trinity, within which Conference will convene, is the successor to the brick church built by the Wesleyan Methodists in 1840 on the present site. It was dedicated by Rev. Gilbert Miller, then stationed there. In 1860, when Rev. F. Berry was in charge, the noble edifice as it was then considered, the "Stone Church", was started, and the last touch on the exterior was the erection of a weather-vane on October 27th, 1861, the whole village turning out to witness it, including the pupils of the grammar and public schools, and all were interested in seeing men, at "the dizzy height of 150 feet from terra firma", handling it with "pole, rope and tackle". The dedication of the basement was on November 23rd, 1861, with sermons by Revs. George Young and John Black. Even this edifice was in time felt to be inadequate, and during the pastorate of Rev. W. H. Emsley the present handsome cement church, so perfectly equipped and beautifully decorated, was erected on the site of the two former structures. It has been a loyal supporter of connexional schemes, and occupies not only a commanding site, but its members have been prominent in the general Church world. Among its ministers have been Revs. Robert Corson, John Black, D. B. Madden, George F. Playter (the church historian), T. W. Jeffrey, Geo. M. Meacham, Dr. W. S. Blackstock, Dr. S. J. Shorey and G. W. McCall. The present pastor, Rev. Harry Dawson, has been there about two years and has proved himself not only capable but popular. It should be mentioned that the former Methodist circuit with Napanee as headquarters is now served by at least ten ministers. Conference delegates will doubtless visit the Hay Bay Church in Adolphustown, the smallest township in Ontario, which church is the oldest Methodist church building in Canada, having been erected in 1792. We are indebted to Mr. W. S. Herrington, K.C., the county historian, for much of the above sketch.

"After the birth of my baby—"

TO gain thirty pounds in three months, and win back health and strength was the happy experience of Mrs. Margaret Brethour of Cornwall, Ont., who gives all the credit for it to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"After the birth of my baby, I was in the hospital four months," she wrote, "and came home weighing only sixty-five pounds. I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and in two days I was until I weighed ninety-five pounds and my general health was of the best. Every Spring since then I take the pills as a tonic, and wouldn't be without them, no matter what they cost. I strongly recommend them to all mothers."

Buy Dr. Williams' Pink Pills now at your druggist's or any dealer in medicine or by mail, 50 cents, postpaid, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Responsibility Of Every Mother

The child in the home is a never-failing source of joy, but, at the same time a never-failing responsibility to the fond mother. It not infrequently happens that minor ailments of the child distress and puzzle her. She does not know just what to do, yet feels them not serious enough to warrant calling in the doctor. At just such times as these it is found that Baby's Own Tablets are the mother's greatest help and friend.

Most childhood ailments arise in the digestive tract — the bowels become clogged and the stomach sour. Baby's Own Tablets are a never-failing relief for this condition. They are a mild but thorough laxative and through their action on the stomach and bowels they banish constipation and indigestion, break up colds and simple fever; allay the pain accompanying the cutting of teeth and promote healthful sleep. Concerning them Mrs. W. Hinchey, Mackay, Que., writes:—"I have used Baby's Own Tablets and think so highly of them that I would not be without them. Please send me your little booklet on the care of children."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

BATH WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The May meeting of Bath Institute was held Tuesday, May 14th, in the Library. This was the annual business meeting, and though the day was very disagreeable, we had a good attendance.

Everyone was pleased with the year's work. Twelve meetings were held, with an attendance of 150. Eight papers and seven demonstrations were given. The papers were: "Rose Culture", "Health", "Dahlias", "Canadian Industries", "Immigration", "Maternal Mortality", "Home Management", "Canadian Authors". Demonstrations on "Paper Flowers", "Summer Salads", "Candy", "Gifts", "Rugs", "Cake", and "Cut Down Hose".

Current Events was a feature at every meeting, and all the members are very sorry to hear of Mrs. Galt's illness; we are sorry, too, to lose her as our current event recorder, for she was so enthusiastic. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. Sams presided over the music and did her part in making the meetings pleasant.

Relief work, layette and aid to poor, Educational, $5.00 to Rural Schools and $5.00 to Bath, as prizes, Community, social evenings and Field Day.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Mrs. Prim—I didn't see your husband in church this morning.

Mrs. Glim—No, he doesn't dare go now.

Mrs. Prim (shocked)—Doesn't dare go? Why?

Mrs. Glim—Last Sunday the pastor prayed for the loose livers of the parish. After the service my husband asked him if he wouldn't slip in a few words about his floating kidney—and the minister threw a hymn book at him.

For Burns and Scalds—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil will take the fire out of a burn or scald. It should be at hand in every kitchen so that it may be available at any time. There is no preparation required. Just apply the oil to the burn or scald and the pain will abate, and in a short time cease altogether.

After shaking hands at the depot, one-colored man inquired of another: "Didn't you marry de widow Jones de first of January?"

"Dat's me—I did," was the answer, "but I done left her."

"Why, how's dat?"

"Well, de last week she called me honey, de next week she sulked around and called me old Richards, de third week she cum for me wid a flatiron, an' I'se kinder got a hunch she don't like me."

For Frost Bites and Chilblains.—Chilblains come from undue exposure to slush and cold and frost-bite from the icy winds of winter. In the treatment of either an excellent preparation is Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, as it counteracts the inflammation and relieves the pain. The action of the oil is prompt and its application is extremely simple.

Recently arrested and brought to court was an Irishman, to whom the thing was a new experience. He was, however, unabashed, and wore an air of a man determined not to get the worst of it. "Prisoner at the bar," sang out the clerk, "do you wish to challenge any of the jury?"

Pat looked over the men in the jury box very carefully. "Well, I'll tell ye," he finally said, "O'im not exactly in trainin', but Oi think Oi could step a round or two wid dat fat boy in the corner."

One of the commonest complaints of infants is worms, and the most effective application for them is Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator.

Mother (to small boy putting his hand into a hole):—"What are you doing?"

"Getting wasp grubs for bait."

"You silly boy; you might get stung!"

"But I haven't got stung."

"On the other hand, you might have got stung!"

"Oh, no; I didn't put the other hand in!"

Corns are caused by the pressure of tight boots, but no one need be troubled with them long when so simple a remedy as Holloway's Corn Remover is available.

A placid old lady who took life philosophically sat knitting in the drawing room. To her there came rushing her 15-year-old granddaughter.

"Oh, granny, granny," cried the girl, "father's just fallen off the roof!"

"I know, my child," replied the old lady, without even raising her eyes. "I saw him pass the window."

Miller's Worm Powders will clear the stomach and bowels of worms, so that the child will no more be troubled by their ravages. The powders are sweet to the taste and no child will object to taking them. They are non-injurious in their composition, and while in some cases they may cause vomiting, that must not be taken as a sign that they are nauseating, but as an indication of their effective work.

Widower (to his daughter, aged ten)—"Jessie, do you know that Georgina, our housekeeper, is going to be married?"

Jessie—"Oh, I'm so glad we are getting rid of the horrid old pelican. Won't it be jolly? But who is going to marry her?"

Father—"Well, I am."

No More Asthma. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy sounds the death knell of this trying trouble. It stops the awful choking and painful breathing. It guards against night attacks and gives renewed ability to sleep and rest the whole night long. Much is claimed for this remedy, but nothing but what can be demonstrated by a trial. If you suffer from asthma, try it, and convince yourself of its great value.

Deep-Seated Rheumatic Pains

Quickly Yield to Powerful Penetrating Oil

Probably no affliction is more common or responsible for more intense suffering than rheumatism. Thousands of otherwise robust persons drag through a life of misery and agony.

Here is a new treatment. Simply get a bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil, and apply to the affected parts. It's easy and pleasant to use and there is no doubt but what the most stubborn and severe cases yield quickly to its powerful, penetrating influence. The first application brings blessed relief. All good druggists have it, but you can be sure to get it at Wallace's Drug Store.

CROYDON INSTITUTE

The regular meeting of Croydon Women's Institute was held in the Community Hall, on Wednesday, May 8th. After the business part of the meeting was over, the President, Mae Haggerty, resigned her office and kindly asked Bernice Galbraith to install the officers for the coming year, which are as follows:—President, Mrs. Stuart Close; Vice President, Mrs. Robt. McGregor; Secretary Treasurer, Mae Haggerty; District Director, Mrs. Ross McGregor. — The Croydon and Reidville Institute wish to announce that the summer speaker will be with us on May 20th, in the evening, and extend an invitation to all the ladies, members or not, to come and hear Mrs. Love, of Toronto. The meeting will be held in the Community Hall at Croydon.

VIOLET WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The Violet Branch of the Women's Institute held their annual meeting at the Community Rooms on Thursday, May 2nd. There was a good attendance and each one responded to the Roll Call by their membership fee, with the addition of new members. The program was short, owing to the election of officers to follow. Mrs. Robinson gave a humorous reading, "Daniel in the Lion's Den", and Mrs. MacMorin gave a talk on current events. It was impossible to have our District President, Mrs. Hamm, with us, so our 1st Vice President, Mrs. Kellar, was asked to take the chair.

After considering the position of Presidency, we have always found Mrs. Wright very capable, unceasing and untiring in her efforts to make Institute work a success. She was again voted to take the position by a large majority.

The following officers were elected:
President—Mrs. E. A. Wright.
Vice Presidents—Mrs. Kellar and Mrs. Wm. Sager.
Secretary—Miss Mildred Hannah.
Press Reporter—Mrs. Wm. Sager.
Branch Directors—Mesdames J. A. McCormick, Hervey Smith, Wm. Sager.
Representatives to District Annual—Mesdames J. N. McCormick, Wm. Close, Fred Sharpe and Mrs. Kellar.
District Director—Mrs. Kellar.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem and a social half hour, when a delicious lunch was served by the committee in charge.

"B" CO. FRONTENAC REGT.
The Frontenac Regiment will be going to Camp for twelve days at Barriefield, commencing July 8th. For the past two years they have been particularly successful in athletics at the annual camp, and this year they expect to be able to add to their splendid collection of trophies. All young men who wish a happy holiday under canvas, with every possible comfort, among congenial companions, with all expenses paid, and a small salary as well, are urged to get in touch with Major Babcock as soon as possible, for the vacancies are being rapidly filled. Runners, boxers, and softball players are particularly invited.

BELLEVILLE MOTORIST KILLED.
An accident occurred on the Provincial Highway on the curve near the Deseronto cemetery, on Tuesday morning, about 1.30 o'clock, in which Mr. Charles Campbell, City Engineer of Belleville, lost his life. The car, a Hudson coach, was going West when control was lost of the car, and it failed to make the turn, going into the ditch, and turning completely over, pinning the unfortunate man under it. Mr. Fred Smythe, of the A. 1 Sign Company, Belleville, who was with Mr. Campbell, was thrown clear of the car and escaped with cuts on the head and face and bruises on the body and legs. The car was a complete wreck.

OBITUARY.

On Saturday evening, May 4th, 1929, Emily McDonald, Camden East, passed peacefully away, at eight o'clock.

Mrs. McDonald was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Scott, of Yarker. At the age of twenty-one she was married to Patrick McDonald, of Tamworth, who predeceased her eleven years ago.

Mrs. McDonald was over eighty years of age and had been residing with her daughter, Mrs. Alva Emberley, for a number of years. She had been in failing health for some years past, but her death came as a sudden shock to her friends.

The funeral service was held at the United Church on Monday, May 6th, at 2 p.m., Her Pastor, the Rev. T. H. P. Anderson, conducted the service, and the remains were laid to rest by those of her husband, in the United Church cemetery.

The deceased is survived by three daughters, Mrs. John McGarvey and Mrs. Alva Emberley, of Camden East, and Mrs. James Kirkpatrick, of Port Colborne; and two sons, James, of Tamworth, and Maxwell, of Wilton.

AYLSWORTH CLAN RE-UNION
The Officers of the Aylsworth Reunion Association held a very representative and enthusiastic meeting in Napanee, last Saturday, the 18th.
Sir Allen Aylsworth, K.C., K.C.M.G., of Toronto; Mr. Morley Aylsworth, General Manager of the Huron and Erie Mortgage Corporation, accompanied by his two young sons, and his father, Mr. Richard P. Aylsworth, all of London, Ont.; Mr. W. R. Aylsworth, Warden of Frontenac County; Mr. George Anson Aylsworth, Reeve of Newburgh; Mrs. Emma Burritt, Yellow Gables, Napanee; Mr. George Hamm, of Odessa; the Secretary, Mr. Fraser Aylsworth, of Madoc, and a number of other descendants and connections were in attendance.
It was decided to add the names of Mr. George Anson Aylsworth and Mr. Richard P. Aylsworth to the Advisory Committee, and to invite all the descendants and connections of Job and his son, Bowen Aylsworth, who are requested to accept this invitation, to forgather at 10 a.m. at Bath, Ont., on Saturday, the 10th of August next. All guests are requested to bring records of his or her lineage for future recording.
It was decided to invite to the gathering a distinguished member of the American New England Colonial branch of the clan to participate. Caterers will serve dinner.

NAPANEE WOMAN'S INSTITUTE
The regular monthly meeting of the Napanee Women's Institute was held in the Agricultural Rooms, on Tuesday afternoon, May 14th, with the President, Mrs. Ralph Ham, in the chair. Despite the downpour of rain, there was a large attendance.
The meeting opened with the singing of the Institute Ode; the minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted, correspondence and the business attended to, after which the Vice President, Mrs. T. T. Anderson, read a most interesting paper on "Labor Saving Devices in the Home", and exhibited several articles designed to make housework less difficult. Following this Mr. Garbutt, of Belleville, gave a demonstration of Wear-ever aluminum, and a talk on waterless cookery.
A paper on "Community Activities" prepared and read by Mrs. L. S. Beattie, contained some splendid suggestions concerning the play-ground, library, etc., and was much appreciated.
Current Events by Mrs. Haggerty, proved an unusually interesting record of events the world over, and was greatly enjoyed by all. The roll was called, and as there will be no meetings in July and August, it was decided to make the regular June meeting a social affair, and serve afternoon tea.
The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

ODESSA WOMEN'S INSTITUTE
The May meeting of the Odessa Women's Institute was held in the Library, with a fair attendance considering the roads and weather.
Mrs. Stanley Sproule gave a report of the library, in the absence of the Secretary the Library Board, Mrs. C. Boyce.
There was a great deal of business to be dispensed with, as well as the annual reports and election of officers.
The Secretary's report was very satisfactory, showing the co-operation between the President and members, as follows:—
We had a membership of 42, and held 12 regular meetings, with an average attendance of 18. We had two addresses, one by Mrs. J. F. P. Sproule, Westbrook, and one by Mrs. F. Hamm, Ernestown, our District President. A paper on "Gardening" by Mrs. H. Caton; "Getting Something Out Of It", by Miss L. Aylsworth; "Preparing the Child to Take Life" by Mrs. W. J. Snider; "True Hospitality" by Miss M. Fairfield; "Demonstration of Salad" by Mrs. C. Boyce; a paper on the "Why of the Home and School Club", by Miss Leatherland; "Demonstration of Drying Corn", Miss Williams Clark; "Demonstration of Rug Making", by Mrs. W. J. Snider; paper on "The League of Nations" by Mrs. Robinson; "Sugar from Beet to Stove", Mrs. Hiscutt; "Social Life in the Community", Mrs. C. Boyce; demonstration of Candy Making, by Mrs. J. H. Mallory and Mrs. C. Snider.
(Endeavor of report next week.)

The respondent in a recent separation case alleged to the magistrate that his wife was too extravagant in dress.

"She dressed terrible extensive," said the illiterate husband.

"You mean," said the magistrate, "that she was extravagantly garbed."

"Yes, that's it," said the husband, "she had more garbage on than any other two women."

THE EXILE

(Manchester Guardian.)

We came over the hills from San Polo. It was late afternoon; but the sun had been shining steadily all morning and now glowed behind a base of heat. We came down the mountains to Marraccello, in the valley below. At Marraccello we were thankful to halt at a small bitrreria, whose entrance yawned cool and dark on the white road. A woman and a girl stood in the doorway. They looked at us with surprise. We asked the woman what we could have to drink. There was a pause; she did not reply. Then the girl nodded; there was wine, of course. Would we have wine? ('The woman looked at us in silence'). We would have wine. A litre. Red. The girl drew back. We entered. She disappeared through an entrance at the back of the small, bare room. We sat down.

It was Sunday. The village—that is, the male part — sat round narrow tables, held their drinks before their dark faces, and gesticulated with the free hand towards ceiling, towards floor, towards their neighbours' faces, towards their own bosoms. They looked at us, pausing in their talk for a brief interval, during which they stared and stared. The woman walked slowly down the room from the door. She also looked at us, not with the flickering curiosity of the drinkers, but with a mute suspicion. She did not seem interested in the peculiarities of our speech or our clothes. She looked at us with a dead surprise, the ghost of a curiosity which had long since died. She was about forty, brown-haired and sallow-skinned. Her eyes were dark and reserved. She held a magazine so that the coloured cover was visible. On it could be seen the words "The Love Story Magazine".

English in a Far Country.

How strange it looked here, with its flaunting advertisements, in the little bare, dark bitrreria.

"Can you read English?" we asked her in Italian.

She shook her head vaguely.

We pointed to the magazine: "You have an English magazine there."

She held it out towards us uncomprehendingly, and then said, slowly and distinctly:

"I am an American."

The English words fell into the midst of the Italian voices, which did not cease; but we stared at the American for a moment's silence. It was our turn to be surprised.

"Oh! We thought you were Italian."

She smiled slightly. "I am American."

"Do you live here?"

"Oh, yes."

Her curiosity hovered, smiling and slightly embarrassed, over her reserve.

"It's so unexpected to meet an American living in this tiny village . . . "My husband owns this place", she said, embracing the small room with a faint movement of her hand.

"Oh. Is he Italian?"

"Yes, he's Italian."

"And you been here a long time, then?"

"Two years."

"It must be rather lonely."

"Well . . . yes. I don't know Italian."

We gazed at her. "You . . . don't know Italian?"

"No."

"You don't speak it at all?"

"Only a few words. I never could learn it."

"But here . . . there's no one to speak English . . . two years . . . "

A Stranger in a Strange Land.

Lonely seemed an inadequate word. "Your husband . . . "

"Oh, he speaks English. We came over from the States."

She had lived at Marraccello two years and didn't speak Italian . . .

"Don't you want to go back?"

"Well, you see, my husband, he's sick. They won't have him back here."

A small boy came up to her. He pulled at her hand, babbling in Italian. She placed him over the barrier of his incomprehensible chatter, saying in her broad American accent a few disjointed words to the world: "This is my nephew, my husband's brother's little boy," she said to us.

"Have you any children?"

"No, I haven't any."

She sat down at the table. Her sunburned face half disarmed. She would have liked to talk, but she sat silent. Silence must have become a habit. We tried to talk of Monte Cano, where we had been walking; of San Polo; but she didn't know the villages round. She didn't know Monte Cano—which hill was it?

She turned the pages of the magazine, smiling at an advertisement of a brightly coloured American youth holding aloft a round tin of somebody's polish.

"They send me these once a month from back home," she said.

"You must be glad to hear from them."

"I am. It's lucky when it's as often as once a month."

"We'll send you some American magazines from Rome, if you would like them."

She said she would love to have them.

"Weren't you surprised to see us?"

She smiled. "I knew you were English as you came in."

At Last a Topic of Conversation.

Why hadn't she spoken to us, as at least English-speaking people if not her own compatriots? As if answering the unspoken thought with another, she sank back into silence; then, with eyes, which had brightened as her suspicion faded, dulled over again. She looked at us as though we were visitants of a dream. Perhaps this bare, blinding place, these Italian voices, this small Italian nephew and her own, this Italian husband, this Italy, were all dulled to a dream for her, a dream in the midst of which the eyes, which in a silence preserved by suspicion and entered only by her husband. And entered only by her husband. And of her reality we knew nothing. We did not know America. England seemed almost a dream to us this hot afternoon. Italy was our only world for the moment; the hot blue sky outside, the bare grey rocks town with yellow heartsease, the terraced inn at San Polo where we ate minestrone and omelette—walking all day long, emptied our minds of any thoughts but these. What could we talk about to an American to whom Italy was a dream, and whose reality was to us an unsubstantial vision cast on a kinema screen? She had lived in New York, she said.

"I hope your husband will soon be well."

"His stomach gives him trouble. He can't eat anything. I have to cook him a special diet."

Digestion at least was a reality in common. We pursued it until we said good-bye.

—Daphne Shelmerdine.

THE UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA

Bay of Quinte Conference, annual meeting in Napanee, May 29th to June 2nd, 1929.

(Souvenir Song by W. W. W.)

Our home United Church consists Of Conferences eleven;
Bay Quinte Conference enlists
Full Presbyteries seven.

Again each Presbytry preserves
Its charges work'd by plan,
On each of which a pastor serves
The Lord by serving man.

Eight foreign missions—Africa,
Korea, Trinidad,
China (3), Japan and India
We serve with spirit glad.

We meet this year in Napanee,
A town whose name means bread—
A quite sufficient guarantee
That we shall all be fed.

A tidy residential town,
Well known for commerce too,
A place of wealth and fair renown,—
She kindly welcomes you.

Her pioneers were U. E. L's,
And many a scion still
In Napanee or district dwells,
Life's purpose to fulfil.

Her public buildings, streets and parks
In combination due;
And enterprise, as ever, marks
The course she doth pursue.

Her schools and churches, as of old,
Her people's power for good—
But half her virtues can't be told
To man's great brotherhood.

To Christian hospitality
Her citizens are given
For those thus briefly called to be
From home and kindred riven.

May lasting benefits accrue
To every host and guest,
Till glad acquaintance we renew
In heaven among the blest!

—MORVEN

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Garrison, of Ontiäwa, visited in our midst during the week.—Mr. E. Cooper, of Conway, called at Mr. G. Pretts' on Sunday. — Rev. R. Seymour and family, of Belleville, spent the week-end at the parsonage. — Messrs. Vernon Mills and Charles Gaunden called at Mrs. J. Brown's, Sandhurst, on Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. F. Rawlinson spent Victoria Day with Mrs. A. Mills.—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burt, of Cornwall, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cummings, recently. — Miss Irene Henwood, of Oshawa, spent several days under the parental roof.—The stork called at Mr. Lawrence Baird's on the 24th, and left them a little daughter.—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Purdy, of Detroit, called at Mr. Wm. Hawley's on Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. D. Bell, of Bath, spent Sunday evening at Mr. E. B. Gordanier's. — Rev. J. N. Lowe and family, of Ivanhoe, are spending the week at Mr. Henwood's.—Owing to the conference being held in Napanee there will be no services on this appointment next Sunday.

Another conference year is about to close and our minds naturally turn to think of what has been accomplished during the year. The circuit work generally is greatly improved, congregations keeping well above the average of recent years. Our societies of the congregation have been very active and all report splendid work being accomplished day by day. Perhaps the most marked improvement is found in the financial relationship of pastor and people and the parsonage grounds. The Quarterly Official Board are now paying the salary of $1,800.00 on the monthly basis, and do all their business through the bank. This is, in itself, a great improvement on the old system. The work in and about the parsonage has been well worth while. The town line roadway has been made passable by a bed of hauling stone. The painting with the consent of the Quarterly Official Board, has removed two large trees which were nearly dead) from the front of the lawn, thereby adding to the appearance of the property. The parsonage itself has undergone extensive decorations. The kitchen, one bedroom, diningroom and livingroom have been renovated at a cost of $120.00. This expenditure was all borne by the Ladies' Aid and Young People's Society of Morven. The Ladies' Bible Class of Switzerville have invested $20.00 in bedroom equipments. The Quarterly Official Board have purchased two splendid furnacettes and installed them complete at a cost of approximately $110.00. The Board has also cut a doorway from the kitchen to what is now the diningroom, greatly lessening the work and the noise and also improving the property. It is a delight when pastor and people work so harmoniously together, and as we live in an age of progress so it is a sign of life to be advancing. We are indeed pleased to note the desire of our people to make their minister comfortable and have their parsonage in good shape. We are also pleased to see our minister taking such an active interest in the care of the parsonage and the beautifying of the same. We are glad to note that although some attractive inducements have been offered to our pastor by other Circuits Boards, that, unless changed by conference, he expects to remain with us another year.

SUDDEN DEATH OF W. M. WILSON

Another sudden death was chronicled on Saturday last, in the person of Mr. William M. Wilson, at the age of thirty-eight years.

The deceased, who was sales agent for some time with Mr. C. A. Wiseman, Chevrolet dealer, was in Kingston on Saturday morning, and was moving the cars in the show room.

The telephone rang and while at the phone he was stricken with a fainting spell, which may have been caused by fumes from the cars. He was taken to the Hotel Dieu, but had revived on reaching the hospital, so did not go in.

He returned to the garage intending to come to Napanee. In the early afternoon on the road from Violet to the Provincial Highway his car was found at the side of the road, and the body with life extinct was found a few yards at the rear of the car. It is thought that he had another weak spell, stopped his car, got out and walked a short distance when he collapsed.

The remains were brought to Messrs. F. C. Martin & Son's Undertaking Parlors, where a post mortem was held on Sunday.

The deceased was a former resident of the Bath district, having lived at one time a member of the Township Council.

Two years ago he exchanged his property at Yarker for property near Bath.

In 1928 he sold cars for Mr. C. A. Wiseman, and last fall entered the employ of Mr. Wiseman again as sales agent.

His residence was on Donald street. Surviving are his grief-stricken widow and two children; also his aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilson; two brothers, Urban, of Moscow, and Will, of Rochester; and one sister, Mrs. Clayton, of Toronto.

He was the first Noble Grand of Rapid Lodge, I. O. O. F., Yarker, and took a great interest in Oddfellowship.

The funeral service was held on Monday afternoon.

Debate—Mrs. Shelley Denyes and Mrs. Roy Hartman against Mrs. J. T. Clark and Mrs. H. W. Caton. Report of Kingston Convention by Mrs. C. Boyce, and reports of the Local Council of Women, by our representative, Mrs. J. E. Mabee. Current Events by Mrs. Roy Hartman.

About twenty-five Xmas parcels were sent out, fruit and flowers to the sick and shut-in.

Letters were written to the mothers of new babies until it was decided to give the bank books, then a note was put in each one.

We had Bay View, Camden East and Westbrook branches visit us and provide excellent programmes; while we visited Bay View, Wilton and Camden East. The amount of money on hand also showed an increase from last year.

Mrs. F. Hamm then took the chair for the election of officers, which resulted as follows:—

Hon. Pres.—Mrs. Nelson Smith.

Pres.—Mrs. Stanley Sproule.

Vice President—Miss T. Aylsworth and Mrs. J. C. Parrott.

Secty.-Treas.—Mrs. Willanna Clark.

District Director—Mrs. J. C. Parrott.

Press Reporters—Mrs. W. J. Snider, Mrs. H. W. Caton and Mrs. Bruce Smith.

Current Events—Mrs. J. L. Clark, Mrs. Roy Hartman and Mrs. M. Lee.

A very dainty lunch was served by Mrs. J. C. Parrott, Mrs. J. D. Snider and Mrs. M. Lee.

Mrs. Lowe will speak in Odessa, on May 22nd.

Made Her Baby Plump and Well

Nothing makes a mother more grateful than a benefit conferred upon her child. Mothers everywhere who have used Baby's Own Tablets for their children speak in enthusiastic terms of them. For instance, Mrs. Zepherin Lavoie, Three Rivers, Que., writes:—"Baby's Own Tablets are a wonderful medicine for little ones. They never fail to regulate the baby's stomach and bowels and make him plump and well. I always keep a box of the Tablets in the house and would advise all mothers to do likewise." Most of the ordinary ailments of childhood arise in the stomach and bowels, and can be quickly banished by Baby's Own Tablets. These Tablets relieve constipation and indigestion, break up colds and simple fevers, expel worms, allay teething pains and promote healthful sleep. They are guaranteed to be free from injurious drugs and are safe even for the youngest and most delicate child. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"The man is so honest he wouldn't steal a pin," said the admiring friend.

WILTON W. M. S.

The monthly meeting of the Wilton Women's Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. Ida Parrott. Mrs. John Prink and Mrs. W. Amey had charge of the programme. There was a large number of ladies in attendance. The meeting was opened by singing hymn, "I Love to Tell the Story", after which all remained standing while prayer was offered. The Scripture lesson was taken by Mrs. George Emberley.

Our President, Mrs. A. W. Babcock, then had charge of the business. Reports from our various secretaries were received, whose work proved very interesting and efficient. It was decided to send a card or letter shower to Mr. Earl Cole, who is in the Kingston General Hospital. Earl is one of our prominent church boys.

A splendid programme followed, during which Mrs. Fred Sharpe gave us a very interesting report of the convention held recently in Kingston. At the conclusion of the programme a vote of thanks was moved to Mrs. Amey and Mrs. Prink for the splendid afternoon's programme. One verse of hymn, "A Better Day is Coming", followed with prayer by Mrs. Prink, brought our meeting to a close.

A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, and all enjoyed the social half hour which followed.

Our next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. Amey. The programme will be in charge of Miss Blanche Babcock and Mrs. W. H. Mills.

YARKER - COLEBROOK WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The regular monthly meeting of the Yarker-Colebrook Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. A. Martin, with a wonderful attendance of fifty-four present. The meeting opened by singing the Institute Ode, and repeating the Creed. The roll call was well answered by "Don't for the Sick Room".

The District Annual Convention is to be held in Yarker United Church on June 12th. Dinner will be served in the hall. A committee was appointed to see if we could arrange to have Yarker and Colebrook streets oiled during the summer months.

Miss Duff, Field Secretary of the W. C. T. U., gave a splendid address on Temperance. She suggested that the Institute discuss the Children's Health Book in one of their meetings.

It being Grandmother's Day, there were thirteen grandmothers present. Each grandmother was decorated with a bouquet of pansies. Mrs. Winter, the oldest grandmother, and Mrs. M. Irish, the youngest, received gifts. Mrs. F. Martin gave a reading on "Training the Baby".

Miss Pansy Curl and Mrs. Geo. McFarlane very sweetly sang "The Old Wooden Rocker". A reading was given by Mrs. H. J. Freeman, on "A Dr. Goes to Tobermory". Mrs. Amos Huffman gave a splendid paper on "The Early History of Our County", which was very instructive.

Mrs. Roxbrough, of Mosson, sang a solo, "Fifty Years Ago". A reading was given by Mrs. R. Jackson, on "Grandmothers".

The meeting was closed by singing the National Anthem, after which lunch was served, and a social half hour spent. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. A. Brown's, on June 27th.

CANADIAN GARDENING SERVICE

Beans.

It is a simple matter to procure a continuous supply of beans practically right through the Summer. This is a particularly delicious vegetable, especially when taken right out of the garden at the door, anyone can grow it, and for the space occupied it is one of the most economical. Beans prefer warm weather, an open soil and plenty of sunshine and moisture. The first crop will be well under way now and probably a second planting started or ready to sow. With several varieties maturing at various intervals at one's disposal, and two distinct types—the dwarf and the climbing—there is a wide range. This vegetable comes in two colors, green and the yellow, the last named being known as the Wax Type, and while some people prefer one to the other, both are recommended. It is not advisable to plant beans in hills, except where the ground is low and inclined to be damp. Plant about an inch deep and thin to five or six inches apart. A row of twenty-five to fifty feet, coming on every two weeks will keep the average family well supplied. One can continue planting up to about the middle of July. The climbing sorts go in after the weather turns thoroughly warm, and they should be trained up on stakes. These require about eighteen inches each way while the dwarf sorts are grown in rows from about fifteen inches apart to twenty-four inches or three feet where horse cultivation is used. The latter should be thinned in the row to about five inches apart. Beans should not be picked when the plants are damp as this is apt to spread a disease which causes black spots on the pods.

Sweet Peas.

As sweet peas make most of their growth in the cool weather, and as it is essential that they make plenty of growth if they are to bloom freely, push them along now. If grown in a trench, as they should be, gradually draw in the soil around them so that they will develop a deep root system. Such a system will bring them through a siege of hot weather. Cultivate freely and fertilize well. Just before the buds begin to swell, a little nitrate of soda sprinkled along the rows and well watered in will add depth of color to the flowers and insure a longer blooming season.

Pruning Shrubbery.

Early flowering varieties of shrubs should be pruned after flowering is over by cutting out the old branches which hold the withered blooms, according to Professor A. H. Tomlinson, of the Ontario Agricultural College. This is especially necessary in the case of those plants over three years of age in order that there is room left for new growth and vigorous flowering. Such late flowering sorts, such as the hydronges, the pruning is done in the Spring of the year. Evergreen hedges should be pruned now and this is also a good time to plant evergreens.

Keep Flowers Picked.

In order to have the flower garden looking its best at all times and also to secure the maximum amount of bloom, all dying flowers must be kept removed. With most sorts, the oftener the bloom is removed, the more of it there will be. When plants are allowed to start developing seed pods, all the energy goes into this part of the business and there are no more flowers. With those which produce clumps of small blooms, such as alyssum, phlox, lobelia and even some of the larger types such as petunias, the flowers may be sheared off. If one has the time, it is also a good plan to nip off many of the buds and a portion of the side shoots. This will result in much larger flowers as the energy which would have gone into the unwanted side shoots and buds will be turned into those buds left.

Keep Things Growing.

If the vegetable garden suffers a check in growth results will be very disappointing as the crops being produced will be inclined to be tough or stringy. Where it is possible to water, it is quite a simple matter to keep growth going regardless of the weather, but even the man without a hose or other irrigation system can work wonders with a hoe and with a quickly available fertilizer such as nitrate of soda. Sprinkle the latter along the rows, using about an ounce to every six feet of row and work in well with a rake or a hoe. The garden must be kept cultivated, particularly during dry weather as this conserves moisture by preventing evaporation of the water stored in the soil and thus keeps the plant growing. A well-cultivated garden will keep on growing almost regardless of the weather.

"Did your husband leave you much?"

"Yes, nearly every night."

JUNE ROD AND GUN

Indicating the special delights of Ontario to the sportsmen tourists, the June issue of the National sporting magazine, Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News, as in former years, again takes the form of a special Ontario Tourist number.

The contents of this issue include several special features and articles by such well known Ontario writers as Ozark Ripley, Merrill Denison, Bert Jarmain and a message of welcome from the Premier of Ontario.

These are all additional to the regular features of national interest to all outdoor lovers on angling, woodcraft, guns and ammunition, dogs and the silver fox industry, written by well known authorities.

Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

"Custom-Built" Designers Created the New Willys-Knight

Men of long experience in the "custom-built" field designed the new-style Willys-Knight Six. Their artistry is quite apparent in this triumph of modern beauty.

Grace of line, richness of color, perfect symmetry and proportion distinguish the new-style Willys-Knight Six as the outstanding creation of these style specialists, and make available—at a remarkable low price—the style and richness previously associated only with costly, custom-built cars.

A great automobile—a great engine—no valves to grind, no costly carbon removing. Practically fool-proof and wear-proof. No Willys-Knight motor, so far as we know, has ever worn out.

Arrange for a demonstration at your earliest convenience.

CAMDEN EAST WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

On Friday, May 3rd, the Camden East Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Allore. There were twelve members and two visitors present. Roll call was answered by paying dues, this being the annual meeting. The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Correspondence dealing with the District Annual meeting, and Summer Series of lectures to be held in June, was read and discussed. Mrs. Huffman, our District President, advised the members to attend the judging competition in Enterprise, on June 24th, 25th and 26th, or in Napanee on June 10th, 11th and 12th.

The Secretary's report was read and showed our membership for 1928-1929 was 35. We began the year with $126.33 on hand, and finished with $82.47. A few of the most outstanding items of expenditure were $36.64 for flowers, fruit and charity; $12.80 to lights of the village; $5.00 for prizes to two pupils of Camden East school obtaining highest standing in work plus conduct; $5.00 to the Navy League, and $3.00 to the Welsh Miners' Fund.

The remainder of the meeting was presided over by Mrs. Huffman, who conducted the election of officers, which resulted as follows:—

Hon. Pres.—Mrs. A. Salsbury.
Pres.—Mrs. A. Robinson.
1st Vice Pres.—Mrs. Geo. Smedley.
2nd Vice Pres.—Mrs. W. Dunn.
Secretary-Treasurer—Mrs. T. Allore.
Programme Committee—Mrs. Huff, Mrs. E. Hamilton, Mrs. J. McDonald, Mrs. Geo. Black and Mrs. Sexsmith.
District Director—Mrs. E. Hamilton.
Representatives to District Annual—The President, District Director, Mrs. A. Salsbury and Mrs. W. Dunn.
Pianist—Mrs. Hilten Robinson.
Fruit and Flower Committee—Mrs. B. Amey, Convenor, Mrs. P. Histed, Miss Mae MacDonald and Mrs. R. Lewis.
Press Reporter—Mrs. Geo. Smedley.

Mrs. J. McDonald read a paper, after which the National Anthem was sung.

Refreshments were served during a social half hour.

CANADIAN GARDENING SERVICE

Supports

Practically all of the taller growing flowers and some of the vegetables as well require support. In the case of dahlias, cosmos and gladiolus, tomatoes and similar plants, staking is the method of providing this, using wooden stakes about an inch square and long enough to drive from six inches to a foot into the ground. If these are stained they will not only make a better appearance but will last considerably longer. Green or brown will probably be the most satisfactory colors to use as they blend well with the garden foliage. For trailing plants such as sweet peas, beans, nasturtiums and the ordinary tall garden beans and peas, trellis work, strings or wire netting should be provided. Out of the three, the wire netting is probably the least satisfactory as it is inclined to heat up and injure the stems and on a windy day it may cut them. In all cases, these supports should be provided as soon after the seed is sown or the plants are set out as possible, so as not to disturb the root system.

For the Man Who Rents

One does not have to be an owner to indulge in gardening as there are plenty of plants which will make a perfect showing in a single season. In fact the man who moves regularly every Spring can almost have as beautiful a garden as the permanent householder, although it will be necessary to do a little more planning. But there is a big list of annuals from which to make a selection. Annual hops, sweet peas, morning glories, climbing nasturtiums or scarlet runner beans will make a fine screen for the verandah a few weeks after being planted. As a substitute for permanent shrubbery, clumps of tall cosmos, dahlias, African marigolds, or zinnias can be used with groups of the smaller growing annuals in front. In the seed catalogue one will always find the heights of the plants given as well as the period of blooming, and with this information it is a simple matter to plan a garden to suit one's circumstances.

Lettuce.

A generous and steady supply of lettuce is now considered an essential in every garden. Years ago, a very short row of this vegetable was put in in early Spring and when that was all gone or turned bitter there was nothing more. But to-day, with many varieties and more knowledge of growing we can have a supply of this indispensable salad material from early Spring right through the season. The rapid-growing leaf sorts will be ready first to be followed by the first of the head lettuce which is sometimes sowed indoors and transplanted outside after danger of serious frost is over. Two or three successive crops of head lettuce can be taken off before the weather turns very warm. If one is anxious to secure white heads, it is necessary to tie up loosely with a little soft string or an elastic and allow the inner leaves to bleach for a week to ten days before cutting. After the head lettuce is done, the Cos type will be ready. This is a different lettuce from the head or leaf sorts, producing long, rather narrow, erect leaves that tend to fold over each other and enclose and blanch the heart. Tieing loosely here will hasten the blanching process. Cos lettuce may be kept in perfect condition in a cool, moist cellar for a day or two after picking, particularly if it is sprinkled with water. This crop will carry on right through the Summer until the weather is cool enough for the Fall sown leaf lettuce to come on. Lettuce is one of those many vegetables which must be grown quickly if it is to be tender, and on this account regular applications of nitrate of soda are advisable. The best way to apply this fertiliser is to dissolve it at the rate of about an ounce to the gallon and sprinkle the water along the rows. A gallon of water is sufficient for about 2 yards of row. When the head lettuce is being transplanted, it is also an excellent plan to put a pinch of nitrate, that is all that you could heap on one of the small five cent pieces, around each plant. This should be dug lightly into the soil without actually coming into contact with the roots.

SELBY

Our village and community were greatly shocked on Monday last to hear of the sad accident which befell Mrs. Emily Hicks, who resided with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Anderson, when she fell down cellar and never regained conciousness. The funeral service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. H. Foley, in the United Church on Wednesday afternoon. The text was taken from the Ninetyeth Psalm, and the 12th verse.— Mr. and Mrs. J. Tate, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Denison, and Mrs. W. N. McKim attended the funeral of the late Mr. W. McGill, Centreville on Tuesday. —Mrs. J. Botting and daughter, Myrtle, of Roblin were recent visitors at Mr. W. Doidge's.— Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Denison of Newburgh, spent Wednesday with their daughMrs. W. A. McLeod. — We are sorry to report Mrs. E. R. Williams is on the sick list.— We hope for a speedy recovery. — Mrs. Leopold Carscallen was a recent visitor at Mr. Geo. Richmond's. — Mrs. B. Jaynes of Napanee, spent Friday with her mother, Mrs. John McFarlane, Sr. — Miss Hazel Winter, Newburgh, spent the week-end with her cousin, Miss May Wilde.— Mr. and Mrs. C. Booth and sons of Toronto, spent a few days with Miss Fanny McCauley. — Mr. and Mrs. Ray Loucks, Napanee, visited at Mr. J. McFarland's on Friday. — Mr. and Mrs S. Mowers spent Sunday at Mr. Wesely Yorks, Roblin. — Miss Hazel Martin of Toronto Normal School, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Martin for the week-end. — Mr. and Mrs. Harry and family of Latta, spent Sunday, with his brother, Dr. A. C. Tummon.

TYENDINAGA EAST WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The regular monthly meeting of the Tyendinaga East Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. C. Akey on Thursday afternoon, May 16th. — There was a large attendance of members present and several visitors. The meeting was opened by the Institute Ode followed by the Lord's Prayer. The minies of the last meeting were read and adopted. The roll call was answered by Poultry hints and many good suggestions were given. After a discussion on poultry hints, Mrs. Beatty, District president gave two very interesting papers. The first was on "A Mother's Duty to Herself," which was very interesting and instructive. Mrs. Beatty also gave many points that will be very helpful to the Institute. Mrs. Simmons, president of the Roslin branch, gave a short talk on Institute work. Mrs. Roy McMath sang a solo entitled, "O Canada". Mrs. Robt. McFarlane gave a splendid paper on remodelling furniture. Mrs. A Waddingham gave a very interesting paper on current events. The meeting was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Roy McMath, Mrs. Tomsett and Miss Russell. The next meeting to be held at Mrs. R. McMath's on June 20th.

BAY CIRCUIT

The delightful spring weather is making the farmers smile. It has been a rather discouraging season. —The new river road is going to add attraction to the countryside, and will certainly be a boom to the summer resorts out on the bay. — Already several of our summer cottages are occupied, and others are looking towards a summer on the delightful shore. — The Sand Hill Ladies' Aid held their monthly meeting on Wednesday evening last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hambly. There were about forty present and everyone had a delightful time. Reports were received of the work of the congregation for the year, and it was found that finances were in a healthy condition. Plans were outlined to paint the church inside and outside. A congregational meeting will be held later for the purpose of completing the plans. — The Township Convention of Religious Education for the North Fredericksburgh will be held in Bethany Church early in June. The Executive of the Township is called to meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Huyck on Tuesday, June 4th, at 8 p.m.—The parsonage barn has received a new coat of paint, which adds much to the appearance of the property. — Mr. and Mrs. J. Perry's daughter and babe, of Toronto, are spending a couple of weeks under the parental roof. — At the Official Board meeting held a few weeks ago it was decided to withdraw all the services on the circuit on Conference Sunday to give the people an opportunity to attend the Sunday sessions of conference. — Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sills are building a new house, and expect to have it completed in the near future.

Who is wise? He who learns from everyone.
Who is strong? He who conquers himself.
Who is rich? He who is satisfied with what he has.
Who is honorable? He whom his neighbors honor.

Wisdom is better than wealth, but most people prefer the inferior article.

At an interval on the first night of a new show, the producer encountered a critic who was famed for his destructive candour. "Now, look here," said the producer, "let's have your honest opinion of this play."

"It is absolutely worthless," replied the critic contemptuously.

"Splendid!" said the producer quickly, "but let's have it all the same."

The ROYAL MASTER

"THE GREATEST TIRE THE WORLD HAS EVER KNOWN"

The Royal Master was built without regard for cost. It is the finest tire that can be built.

Its massive tread is double thick, cured by a new slow process. Its carcass is made with extra plies of web fabric. Side-walls are guarded against scuffing.

The Royal Master is made oversize. Or rather, the right size for real tire economy.

If you want tires that will last as long as you keep your car, then buy Royal Masters.

Not one Royal Master in a thousand will ever puncture. Not one in five thousand will blow out under two years of service.

CARS DO NOT RUN BETTER AT NIGHT

Many motorists are under the impression that automobile engines function more efficiently in the damp of evening or rainy days than at dry times, but this idea is erroneous, Arthur W. Gardiner, research engineer says.

Tests made under standard laboratory conditions show that engine power decreases with increasing humidity of the air, and that a large increase in spark advance is required to obtain best power at high humidity. Similarly, in damp air the spark advance for incipient detonation may be considerably increased, compared with dry air conditions.

What happens is that under conditions of high humidity the combustion rate is slowed up, resulting in apparently smoother engine operation, which the car owner is likely to mistake for improved power. In spite of this, however, water vapour is relatively ineffective in suppressing detonation.

A further indication of the influence of humidity on engine operation is the fact that approximately 8 per cent more heat is dissipated through the radiator when the air is dry than when its relative humiditis is 100 per cent.

HOW $25,000,000 WAS WON FROM SEA

Captain G. C. C. Damant, R. N., who salved $25,000,000 worth of gold bullion from the Laurentic, lectured recently on his achievement, which is one of the most absorbing deep-sea epics in history.

He has been thrilling audiences up and down the country, including nearly all the public schools, with the plain, unvarnished story of this great salvage job, which took seven years to accomplish.

Here is the bare outline of the story he told:

Early in 1917 the White Star liner Laurentic left Liverpool with 45 tons of gold bullion in her strong-room. Off the Irish coast she struck a mine and sank to the bottom, 130ft. below.

The Treasure

She had been badly damaged, and raising her was out of the question. Moreover, the treasure was now enclosed deep in a mass of twisted steel plates encircling the strong room.

Heavy seas raged above the wreck, and it seemed hopeless that divers would be able to get out the mass of heavy bullion.

Long before the war, however, Captain Damant had been appointed experimental officer to an Admirality Committee, which had been formed to investigate the whole question of deep-water diving and its difficulties. Profiting by the experience he gained, he succeeded in diving to a depth of 216ft., and was later appointed inspector of diving to the Admiralty.

When the Navy decided to undertake the salving of this bullion, Captain Damant was obviously the man to direct operations.

Seven Years' Task

He remained on the spot for the whole seven years, in which, bit by bit, the mass of gold was raised to the surface.

He tells the story simply and without a trace of the dramatic, or how he sailed from Portsmouth with half a dozen picked men a few days after the decision had been arrived at. How the first man arrived on the wreck, and what he found. How a path was made through the wreckage and a way found to the bullion room.

And then the wreck collapsed—with seemingly disastrous results. But a new plan was formed, and, after exciting adventures and many narrow escapes, practically the whole of the bullion was raised, and one of the most remarkable salvage operations ever undertaken was brought to a successful conclusion.

IMPORTANCE OF TREATING SEED POTATOES

Treatment of seed potatoes for the prevention of diseases carried on the surface of the tubers is of greater importance than is ordinarily appreciated. Without doubt it is one of the most profitable means of reducing the yearly losses caused by certain diseases. Seed treatment is so important that it may frequently be the dividing line between gain and loss in the production of potatoes.

In the process of seed treatment we are concerned with scab, rhizoctonia and blackleg. All three cause appreciable reduction in yield and impair the quality of the crop. The annual loss from any one of these sources would amount to many thousands of dollars. Scab and rhizoctonia persist in the soil for years once they have been introduced. Growers, therefore, should protect disease-free soils by practising seed treatment. It has not been demonstrated that blackleg is carried in the soil, yet, seed treatment will prevent its development on tubers which may have become contaminated by contact with those which are diseased.

Investigations conducted at the Division of Botany, Ottawa, have demonstrated the importance of treating seed potatoes, where blackleg is concerned, inasmuch as it is reduced but not entirely controlled by seed treatment.

In the case of rhizoctonia the young sprouts are very susceptible to attach. The black resting bodies of the fungus, by means of which it has survived the winter, begin to grow when the potatoes are planted and are active when the tender sprouts are particularly subject to attack. Seed treatment aims to reduce this sprout infection by destroying the organism responsible for it. Such a measure assists materially in obtaining the good stands which so commonly follow careful seed disinfection.

The marked increase in seed potato certification and the clearly defined inspection standards direct our attention to the necessity of producing potatoes of superior quality. That this has been so, is shown by the foreign demand for Canadian Seed Potatoes. The chief reason, therefore, for treating seed potatoes is to enable us to meet the demands of critical markets which have been acquired by providing a commodity above reproach. Seed treatment will aid materially in maintaining this reputation.

WHAT CHANCE AGAINST FIRE HAS A ROOF LIKE THIS?

MODERN BUILDING—for permanence, low-upkeep and appearance—sounds the death-knell of wooden roofs. The dangers of fire to the building itself, to other buildings and to human life is rapidly being banished by metal roofs of high quality.

RE-ROOF WITH RIB ROLL

The appearance of this roofing alone has sold thousands. Whenever a roof of this material is laid in any district, it immediately secures a preference, and others who are roofing any kind of building, whether it be barn, house, garage, shed or warehouse insist on Rib Roll. It is made to famous "Council Standard" specifications.

COUNCIL STANDARD

Old roofs like this are rapidly becoming things of the past. Fireproof, permanent, Rib Roll puts many lower insurance rates, banish upkeep trouble and give your building new attractive, up-to-date appearance.

A "close-up" of Rib Roll, showing the side-lap. When nailed this joint is so tight that it is quite invisible from even a short distance away. Illustration shows the neat and attractive pattern which is stamped into the sheets on four presses of 40 tons capacity. Beware of substitutes. There is only one Rib Roll.

EASY TO LAY ON NEW ROOFS OR OVER OLD ROOFS

The cost of laying Rib Roll is lower than that of nearly all other types of roofing. Any man who is handy with a hammer can put it on. Its handsome appearance adds many dollars to the value of your property.

Send ridge and rafter measurements of roof or roofs in question, for free estimate of cost.

Use Led-Hed Nails with Rib-Roll Roofing. The lead on the head seals the hole. No more threading. 22c per lb.

The other day, in one of our local schools, a youngster brought a note to his teacher in explanation of his absence from class. The note ran:—

"Dear Miss R——

Pleas excus Japie for being away from school as his grandmother died to oblige his father.

Worms, however generated, are found in the digestive tracts, where they set up disturbances detrimental to the health of the child. There can be no comfort for the little ones until the hurtful intruders have been expelled. An excellent preparation for this purpose can be had in Miller's Worm Powders. They will immediately destroy the worms and correct the conditions that were favourable to their existence.

At an interval on the first night of a new show, the producer encountered a critic who was famed for his destructive candour. "Now, look here," said the producer, "let's have your honest opinion of this play."

"It is absolutely worthless," replied the critic contemptuously.

"Possibly, possibly," said the producer quickly, "but let's have it all the same."

Soft corns are difficult to eradicate, but Holloway's Corn Remover will draw them out painlessly.

The provision of ear-muffs for the Paris police is a wise measure. The things people are saying just now about the weather are not fit for official hearing.

Unless worms be expelled from the system, no child can be healthy. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is an excellent medicine to destroy worms.

The respondent in a recent separation case alleged to the magistrate that his wife was too extravagant in dress.

"She dressed terrible extensive," said the illiterate husband.

"You mean," said the magistrate, "that she was extravagantly garbed."

"Yes, that's it," said the husband, "she had more garbage on than any other two women."

Time Has Tested It.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has been on the market upwards of fifty years, and in that time it has proved a blessing to thousands. Sufferers from catarrh will find that the Oil when used according to directions will give prompt relief. Many sufferers from this ailment have found relief in the Oil and have sent testimonials.

BARLEY — A SAFE CROP FOR A SHORT SEASON

In a season such as the present Spring, Nature brings very forcibly to our notice the necessity for giving increased attention to those grain crops which may be relied upon to complete their growth in shorter seasons than usual and, of course, this helps to bring the barley crop into its own. In a series of experiments extending over 40 years at the Ontario Agricultural College it has been found that the barley crop suffers less than any of the other spring grains from late seeding.

As with most things, the troubles and difficulties of a late spring don't come singly, for a late spring is usually a wet spring and wet springs have a habit of bringing on weedy summers. To the farmer who is out to keep his place clean in such a year, there is no spring grain so well designed to afford a measure of help as barley. For this crop ripens ahead of most bad weeds and thereby it gives the operator an opportunity of cutting the weeds before they have had a chance to pollute the land with their seeds.

On account of its narrow leaves and its short growing season, barley is regarded as the standard nurse crop with which to seed down clovers, grasses and alfalfa for best results. It is a well known fact that barley can come through a rust epidemic practically unscathed when wheat and oats will be quite seriously damaged or destroyed.

A bushel of barley contains about 41 lbs. of digestible feed material while a bushel of oats yields only 26 lbs. Thus an acre of fair barley will furnish over 1600 lbs. of digestible feed against 1300 lbs. from an acre of good oats. This striking difference lies in the facts that:

1. Barley is consistently a heavier cropper than oats in pounds of grain per acre.

2. In barley there is from 9-10 per cent less waste in the form of hull or husk than in oats.

The commercial demand for better class barley is increasing rapidly in Ontario and there is always a ready market, at comparatively good prices for any barley which may be surplus to feeding requirements on the farm.

"Don't you and your husband patch up your quarrels?" asked the visitor.

"Dear no!" replied Mrs. Scurich, "we always can afford to have new ones."

Two Boxes Saved Him From an Operation

B. C. Man Recommends Dodd's Kidney Pills

Mr. Ed. Holmquist Suffered With Bladder Trouble.

Vancouver, B.C., May 28th, (Special)—There is no more enthusiastic believer in Dodd's Kidney Pills anywhere than Mr. Edward Holmquist, 6273 Prince Albert St., Vancouver. He writes:—

"I took two boxes of your Dodd's Kidney Pills and I still think that they saved me from an operation. I suffered with bladder trouble and was relieved of my trouble. I will recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to anyone troubled with bladder trouble."

Availing oneself of the best information, the broadest and most practical system of relief in the world today, is the one in which the sufferer ascertains for himself the nature of his disease and then chooses the most certain means of healing; this has been known for the past thirty years as the Dodd's Kidney Pill treatment.

Dodd's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. They have become a family remedy all over the world because people have tried them and found them good.

And just suppose that the Salvation Army has to call a disarmament conference!

CONWAY WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The Conway Women's Institute held its May meeting at the home of Mrs. Alex. Sills, on Tuesday, May 14th. There was a fair attendance of members in spite of the disagreeable weather. The meeting was opened by the singing of the Institute Ode, and repeating the Lord's Prayer.

The roll call was answered by paying fees and gems of thought. The minutes of April meeting were read and approved. The Auditors' report showed the books in good order, and the Institute in good financial standing. A motion was made which met with the unanimous approval of the members, that place signs be erected at different points on the main road from Bath to Adolphustown, and a committee named to look after this work.

The election of officers followed. The President and other officers, who so ably filled their offices last year, were returned to office.

The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem, after which all enjoyed a social half hour over the tea cups.

SURPRISE PARTY AT VIOLET

A number of relatives of Mrs. D. B. Ruttan, of Violet, arranged a birthday party in her honor on May 13th. A very pleasant evening was spent in music and singing.

Those present included Mr. Frank Tompkins, Bessie and Earl, Newburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tompkins, Mable, Arthur and Gordon, Strathcona; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Tompkins and Mrs. Elida Ferris, Newburgh Road; Mr. and Mrs. George Pearson, Deseronto; Mr. J. A. Tompkins, Bath; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reid and two sons, Georgie and Harold, Bath; Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Tompkins and daughter, May, of Yarker; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ruttan and children, Earl, Jean and Betty, of Newburgh. A number of lovely gifts were received, and refreshments were served.

"Blest Be the Tie That Binds" was sung, and the party dispersed, after assuring Mrs. Ruttan of their very hearty best wishes of many returns of the day.

Many of us are kept out of a lot of mischief by being out of funds.

Are you miserable and run-down?

WOMEN of all ages, all over the world, are finding new health in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Actual microscopic tests have shown that the medicinal elements contained in them increase the blood count and build up and revitalize the entire system. Miss Juliette Seguin, of Dalkeith, Ont., testifies as follows:—

"Two years ago I became weak, nervous and run-down. Various prescribed treatments did not help me. I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and it was not long before I noticed a big improvement, and soon I was in the best of health. A year ago also my mother was badly run-down; her nerves were shattered and life became a burden. She began taking the pills and as a result she is in perfect health."

ARLIE MARKS AT CITY HALL.

Miss Arlie Marks, the dainty Irish-Canadian comedienne and her company of players, will be the next attraction at the City Hall, Napanee, for a limited engagement of one week, commencing Monday evening, June 3rd, with matinee on Saturday. Miss Marks, as many will remember, is one of Canada's brightest theatrical stars, and comes from a long line of theatre people, being the daughter of Tom Marks, that inimitable Irish comedian, who amused thousands of Canadians with his rare humor not many years ago. This season Miss Marks and her players are making a coast to coast tour, and Napanee is just one of the many engagements of her tour. For the week's engagement Miss Marks will offer six of up-to-date repertoire plays, starting with "The Patsy". This sterling dramatic comedy will be offered on Monday evening, and is one of the outstanding plays of the day. The seats are on sale at R. B. Allen's. 22a

NAPANEE C. W. LEAGUE GAVE BANQUET

The Parish Hall, Thomas St., was the scene of a large gathering on Thursday evening, May 15th, when the members of the Catholic Women's League of St. Patrick's Church, tendered the congregation a banquet. The tables were very tastefully decorated for the occasion, and the menu provided by the members of the League was all that could be desired and to which everyone did full justice.

Following the dinner a delightful and most enjoyable program was presented, consisting of toasts, community singing, and vocal solos. Miss Josephine Leamy very capably filled the role as toast mistress.

There were four toasts:—"The King", "The Pope", "Our Clergy", and "Our Sub-division". The toast to the Clergy was proposed by Miss Mary Leamy, and was very ably responded to by Rev. Dean McDonald, Pastor of St. Patrick's Church. Our Sub-division was proposed by Mrs. D. J. Murphy, and responded to by Mrs. F. D. Marsh.

Miss Agnes Cavanaugh very capably acted as accompanist for the evening. The community singing, which was greatly enjoyed by everyone, was in charge of Mrs. James McGrath. Vocal solos were given by Miss Margaret Nolan, Mrs. Jas. McGrath and Mr. Joseph Marshall. The soloists received well merited applause.

A most profitable evening was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

OBITUARY

Mrs. J. M. Naphin.

The death took place on Tuesday of last week, at her late residence, in Deseronto, of Ellen Power, beloved wife of J. M. Naphin.

The late Mrs. Naphin, who was in her 61st year, was born in Renfrew, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Power, and after her marriage in Belleville, about thirty years ago, she took up residence in Deseronto, where she has lived ever since. In church and social activities deceased worked untiringly, and her pleasant disposition made her a host of friends. Although in failing health for some time, the late Mrs. Naphin had not been confined to her bed, but remained bright and cheerful till the last and conversed with her husband a few moments before she peacefully passed away.

The funeral was held from the family residence, on Thomas St., on Thursday morning to St. Vincent de Paul Church, where a High Mass of Requiem was celebrated at 9 o'clock, by Rev. Father Lacey. The numerous spiritual and beautiful floral tributes bore evidence of the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Besides her sorrowing husband, two sons and one daughter survive, Leo, of Toronto; Jim, of the Oshawa Foundries Shops, Ltd., and Theresa, of Kingston, to whom the sympathy of the entire community is extended.

—The regular meeting of the Y. O. E. will be held in the Public Library, on Tuesday, June 4th, at 8 p.m.

—St. Paul's Tennis Club will hold a dance in the Parish Hall, on Monday, June 3rd. Dancing from 9 to 1. Good Orchestra. 22a

—A meeting of the Junior Farmers' Association of Lennox and Addington will be held on Tuesday evening, June 4th, at the Agricultural Office, for the purpose of getting their ball teams together. All members please attend. 22a

BACKING MOTOR CAR, FATHER KILLS CHILD.

Florence White, 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John White, Richmond Township, residing near Deseronee, was killed instantly on Monday, being crushed by a car driven by her father in the barnyard of their home. It was decided no inquest was necessary. The family was going for a ride in the car and the father went to the garage to back out the machine. The child was playing about the yard, and when she saw the father backing the car out, ran behind it to get in. The father did not see the child, who was run over by one of the rear wheels.

OBITUARY

Maurice James Wright.

A former well known Napanee boy, died May 16th, 1929, after a long illness from anaemia, at his home, 50 E 18th St., Flatbush, Brooklyn, N.Y.

Mr. Wright, in his boyhood days, lived on Robert St., working in the store of the late John Paisley. In 1893 he went to New York City, where he entered the office of the Steel Rail Supply Co., of which firm he was a director at the time of his death.

He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Mildred Langford, of Ottawa, and one daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Pierson, of Flatbush; also two brothers, Fred Wright, of Freport, Long Island, N.Y., and Herbert Wright, of Cincinnati, Ohio; and two sisters, Mrs. Hamlet Allan, of Chatham, and Mrs. James W. Wilson, of Napanee.

Burial was in Evergreen Cemetery, Brooklyn, N.Y.

PILGRIMAGE TO U. E. L. CHURCH

One of the features of the U.E.L. Celebration at Deseronto June 16th, 17th, 18th and 19th next, will be a pilgrimage to the Old Church at Adolphustown built by the U. E. Loyalists in 1792 on Paul Huff's farm in which a public gathering will be held to express thanks to the Almighty God for the many blessings which have followed the services and sacrifices of the U. E. Loyalists. From that one old church hundreds have come into existence in the Bay of Quinte District and thousands in Canada.

Paul Huff gave the land on which the church stands and he along with the following U. E. Loyalists contributed to the amount opposite their names to the erection of the church:

Paul Huff	£10.0.0

Anglican Churches were erected about the same time by U. E. Loyalists at Kingston, Bath and Niagara, but these original buildings have ceased to exist. Many of the Catholic U. E. Loyalists went to what is now New Brunswick, Montreal, or Quebec city, and there erected churches. The Anglican U. E. Loyalists on the Brantford reserve erected the first U. E. Lyalist church in Canada in 1788 but that has long since disappeared. As evidence of the good feeling existing between the Catholics and the various religious denominations in the early pioneer days, Protestants in Montreal and Quebec city were permitted to use parts of Catholic religious edifices for worship. The erection of churches by the U. E. Loyalists under great difficulties show that the Loyalists possessed strong religious sentiments.

SPORTS

What has happened to the summer sports in Napanee? Are we to be without any at all?

Some of the young men of the town realize how far the line of sports has dropped and have got together and formed a softball team. They ask for nothing outside of a team or teams to play against. Are there any teams in this town or surrounding community? If so, please get in touch with the boys or drop a line to the Beaver Office.

The boys believe they have a team superior to anything that can be produced around the town, Gibbards, Iron Works, Lodges, and any other organization.

They are also willing to form a league in Napanee to make the sport last the season. If a hardball team can be produced they will endeavour to put a softball team in the field along with their softballers.

All young men interested in ball of any sort, communicate with The Beaver Office, or G. Reid, at J. L. Boyes'.

INVENTOR OF BUICK CAR PENNILESS AT DEATH

By J. V. McAree.

Thackeray once said that except the young or the very happy, he did not greatly grieve to hear of anyone dying. Perhaps the friends of the late David D. Buick, if he had any at the last, which seems hardly probable, may have felt that he ought to be permitted to pass in peace, having been stretched out on the rack of this hard world long enough. And yet, glancing over the outlines of his career, we think most people would experience regret that this man who had made many a millionaire and contributed so largely to the development of the motor car, should have died penniless. Their regret would hardly be lessened by the knowledge that Buick himself did not blame anybody for the plight in which he found himself in his old age. He did not assert that he had been swindled or wronged, but looked at the matter as one of the breaks of the game. Clearly, he had a smart, nothing except to provide for future comfort. One reflects, though, that if every owner of the car that bore his name had contributed a cent a year to his support he would have been an exceedingly wealthy man. It is borne on that 2,000,000 Buicks are gliding over the roads of the United States.

The Horseless Carriage Dream.

Buick started in the motor game with about the same equipment as Henry Ford. He had, at least, the same opportunity of making himself a billionaire. He had the vision, the inventive genius, and he was in the game early enough. Nor was lack of courage or enterprise responsible for his failure. Probably it was just bad luck. In any event, as a time when Henry Ford was a machinist, Olds, an experimentalist, and most of the other names famous in the history of the motor car unknown, Buick was a middle-aged man, a partner in the Detroit firm of Buick and Sherwood, plumbing supply manufacturers. It was a prosperous firm and Buick had no reason to complain of his lot. Moreover he had a dream, the dream of the horseless carriage, which for no reason that we have ever heard of, was about that time or a little later, to captivate the fancies of many a man since renowned. Little by little the vision of the horseless carriage became to him more substantial than the solid prosperous plumbing business. He resolved to sell out and devote himself to the realization of his dream.

After Three Years' Work.

So he sold his interest in the firm and interest also in a new process for enamelling bath-tubs for $100,000, and with his son, Tom, hired a loft and began work on his horseless carriage. He was a pioneer. There were no text books to guide him, no successful inventors or manufacturers to put him on the right track, no machinery in existence that he wanted done. In three years he found that his capital had all but disappeared. In its place stood a horseless carriage, with an engine that worked and a valve-in-head motor. There was nothing to be done but to advertise for a partner with money, and this he did in a Detroit paper. He received an answer from J. H. Whiting, a banker and carriage manufacturer of Flint, Michigan. Whiting told Buick to drive his new carriage from Detroit to Flint, a distance of 60 miles over rough roads. Buick leaped at the opportunity, but when he reached Pontiac he broke down, and a team of horses had to haul it back to Detroit. Again he set forth and this time arrived in triumph at Flint. Whiting was impressed with the car and put up $35,000. A company was then formed, which the Buicks, father and son, controlled.

Executive Quarrels.

The company could not have been wisely officered, for almost immediately disputes broke out as to sales methods. Instead of getting out and selling cars, as by that time Ford, Olds and the Cadillac brothers were doing, the Buicks made and sold stationary engines to keep down expenses. It seemed that through mismanagement the company might go on the rocks of bankruptcy, but it happened about that time there was no end to competition in which Buick cars were entered against Fords, Cadillacs and the Oldsmobile. Time and time again, out first in all tests. It received a most favorable criticism from a trade paper, and it seemed that its fortune was made. Orders flowed in. Indeed, orders came in faster than the cars could be produced. Capital was demanded and raised as rapidly as the demand for cars, and another shift was resorted to. W. C. Durant, then the head of the Durant-Dort Carriage Company, was appealed to, and he agreed to raise funds to help accomplishment by a door-to-door canvass, and a million dollars was collected.

Hazards of New Fortunes.

The company was able to go ahead with its plans but again dissensions arose in the management. Tom Buick sold out his interest and started a brass foundry with orders from the Buick company, with which he retained a connection. In 1900 he quit and arguments, misunderstandings and disagreements again broke out. The elder Buick was disgusted, and sold some of his shares. With the proceeds he went to California and engaged in oil prospecting. He made one more cast for fortune when he went to Florida to participate in the land boom. This, too, collapsed under him and he returned to Detroit. He was seventy years old, without money and without friends. He secured a job as instructor in a trade school, but his increasing physical disabilities made it impossible for him to hold it and finally he became an information clerk. This was the job he held when he became suddenly ill and was sent to the hospital where he died.

A. W. HAYCOCK WINS LABOR SEAT

"Rejoice Sanely" was the cable message sent by Joseph L. Haycock to his son, A. W. Haycock, Labor member-elect for South Salford, Lancashire, England. "I used the two words," said the former Patron of Industry leader, "for I know it is harder to hold one's self when winning than it is when losing."

"Very good," said the father, "for a boy who crossed to England 26 years ago on a cattle ship."

A. W. Haycock's mother was a daughter of William Grange, the first white child born in Napanee. She was a sister of the late John Grange, ex-M.P.P. of Lennox. The member-elect's grandfather was Frederick Haycock, formerly of Chesham, Buckinghamshire, England. He emigrated to Canada in 1837, and settled in Lennox County, on the fifth concession of Ernestown, South of Switzerville.

"I was born on the farm there 80 years ago," remarked Joseph Haycock. "I left there when eight years of age and never saw the farm again until yesterday, when I drove my auto in to see the old house."

A. W. Haycock's grandmother was a former Miss Thompson, of St. Mary's, near Port Arlington, Ireland, and his great-grandmother was named Langtree. It is now the rectory of the Anglican Church. Arthur, who was the youngest, was born on December 28th, 1882. The other children are: George, Montreal, in the furnishing and decorating business; Joseph, farmer, Adolphustown; Mrs. (Dr.) L. Vosper, Kingston, and Mrs. (Dr.) Ferguson, Halford, England.

Hon. Geo. S. Henry, Minister of Highways, and Chairman of the Executive of the Highway Safety Committee, who has again launched an extensive campaign looking to accident prevention on Ontario highways.

CAMPAIGN FOR THE PREVENTION OF ACCIDENTS

Word was received from Toronto a few days ago that the Highway Safety Committee had renewed its campaign for the prevention of accidents, and this paper the Committee publishes its first advertisement, calculated to renew public interest in this vital problem.

It is stated by those who have studied the question, that motor traffic in Ontario increased between 20% and 25% in 1928 over 1927, but that the fatal accident ratio was lower than in 1927. Highway officials give a good deal of credit for these figures to the educative efforts of the Highway Safety Committee during the last two years. As the traffic grows the Committee find that they have to continue their efforts with increased vigor in order to keep this ratio at as low a figure as possible. After careful study members of the Committee have concluded that the vast majority of accidents can be prevented if a few simple rules of safety are kept constantly in mind.

One official of the Highways Department asserted that during certain periods of this summer we may expect cars in use on Ontario Highways to equal one car to every three people living in the Province. These figures, of course, take into account the increasing number of tourist cars using Ontario highways.

Gerald Harrison is recovering from a severe injury to his foot, received when he stepped on a rusty nail.

Death came with startling suddenness to Jack LeRoy Wartman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wartman, of this village, on Thursday afternoon. Jack was enjoying a swim at the dam and attempted to walk over that portion where the water flows over the sluice to a considerable depth. In doing so he slipped and fell a distance of eight or ten feet. It is supposed that in the fall he was considerably bruised by the rocks. His companion on seeing that he was in trouble, summoned help, but Mr. Stewart Gandier and Max Miles waded in and succeeded in bringing his body to shore. Every effort was made to restore life, but all in vain. Jack Wartman was dead. He was a young man nearly 16 years of age, and loved by his associates. The grief-stricken parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their sorrow. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. T. H. P. Anderson, in the United Church, on Saturday afternoon, and was largely attended. The remains were conveyed to Sydenham and laid to rest in the family plot. Sprays and wreaths were given as follows: Young Men's Class; High School; Public School; High School Board; Max Miles; Stewart Gandier; Angus Harrison; Bessie and Birden Leonard; Miss Bottomley; Mr. and Mrs. George Walker; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wartman; Mr. and Mrs. Davey; Mr. and Mrs. Detlor and family; Mabel and Harry McNeely; Marion Storey and Bernice Bowerman; Dorothy and Ted Breene; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker; Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Scott. The pall bearers were Stewart Gandier, Max Miles, Angus Harrison, Fred Ballard, Carmen Hyland, and Wilmot Ballance. Flowers were carried by Cameron Sherry, Maxwell Flinn, Dean Vandervoort and Fred Lucas.

Out of town friends who attended the funeral of the late Jack Wartman were Mr. and Mrs. H. Ballard, Napanee; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ballard, Tamworth; Mr. and Mrs. Casement, Bath; Mr. and Mrs. Ross Wartman, Sydenham; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sills and family; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sills and Mr. and Mrs. Adam Davey, Sydenham; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Detlor and Mr. Charles Detlor, Napanee; Mr. and Mrs. McNeely and Mrs. Arch McNeely, Mr. Harvey McNeely, Kingston; Mrs. Leonard and daughter, Bessie, Yarker.

TWO CANADIANS ELECTED IN BRITAIN

London, May 30th.—Up to 2 a.m. two Canadians had been elected and one defeated in the general elections. Col. Grant Morden, native of Prince Edward County, Ontario, and founder of the Canada Steamship Lines, was re-elected Conservative member for Brentford and Chiswick. The former Canadian army officer was opposed by Dr. Stella Churchill, Labor, and Capt. John Stevenson, Liberal.

A. W. Haycock, who was born in Casaraqui, Ont., was elected in Salford West, where he made a gain for Labor from Conservatives. He is a son of Joseph Haycock, former leader of the Patrons of Industry.

Brig.-General Alfred Cecil Critchley, D.S.O., native of Calgary, Alta., was defeated in a three-cornered contest in Gorton, Manchester.

General Critchley was a poor second to J. Compton, Labor member in the last house for Gorton, Manchester. Compton polled 22,056 votes, Critchley 10,664, and Mrs. Beatrice Bayfield, Liberal nominee, lost her deposit by polling only 3,385 votes.

WEDDING BELLS.

Venton—Conners.

A quiet wedding took place at the United Church Parsonage, at Odessa, on Saturday, June 1st, at 9.30 o'clock, when Rev. Mr. McQuade united in marriage Miss Evelyn Violet, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conners, of Wilton, to Mr. George H. Venton, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Venton, of Odessa.

The happy couple were attended by Miss Lizzie Venton, sister of the groom, and Mr. Douglas Bell, of Montreal, Quebec.

The bride looked pretty dressed in a sapphire flat crepe dress, with French beige hat, shoes and hose to match.

The happy couple left immediately after the wedding dinner, which was prepared at the Princess Cafe, for Fulton, N.Y., and other parts of the States. The bride travelled in a navy and sand flat crepe dress with coat to match.

CHECKLEY NAMED SYNOD SECRETARY

E. R. Checkley, Montreal, was elected secretary of the Anglican Synod of the diocese of Ontario, Wednesday, after a third ballot had been taken. He was elected with a majority of 13 votes over Canon J. W. Jones, present secretary. The first ballot taken on Tuesday was not in accordance with the canons of the diocese and it was found necessary to take two more today.

The present method of electing the secretary was scored by Bishop C. A. Seager, who said this system was a "relic of a bygone age". There should be a change in every diocese in the country" he said. "To ask a business man to accept such a position, or to ask a clergyman to give up his living in order to accept such an enormous position, knowing he may be kicked out on to the street at the end of the year, is absolute nonsense," he declared.

Following further denouncement of the method of electing the secretary for only one year, by Very Rev. Dean W. W. Craig, it was decided to move a resolution in Synod with a view to amending the existing canon to place the appointment of a secretary in the hands of the executives.

The Synod Wednesday endorsed the action of the General Synod in connection with the Anglican Communion Extension fund.

J. W. CLARK, Reeve. LEONARD T. PARKS, Clerk.

BY-LAW NO. 8.

A By-law of the Municipal Corporation of the Township of North Fredericksburgh to authorize the Head and Treasurer of the said Township to borrow the sum of Three Thousand Dollars, to meet the current ordinary expenditure of the Corporation during the year 1929.

Whereas this Council of the Municipal Corporation of the Township of North Fredericksburgh, deems it necessary in order to meet the current ordinary expenditure of the Corporation during the year 1929, to borrow the sum of Three Thousand Dollars, ($3,000).

Now, therefore, be it, and it is hereby enacted:—

1. The Head and Treasurer of the Corporation of the Township of North Fredericksburgh are hereby authorized to borrow from the Dominion Bank the sum of Three Thousand Dollars, ($3,000) being the amount required to meet the current ordinary expenditure of the Corporation for the current year.

2. In security for said sum the said Head and Treasurer are hereby authorized to issue a promissory note or notes of this Corporation, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of Three Thousand Dollars, and to sign the same on behalf of the Corporation and attach its Corporate Seal thereto, the said note or notes to be made payable to the order of the Dominion Bank and to be delivered to the said Bank in security for the sum or sums advanced by it pursuant to this By-law, such note or notes to bear interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, and to be payable at the office of the said Bank in the Town of Napanee, at such time or times as in the discretion of the said Head and Treasurer may appear advisable.

Passed in open Council, this 6th day of May, A.D. 1929.

J. W. CLARK, Reeve. LEONARD T. PARKS, Clerk.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

"You say your son was cured of his wildness by an operation?" asked the great surgeon.

"Yes, that's what I said," replied the wealthy man.

"That's interesting; what was the operation?" demanded the surgeon.

"I cut off his allowance and made him go to work," smiled the wealthy man.

For Rheumatic Pains.—The pains and aches of Sciatica and Rheumatism should be treated with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. The soothing and healing properties of this famous remedy have been demonstrated for fifty years. Use it also for inflammatory pains, cuts, scratches, bruises and sprains, either in human beings or the lower animals.

It was a lecture about modern women, being delivered by a modern woman at the club. One of the speaker's chief points concerned the modern, commonsense style of woman's dress.

"Do you know," she cried to her own sex, "that our present-day style of sensible clothing has reduced our accidents on trains, cars and busses by at least 50 per cent?"

She paused to let this sink in and it gave a long-suffering young man his opportunity.

"You'll excuse me," he said politely, "but why not do away with accidents altogether?"

For Both House and Stable.—There is a good deal of similarity, physically speaking, between human beings and the lower animals. Both are subject to many ailments arising from inflammation and to all manner of cuts and bruises. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is an entirely reliable remedy for such ailments and mishaps in both human beings and the lower orders of animals.

Mrs. Jiggins, who was reading a newspaper, observed to her husband that it contained an article entitled, "Women Work for the Feeble-Minded." Mr. Jiggins, who was in a reactionary mood, said: "I should like to know what women have ever done for the feeble-minded." "They usually marry them, my dear," replied Mrs. Jiggins sweetly.

Many mothers have reason to bless Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator because it has relieved the little ones of suffering and made them healthy.

Recruiting Sergeant (to weedy-looking specimen who wishes to join the army):—"Sorry, but you don't look that type that could do much fighting."

Weedy Specimen—"What d'yer mean fightin'? What's the League of Nations for?"

Whether the corn be of old or new growth, it must yield to Holloway's Corn Cure.

A young woman was being cross-examined in court.

"How old are you?" asked the judge. She hesitated.

"Don't hesitate," he said, "every second makes it worse."

Miller's Worm Powders will drive worms from the system without injury to the child. The powders are so easy to take that the most delicate stomach can assimilate them and welcome them as speedy means of pain, because they promptly remove the worms that cause the pain, and thus the suffering of the child is relieved. With so sterling a remedy at hand no child should suffer an hour from worms.

Miss Vane—"I know he was talking to you about me. Now, wasn't he?"

Miss Spite—"Well, yes."

Miss Vane—"I thought I heard him remark that I had a thick head of hair."

Miss Spite—"Partly correct. He didn't mention your hair, however."

The Proven Asthma Remedy. Since asthma existed there has been no lack of much heralded remedies, but they have proved shore lived and worthless. The ever-growing reputation of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy has given it a place in the field of medicine which no other can approach. It has never been pushed by sensational methods, but has simply gone on effecting relief and making new converts.

Hubby—"We must think of the future. We ought to economize more. If I were to die, where would you be?"

Wifey—"Why, I'd be right here. The question is, where would you be?"
